sleeps and eats well, but seems to have no desire to get up or to do anything.
I think on the whole it will be best for her to be discharged and I shall be glad if you will do what is necessary. I don't think she will ever be able to return to the Retreat.

Dear Dr Pierce.

In reply to your letter of the 7th. My Mother has stayed in bed almost entirely since last October, and imagines she is very ill, but is really considering her age fairly well, she week or two. If you think it advisable I could fetch her next Saturday.

Dear Dr Pierce.

I should be glad to hear from you
as to when you think Mrs Hamden may return home, her letters are much better the last

thinking of coming over to York on Saturday next to see my Mother, if you think my seeing her will not do her any harm.

Dear Dr Pierce.

I shall be
as to how Mrs Ramsden is, and whether you can form any opinion of the time she will have to stay with you. I am
