I would like to express my thanks to the Chairman and Members of the Council for their support, and to Mr. T.G. Henry and all members of the Staff for their work during the year.

STATISTICS AND SOCIAL CONDITIONS.

Deaths

MIDHURST RURAL DISTRICT						WEST SUSSEX		ENGLAND AND WALES
Total Deaths (after adjustment for transfers)				Death Rates per 1,000 population		Death Rate per 1,000 population		Death Rate per 1,000 population
Year	Total	Sex				Rural Districts	Urban Districts
		M	F	Crude	Corr.
1956	283	149	134	16.66	9.66	13.78	14.71	11.7
1957	236	122	114	13.89	9.16	12.08	13.37	11.5

When dealing with a small population such as that of this District, a certain random fluctuation from year to year in birth and death rates is to be expected. This is illustrated by the figures for the last ten years shown on Page 8.

Of the total deaths recorded during 1957, 201 or 85% occurred in persons aged 65 years or over; 145 or 61.4% in persons aged 75 years or over, and 56 or 23.7% in persons aged 85 years or over.

The chief causes of death in order of frequency were :

	1957	1956
(i) Diseases of the heart and circulatory system	89 (37%)	113 (40%)
(ii) Vascular lesions of nervous system ..	46 (19%)	45 (16%)
(iii) Neoplasms (growths) .. ..	41 (17%)	41 (14%)
(iv) Respiratory diseases (excluding Pulmonary Tuberculosis)	19 ( 8%)	33 (11%)

These four causes accounted for 195 or 82% of the total deaths.

A table at the end of this Section shows the age, sex distribution and causes of death in 1957.

From the above statistics it will be seen that deaths exceeded births by 25, and the Registrar-General's estimate of the population of the district at mid-year 1957, showed an increase of 10 over the 1956 estimate.

Section VI.

PREVALENCE AND CONTROL OF DISEASES.

The only incident of note during the year was an outbreak of Food Poisoning the details of which are given later in this section. Otherwise, the incidence of infectious disease was very low. Vaccination against Poliomyelitis was carried out on an increasing scale as more supplies of vaccine became available but it is too soon to attempt to judge the effect of vaccination on the incidence of the disease.

Cancer.

Deaths attributed to Cancer during the year numbered 40 (20 males, 20 females) - 41 deaths in 1956.

The Cancer Death Rate is 2.35 per 1,000 of the estimated home population - 2.41 in 1956. Corresponding rates for the Administrative County and the Urban and Rural Districts are 2.37, 2.53 and 2.14 respectively.

The following is an analysis of the age and sex distribution of all persons whose deaths were certified to be due to cancer during 1957 :-

Diphtheria.

(a) Notifications.

No cases of Diphtheria were notified during 1957, nor were any deaths registered as due to this cause.

(b) Immunisation.

During 1957, 16 children of school age and 192 children under 5 years of age received a complete course of injections. In addition, 85 children received "follow-up" injections.

Food Poisoning.

At a nursing home caring for old people a woman patient died early in February of acute enteritis. A Laboratory report received after her death showed the presence of Salmonella Typhimurium and a second patient who fell ill about the same time and recovered was also shown to be similarly infected. Investigations, started when these two cases were notified, revealed that in November 1956 an old lady of 84 was admitted, developed diarrhoea about a week later and died after four days of illness. While she was ill a second patient developed similar symptoms and recovered. No specimens from either case were examined.

A month later (just after Christmas 1956) one of the nursing staff and her small daughter had attacks of diarrhoea which lasted about two days but both recovered. It was some six weeks later that the next two cases occurred; these were notified and the investigation which revealed the foregoing events, began.

Three of the nursing staff (including the one who was ill in December) were found to be symptomless carriers of Salmonella Typhimurium and ten of the patients also showed positive cultures of the same organism. Admissions to the nursing home were suspended when the investigation started and were not resumed until the middle of April when negative specimens had been obtained from all those affected.

The outbreak which had lasted from November to April had caused two deaths (one known to be due to Salmonella Typhimurium and one presumed in retrospect to have been so caused) and had infected a further 10 out of 27 patients and 3 of the staff.

Tetracyclin was administered to the affected members of the staff but in spite of two courses of treatment one of them remained positive for over a month and it seems doubtful whether the drug did in fact expedite the termination of the carrier state.

No new cases or carriers occurred after the staff were alerted to the danger of cross infection and this fact in a small community of susceptible old people is greatly to their credit.

Dysentery

Three cases of Sonne Dysentery were notified.

Measles

Notifications of Measles totalled 40 (366 in 1956).

Details of these cases are set out herewith :-

Pneumonia.

Ten cases of Pneumonia were notified (5 in 1956)

Notifications of this disease bear little relationship to its incidence however. There were also 10 deaths registered as due to Pneumonia, but none referred to the notifications received.

Poliomyelitis.

Two cases, both non-paralytic, were notified during the year. (2 in 1956)

Increasing supplies of vaccine enabled the Scheme for vaccination against Poliomyelitis to be extended. The public are now somewhat confused by the different types of American and British Vaccine which are being offered and by the safety tests to which these various vaccines have been submitted. Experience in America and Canada, where many millions of vaccinations have been carried out without incident, shows that no parent need hesitate to have their children vaccinated with whichever vaccine, British or American, is available.

It is early yet for any conclusive judgment to be published in this Country as to the efficacy of Poliomyelitis Vaccination in preventing the disease in any individual. There are, however, good indications even at this early stage that the number of cases occurring in children vaccinated is much less than occurs in the unvaccinated.

Scarlet Fever.

Three cases of Scarlet Fever were notified. (2 cases in 1956)

Tuberculosis.

Four cases were added to the register ( 2 primary notifications and 2 cases moving into the district as transfers from other areas). All were pulmonary cases. In 1956, six pulmonary cases were added to the register.

Cases removed from the register in 1957 totalled 8, one pulmonary and one non-pulmonary case having recovered, and 4 cases on leaving the district. Two deaths from this disease were recorded (2 in 1956)

Tuberculosis (Contd.)

The death rate from Pulmonary Tuberculosis for the year is 0.11 per 1,000 of the home population (0.05 in 1956). The death rate for the Administrative County and for the Urban and Rural Districts is 0.08, 0.06 and 0.10 respectively.
