Dear Dr. Pierce,

I fell in with my old friend Richard Snow as I came down this morning and found him in sad trouble, as his wife goes to the Retreat today. He asked me to write to you, which I am glad to do though ^{I know} you will give as much care without a letter as with.

Richard Snow is a man I have known all my life. He is an old Methodist of the best sort, a God-fearing man, and feels this affliction terribly, His wife has been his mighty helper!

I hope you and Mrs. Pierce are well.

With kind regards,

Yours faithfully,

Alfred H. Taylor
