Dear Mr. Smith,

I am exceedingly pleased to hear from your daughter that Mrs. Smith is so well, and it is a pleasure to send the formal notice of discharge.

Yours very truly,

Dear Dr Kemp,

In reply to your letter, we think Mother may safely be discharged "Recovered." She does sundry household duties, cooks, sews, and does the mending. She is much brighter and talks much more than when she first came home.

The only drawback is that she is very unwilling to go out. I think she does not like
to meet her old friends,
but that will wear off.

Today she has been more cheerful and well than she has ever been since coming home.

Yours truly
Maude Smith.

account. I am pleased to say she keeps very nicely and wishes to be remembered to you and to Miss Thomasson.

Thanking you for your kindness to my mother,

I remain

Yours Sincerely
Claude Smith.

Dear Mr. Turner,

Mrs. S.H. Smith

I do not think this lady has sufficiently improved yet to justify her transacting business.

She is slowly on the mend, but I do not think it well to trouble her with business matters.

Yours very truly,

Dear Madam,

Mrs. Smith is slowly becoming clearer, and she takes rather more interest in things than she did.

Unfortunately I shall not be able to see you if you come on Thursday, as I have to attend a Committee in Scarborough, relative to our branch house there.
