REPORT

Presented to the Subscribers at the General Annual Meeting, held at Lancaster, September 14th, 1870,

GRACE THE DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE, K.G., IN THE CHAIR.

The Central Committee, in submitting their report for the past year, consider it incumbent upon them to explain why the present meeting is not held at Bradford, in pursuance of a resolution passed at the last annual meeting at Durham. It was at one time thought desirable to have a public opening of the Asylum this autumn, with the ordinary demonstrations on such occasions; but subsequent circumstances led to a reconsideration of the question, and it was determined to abandon the intention of a public and formal inauguration of the Asylum until the completion of the whole building. It became expedient, therefore, to hold the Annual Meeting for this year at the Asylum, and thus afford the subscribers and friends of the Charity an opportunity, not only of a thorough inspection of the building, but of obtaining, previously to the admission of patients, detailed information as to its general arrangements.

The Central Committee have during the past year assiduously promoted the interests of the Asylum as heretofore, by holding public meetings, disseminating information, and organising local committees. Two public meetings have been held in Carlisle, one under the Presidency of the Lord Bishop of Carlisle, and the other with the Mayor in the Chair. The Mayor of Preston presided at a public meeting in that town; and the Rev. Richard Brooke undertook a similar duty at Selby. These meetings were all most successful and encouraging in their results. Preparations are in progress for a County Meeting at Chester, which, Lord Egerton of Tatton, as Lord Lieutenant, has most kindly promised to convene. That meeting will be followed by a systematic canvass of the county.

The labours of the Committee in this important part of their work have been somewhat impeded by the urgent necessity for organizing the Institution, in drawing up rules and regulations for the admission of patients, superintending the furnishing, and completing all the domestic arrangements.

It is proposed to admit fifty patients on the free list at the first Election, the particulars of which will be fully advertised as soon as its details can be perfected. The number of vacancies allotted to each County will be as follows :—

Lancashire	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	20
Yorkshire	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	12
Durham...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	5
Westmorland	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	4
Cumberland.....	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	3
Cheshire...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	3
Northumberland.	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	3

The principle of appropriating vacancies to each county according to the amount subscribed is thus recognised, although in this, the first election, the counties with the small numbers obtain rather more in proportion to their subscriptions than they are entitled to; but the Committee have taken into consideration the fact that there has not been an opportunity of sufficiently appealing to important sections of the counties in question. Should any material disparity arise as further progress is made, it will admit of ready rectification at a future time. The amounts contributed to the Building Fund by the Seven Associated Counties, are—Lancashire, £31,824 4s. 5d.; Yorkshire, £15,731 5s. 11d.; Westmorland, £2,306 1s. 4d.; Durham, £1,915 1s. 11d.; Cheshire, £982 9s. 6d.; Cumberland, £975 1s. 6d.; Northumberland, £703 14s. 8d.; Total, £54,437 19s. 3d.

The Committee gratefully acknowledge their obligations to those clergymen and ministers who have kindly advocated the cause of the Idiot and Imbecile from their pulpits during the year. Irrespectively of the pecuniary contributions obtained, a most essential service is thus rendered to the Asylum by spreading abroad, especially in country districts, sound information on the existing and urgent necessity for such an Institution. The Committee earnestly invite further co-operation in this direction. Thanks are due to the Rev. A. R. Ashwell, Burnmoor Church, Fence Houses.

Rev. E. Dothie, High Street Independent Chapel, Lancaster.

Rev. Dr. Bedford Hall, St. Mary's Church, Sowerby, Halifax.

Rev. W. M. Hitchcock, Whitburn Church, Sunderland.

Rev. Canon Hornby, St. Mary's Parish Church, Bury.

Rev. J. T. Oliver, United Methodist Free Church, Blyth.

Rev. F. E. Perrin, Whitewell Church, Clitheroe.

Rev. G. Pickering, Trinity Church, Ulverston.

Rev. Canon Robinson, Bolton Abbey Church, Skipton.

Rev. A. D. Shafto, Brancepeth Church, Durham.

Rev. W. Shilleto, Goosnargh Church, Preston.

Rev. G. F. Weston, Crosby Ravensworth Church, Penrith.

It is encouraging to report the growing interest taken in the charity by the working classes. The work-people in the employ of Mr. Joseph Rawlinson, Dalton-in-Furness, have subscribed £10 10s.; many of the clubs and associations formerly alluded to continue their exertions by adding to their former gifts; concerts, lectures, and penny readings take an important place in the good work; and "A Working Man" from Settle has sent a second contribution of £5 anonymously.

Mr. Edward Pease, Darlington, has kindly presented the Committee with £20 worth of choice roses and hardy perennials for the Asylum grounds, and the Committee are not without hope that this praiseworthy example may be followed by others. Great are the wants of such an Institution, and gifts in kind are always acceptable, and many benevolent persons might prefer to contribute in this way rather than subscribe an equivalent in money. All such contributions given in lieu of a money payment would entitle the donor to all the privileges of voting according to value.

In view of the proposed public inauguration of the Asylum, the Committee would earnestly plead for a renewal of that generous co-operation of the ladies, which was so eminently beneficial to the Institution in connection with the Foundation Stone ceremony. Many ladies have already requested the Secretary to return their Collecting Purses, and will, no doubt, again prosecute their benevolent work with irresistible persuasiveness and the most gratifying success.

The Committee deemed it necessary to appoint a Medical Superintendent and a Matron, previously to the opening of the Asylum. Dr. Shuttleworth, late assistant Medical Officer at the Earlswood Asylum, was selected from a number of most eligible candidates. His testimonials from Earlswood were of a very high character. He is now in residence. Miss Bryan was also appointed Matron. She had been sub-matron at Earlswood for nine years, and was highly recommended. The appointment to the two chief offices of persons of considerable practical experience in the treatment and management of the Idiot and Imbecile, affords an assurance to the Committee that their special qualifications will be of great value in this Asylum.

The Committee refer with great pleasure to the audited accounts as the best evidence of material support, but much exertion in obtaining further subscriptions is still requisite, as heavy expenses, not in the original estimate, are being incurred in furnishing, in kitchen and wash-house fittings, in gas and water supplies, in sewerage, and in laying out the gardens and grounds. In a short time the Committee must take into consideration the erection of farm buildings for the estate. As the patients increase, the necessity for Annual Subscriptions will become more and more urgent.

The Legacies during the year have been £500 from Mrs. Burton, Roundhay, Leeds, and £2,000 from Mr. Abbott, Halifax, which according to rule, must be invested for the benefit of the Sustentation Fund.

Thanks are pre-eminently due to all the local Committees, as well as to the Solicitors and other honorary officers, for their valuable services.

The Committee again gladly acknowledge the cordial assistance which has been rendered to the Institution by the press in the Northern Counties generally.

With every feeling of devout gratitude for the great success which a gracious Providence has hitherto granted to their efforts to make provision for the relief of a heavy affliction, the Committee look with confidence to the future for the support which may be needed for the completion of their undertaking.

EDWARD DENIS DE VITRÉ,
CHAIRMAN OF THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

AUDITORS' REPORT.

26, KING STREET, MANCHESTER,
6TH SEPTEMBER, 1870.

We have completed the audit of the accounts of the Royal Albert Asylum to the 31st July last, and have the pleasure of reporting to the Subscribers its satisfactory character. The Securities and Vouchers were produced for our inspection, and the Books of Account appear to have been well kept.

The amount of Annual Subscriptions received up to that date was £1,046 4s. 0d. This sum will, upon the opening of the Institution for the reception of patients, have to be transferred from the General Account, where it now appears, to an account for the maintenance of the inmates.

We again call the attention of the Subscribers to the satisfactory manner in which the donations have been collected. Out of a total of £54,437 19s. 3d. which has been promised, only £837 remains unpaid.
