Prof. Pierce

Thanks for your letter this morning & I note that you will send me Cheque for balance due me after your next Committee Mtg -

The expenses referred to were outside of household
I think she (my sister) is very proud of the

had remained as thoroughly
I admit what you say
"at her not being a cheerful or contented member of the household" but I thought it was part of the disease to be so. -

Her sister is still ~~not~~ improving under Electric Baths &c. in a private home here in Belfast -

to friend

I shall be glad to receive the balance due to my sister Sarah Thomson's care -

I have not got the dates of her entrance or exit but presume you have -

Yours affectionately to understand why you chg

the Bromides case & I put her out in so short a time - I put us to a good deal of expense which we might have avoided had we known that her time at Throstlebury is so short -

Owing to her being sent back home to another Sister suddenly effected I have had to bring the other sister away from her & she is at present undergoing Electric treatment

here in Belfast with considerable success -
She is much improved with 2 weeks treatment

Kindly send me a copy for balance due with

Dear Dr. Pierce.

Cousin Annie Gillett of Banbury is staying here just now & is wishful that you should see Miss Sarah Shemeld, who is also staying here & is being attended by Dr. Handcock, who will write you as to her illness &c. & explain the case & position of affairs —

It would suit best if you could call on Thursday next, either on your way to, or return from the north.

With kindest regards —

Yours sincerely
Edgar H. Bunting.

Dear Edgar Bunting,

I hope to be at the Throxenby Committee on Thursday afternoon, and could readily call to see Miss Sarah Shemeld before I return to York. It will take a little fitting in as I have two other patients to see as well as those at Throxenby, and I cannot go over until the mid-day train.

No doubt I shall hear from Dr. Hancock as to the time that will suit him.

Dear Miss Elkins

Miss Sarah Shemeld arrived here safely in care of my wife.

I regret to find no improvement in her condition from time I left her at Throesby in all day. I must consult our Physicians here in course of few days.

I think you must hold your tradesman responsible for loss caused by neglect to meet your order for conveyance. This must be to your settlement.

I shall be glad of remittance of out-of-pocket expenses. Mrs Shemeld's expenses, travelling & Hotel Cost £7-5-0. the loss to

Dear Sir,

In consequence of the cab not being in time to take a patient to the Seabrook Station from Hove Hall last Saturday week we have received a claim from the patient's friends for £2. 5. 0 being out of pocket expenses incurred in coming for the patient. It had been arranged for the patient to travel with some acquaintances who were leaving Seabrook by the mixed train. Under the circumstances we consider that the

Dr Bedford Pierce

Dear Sir

I received your letter this morning and regret the condition of my sister Sarah Shemeld as I had hoped her residence at Throsenby would have resulted in her restoration to health.

We (my brother Albert in Ireland and I) thought you had seen her at Scarborough at Mr Buntings previous to our going there and expressed your opinion of her being restored to usual health in few months. I must say I am greatly disappointed at the result. What can be done for her?

I am in Communication with my Brother and will make arrangements for her early removal. it must take a few days to do this, as my brother is in the north of Ireland & will not be able to help for some few days at least.

Perhaps you would kindly inform me your opinion of the Case. as we can hardly form an opinion from the Remarks you made in your letter. is the failure on the patients part. or do you suggest the patient is past your help.

It is very distressing to us

Yours sincerely

Dear Friend

I thank you for letter in reference to my sister Sarah now at Thoresby Hall.

My brother Albert residing in Belfast will take all financial responsibility in regard to our sister's stay there.
With other matters in reference to health &c I should glad of an occasional letter. I don't know your rules in these matters, but naturally we of the family are very anxious to hear of progress being made

My brother & I are actually engaged in small business. and could only leave home for few days to see our sister comfortably settled at Thoresby.
Kindly accept from our family our best thanks for your kindly interest & care

Dear Friend,

The Committee of the Retreat will require some arrangement made respecting the payments for Miss Shemeld who is a voluntary boarder at Throxenby Hall.

I understand that she is unable to pay the ordinary terms, three guineas a week and that it will be necessary to admit her at a reduced rate. If this be so a proper application must be made to the Committee of the Retreat through me, stating the reasons why a reduction is asked for and the amount of reduction necessary.

We think Miss Shemeld is rather better since she has been at Throxenby. She looks well, and is undoubtedly sleeping better than she did.

Yours very truly,
