TWO IMPORTANT PUBLICATIONS FROM AUDIO LTD. ON USING BIO-FEEDBACK INSTRUMENTS

By Geoffrey G. Blundell with additional material by C. Maxwell Cade

OMEGA ONE

The Omega One skin resistance meter is described; its readings in relation to alpha wave patterns from the brain; as an aid to reducing physical and emotional tensions; as an indication of well being and an introduction to meditation levels. An important section by C. Maxwell Cade is included together with Lesh scales for the fuller interpretation of readings from the meter.

E.E.G. MEASUREMENT

As an aid towards advanced states of self-awareness.

Generation of wave patterns from the brain is described; an important section by C. Maxwell Cade on the deeper significance of bio-feedback measurements is included. The Monitor M and Mind Mirror are described and how the latter reveals new aspects of brain activity. Stress is laid on passing from relaxed state to meditation and self-awareness and mental disciplines. Much of the area covered goes far towards answering hitherto unresolved problems of bio-feedback and understanding the information meters now provide.
