[Several tracts. IV] A letter ... to one of his sons, after his recovery from the smallpox / [John Hales].

Contributors

Hales, John, 1584-1656

Publication/Creation

London: J. Playford for W. Shrowsbury, 1684.

Persistent URL

https://wellcomecollection.org/works/vah4hmrb

License and attribution

This work has been identified as being free of known restrictions under copyright law, including all related and neighbouring rights and is being made available under the Creative Commons, Public Domain Mark.

You can copy, modify, distribute and perform the work, even for commercial purposes, without asking permission.

Wellcome Collection 183 Euston Road London NW1 2BE UK T +44 (0)20 7611 8722 E library@wellcomecollection.org https://wellcomecollection.org

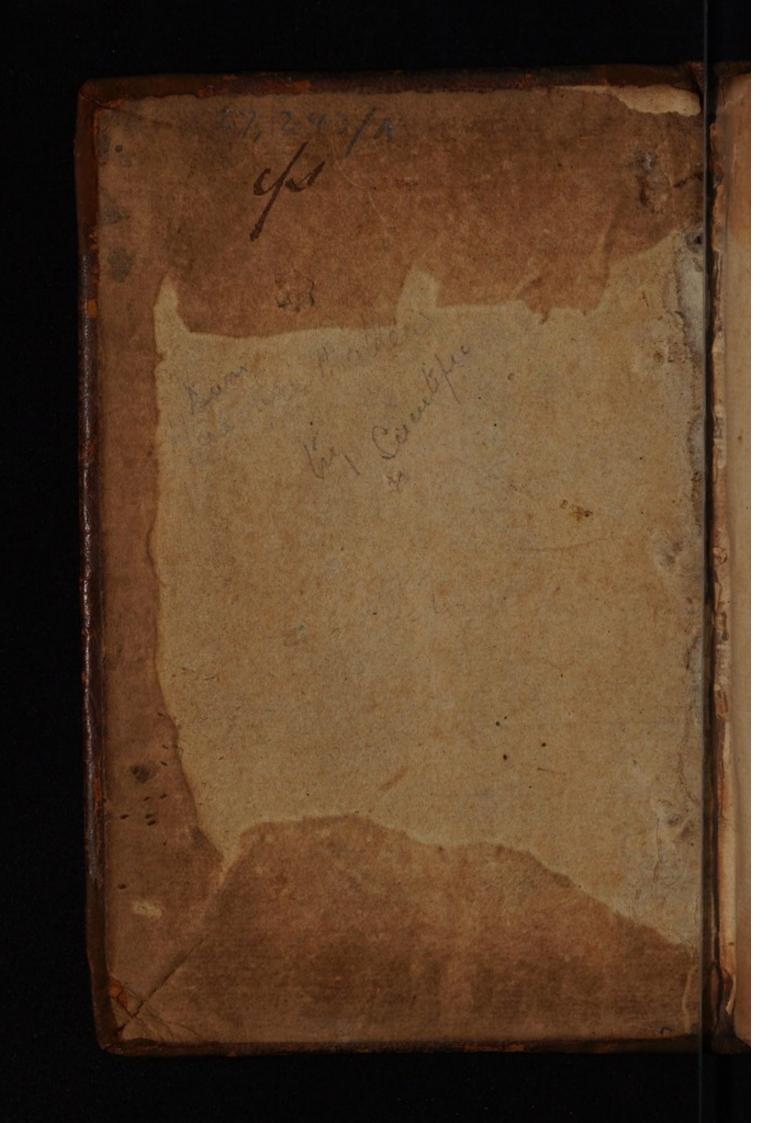

27,243

LETTER

FROM

S'MATTHEW HALE, K

Sometime Lord Chief Justice of

ENGLAND:

To One of his

SONS;

After his Recovery from the

SMALL-POX.

LONDON,

Printed by J. Playford, for W. Shrowsbery, at the Sign of the Bible in Duke-lane 1684.

FROM

S MATTHEW HALE, Ke

Sometime Level Chief Suffice of

ENGLAND

To One of his

SON

After his Recovery from the

SMALL-POX.

LONDON,

Printed by J. Physinds for V. Shronslery, at

A

LETTER

FROM

Sir MATTHEW HALE,

To One of his SONS.

Son -

A Lthough by reason of the Contagiousness of your Disease, and the many dependents I have upon me, I thought it not convenient to come unto you during your sickness; yet I have not been wanting in my earnest Prayers to Almighty God for you, nor in using the best means I could for your recovery.

It hath pleased God to hear my Prayers for you, and above means and hopes now to restore you to a Competent degree of health, for which I return unto him my humble and hearty thanks, and now you are almost ready to come abroad again, therefore I have thought sit to write this little Book to you, for these reasons.

1. Because it is not yet seasonable for you to come to me, in respect of these same reasons above mentioned, which hitherto have restrained my coming to you.

2. Because at your coming abroad, you will be subject to Temptations, by young and inconsiderate Company, which instead of serious Thankfulness to God for his mercy to you, might perchance persuade you to a vain, and light jollity: And I thought sit to send you these Lines to prevent such inconsiderate impressions, and to meet you just at your coming abroad, to season you with more wise and serious principles.

of a great and fore Visitation, and therefore, in all probability, in the fittest temper to receive the impressions of a serious Epistle from your Father.

And I have chosen to put it into this little Volume, because it is somewhat too long

tor

ver

Ter

he

OWI

and gwer

YOU

or r

feem

throu

the

Expe

times

name

Rod ?

fonab

ble ti

and th

the or

And t

follow

Fir

intend

Your

touchi

trom

and m

for a Letter; and may be better preserved for your future use and memory.

God Almighty hath brought you to the very Gates of Death, and shewed you the Terrour, and Danger of it; and after that he had shewn you this Spectacle of your own Mortality, he hath marvelloufly refcued and delivered you from that danger, and given you life, even from the dead, so that you are as a man new Born into the World, or returned to Life again, which now you feem as it were to begin: You have passed through those two great Dispensations of the Divine Providence, those two great Experiments, that God is pleased sometimes to use towards the Children of men, namely, Correction and Deliverance, his Rod and his Staff: And therefore in all reafonable conjecture, this is the most feasonable time to give you a Lecture upon both, and those admonitions which may be, render the one, and the other profitable unto you; And this I shall endeavour to do in these following Lines.

First, you shall not need to fear that I intend to upbraid you with the errors of your Youth, or to expostulate with you touching them: For I do assure you, I do from my heart forgive you all your follies, and miscarriages: And I do assure my self,

A 3

that little long

my

VOU

in, this

ame

erto

you

ung

tead

to a t fit

in-

just

with out

fore,

er to

piftle

that you have repented of them, and refolved against them for the time to come, and that thereupon God-almighty hath also fully forgiven what is past: And this is a great assurance thereof to me, in that he hath so wonderfully restored you, and given you as it were a new Life, wherein you may obey and serve him better than ever you yet did: And therefore if in this Letter, there be any touches concerning former vanities, assure your self, they are not angry repetitions, but only necessary Cautions for your future ordering of your Life.

The business of these papers, is principally, to commend unto you, two general Remembrances, and certain Results and Collections, that arise from them, they are all seasonable for your present Condition, and will be of singular use and benefit to you, in the whole ensuing Course of your Life.

First, I would have you as long as you live, remember your late Sickness in all its Circumstances, and these plain and profitable inferences, and advices, that arise from it.

Secondly, I would have you remember as long as you live, your great deliverance, and the several Circumstances of it, and those necessary duties that are incumbent upon you, in relation thereunto.

no

ret

W

We

mo

1ec

kin

me

befo

are

And

25 0

Face

Glaf

fight

fron

likel

more

FECON

It is evident to daily experience, that while Afflictions are upon us, and while deliverances are fresh, they commonly have some good effect upon us: But as the Iron is no sooner out of the fire, but it quickly returns to its old coldness, and hardness; so when the Affliction or Deliverance is past, we usually forget them, count them common things, attribute them to Meanes and second Causes: And so the good that Mankind should gather from them vanish, and men grow quickly to be but what they were before they came; their sick-bed promises are forgot, when the sickness is over.

And therefore I shall give you an account of your sickness, and of your recovery: And let them never be forgotten by you, as often as those Spots and Marks in your Face are reslected to your view from the Glass, as often as this paper comes in your sight, nay as often as you open your Eyes from sleep, which were once closed, and likely never to open again; so often and more often remember your sickness, and your recovery, and the admonitions that this paper lends you from the Consideration of both

isa

he

ven

101

TE

ner

gry

ons

ılly,

em-

AS,

ona-

1 he

the

WE,

Cir-

iber

nce,

bent

It

First, therefore touching your late sickness, I would have you remember these particulars: 1. The Disease it self, in its own nature, is now become ordinarily very Mortal, especially to those of your Age: Look upon even the last years General Bill of Mortality, you will find near Two Thoufand dead of that Disease the last Year, and had not God been very merciful to you, you might have been one of that number, with as great likelyhood as any of them that Dyed of that Disease: 2. It was a Contagious Disease, that secluded the access of your nearest Relations: 3. Your sickness surprised you upon a suddain, when you feemed to be in your full strength: 4. Your fickness rendred you Noysom to your felf, and all that were about you, and a spectacle full of deformity, by the excess of your Disease beyond most that are sick thereof: 5. It was a fierce and violent fickness, it did not only take away the common supplies of nature, as digestion, sleep, strength, but it took away your memory, your understanding, and the very sence of your own Condition, or of what might be conducible to your good: All that you could do was only to make your Condition more desperate, in Case they that were about you, had not prevented it, and taken more Care

Ca yo in vio Ex

rem you Con

and

alfo mal ful t forti

the static ling down is tr

more it upo fure.

grow under migh

migh

Care for you, than you did or could for your self: 6. Your sickness was desperate, in so much, that your Symptoms, and the violence of your distemper, were without Example; and you were in the very next degree to absolute Rottenness, Putrefaction, and Death it self.

Look upon the foregoing Description, and remember that such was your Condition, you were as sad a Picture of Mortality, and Corruption, as any thing but Death it self could make: Remember it: And Remember also, these ensuing Instructions, that may make that Remembrance profitable and useful to you.

ery ge :

14

nd

W,

em

IS a

ac-

ick-

nen

4.

OUT

da

sof

rees,

non

ry,

2001-

ddo

nore

hout

nore

Care

First, Remember that Affliction cometh not forth of the dust, nor doth trouble spring out of the ground, Job 5. 6. But this terrible visitation, was sent to you from the wife overruling Providence of God: It is he that bringeth down to the Grave, and bringeth up again. It is true, that this Disease may seem common, but you may and must know, that there was more than the common hand of God in fending it upon you, in fuch a manner, and fuch a meafure, and at such a season, when you were grown up to a Competent Age, and degree of understanding, to make a due use of it, that you might see his justice in Afflicting you, and his goodness in delivering you from such a danger. Secondly, Secondly, Remember that Almighty God is of most infinite Wisdom, Justice and Mercy, he hath excellent ends in all his difpensations of his providences: He never fends an Affliction, but it brings a message with it, his Rod has a voice; a voice Commanding us, to fearch and try our ways. and to examin our felves whether there hath not been some great sin against him, or neglect of duty to him; a voice Commanding us to repent of what is a miss, to humble our felves under his mighty hand, to turn to him that striketh us, to seek to him by Prayer for deliverance, to depend upon him by Faith, in his mercy and power; to amend what is a miss, to be more watchful. circumspect, and obedient to him, in the future course of our lives, to fear to offend him: And if a man hear this voice, God hath his end of mercy and goodness, and man hath the fruit, benefit, and advantage of his Affliction, and commonly a Comfortable issue of it: Read often and attentively the 33th. Chapter of Job, from the beginning to the end.

Thirdly, Remember how uncertain, and frail a Creature man is, even in his seeming strongest Age, and Constitution of health; even then a pestilential Air, some evil humour in his blood, some obstruction it may be

hat

tion

mal

Wal

elpe

that

not

fudo

ble t

have

appr

when

away

ing,

Your

ferior

that

nota

exper

be of a little vein or artery, a little meat ill-digested, and a thousand small occurrences may upon a suddain, without any Considerable warning, plunge a man into a desperate and mortal sickness, and bring a man to the grave. Remember this terrible sickness seized upon you suddenly, pulled down your strength quickly, and brought you to the very brink of the Grave: And though God hath recovered you, you know not how soon you may be brought into the like Condition.

Vet

ige ms,

10

nd-

ible

to

by

000 to

ful,

the

God and age ifor-

vely

ing

and

ning

曲;

evil

may be

Fourthly, Remember therefore, that you make and keep your peace with God, and walk in his fear in the days of health; especially after so great a deliverance, and that for very many reasons: 1. You know not whether you may not be overtaken with sudden Death, and then it will be impossible for you to begin that work: 2. If you have fickness to give you warning of the approach of Death, yet you know not whether that sickness may not suddenly take away your fenses, memory, or understanding, whereby you may be disabled to make your peace with God, or to exercise any serious thoughts concerning it: 3. But if that fickness give you fair warning, and take not away your understanding, yet your own experience cannot chuse but let you know, that that pain, and weakness, and distraction of mind, and impatience, and unquietness, are the common attendants of a fick bed, and render that season at least very difficult, then to begin that greatest and solemness, and most important business of a mans Life. 4. But if your fickness be not so sharp, but that it leaves you patience, and attention of mind for that great business, how do you know whether your heart shall be inclined to it? Repentance and Conversion to God is his gift, though it must be our endeavour: And though the merciful God, never refuseth a repenting, returning offender; yet how can a man that all the time of his health hath neglected Almighty God, refused his invitations, and ferved his lusts and his fin, expect reasonably, that God in the time of fickness, when the man can serve his sins no longer, will give him the grace of repentance?

What ever you do therefore, be sure you make your peace with God, and keep it in the days of your health, especially after so great a deliverance from so desperate a sickness.

Fifthly, Remember that your Condition is never so low, but that God hath power to deliver you, and therefore trust in him: But remember withall, that your Condition

th Y fre fel you

mu

not

love

VOIC

You

Of V

effec

had

lowo

rible

have

hope

turn

and r

that

lound

Phet

Buto

is never so safe and secure, but you are within the reach of his power to bring you down: You are now by the mercy of God recovered from a terrible fickness, think not with your felf that your turn is now ferved, and that you shall have no more need of him, and therefore that you may live as you lift, and never regard your duty to him; deceive not your felf herein, remember that this fickness, within two or three days brought you upon your knees, even from a feeming state of health: The Case is the same still, nay much worse, if this Affliction make you not better; Almighty God called you to love, and serve, and obey him, by the still voice of his word, by the perswasion of your Friends, by the advises and reproofs of your Father; and when these were not so effectual, (as I know you now wish they had been,) He sent a messenger that spake lowder, that would be heard, even this terrible sickness; and most certainly, if you have heard the voice of this Rod, (as I am hopeful you have) and thereupon entirely turn to your duty to God in all fincerity and obedience, it is the happiest providence that ever befell you, and you will upon found Conviction, conclude with the Prophet, It was good for me that I was Afflicted: But on the other side, if not with standing this voice.

is

011

01 ver

n:

100

voice of the Rod, you shall after your recovery turn again to folly, and vanity, and excess, and harden your self against this messenger; know for certain you are within the reach of the Divine Justice and Power: And if you walk contrary to him, he will walk contrary to you, and punish you yet seven times for your fins, Levit. 26.24. I therefore give you that Counsel, that our Lord gave to him that he had healed, Behold thou att made whole, go thy way and fin no more, left a worse thing befall thee. There is no contesting with Almighty God, he is ready and easie to be reconciled to the worst of men, upon humiliation and true repentance, but he is not to be Mastered or Conquered by obstinacy and opposition: Who hath hardened himself. against him and prospered? Job 9. 4.

Sixthly, I would have you Remember, that fickness as well as death doth undeceive Mankind, and shews them where their true Wisdom lies: When a young man, especially, is in the full career of his vanity and pleasures, he thinks that Religion, and the fear of God, and walking according to his word, and the serious practice of duties of Religion towards God, prayer unto him, making our peace with him, are pitiful, low, foolish, and inconsiderable matters, and that those that practise them, are a fort bit

can

bau

may

to be

him

Glass

In It

anoth

perar

and R

Votion

eque

gami

ne valu

OUE PIX

of Life

undece

rediffe

Foored

of brain-fick, melancholy, unintelligent perfons, that want wit or breeding, and understand not Themselves or the World; that they are mere empty fancies and imaginations, whimfies, puritanism, and I know not what elfe: But on the other fide, they think they are the brave men that live splendidly, deny themselves no Pleasure, can Drink, and Roar, and Whore, and Debauch, and wear the newest Fashions; it may be, this Gallant or Wife man comes to be taken with a fit of fickness, that tells him he must dye, Death is at the door, his Glass is almost out, and but a few sands left in it: And then the man becomes quite of another judgment, he cries out of his former foolishness, he finds his pleasures and intemperance and excess, are not only perfect follies, but madnels, vexation, torment; and Religion and Prayer to God, and Devotion and Peace with God, they are now in request; and now mothing but declamations against those Courses, which in his health he valued as the only Wisdom; and nothing but promises of amendment, and reformation of Life, and Devotion to God; so sickness hath undeceived the man, and given hima true and rectified judgment concerning Wisdom, and Folly, quite contrary to what he had before. Therefore I would have you recollect your

at

rue eciind the his

sof

田山

fort the loss tain and mem latte ficke the B of it beau conh nels thing to spe in tri Fash Vices and the A nels o there furni Soul. Virtue to ete Condi his Bo

fin hat

The G

felf, (and if the violence of your Disease left you at any time the use of your reason) bethink your felf what opinion you then had of intemperance, wasting of time, unlawful lust, or any of those fins that formerly pleased you in your health, whether they did not appear to you in your fickness, very vain, foolish, vexing things, such as you wished never to have been committed; and on the other fide, what opinion you had in your fickness touching Piety towards God, hearing of his word, calling upon his name, redeeming of time, modesty, temperance: Whether those actions of your life past, that favoured of these, were not Comfortable, and Contenting to you in your fickness; whether your purposes, and promises, and resolutions of your sick-bed, were not full of fuch thoughts as these: If it please God to recover me, I will never be fuch a fool as I have beeen, I will never drink to excess, mispend my time, I will never keep such evil Company as I have done, I will be more devout towards God, more obedient to his word, more observant of good Counsel, and the like: And if you find it to be so, I must desire you to remember that affliction, is the School of Wisdom, it rectifies mens judgments; and I must again desire you, to keep your judgment right still, and set not the the recovery of your health become the loss of your wits; but in your health retain that Wisdom your sickness taught you, and practice what you then promised: Remember he is the wifest man that provides for his latter end: Deut. 32. 29.

hat

2W-

nerly

y did

very

you

and

ad in

God,

ame,

ince:

that

able,

nels;

and

full of

od to ol as

scels,

fuch

more

o his

nsel,

e so,

aion,

mens

et not the

Seventhly, Remember by your former fickness, how pitiful an inconsiderable thing the Body of man is; how foon is the strength of it turned to faintness, and weakness, the beauty of it to ugliness and deformity, the confistency of it to putrefaction and rottenness; and then remember how foolish a thing it is, to be proud of fuch a Carcass, to spend all, or the greatest part of our time in triming and adorning it, in studying new Fashions, and new Postures, and new Devices to set it out: In spending our time and provisions in pampering it, in pleasing the Appetite; and yet this is the chief business of most young men of this Age: Learn therefore Humility and Lowliness, learn to furnish thy Noble and Immortal part, thy Soul, with Religion, Grace, Knowledge, Virtue, Goodness, for that will retain it to eternity: How miserable is that mans Condition, that whiles sickness hath made his Body a deformed, weak, loathfom thing, fin hath made his Soul as ugly, and deformed; The Grave will heal or cover the deformity of the former, but the Soul will earry its Ulcers and Deformity (without Repentance) into the next World: Learn and remember therefore, to have thy greatest Care for thy Noblest part, furnish it with Piety, Grace, Knowledge, the Fear and Love of God, Faith in Christ: And as for thy Body, use it Decently, Soberly and Comely, that it may be a fit Instrument for thy Soul to use in this Life, but be not proud of it, nor make it thy chiefest care and business to adorn, much less defile it?

Eighthly, Remember to avoid intemperance and finful Lufts! It is true fickness and difeases, and finally death, are by the Laws and Constitutions of our nature incident to all Mankind: But intemperance, excess of Eating and Drinking, Drunkenness, Whoreing, Uncleanness and disorder bring more difeases, especially upon young men, and deltroy more young, strong, healthy men, than the Plague, or other natural or accidental distempers: They weaken the Brain, Corrupt the Blood, decay and distemper the Spirit, disorder and putrefie the humours, and make the body a very bag full of putrefaction: Some difeases are as it were specifical, and appropriate to these vices, other difeases are commonly occasioned by them, by their inflammation and putrifacti-

OIL

on of fes, et

Cafu

Marp

by the

impote

to reli

to hav

mind,

bauch

person

Difeaf

long w

And

of your

profita

nembr

III

a Reme

ng whi

Was a

Delivera

, than

ad feve

oned:

lediate

nt you

Uma e

you ha

on of the Blood and humours: And all Diseases, even those that are Epidemical, Natural or Casual, yet are rendred by those vices far more sharp, lasting, malignant and incurable, by that stock of Corrupted matter, they lodge in the body to feed those Diseases, and that impotency that these vices bring upon Nature to resist them: Therefore if you ever expect to have as well a sound body, as a sound mind, carefully avoid intemperance and debauchery: The most temperate and sober persons are subject to sickness, weakness and Diseases, but the intemperate can never be long without them.

And thus I have done with the prospect of your Disease, and at least many of these prositable uses you may gather from the remembrance of ir.

dy, nor

0 2-

npenels

the

nci-

100,

Ken-

rder

ung

ng,

112-eken

and

refie

very

s are

hele

oned

acti-

011

II. I shall now in the second place, put you n Remembrance of your Deliverance, touching which, you must remember: 1. That t was a great, eminent, and extraordinary Deliverance, you need no other evidence of t, than by looking back upon the greatness and severity of your Disease before-mentioned: 2. It was a deliverance by the impediate power and mercy of that God, that ent you the Visitation.

Ona eademque manus vulnus opemque tulit. I you had been delivered by the immediate efficacy of means, yet you are blind if you fee not that the efficacy of means depends upon the providence of God, it is he that provides it, and that makes means effectual. But in this deliverance God hath pleased to hedge up (as it were) your way from attributing it to means, and hath given you an indication, that it was done by his own immediate power, and that he delivered you above, and beyond means: It is true, you had a very able and careful Physitian, and very great attendance and care was used about you: But when your Physitian and all that were about you, began to despair of your recovery, when means proved ineffectual, when the strength of Nature was exhausted and baffled by your Disease, God Almighty upon a suddain, and beyond expectation, relieved you, and as it were by his own hand brought you back from the very threshold of the Grave: And this he did, that you and all about you, and all your Relations might take notice of it, that it was he that did it.

Bo

Manage

And thus Almighty God hath exercised towards you, two great Experiments, the first of his severity, the second of his mercy: And as your Sickness and Rod had its voice, (a lowd and sharp voice) so your recovery and deliverance hath its voice also, a sweet, gentle, and (I hope) effectual voice; and I will as short-First, ly as I can tell you what it is.

therefore

Firf it was power memb

to be long a knowle knees had reg your lo Iniquiti that did that dic underst him tha for you lected h health, vered t tentive dition, i 2. Re nels of C rance . W power,

Act of the God; W unto the

to you

First, Remember this benefit, remember it was reached out unto you, from the mere power, goodness, and mercy of God: Remember evermore in your Heart and Soul, to be thankful to him for it: Remember as long as you live upon all occasions to acknowledge it; daily to return upon your knees humble thanks for it, to him that had regard to you, and remembred you in your low Estate, to him that forgave your Iniquities, and healed your Disease, to him that did this for you when all means failed, that did it for you, when you had not the understanding to call upon him for it; to him that did it for you, that deserved it not, for you that had provoked him, and neglected him too much in the time of your health. This God it was, that thus delivered you; Read often the 103 Psalm attentively, and apply it to your own Condition, it will do you good.

2. Remember to acknowledge this goodness of God with all humility; your deliverance was not the purchase of your own power, nor of your own desert, it was an Act of the free and undeserved goodness of God; what Almighty God said by Moses unto the Israelites, Deut. 9. 4. 6. I shall say to you with some variation; understand therefore that the Lord thy God hath not

B :

given

as (horte

lepuds he tat fectual

aledn

n attri

you ar wn im

ed you

ie, you

uled a

and all of you

ectual, haufted

might

1011, 18

n hand reshold

ou and might

lidit. Jercised mercy.

S VOICE

very and given thee this deliverance for thy Righteoulnels: No it is the mere effect of his own goodness, and to give you opportunity to praise him, and serve him, better than ever you did before. i to mid of the

3. Remember that although great deliverances, require your great acknowledgments. yet there is somewhat more required, namely, a real practical glorifying of God, by ordering your Conversation aright, by ferving him, pleasing him, obeying him, living to his honour: This Almighty God expects as well as prailes, and acknowledgments: As the end of God in afflictions is to make men better, so the end of God in deliverances is to make men better, and if we are not the better men by both dispenfations, we do as much as in us lies disappoint Almighty God in his delign, and difappoint our selves of the benefit and advantage intended in both, and easily to be gained by both. This therefore is the voice of this deliverance, it calls sweetly, and gently indeed, but earnestly and effectually for amendment of life: And that upon two great and moving arguments: 1. Your recovery and great deliverance calls for this from you, upon the accompt of common ingenuity and good nature, which obligeth a man to be observant and dutiful to his benefactor:

God

God A

hath

a vilit

ment

huma

When

Temp

the foll

evil A

Is this hath t

the rec

mercy

Comp

Heaven

me and

World

recom

ye fooli

Father

made th

2. This

God, in

of com

benefit

QWD, I

in that lecurity

than of

upon g

God Almighty is the greatest Benefactor, and hath manifested himself such to you, upon a visible and eminent account; this is engagement enough upon the account of common humanity, to be dutiful and obedient to him: When therefore you are at any time by the Temptation of your own Corruption, or by the follicitation of evil persons, sollicited to evil Actions: Consider thus with your self, Is this a becoming return to that God, that hath thus wonderfully delivered me? Is this the requital that I shall make to him for his mercy? Shall I please a vain Lust, or a vain Companion, and displease the great God of Heaven and Earth, that hath thus delivered me and done me more good, than all the World could ever do me, or than I can ever recompence? Do ye thus requite the Lord, O ye foolish People, and unwife? Is not he thy Father that hath bought thee? Hath he not made thee, and established thee? Deut. 32. 6. 2. This mercy calls for your obedience to God, in an eminent manner upon the account of common prudence and discretion; the benefit of your obedience to him will be your own, your own happiness in this Life, and in that to come: There is no greater moral security against future dangers and troubles, than obedience, and reformation of Life upon great deliverances received, nor is there B 4 ghte.

eity io

delivements, ired,

God, t, by him,

y God wledgidions

f God , and lispen-

disapnd disnd dis-

ained of this

thy infor agreat

n you, ty and to be

Cod

there any greater invitation of new troubles and mischiefs, than ingratitude, disobedience, and great fins after great mercies and deliverances: There is a kind of certain and infallible connexion between great fins, after great mercies received, and great Judgments to follow, Ingentia beneficia, ingentia peccata, ingentia Supplicia. Again, as I have formerly told you, you do not know how foon you may stand in need of the same mercy, and goodness of God, which you have formerly found: You are never out of the reach of his power, and the necessity of his help; what ever you do, therefore never disoblige him, by whom you Live, and whose extraordinary mercy you may stand in need of, you know not how foon: There is nothing in the World doth more provoke God, than neglect, forgetfulness, or willful disobedience after fignal mercies: These provoke the merciful God to a severity of the highest kind, because the sweetest and most obliging call of mercy and deliverance is neglected: Read the first Chapter of the Proverbs attentively.

And the merciful God hath given us a plain Rule and Method, how he may be ferved, obeyed, and pleased, he hath given us a plain discovery of his will in the Scriptures of both Testaments; Read that often,

ca ha

110

to

ing

Jot

dri

mi

Wh

tena

deli

Con

repe

aga

you

you have it by you, and you need not go far to find what is your Maker's Will, and what that obedience is, that he requires as the return of this, and all other his mercies: Yet I think it not amifs, to mind you of some particulars, that may be useful for you upon this occasion, and to direct you how particularly to improve it, and so order your future Life in some measure answerable to it.

and

fter

idg.

atta

ave

001

rcy,

tor-

each

elp;

lige

ex-

d of,

hing

than

ence

ner.

nd,

call

ed:

at-

US 2

v be given

crip

ften,

F04

1. I would have you make it your first business after your perfect Recovery, to Consider the course of your Life past, since you came to the Age of discretion, and see what hath been amiss in it; whether you have not neglected Religion, and the Duties of it too much, as Prayer, hearing the Word Preached, observing the Lords day, receiving the Sacrament; whether you have not been guilty of intemperance, excels of drinking, wantonness, uncleanness, idleness, mispending your time, and those supplies which have been allowed you for your maintenance; whether you have not too much delighted in vain and finful, and disorderly Company, vanity and expence in Apparel: And if any fuch, or the like faults have been, repent of them, be forry for them, refolve against them; and let the future course of your Life be amended in relation thereunto: I have before told you, that your heavenly Father hath forgiven you, and I have forgiven you, neither do I mention these things to upbraid you for them, but that you upon the consideration of what hath been amiss, may be thereby the better enabled to rectify and set in order your future Life: If this be done and practised, I will reckon your late sickness and distemper one of the greatest blessings that ever befel you.

2. I would have you always keep a habit of the fear of God upon your heart; Confider his presence, order your Life as in his presence, Consider that he always sees you, beholds, and takes notice of you, and especially whether you carry your self answerable to this great deliverance, it is one of those Talents for which he will expect an Account from you.

3. I would have you frequently and thankfully consider of the great Love of God in Jesus Christ, whom he hath given to be the Instructor, and Governour, and Sacrifice for the sins of you and all Mankind, through whom upon Repentance you have assurance of the remission of your sins and eternal Life; and frequently consider how great an ingagement this is upon you, and all Mankind, tolive according to such a hope and such a mercy.

4. I

the

ding

tok

THEN

a portion of the Holy Scriptures, 'till you have read the Bible from the beginning to the end: Observe it well, read it reverently and attentively, set your heart upon it, and lay it up in your memory, and make it the direction of your life; it will make you a wise and a good man: I have been acquainted somewhat with Men and Books, and have had long experience in Learning, and in the World: There is no Book like the Bible for excellent Learning, Wisdom, and Use, and it is want of understanding in them, that think or speak otherwise.

upon your knees with all reverence and attention of mind, return hearty thanks to God for his mercy to you, and particularly for this deliverance, desire his Grace to enable you to walk in some measure answerable to it, beg his Providence to protect you, his Grace to direct you, to keep you from evil Actions, and evil Persons, and evil occurrences, beg his pardon for your sin, and the continuance of his favour, always concluding with the Lords Prayer.

6. Observe conscionably the Lords day to keep it Holy, avoid idle Company, idle Discourse, Recreations, and secular imployments upon that day; resort twice that day to the publick Prayers and Sermon, come early to it, be attentive at it, keep your Eyes and Mind from roveing after vain thoughts or objects; and spend the rest of that day, that is free from necessary occasions, in Reading the Scriptures, or some good Books of Divinity.

7. Once ever Term at least come preparedly, and reverently to the Holy Communion, receive it with great reverence, and thankfulness, and due Consideration of the end of its institution: Renew your Covenant with Almighty God that you made in Baptism, and to live Soberly, Righteously, and Godly before him, and beg his Grace and Strength to perform it.

And as those directions before, do more specially relate to Almighty God, and your deportment immediately towards him; so these that follow, more especially relate to your self and others, and your moral Conversation: Therefore,

8. Be very moderate in Eating and Drinking, Drunkenness is the great vice of the time, and by Drunkenness I do mean not only gross Drunkenness, but also Tipling, Drinking excessively, and immoderately, or more than is convenient or necessary; avoid those Companies that are given to it, come not into those places that are devoted

VOU

In a

Mar

you

YOU

Recre

Mode

time.

1001

vain

t of cca.

1000

pa-

om-

ce,

n ot

Co-

nade

ally,

nore

TUOY

; fo

e to

011-

ink-

the

not

ng,

oit,

oted

to

Alehouses, avoid and refuse those devices that are used to occasion it, as Drinking and Pledging of Healths: Be resolute against it, and when your resolution is once known, you will never be sollicited to it: The Rechabites were Commanded by their Father not to drink Wine, and they obeyed it, and had a blessing for it; my Command to you is not so strict, I allow you the moderate use of Wine and strong Drink at your meals, I only forbid you the excess, or unnecessary use of it, and those Places and Companies, and Artistices that are Temptations to it.

9. Avoid Wanton and Lascivious Actions, Speeches and Company: Read Proverbs 2, 5, 6, 7. 9. A Whore hunts for the precious Life of a man, and that vice brings a ruine with it to the Body, Soul, and Estate: If you cannot Conveniently contain your self in a single Life, and be of Competent health, Marry, but with the Advise and Counsel of your Father, while he lives.

best Jewels we have) and to that end avoid Idleness, it consumes your time, and lays you open to worse inconveniences; let your Recreations be healthy, and Creditable, and Moderate, without too much expence of time, or money: Go not to Stage-plays, they are a most profuse wasting of time; value time by that estimate we would have of it, when we want it, what would not a sickman give for those portions of time of health, that he had formerly improvidently wasted?

II. Bee diligent in your Study and Calling; it is an Act of duty to Almighty God that requires it, and it will be your wisdom and benefit; it will be a good expence of time, a prevention from a Thousand inconveniences and temptations, that otherwise will befall a man; it will furnish you with knowledge and understanding, give you the advantage and means of a comfortable and plentiful subsistence, and make you a support, comfort and benefit to your Friends and Country.

within the Compass of that Exhibition, that Gods Providence and your Father's abilifies shall supply you withall; it is enough to maintain an honest provident man, and tentimes more will not be enough for a profuse mind: A frugal man will live Comfortably and Plentifully upon a little; and a profuse man will live beggerly, necessitously and in continual want, whatever his supplies

be

13. În

han

tha

1180 ma

or b

lure

Ibri

Vear

patie

Que

them

prov.

ration

in re for yo

forgo

Grati

14 tine C

thems

the oc

ing of much

your A

not cur

Head-

or to t

Worle

13. In all your expences confider before hand: Can I not be well enough without this that I am about to buy? Is there an absolute necessity of it? Can I not forbear 'till I am in a better Condition to compass it? If I buy or borrow can I pay? And when? And am I fire? will this expence hold out? How shall I bring about the next Quarter, or the next year? If young men would but have the patience to confider, and ask themselves Questions of the like nature, it would make them Considerate in their Expences and provident for the future; and these Considerations will in a special manner concern you, in respect of your Fathers great Expences for you, which though I have forgiven, and forgotten, I would have you remember with Gratitude and Caution.

fine Cloaths, and new Fashions, and valuing themselves by them, is one of the most Childish pieces of folly that can be, and the occasion of great profuseness and undoing of Young-men: Avoid curiosity and too much expensiveness in your Apparel: Let your Apparel be comely, plain, decent, cleanly not curious or costly; it is the sign of a weak Head-piece, to be sick for every new Fashion, or to think himself the better in it, or the worse without it.

fort with, and much more careful what persons you grow intimate with; chuse sober, wise, learned, honest, Religious Company, you will gain Learning and Wisdom, and improve your self in Virtue and Goodness, by conversing with them: But avoid debauched, soolish, intemperate, prodigal, atheistical, prophane Company, as you would avoid a Plague; they will Corrupt and undo you, they are a fort of the most pitiful sools in the World, and familiar acquaintance and conversation with them, will endanger to make you like them.

16. Weigh and consider your words before you speak them, and do not talk at random or at a venture; let your words be few, and to the purpose, be more ready to hear others than to speak your self; accustom your self to speak leisurely, and deliberately, it will be a means to make you speak warily lib

fes

COL

me

mi

den

be

Mo

nie

and confiderately.

17. Be very careful to speak truth, and beware of lying; as lying is displeasing to God, so it is offensive to man, and always at the latter end returns to the reproach or disadvantage of him that useth it; it is an evidence of a weak and unmanly mind. Be careful that you believe not hastily strange news, and strange stories, and be much more careful careful that you do not report them, though at the second hand, for if it prove an untruth, (as commonly strange stories prove so) it brings an imputation of levity upon him that reports it, and possibly some disadvantage to others.

W.

vhat

hule

om-

om,

void

gal,

ould

untiful

ance

nger

be-

k at

is be

V to

ftom

tely,

arily

and

ig to

ways

chor

15 20

Be

range

more

18. Take heed what you promise, see that it be just, and honest, and lawful; and what is in your power, honeftly and certainly to perform: And when you have fo promised, be true to your word. It is for the most part the fashion of inconsiderate and Young-men, (especially that run in debt) they will with great affeverations, promise precise payment, at this or that day; when either they certainly know they cannot perform, or at least have no probable assurance that they can do it; and when their turn is served, they are as backward in performance, as they were before liberal in their promises. Breach of promifes and lying are much of a nature, and commonly go together, and are arguments of an impotent and unmanly mind.

dennest Consumption of an Estate that can be, and that vice seldom goes alone; commonly debauchery of all kinds accompanies it: Besides it makes a man of a wild, vast and unsettled mind; and such men are impatient of an honest Calling, or of moderate or honest gain.

20. Run not into debt either for Wares fold, or Money borrowed; be content to want things that are not of absolute necessity, rather than to run upon the score; such a man pays at the latter end a third part more than the Principal comes to, and is in perpetual servitude to his Creditors, lives uncomfortably, is necessitated to increase his debts, to stop his Creditors mouths, and many times falls into desperate Courses.

21. Be respectfull to all, familiar and intimate with few, be Grateful to your Benefactors, especially to those, who under God, were instrumental for your good, in your late sickness, and return your thanks to them; to your Father that spared no cost for your Recovery, to your Doctor that was exceedingly diligent about you, to those that attended you in your sickness, to those that together with your Father often prayed to God for your Recovery, and for a bleffing upon this Affliction, whose names you shall in due time particularly know. But above all, to Almighty God, who not only provided and bleffed the means, but faved, and delivered

you

M

OF

ld,

unt

12

art

rs,

111-

013

De-

and

OUL

der

In

110

tor

ou,

els,

her

ry,

on,

par.

hty

blel-

ered

TOU

you above means, and when means failed.

22. Lastly, I shall conclude with one advice more, without the observance whereof my labour in writing this long Epistle will be probably fruitless: Be not wife in your own conceit, this is the unhappy error, and many times the ruine of Youngmen especially: They are usually rash, giddy, and inconsiderate, and yet extreamly confident of that which they have least reaion to trust, namely their own understanding, which renders them most reserved from them that are willing and best able to advise them, impatient of reprof, love to be flattered, and so become uncapable of good and wife Councel, 'till their follies, have reduced them to extream straits and inconveniences; suspect therefore your own judgment: Advise often with your Father, especially in all things of moment; be glad of his Councel, and be Contented and willing to follow it, and to guide your Life according to it; at least 'till ripeness of Age, Observation, and Experience, have enabled you better to advise your self: This is an easie, and ready, and cheap way of attaining Wisdom, and avoiding of infinite inconveniences.

And

And thus I have in this long Epistle, given you the means how you may improve both your sickness, and recovery, to the Glory of God, and your own benefit.

I shall therefore Conclude with two Considerations, that may the more ingage you to this use of both these dispensations.

- nake not a man more humble and dutiful, and the danger is yet greater, if great deliverances and mercies do not make a man more thankful and obedient to God; because it is the most obliging method that the Gracious God can use towards the Children of men, for that end, in this Life: And the neglect of that invitation, adds Ingratitude and Contempt to the neglect of it.
- making a good use of these two dispensations, in improving your dutifulness and obedience to God, will be singular and excellent: 1. It will make you a wise man, by making you a Good, and a Religious man: Believe it from your Father, who will not deceive you, nay, believe it from a greater than your Father, the very Spirit of

ou

ons

1211

be-nat nil-

fe:

dds leat

by da-

and

and 111,

DILIS

tho

1001

oirit

of truth, who cannot deceive you; the true fear of God, is the only true Wildom: Read Deut. 4. 6. Job 28. 28. Pfal. 111. 10. Prov. 1. 7. Prov. 9. 10. Eccles. 12. 13. and very many more declarations there are of this great truth: 2. It will make you a happy man, it will give you the Favour and Love of God, which is better than Life it self: You shall have his Mercy to pardon you, his Providence to protect you, his Wisdom to direct you, his Goodness to bless you, and to forgive, and forget whatfoever hath heretofore been done amifs by you: This will make all Conditions Comfortable to you, whether Life or Death, Sickness or Health: By this means you may be a Comfort to your Father, a support to your Brothers and Sifters, an Instrument of good to your Country, and attain an Honest, Credible, and Competent Subfistence in this World, and an everlasting inheritance of Glory and Immortality in the World to come. Thus I have given you a large Letter of found and good Counsel: Set your heart to it, and observe and remember it: We see how unstable our Lives are, you nor I know not how foon, either or both of us may leave this World: It may be, this may be moissor the last paper of Advice that your Father may give you: But however it shall please God to deal with you or me, touching our continuance in this World, yet let me leave this with you, in the close of this Letter: If I shall find that these directions are dutifully observed, I shall be ready from time to time, freely to advise and direct you; and as I have passed by your former Extravagancies, fo I shall thereby have great affurance, that God hath bleffed this Visitation to you. But on the other side, if I shall find that you neglect my Counfels, that you make light of them, that you still pursue those Courses that will certainly be bitterness in the end, I must then tell you, I shall pray for you, and be forry for you with my heart; but I shall not easily be perswaded to give any more Advices or Counsels, where I find them despised or neglected. In this paper there are many things omitted, which might have been inferted; but the con-Stant Reading of the Holy Scriptures will supply unto you that defect: I have cho-sen only in this paper to mention such things which are scasonable for you upon this occasion. God Almighty hath not been wanting to you in Admonition, Correction, rection, Mercy, and Deliverance; neither hath your Father been wanting to you in Education, Counsel, Care, and Expence: I pray God Almighty bless all unto you. This is the Prayer of,

Your Loving Father;

MATTHEW HALE.

FINIS.

n-nc

ho-

100 not

OF.

OD,

to One of 18 Sour. n Mercy , soul Deliverance ; neither your tatler been wanting to you in retion, Council; Care, and Expender av God Almighty blefs all unto you is the Prayer of, Your Loving Eather, MATTHEW HALE, EINIG.

