Dear Everley Taylor,

We are sending in the account for Mr. Wilks, and I think we shall be justified in charging the family for a part, at any rate, of the fees for your attendance. May I ask you to let us know what fees are owing since your last account.

I was very pleased to hear that Miss Turnbull had done so well. Evidently Throxenby Hall filled a very useful place in this instance.

Yours very truly,

Dear D. Peice.

I intended telephoning to let you know that after some slight difficulties we got the certificates for Daddy's case all signed & away in time - but it was late when I got back from Scar. & I had yet my packing to do. S. Taylor was most kind in doing everything to help -

I am thankful it happened before I left, & we cannot feel sad over the event, tho' we shall miss the dear old gentleman very much. He has been our constant anxiety for many months & was always so peaceful & sweet.

I left at 8.55 a.m. on Sat. Connie Brightwell travelled to Keep X. with me. On her way to see the new nephew - My brother, his wife & the family are all flourishing. I am so glad the children have not yet gone back to school - The boys, I have not seen for 2 years. They are very grown up, & nice boys.

I hope all will go smoothly at Thro. while I am away. I'm sure S. Lucy & R. Goddard will do their best. & I hope to come back feeling very fit -

With kindest regards to Mr. My brother & his wife John & my love to D. Peice. Mr. & Mrs. Hamilton

Yours truly
Edith A. Elphinstone

Dear Sir,

I have much to acknowledge you for the morning & to thank you for your kind expression of appreciation of these efforts on behalf of Mr. Wilks.

With regard to the increase in the rental statement it appears to be due to the dining which Mr. Wilks has able to take. During the three quarters this year the amount was 1st quarter

2nd	1. 16.0
3rd	5. 4. 3.

Yours faithfully

Dear Dr Bedford Pierce

I enclose cheque for the amount due. It is considerably in excess of previous accounts but I suppose it is due to the extra nursing, and Druffre is unavoidable. We much appreciate all the care and attention bestowed, and feel that you are doing everything possible for his comfort.

Yours truly

Dear Dr Bedford Pierce,

I was very pleased to hear from you this morning, and to know that my father is quite as favourable as possible and that he is comfortable.

We feel relieved that he is in such good hands and that he does not appear to be suffering much.

At my last visit he seemed for a short time to be almost himself in some of his thoughts.
We expect to see him again shortly, and no doubt should hear of any change for the worse.

With my regards
Yours very sincerely

Dear Mr. Kenzie,

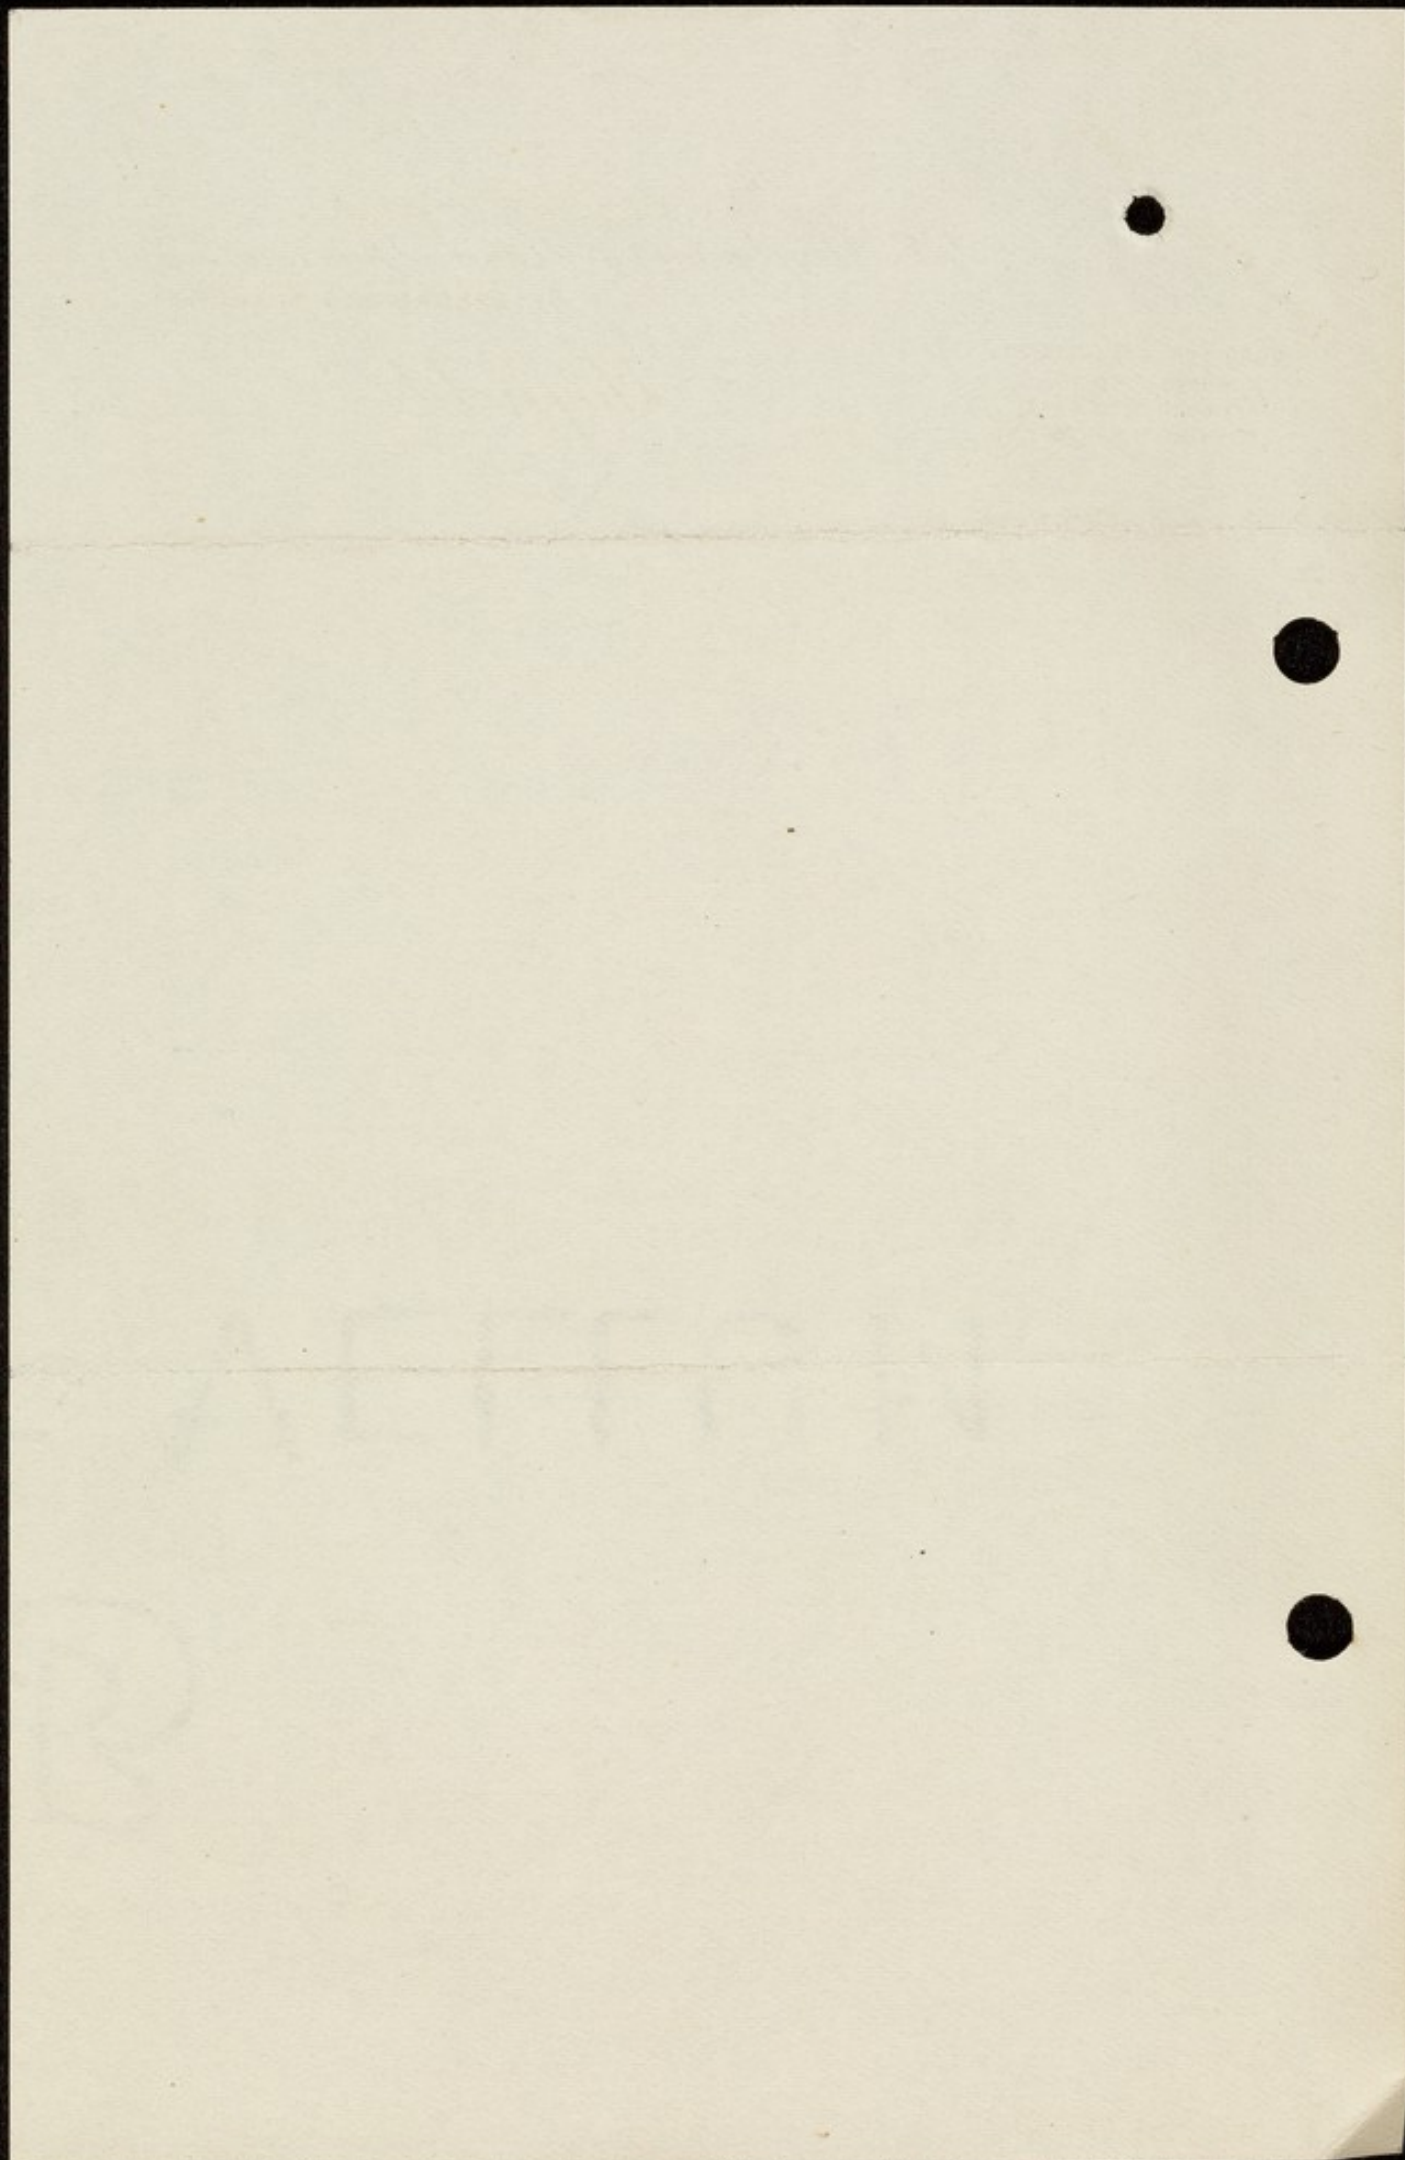

I desire to thank you for your letter in reference to my father at Scarborough. He seems to be gradually failing, and we are naturally concerned about him.

We feel that he is in good hands and that all is being done for him and I trust that he is not suffering much.

With kind regards

Yours faithfully

J. H. Wick.

Dear D. Price,

In answer to your questions about W. Wilks.
1. I don't think definite orders were given that W. Wilks was to be under constant supervision, but we all understood that he must never be left for more than a minute or so - & when in the confused state he is in at times, that he must not be left at all - When Hutchinson is on duty a nurse is constantly with him & he is not left -

2. Hutchinson was waiting with W. Wilks until the night nurse came, as Anne Pallister had told him that it was Miss Dumbach.

with her so could not wait in the room with Mr. Wilks as she usually does - 3. Hutchinson left the room as he thought the night nurse would soon be there, & came down to the billiard room for a cigarette -

When I asked him why he left before the night-nurse came? he said - He had times the ladies came in to the fire & he thought perhaps they might be coming - Ration feeble

Ward Pierce

I was very pleased to hear from you as to my father's condition. On learning of the attack we saw him as soon as possible but the rush was then over.

We feel grateful for the attention he receives and we are anxious that he should have every care.

I am glad that extra supervision in nursing is being arranged for - time and I trust you will not hesitate to incur extra expense whenever you think it necessary.

I should hate to think that we - his children - were shirking our responsibilities in any way.
He, of course, does not personally want our presence owing to his mental condition. I have not seen Dr. Bailey Taylor, but your opinion that he may be trusted to do all that is necessary is very reassuring.

With renewed thanks for your care and solicitation in the past.

I am,

Yours very sincerely,

J. H. Wells.

Dear Dr. Price.

Dr. Wilks had a very nasty heart attack this morning - I had Dr. Taylor up, he says the heart is very dilated - we are to keep him quiet - & has prescribed for him I should he have another attack -

Dear Mr. Bedford Pierce,

I am writing with reference to my father, P. J. Lewis, who is at present at Scarborough.

My last visit found him considerably deaf and conversation difficult.

I should like to ask if you will kindly watch the papers, and if you think It is advisable, let an Animal Surgeon see him.

He seems very well in other respects and more inclined to take interest.

With kind regards.

Dear Mr Bedford Peirce

I am writing to say that I have thought of coming to see you if you could give advice with reference to the management of my father's affairs (P. J. Lewis)

By this I mean as to whether his children should apply to the Commissioners of Lunacy. I thought you would have had actual experience of their methods and know whether

The result is — satisfactory one in most cases and whether it involves much expense.

My two brothers manage my father's business, and would like to take steps to acquire possession. Of course we consult the family thereof — but I don't think his experience is great in Luncheon Cases. If not trouble — too much, and if you could advise in the matter I should be pleased to come and see you.

I suppose my father is at Scarbro and therefore could not be seen at the same time.

With kind regards

Yours sincerely

J. W. Davis.
