SECTION C.

SANITARY CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE AREA.

(1) WATER :—The Water Supply Scheme for the Parish of East Bergholt is nearing completion, 3,883 yards of 4 inch diameter and 638 yards of 3 inch diameter Cast Iron Water Mains have been laid. A steel tank of a capacity of 14,500 gallons has been erected on steel constructional work, 60 feet high, including pumping machinery. The source of the water supply is from an 8 inch bore tube well, 300 feet deep, 128 feet of which is in the chalk.

The undermentioned Parishes have a piped water supply :—

1. Part of Brantham
2. Part of Raydon
3. Part of Sproughton
4. Part of Chelmondiston
5. Part of Shotley

No analyses have been made of these water supplies during the year.

Several new water connections have been made to the water mains at Shotley, Chelmondiston and Sproughton.

Raydon Water Supply.

The source of this supply is from a spring, and sand is sometimes carried down with the water to the Pump. It is proposed to install settling tanks to arrest the sand.

In the Parish of Stutton a refuse dump has been provided and the contents of this dump have been hauled to a main dump situated at Chelmondiston, near the Ipswich - Shotley Road.
