TEMPLE CHAMBERS,
ST JAMES'S SQUARE,
MANCHESTER.

Dear Dr Bedford Pierce,

I enclose cheque £27

& will send on any balance which may be owing on receipt of account.

We are expecting my brother home on the 31st inst.

He seems to have been very happy & contented while with you & has written home very cheerfully & sensibly He has I believe got some idea about getting some work, but is rather reticent about the nature of it.

I believe if he would get some regular employment that he was interested in he would be all right.

You might send me a line regarding his general condition

With kind regards

Yours truly,

J. H. Dunlop

These questions were asked us by my brother when he was at home. Will you talk to him yourself on the subject which I fancy he does not like to broach to you himself?

Dear Dr: Pierce,

My Mother, Mrs.
Lings, has asked me
to write to you for her about my brother, Mr.
Lings, who is with you at present.

She hears that you suggest that he should remain at York for three more months. She is willing that he should do so if he wishes but would be very glad if you would tell her if you consider that his treatment has already benefited him & in & what way a prolonged stay will do him good.

Are you likely to be in Manchester soon & if so could you see Mrs.
Lings?

Yours truly,

Helen Massey Franklin.

Dear Sir,

I am obliged to you for your letter of 29th & entirely concur with you in that it is undesirable for my nephew to resume intercourse with his Italian acquaintances.
Towards this end, I think it advisable that he should not go to 9

Manchester at present & as I understand that the primary object of his proposed absence from the retreat for a day or two was to see a friend in Liverpool, I am suggesting to his mother that she should write to him to go direct to Liverpool & return also direct to the Retreat. I do not think it wise for you to mention the Italians to my nephew.
Yours truly Scott Kings

Dear Sir,

I enclose cheque value
£20 on acc of my brother
E. M. Sims.

With reference to the paper you have sent me to sign I suppose I am correct in assuming that the sum of £5.5.0 per week is an inclusive charge, as when I agreed to those terms I was quite under the impression that this was the case.

Doctor Scowcroft of Bheadle who recommended me to your hospital gave me £4.4.0
weekly as an outside figure for your charges & tho' I agreed (on my Father's behalf) to the higher amount I want to be sure that there will be no

"extras"

Yours faithfully,
J. A. Dingy
