Dear Dr. Pierce,

I enclose cheque
for £17. 13. 6 in settlement of my sister's life, and again I express my thanks to you for all your kindness to her.
All the arrangements
you made for her fur-

veral were perfectly satisfactory to me.

I hope the nurses
will be allowed to accept the little present I sent them the other day.
I also wish to send Miss Thomason some little mementos of her. Will there be any objections to my doing so?

With very kind regards

I am sincerely yours

Dear Dr. Pearce,

I take the first opportunity I have of writing to say how entirely satisfactory
all the arrangements
you made for my dear sister's funeral were, and how much

I thank you for all the staff; and I shall certainly never forget your trouble you took. And I wish to express my grateful thanks for your care and attention to her while she was our inmate of the Retreat. I know that everything that could possibly be done for her was done by you and all your kindness to myself and my daughter on the closing day of her life.

Please remember me to Dr. Hays, and believe me very sincerely yours

W. L. Percival.

Dear Dr. Pierce,

I enclose cheque
for £32 - 14 - 11 in payment of my sister's acc.

I see from the report
sent to me that she continues to talk more than she used to do, but I suppose it is just in the same way in which she has talked to me in her the last few times that I have been to see her.

Am. I right in thinking that there is not yet any great clearing up in her mental condition?

I thank you very much for the care you take of her bodily health, and for always letting me know when you think there is any change

With kind regards
Believe me
Sincerely yours
W. L. Percival.
