Dear Sir,

I am very sorry to find that the expense, four guineas a week, is more than you can rightly meet.

I will submit your letter to the Committee when they next meet, on the 16th, and see what can be done.

The difficulty is that Miss Winifred Hutchinson is a very trying patient and needs continuous care and she has a special night nurse. We hardly feel it safe, just at present, to withdraw the nurse at night, but I hope it can be soon be arranged, and then there will be no difficulty about making a reduction of fees. I am sorry she is not showing any signs of improvement.

Yours very truly,

10, Pontefract Road,
Barnsley.

Dear Fryer,

Miss Hutchinson has left Throxenby Hall. She went away to attend the wedding as she was so nicely.

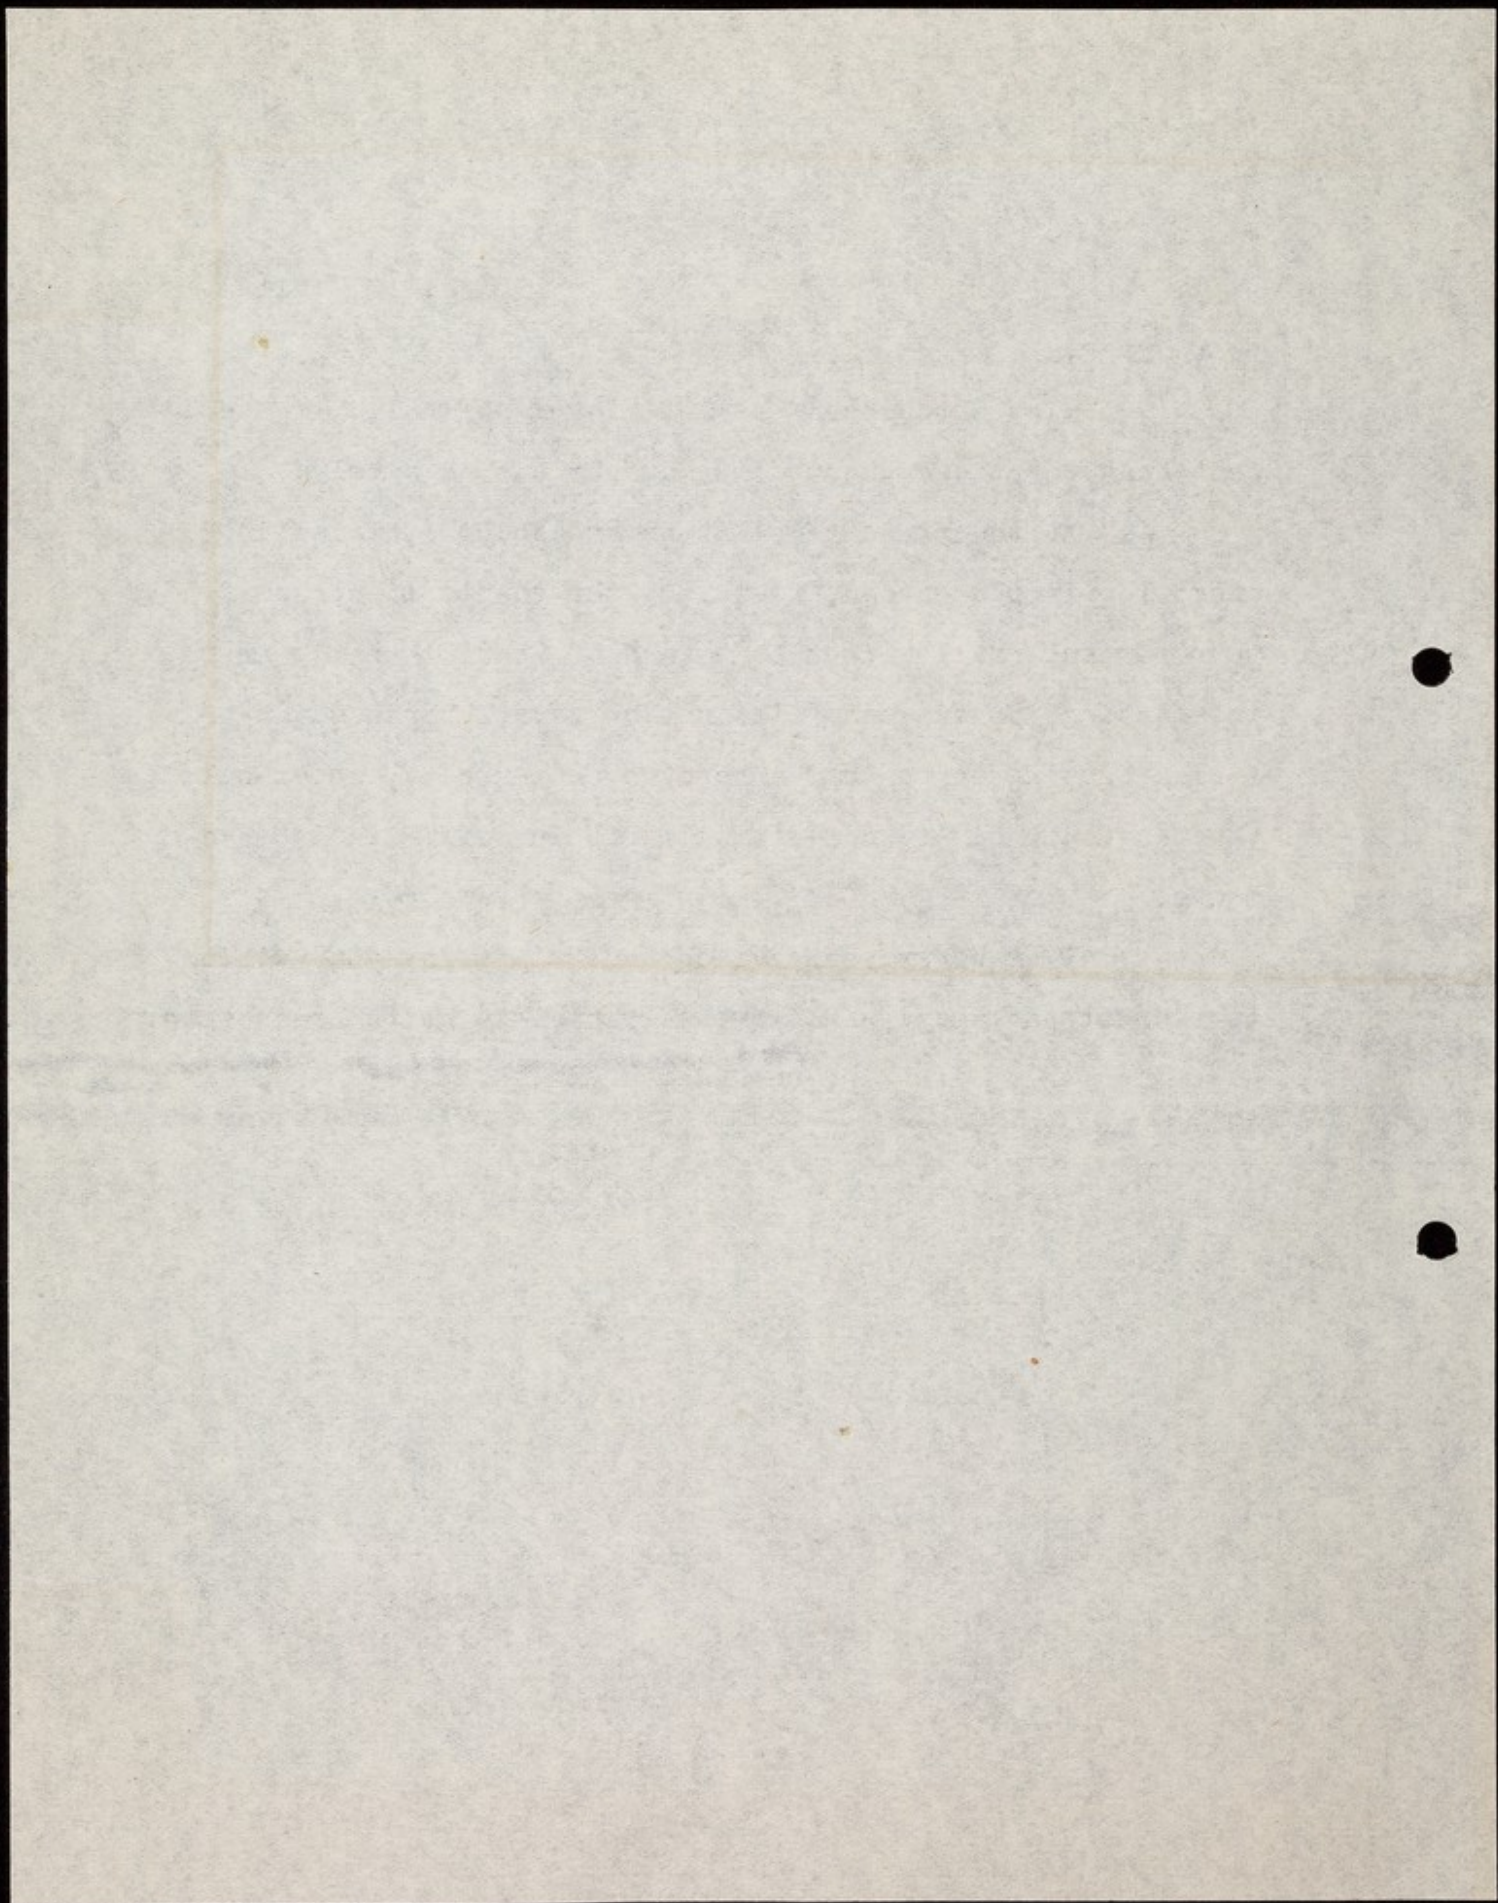

At the present moment we are doing a levelling operation in the garden, re-laying the tennis lawn; so if your patient really likes this kind of work, there is an interesting job on which will not be very laborious.

I am proposing to go to Scarborough on Thursday, and should that day suit him to come it will fit in well with my movements.

I am sorry you have chosen Friday for your visit to the Retreat, as I shall probably have to go to Leeds then.

With kind regards,

Yours very truly,

We are delighted with our daughter's recovery & thank everyone concerned.

Many thanks for your kind concession in the rate of charges which is much appreciated.

Yours faithfully,

W.W. Hutchinson

Dr. Bedford Pierce

Dear Sir,

I herewith enclose
Bank Notes value £50
on acc, & will send the balance later.

I fear the £4-4-0
per week will prove too much for me to pay for a longer period, it being nearly half my salary.
I am quite satisfied
that you are doing all
