ENCLO

J. P. STURGE & SONS.
Land Agents & Surveyors.
TELEPHONE 1819.

33, Corn Street.
Bristol. 7th July 1907

Dear Friend,

Thank you for your letter -

With reference to Mrs. Wheeler. the Monthly Meeting is responsible and I will see that the Ap. is passed at the next meeting of the General Committee -

The husband is an unsuccessful man & I doubt whether he can pay at present. This I believe him to be honest.

Referring to Selina Thomas.
I find that the Bristol Authorities admit that she would be entitled to be admitted to the Asylum²³ here if she were brought to her Father's house.

Would it be possible for you to get her into the care of the York Guardians with the view of their transferring her to the Bristol Guardians? If this cannot be done would you advise me how best to get her sent home? We are quite prepared to pay the necessary expenses, but it would be easier if the transfer can be managed between the two bodies of Guardians rather than that she should have to be sent to her home first.

I remain

Yours very truly
J. P. Sturge
