TO THE
R E A D E R.

IN this Third Edition of the General Catalogue, are comprehended the Titles of Books, Printed in England, since the dreadful Fire in 1666. to the end of Trinity Term 1680. I have mentioned the Volume, but have omitted the Prizes, in regard no direction to the Buyer can herein be given; the various fortune that Books are Subject to, in respect to the Fame of some, Repulse of others, Time, Plenty, Scarcity, &c. render the Prizes of most Books uncertain.

I have here made an Essay towards a Catalogue of Latin Books Printed in Europe since 1670. and if hereafter I can be more at leisure, I shall endeavour to make it more perfect; however as it is, I hope it may find Acceptance.

As to the late Method used in Selling Books by Auction in London, I suppose that many men have paid dear for their experience in this way; and I judge it may be demonstrable, that 'tis more probable for the Buyer to gain advantage by a Lottery, than in this way, being likely by That, once in twenty times a man may get a Prize, but in This, 'tis more than twenty ty to one if ever he gets That, or a Pennyworth, it being apparent that most Books bought in an Auction, may be had Cheaper in Booksellers Shops. And it cannot be well judged otherwise, for a thousand at least of the Printed Catalogues of a Library to be expos'd by Auction being dispersed, many commissions for the best Books are given, it may be twenty Orders for one Book, that when the Buyers think to have it Cheap, they out-bid one another, and run 10 or 12 s. in 30 beyond the Price in Shops, sometimes more, sometimes less.

The Experience of which being known and felt, and the imposing of old Rubbish out of Shops, and bad Editions of Books under pretence of eminent Mens Libraries, with other Methods not here mentioned, may in a little time put an end to this Project; for the Reputation of it now growing weak and faint, the Proprietor of a Library will not judge it for his Advantage to be at a hundred pounds charge to have a Catalogue taken and Printed (with other attending expences) of an ordinary Collection of Books, but judge it his Interest, to sell them intire, to the Party that bids most for them.

R. Clavell.
