ADVERTISEMENT.

IN bringing before the Public the following Collection of Books for Sale, few prefatory observations are necessary. The Collection, generally speaking, is well known. But in a description of its component parts, several scarce editions, and several other articles extremely rare, may claim particular notification; which accordingly the present Catalogue affords.

Of this Collection, the foundation was laid by the late amiable and accomplished owner himself. It had been accumulated during the last thirty years; and rose to the excellence which it exhibits, and to the reputation which it has enjoyed, under his zeal, care, and taste, to render it remarkable for literary treasures at once instructive and curious, delightful, and magnificent; for the rude as well as beautiful, specimens of the Earliest Typography; for splendid exhibitions of the Press upon Vellum; and, in short, for examples of almost every modification which the Art of Printing has produced.

To the pursuit which had thus led Sir M. M. Sykes to the acquisition of choice Books, was joined a desire to possess the best Prints and Portraits which the Art of Engraving also has supplied; and, accordingly, the shelves of his Library were furnished, in both respects, like the room which Spenser has described in the House of Alma,

————— “ with memorable gests “ Of famous wisards ; and with picturals
 “ Of magistrates, of courts, of tribunals,
 “ Of commonwealths, of states, of policy,
 “ Of laws, of judgments, and of décrets,
 “ All arts, all science, all philosophy,
 “ And all that in the world was ay thought wittily.”

His love of collecting Prints has here been mentioned, in order that it may be observed, that to some books Sir M. M. Sykes has given additional interest by illustrating them ; by rendering the plate and page, with much care as well as elegance, subservient to each other.

While some of the following Books were procured by Sir M. M. Sykes, during his travels abroad ; many of them have before met the public eye in the dispersion of the Collections of, Major Pearson, Dr. Farmer, Steevens, Reed, the Rev. Mr. Brand, the Duke of Roxburghe, and others in this country, but especially in that of the late Mr. Edwards, (a gentleman, whose consummate taste and skill brought together many of the rarest articles we owe to typography) from which the celebrated LIVY of 1469 was obtained ; which yet preserves the character with which it was introduced to public notice, of being the only copy known of the first edition of Livy, upon vellum. In the department indeed of Ancient Classical Literature, there are here many copies, not only thus printed, either of the first edition, or by distinguished printers; but also upon large paper. Nor may the present accumulation of old English books be named without observing, that rarely have there been supplied, at one and the same time, so many means of forming a comparison of several periods of our national poetry. But upon the great variety of English articles, especially curious Historical Tracts; upon many works also in the Italian and French languages, as well as Greek and Latin, volumes might have been written, rather than the following pages; and probably would have been written, if the Collection had remained entire. The late possessor of these books collected them with a view to profit by their contents, and not to indulge the vanity which displays itself in nominal possession without real use. Several memoranda in some of them, and among his papers, serve to shew his diversified and attentive reading, his eager spirit of research, his attachment to the literary monuments of former ages, and his respect to those of our own. In his conversation also this knowledge and this love of books were very conspicuous, and rendered his observations truly gratifying, to such as were in quest of literary information, because they were always accompanied with humility and kindness; and because they always testified the frankness and liberality of his character. Respected, as a man of letters, Sir M. M. Sykes indeed was also highly valued in society for the uniform courtesy of his manners, for the constant benevolence of his heart, and for the unwearied generosity of his hand.

 THIS IS ONE OF THE MOST EXTENSIVE WORKS WHICH HAS EVER ISSUED FROM THE PRESS PRINTED UPON VELLUM. "Thomas Aquinas was a truly great genius," says Warburton, "who in those blind ages was the same in Theology, that our Friar Bacon was in Natural Philosophy. He pierced through the thickest night of Monkery, when the Waldenses were suppressed, and Wickliffe not yet risen." His works should always form an Appendage to a Classical Library, on account of his profound, lucid, and extensive Commentaries on the Physics, Metaphysics, and Ethicks of Aristotle, which form the first five volumes. A Critic of exquisite taste (Dr. Warton), has pronounced his view of Aristotle's Ethics to be "admirable and well deserving a most attentive perusal." The collectors of Books printed upon Vellum have now an opportunity of gratifying their taste which may never occur again, as I believe the only other copy which exists is that in the King of France's Library. For I strongly suspect that this is the identical copy presented by Pope Pius V. to the King of Spain, and deposited in the Library of the Escorial, from whence it appears to have been obtained during the Revolution, as the old morocco covers (which probably contained the Arms of Spain,) appear to be cut off to conceal the fact. It is certain that the Plantin Polyglot Bible on Vellum, was so obtained from the Escorial.

THE POPE'S ARMS ARE EMBLAZONED ON A LEAF OF EACH VOLUME, as in the King of France's copy.

- * * This is ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL PRODUCTIONS OF THE PRESS OF JOHN DE COLONIA. I have not been able to discover any other copy printed upon vellum, but that which is in the King of France's Library. This copy was a present from the Duke Di Cassano Serra to the late Mr. Edwards. The Initial Letter at the commencement of each Book is painted in Gold and Colours.

 This very rare Book is THE THIRD PRODUCTION OF THE PRESS OF THE MONASTERY AT SOUBIACO.

28. 10 — 328 AUGUSTINUS DE ARTE PREDICANDI.

 This Edition is without date or place; but the name of the Printer is satisfactorily ascertained from the preliminary Epistle of the Editor. He informs us that HE COMMITTED THE MANUSCRIPT "DIS-CRETO VIRO JOHANNI MENTELIN INCOLE ARGĒ-TENESI IMPRESSORIE ARTIS MĠRO." Panzer esteems this either the first or second production of the Strasburg Press. By the general Suffrage of Bibliographers, this edition is supposed to have preceded the year 1465. In the Preliminary Epistle the Reader is told he may easily make references
"per pĕnam in margĭbs nigro vl rubro colore." A certain proof of the work being a production of the Infancy of Printing. Even Fust's Edition has these references.

CHRYSTOSOMI HOMILIÆ SUPER MATHEUM, In Latinum editæ a Trapezontio. Evidently the Production of Mentelin's Press. In Earl Spencer's Copy the Rubri-cator has added the Date of "1466 Argent." It is remarkable that Mr. Cracherode's Copy of the First Work (St. Austin) has the same date added by the Rubricator.

The Two Works are bound together in the Original Wooden Binding, and are REMARKABLY FINE COPIES.

17. 17 — 329 Augustinus de Mirabilibus Sacræ Scripturæ. A very early Edition without date, place or name of the Printer; but Earl Spencer has ascertained that it is "printed in the Characters used by Nicholas Ketelaer and Gherard de Leempt at Utrecht in the year 1473." See a Description of this Edition in Bibliotheca Spenceriana, vol. 1, pages 188, 189, and 190.

99. 10. — 475 BIBLIA SACRA LATINA, 2 vol. FIRST EDITION OF THE HOLY SCRIPTURES, AND THE FIRST BOOK EXECUTED BY THE INVENTORS OF PRINTING WITH METAL TYPES. A most splendid and Magnificent Copy, bound in black morocco, PRINTED at Mentz by Gutenberg and Fust between the years 1450 and 1455.

 This Edition is generally known by the name of the MAZARINE BIBLE, from the discovery of a Copy in Cardinal Mazarine's Library by that Eminent Bibliographer Debure. It is printed in double columns in imitation of the Large Letters employed by the Scribes in the Church Missals and Choir Books. It must always form the most Prominent Feature in a Collection of Books of the XVth Century, for what Book can be more interesting to the Collector than the First Production of the Art of Printing?

Rivington

In contemplating this Work, the mind is lost in astonishment, that the Inventors of Printing should by a single effort have exhibited the Perfection of their Art. The firmness of the paper, the brightness of the Ink, the exact uniformity of the impression, have never been surpassed. Trithemius says in his Chronicle, that he was TOLD BY PETER SCHOIFFER, (the Partner and Son-in-law of Fust) that this Edition was executed about the year 1450, and that the expenses incurred in the Printing were so enormous, that 4000 florins were expended before 12 sheets had been printed.

I NEVER SAW A COPY FINER THAN THIS.

 ONE OF THE RAREST BOOKS IN EXISTENCE. The only copy known to be in England besides this is Earl Spencer's. The late Mr. Horn of Ratisbon, whose Consummate Knowledge of Books printed in the XVth Century has never been surpassed, wrote thus to his Lordship from Ratisbon, Aug. 13, 1801. " I have the honor of informing your Lordship that I sent off by this day's letter-post, Your OFFICES, by Zel; on the acquisition of which I beg leave to congratulate your Lordship: as THIS AND THE MEDITATIONES JOAN. DE TURRECREMATA, BY HAN, MCCCCLXVII. ARE THE SCARCEST OF ALL PRINTED BOOKS. Panzer had never been able to obtain a sight of this edition, but inserts a notice of it from the communication of the Abbé Maugerard, who says, " OMNIUM ILLAM ESSE PRIMAM, eamque Moguntina antiquiorem patere videtur ex vitis, quibus illa scatet. Expressa sine dubio fuit hæc editio ex Manuscripto exemplari, quod cum difficile legeret typographus vel editor, factum est, ut non solum multa verba, spatio relicto omitteret, sed et plurima vitiose exprimeret. Verisimile igitur est editionem Moguntinam anni 1465, eo tempore, quo hæc imprimebatur, nondum extitisse, aut editorem illam ignorasse, quod tamen non facile credendum est, cum Colonia non nisi XXXV. horis a Moguntina distet,

 This is a Tract of Extraordinary Rarity, and a Great Typographical Curiosity. I am not aware that there is any other copy of it in England. Earl Spencer possesses an impression of it in the German Language. It is evidently from the Press of Fust and Schoyffer, and printed with the types of the Durandus of 1459. It is without date, but must have been printed at the close of the year 1463, or beginning of 1464, for otherwise the occasion of printing of it (namely to raise money to undertake a war against the Turks) would have been defeated, and moreover Pius II. died in 1464. This copy consists of five leaves, but according to La Valliere's Catalogue, should have a sixth, containing the Title of the Bull in two lines.

 In page 215 the author says,
 "Players, I loue yee and your Qualitie
 As ye are Men that passtime not abus'd;
 And some I love for Painting, Poesie, &c."

In the Marginal Reference to this passage, the author puts W. S. and R. B. and Mr. Steevens considers the "Initials must doubtless have been intended for William Shakspeare and Richard Burbage, the latter of whom, in Oldys's MS. notes on Langbaine, is supposed to have been the painter of the Duke of Chandos' picture of our Bard." I have extracted this passage, because it is remarkable that Steevens, after having made the preceding application of it, should deny the authenticity of the Chandos Portrait of Shakspeare.

 This Work, says Mr. Dibdin, is probably the most Curious and Extraordinary Specimen of Ancient Printing. It is the First Essay of the smallest type of Fust and Schoeffer. In his Popular Antiquities, Brand styles it "An invaluable Magazine of the most interesting intelligence to the enquirer into the Origins of our popular Antiquities, and the Fountain's head of all Ecclesiastical Rites and Ceremonies." For an elaborate description of this edition, see Bibl. Spenceriana, vol. 3, p. 303.

 Specimens of the Junta Press upon Vellum are very Rare. A most Spirited and Elegant Account of Gualberto and the Romantic Circumstances which led him to found the Monastery of Valembrosa, will be found in Mr. Dibdin's Decameron, vol. 1, p. 76 to 86. He was the Composer of the Celebrated Ritual, known by the name of the Valembrosa Missal. In vol. 2, p. 267 of the Decameron, Mr. Dibdin says, Bandini (the Historian of the Junta Press) mentions a copy of it upon Vellum in his own Collection, to which is subjoined a Summary of the Rules of the Valembrosal Order, &c. This is probably the same copy, as Sir M. M. Sykes purchased it during his late tour in Italy.

 longed to Mr. Bindley, at whose sale it was purchased of me by Mr. Perry, and at his death it was again purchased of me by Sir M. M. Sykes. No Poetical volume either in Mr. Bindley's or Mr.

 more ardent competition than this very curious volume. The PORTRAIT IS A GREAT DESIDERATUM TO THE GRANGER COLLECTORS.

163. 16 — 1613 OFFICIUM BEATÆ MARIE VIRGINIS. A MOST SPLENDID AND EXQUISITE MISSAL, ENRICHED WITH PAINTINGS EXECUTED IN THE FINEST STYLE, bound in morocco, with ornamented sides.

W. Kingston

* * * This Exquisite Missal was unquestionably commenced for Francis the First. Every page is enclosed in a golden cord, and the letter F with a crown over it interspersed throughout, painted in gold, red, blue or purple. In many places are the arms of France, in others a Salamander in the Fire with his head crowned. THE ILLUMINATIONS throughout are in the highest style of art, and in the opinion of Mr. Dibdin, "CAN YIELD TO NOTHING AS SUPERIOR." From the costume in some of the paintings, it would appear that some spaces for illuminations had been left unfinished by the great Artist who commenced the painting, and to have been filled up at a later period by another who has proved himself worthy to compete with his distinguished predecessor. A most admirable description of this Beautiful Missal is given by Mr. Dibdin in his Decameron (vol. i. p. clxxvii. to p. clxxix) accompanied by an Engraving of one of the Illuminations, which the Eloquent Describer pronounces to "unite the dignity of Poussin with the tenderness of Murillio."

 This very rare and curious volume is generally considered as the second attempt in the Typographical Art, the priority being given to the Ars Memo-randi, supposed to have been executed with Wooden Blocks about the year 1430. By the suffrage of all eminent Bibliographers, it preceded many years the discovery of Printing with metal types.
An elaborate description is given in the Bibliotheca

 This is one of the most curious documents relative to English History which has ever been submitted to Public Sale. Burnet has given in his History of the Reformation a most interesting and candid account of the Transaction. It is remarkable that the whole Convocation, without a dissentient voice, declared the Marriage null, and of no force. This may be collected from all our Historians; but from this original Adjudication alone we learn the names of the Prelates and Clergy who signed the Instrument. The Report is first subscribed with the Autograph signatures of the two Archbishops (Cranmer and Lee,) followed by those of the celebrated Bonner, Bishop of London, Gardiner, Bishop of Winchester, Tunstall, Bishop of Durham, and the rest of the Bishops who were present, terminating with Thirleby (the only) Bishop of Westminster. Then follow, on the four next pages, the AUTOGRAPH SIGNATURES OF THE MEMBERS OF THE LOWER HOUSE OF CONVOCATION, FILLING SEVEN COLUMNS, closely written, commencing with the name of Dr. Gwent, Archdeacon of London, and Prolocutor of the Convocation on this important occasion, followed by a Host of Names renowned for Learning, Wisdom, and Piety. The whole is closed by the Attestations of the Public Notaries to the authenticity of the Signatures.*

Dr. Gwent, who acted as Prolocutor on this memorable occasion, subsequently received a most signal mark of Royal Favour. Henry the VIIIth granted him his Royal Licence "to use and were his bonet at all tymes as well in our presens as ells where at his libertie." I believe this fact is quite new to the Public, as the original Letter of Licence has never been printed. IT WOULD BE ENDLESS TO SPECIFY THE INTERESTING AUTOGRAPHS CONTAINED IN THIS CURIOUS DOCUMENT.

Neap. PER FRANCISCUM DE DINO, MCCCCLXXX.

 This is a volume of considerable rarity, and highly interesting to the lovers of Music as well as to Bibliographers. Panzer appears never to have seen a copy of the book. Gaffori was a Professor eminently skilled in the science and practice of Music. He eminently surpassed all his contemporaries in his knowledge of the state of Music among the ancients. He collected, commented, and translated into Latin the old Greek Writers on Music. This volume must always excite a lively interest as the FIRST TREATISE ON MUSIC WHICH ISSUED FROM THE PRESS AFTER THE INVENTION OF PRINTING. On one page is a curious wood cut of a man playing on an organ.

40. S. 6 78 HORATII OPERA OMNIA, FIRST EDITION, EXTREMELY RARE, without date, place, or name of the printer. Hope
-  The rarity of this first edition of Horace is well known. Gesner, who examined it critically, prefers it to every manuscript which he had consulted. "Scholars," says Dr. Parr, "will be the more interested in the history and description of this edition, because before the appearance of Gesner, it was the only one in which we could find the celebrated reading of pretium mentis, for per vim mentis, in v. 140, Epist. 2, lib. 2."

 "Come Drunkenesse, vntrusse," and ending
 "Ile vse thee like a Dogge, a Jewe, a Slave

472. 10 — 125 LIVII HISTORIARUM QUÆ SUPERSUNT, cum Epistola
Joannis Andreae Episcopi Aleriensis ad Paulum II
Pontificem Maximum, FIRST EDITION, PRINTED UPON VELLUM, ONE OF THE MOST MAGNIFICENT PRODUCTIONS OF THE XVTH CENTURY, IN THE ORIGINAL ORNAMENTED BINDING, - - (Romæ, MCCCCLXIX.) Paper
-  THIS SPLENDID SPECIMEN OF THE PRESS OF SWEYNHEYM AND PANNARTZ IS THE ONLY COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION OF LIVY KNOWN TO EXIST
UPON VELLUM, it is without date, but was printed in 1469. It appears by the arms at the bottom of the first page of the History to have been taken off for Alexander VI when Vice Chancellor of the Roman See and Governor of the Monastery of Sou-biaco, where Sweynheyman and Pannartz took up their abode when they introduced the Art of Printing into Italy.
- The celebrity of this volume could not be encreased by the most elaborate observations. I shall close my account with transcribing the pertinent remark of Mr. Dibdin. "Perhaps," says the learned Bibliographer, "A MORE ENVIABLE TREASURE IN THE FORM OF AN ANCIENT CLASSICAL VOLUME DOES NOT EXIST."
- This lot will be sold the last Article in this day's Sale.

 THIS IS A MOST SPLENDID AND MAGNIFICENT VOLUME, exhibiting a very interesting and accurate view of the Costume of the XVth Century, as observed in the Processions in favour of Maximilian the First. Sandrart having seen impressions from a few of these plates, pronounced them masterpieces of Art. They are indeed not less remarkable for bold and correct drawing, than for the perfection they display in the Art of engraving in wood. The whole of the Designs and Engravings were executed at the expense of, and under the direction, of Maximilian himself, but as he died before the completion of the work, only a few separate plates had appeared till 1796, when the present Emperor permitted this edition to be worked off from the original blocks. TWO COPIES ONLY ARE SAID TO BE TAKEN OFF ON VELLUM.

* * * THIS IS THE MOST SPLENDID PRODUCTION OF THE JUNTA PRESS, AND IS OF THE GREATEST RARITY, WHEN PRINTED UPON VELLUM. EVEN THE EXISTENCE OF THE EDITION WAS UNKNOWN TO BANDINI, THE HISTORIAN OF THE JUNTA PRESS.
The title page is ornamented with a whole length portrait of Gualberti, the founder of the Monastery of Vallombrosa, and composer of this Ritual. The Missal is accompanied with Musical Notes, and enriched with a series of beautiful Engravings. An adequate description of this splendid volume would far exceed the limits of a sale Catalogue; but I cannot forbear transcribing a portion of the eloquent description given by Mr. Dibdin, in his Bibliographical Decameron, p. 83, &c. "It is printed quite at the commencement of the XVIth Century. The amplitude of the page, the size and variety of the types, the lustre of the inks, the tone and substance of the vellum, but above all, the pure arabesque taste of decorations, to say nothing of the rarity and curiosity of the impression, all combine to render this volume an acquisition extremely precious to the Collector. If ever the magical art of Printing was calculated to produce enthusiastic sensations, such sensations cannot fail to be felt on a careful examination of this book."

If such were the glowing terms in which Mr. Dibdin described a copy deteriorated by the plates being coloured, with what exultation would he have beheld and described this copy, in which the plates shine with their original brilliancy and lustre, unsullied by the hand of a colourer. I shall conclude this note with the words of a writer of the XVth Century :

"Hunc hunc, lector, emas, tibi futurum Præclarum Comitem domi forisque."

Payne

* * * The extreme rarity of the first of the two volumes, which are here bound together, cannot be better illustrated than by observing that Mr. Renouard was not able to find a copy in any Library, public or private, in Paris, when he wrote his Histoire des Alde, but refers to a copy at Rome. Even in his Supplement, he still announces it among his desiderata. The latter Tract appears to have been wholly unknown to him when he published his History of the Aldine Press, but is mentioned in his Supplement, with the appropriate designation of "EXTREMENT RARE."

4. 8 — 391 Manilii Astronomicum, without date, place, or name of the Printer.

* * * This edition is considered by Mr. Dibdin superior in typographical elegance to those which preceded it; he conceives it could not have been printed later than 1474, or 1475. The first edition with a date is 1474.

Tripshook

* * * This exquisite Copy was purchased by Sir M. M. Sykes at the Sale of Col. Stanley's Library. I shall take the liberty of transcribing the description I then gave of it in the Colonel's Catalogue.

"This matchless copy is one of the finest books in Col. Stanley's Collection. It excited the warmest admiration of the late Mr. Cracherode, and has recently received that of the most eminent amateurs. The paper appears to me to be superior in quality to every other large paper I have seen, and I suspect was furnished to the printer expressly for this copy by the De Thou family. Vigneul-Marville, in his Melange d'Histoire et de Litterature, says, Messieurs De Thou, qui ont été si long-tems chez nous la Gloire et l'Ornement des Belles Lettres, n'avoient pas seulement la noble passion de remplir leur Bibliothèque d'excellens livres qu'ils faisoient rechercher par toute l'Europe; ils étoient encore très-curieux que ces Livres fussent parfaitement bien conditionnées. Quand il s'imprimoit en France, et même dans les Pais étrangers, quelque bon livre, ils en faisoient tirer deux ou trois exemplaires pour eux sur de beau et grand papier qu'ils faisoient faire exprès.

In what instance could they be more likely to do so than in the publication of one of the most interesting of their national Chronicles. Eleven years have passed since I wrote the preceding note. I have availed myself of the opportunity of examining the copy in the King of France's Library, and those in other celebrated Collections; but I have never been able to see one which approached the splendour or beauty of this copy of Monstrelet. Mr. Dibdin too has since published his Bibliographical Decameron, and has done me the honour to advert to my account of it in Col. Stanley's Sale. He concludes by observing that "IT IS BEYOND ALL DOUBT AMONG THE MOST RESPLENDENT INSTANCES OF FINE AND LARGE PAPER THAT CAN BE MENTIONED."

139. 18 — 409 MISSALE ANDEGAVENSE, PRINTED UPON VELLUM, A MOST BEAUTIFUL AND SPLENDID BOOK, MCCCCLXXXIX. Woodburn

 This Ritual, composed for the Church of Anjou, is extremely rare. I have looked into various Bibliographical books but cannot find it mentioned. The King of France's Library is rich in Missals of every provincial department of France, but no copy of this Missal is mentioned in Mr. Van Praet's enumeration of that extensive Collection. In the Harleian Collection, I find a later edition, that printed in 1492, but no where can I trace a copy of this edition of 1489. It is A MOST SPLENDID BOOK, THE VELLUM IS UNIFORMLY PURE, BEAUTIFUL, AND MAGNIFICENT. This copy formerly belonged to the Library of the Jesuits at Brussels.

* * * The name of the printer was no doubt concealed on account of the Exhortation at the end. "An Exhortacion wrytten by the Lady Jane the night before she suffred, in the end of the New Testament in Greke, whych she sent to hir sister Ladye Katherine." This is the first edition of Lady Jane Grey's Letter, and was not known to Lord Orford.

 This little volume rarely occurs. The Dialogue between the Old Man and the Young on "a Woman's Properties," is carried on with great spirit. In the language of Johnson, "the contest of smartness is never intermitted" till the Young Man ungallantly gives up the defence of the Ladies.

"Old Father, ile no more with thee contend,
But must confesse, as we, so they offend.
Many of them are good, and many ill,
Yet all in this erre, all must have their will."

40. S. 6. 674 PEDIGREES AND ARMS OF FAMILYS OF YORKSHIRE, manuscript, with drawings in trick, bound in russia.

do

 This volume formerly belonged to John Holland, who appears to have added the Index which precedes the work. I shall now transcribe a note of Mr. Lodge, which I find written in the volume.

“ This Book appears to be a Collection from Glover's Visitation of Yorkshire, made in 1584 and 1585, and seems, as far as I have examined it, to be correct. I call it a Collection from that Vis^a, but not a Copy, because it is not a Copy of the whole, but of certain Pedigrees only; and to those pedigrees the Transcriber has occasionally made additions of a later date than that of Glover's Visitation,” EDMD. LODGE, Lanc^r.

College of Arms, London, July 12th, 1807.

I shall only add to Mr. Lodge's note, that Glover was Somerset Herald, and remarkable for his skill and accuracy in tracing Pedigrees. I find him celebrated for these qualities in Milles's Catalogue of Honor, (1610) who says, “The paines he undertooke to clear the Descents and Royall Pedegrees of our Kings and Nobility, from the Rust and Errors of Antiquity and Ignoraunce by unskilful Men and Times, was more than extraordinary and hard to be believed.”

“ But his SOMER (too soone)-SET, he scantly saw the sunne, For now he thought to liue and now his life was dunne.”

 A book of great rarity and curiosity. No Collection of Tales enjoys a greater reputation in the East. Sir W. Jones, in his Discourses on the Hindoos, thus expresses his admiration of them,
and points out the real name of the author. "The Fables of Vishnusarman, whom we ridiculously
call Pilpay, are the most beautiful, if not the most ancient in the world." This Latin version was made by John De Capua, from the Hebrew, and is the parent of all the European translations. See Ellis's Metrical Romances, vol. 3. This is the first and only edition printed in the XVth Century.

Romæ, in domo Nobilis Viri J. Philippi de Lignamine, MCCCCLXXIII. do.

* * * This very rare volume contains some curious particulars relative to the Earliest Printers, Gutenberg, Mentelin, Sweynheym and Pannartz, &c. An ample account of it may be seen in Bibliotheca Spenceriana, vol. 3, p. 251.

15. 4. 6 233 Cadamosto, Prima Navigatione per l'oceano a le terre de Nigri de la Basta Ethiopia per comandamento del Infante Don Hurich fratello de Don Dourth Re de Portogallo, VERY RARE, - - Vicent. 1507 do.

* * * This Edition (The first I believe) is extremely scarce. Brunet has evidently never seen a copy from his note on the edition of 1519. At the end is subjoined a very curious collection of Manuscript Papers, (in Latin) containing Letters from Emanuel King of Portugal, to the Popes Julius the Second and Leo X. and a copy of Americus Vesputius's own Account of part of his Voyages.

20 — 234 Epistola Christofori Colon: (COLUMBI) cui etas nostra multa debet: de Insulis Indie supra Gangem nuper inventis, ad quas perquirendas octavo antea mense missus fuerat; nobilis ac literatus vir Aliander de Cosco ab Hispano idiomate in Latinum convertit: tertio Kalend. Maii 1493, EXTREMELY RARE.

* * This is THE CELEBRATED LETTER OF COLUMBUS which was long supposed to have been lost, and was unknown to Robertson when he wrote his History of America. It appears to have been printed by Planck at Rome, but is not the same edition as that mentioned by Panzer, vol. 4, p. 544. I have no doubt that this was prior, though both were most probably printed in the same year. My reason for assigning the priority to this edition is, that the title appears to have been the transcript of the official address "auspiciis et ære invictissimi Fernandi." In the edition cited by Panzer it is "ære invictissimorum Fernandi et Helisabet," and I cannot persuade myself that the name of the Queen once introduced on the title would have been dropped. The King was notoriously averse to the expedition, refused to pay any part of the expenses out of the revenues of Aragon, the Queen generously offered to pledge her jewels to assist Columbus, and made her hereditary Kingdom of Castile responsible for the outfit.

2. 2 — 236 Amaltheo, Canzone, Ven. 1572, et varie opuscole.

* * * This volume contains a curious collection of scarce Italian Tracts in Verse and Prose, principally on the Naval Victory gained by the Christians over the Turks on Oct. 7, 1571. There is also a Latin Poem by Parthenius, commemorative of the victory.

 The frontispiece represents a Lady dressed in the "Newfangled manner." The ungallant Poet lashes the ladies with unmerciful severity. His indignation knows no bounds when satyrizing those who use hoopes, periwigs, maskes, apornes, or fans.

	 The First of these two Poems is Skelton's celebrated Satire against Wolsey: Why come ye not to Court? To which Court? To the Kinges Court Or to Hampton Court?
	The ostentation of the Cardinal's Court is then portrayed in vivid terms, and with the most daring raillery. Wolsey's officers closely pursued the author who was obliged to take Sanctuary at Westminster.

406 Seneca de quatuor virtutibus et de Moribus, Without date or place, but evidently from the Press of Ulric Zell.

* * On the fly leaf prefixed to this copy is a Manuscript note by the late very intelligent Bibliographer Mr. Horn of Ratisbon, in which he says he has no doubt that it was printed by Ulric Zell, even anterior to 1466. "For it has escaped all our Bibliographers, that in all Zell's Editions even the Chrysostom of 1466, and the Augustin de Sing. Cler. 1467, the pages will be found to be as regularly set up as any one of modern date, but here the verso of each of the leaves on the right hand side exhibits all the inequalities of the lines which only a first essay can account for."

414 SHIRWOOD, quod Latine interpretatur Limpida Silva, Sedis Apostolicæ P̄notarius Anglicus de Ludo Arithmomachia. There is no name of Printer, nor place, but the address at the end concludes thus, Romæ, ipsis Kalendis Aprilibus Anno Domini, MCCCCLXXXII, &c.

* * A Tract of extraordinary rarity and curiosity, unknown to our early Bibliographers and Writers of Literary History. Leland, Bale, Godwin and Pits never saw a copy, indeed the latter says, even the titles of Shirwood's pieces are lost. It was written for the Amusement of Nevil Archbishop of York, by whom he had long before been appointed Archdeacon of Richmond. I have no doubt the date of the address and the time of printing are coeval, for in the following year (1483) Shirwood was made Bishop of Durham, this must have been printed previous, or he would have been so designated. A Table explanatory of this Ludus Arithmomachia, follows the eighth leaf.

 "If the Lover of fine and legible Printing wishes for a specimen of one of the choicest productions of the XVth Century, let him lose no opportunity of obtaining the present impression, when a reasonable hope of its possession is held out to him. Nor is the work less intrinsically valuable, than its exterior form is inviting and magnificent. It has been by such splendid and useful productions, that the earlier annals of the Press have acquired such general celebrity." Such are the terms in which Mr. Dibdin speaks in the Bibliotheca Spenceriana, of a Copy even upon paper. The splendor and magnificence of the work is greatly enhanced by the beauty of the vellum on which this copy is printed. It is said that ONLY FOUR COPIES ARE KNOWN UPON VELLUM.

without date or place, but printed about the year, 1480.
-  A Book of great rarity and curiosity. No Collection of Tales enjoys a greater reputation in the East. Sir William Jones, in his Discourses on the Hindoos, thus expresses his admiration of them,
and points out the real name of the author. The Fables of Vishnusarman, whom we ridiculously
call Pilpay, are the Most Beautiful, if not the most ancient in the world." This Latin Version was made by John de Capua, from the Hebrew, and is the Parent of all the European Translations. See Ellis's Metrical Romances, Vol. 3.

-  THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN ROMAN CHARAC-TERS IN GERMANY. Schelhorn says he has compared it with the Roman types of Jenson's Quintilian, which always filled him with delight and admiration," and thought "that the types of this edition might vie with them in beauty." This is the splendid copy which was sold in the First portion of Sir M. Sykes's Library, No. 1651, and excited so much admiration, but it proves to want a wood plate of an Etymological Tree.
