Dear Sir

We thank you for your letter enclosing copy particulars of the payments made to your Agent on behalf of the late Mr & Beadington Whitling & now have the pleasure to send you our cheques for £11. 1. 0 which please acknowledge. On looking at the particulars we notice that no two payments are alike. Will you kindly explain to us the reason for these discrepancies?

Dear Sir,

We are acting for Miss Whiting of The Cottage Pepper Hill Stourbridge in regard to the winding up of her late Mother's and Brothers Estates and she informs us that for several years her Brother, Mr. Beavington Whiting, was an inmate of your Retreat. She is very desirous of having particulars of the payments made by her Brother-in-law the late Mr. Henry Whitten in respect of her Brother's maintenance from the period when he first entered the Retreat until his death. Will you please therefore be good enough to permit your Secretary to get out particulars shewing the amounts paid and the dates of payment. We are aware this will entail some search and clerical work and shall be pleased to forward a fee of One Guinea in respect thereof.

Thanking you in anticipation.

We are,

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

As Administrator of the estate of my deceased brother Beadington Whiting I beg to enclose cheque £39.11.9 in full payment of your account to his debit.

Having to account for all my brother's belongings I shall feel much obliged for a detailed list from the Secretary of the wearing apparel and any other things my brother may have left with you at his death.

I am

Yours truly

Dear friend,

In accordance with promise I now reply to your business circular dated 19th November last which (allow me to say) is conceived in ~~a~~ a very admirable spirit and expressed in faultless terms.

Well, I cannot say that the suggested increase in B. Whiting's payments from £2.2.0
to £2.10.0 weekly
would — at any rate

at the present ~~time~~ moment — "mean an undue strain on his resources or those of his relatives", and I therefore hereby express my cheerful acquiescence in the proposal of the Committee, although I think the new terms reach the limit of
