is due to the Retreat for the arrear - & I am today writing to Russell Martin on the subject asking how much he can pay but I must do anything till I know the amount -

I am sure also you will forgive me if I say I think it would be wise to let monthly meetings know in cases where they have guaranteed that payments shall be made - as soon as

Dear Friend

was greatly obliged your letter of 13 ulto, informing me of the removal of Paulina A Martin from the Retreat & I was ~~also~~ very sorry to hear of the illness of Bedford Price & hope he is now quite recovered -

You do not say how much

The amendments fall into areas. It takes some time of course to get any thing settled by a monthly meeting - but apparently the first information ^{as this committee the only due} what from you has your letter of 6 Nov. When a meeting was in correspondence with Mr. Alexander in July - but even at the late date the amendments ^{seen there} to about $27.
You will see that the committee is that The amendments I will look up as they fall due - & I think we should have taken steps sooner but we know better. Please forgive my writing this I am not complaining of this case only promising to make a suggestion - I suspect the meeting will have to pay all the costs - Yours faithfully
