SOLOMON'S 1801

BALM OF GILEAD.

IT is notorious, that various disorders of the human frame are brought on by dissipation in youth, and the gross violation of those rules which prudence dictates for the preservation of health, and laying a foundation for a long and happy life, with a firm and strong constitution. The blessings of health are no sooner lost, than painful experience teaches the inestimable value of it, and the unhappy patient looks around, too often, alas! in vain, for the means of its recovery!

Doctor Solomon, of Liverpool, recommends his CORDIAL BALM OF GILEAD to all those whose constitutions have been impaired by early imprudence, and whose nerves are afflicted by intense study, the too free use of ardent spirits, tea or coffee, as well as to all persons who are enervated by long residence in hot and unhealthy climates; in which cases it will invariably prove of the most sovereign efficacy, bracing the relaxed nerves, strengthening and invigorating the constitution.

The various weaknesses peculiar to the fair sex come immediately under the power of this restorative; and many ladies of fashion and respectability have found it to be the best medical appendage to the toilet they ever met with; for recruiting the decayed spirits, dissipating the head-ach, dulness, and langour; and by creating a pleasing vivacity, chasing away melancholy, it gives comfort and strength to the whole system.

The train of melancholy disorders which afflict the human frame, under the denomination of Nervous Diseases, are the principal sources of human misery in the privation of health. These disorders proceed from such an infinite variety and complication of causes, as to render it impossible, if even it were always necessary, to trace them to their true source. The effects, however, are but too well known, and too severely felt amongst too great a portion of mankind; and to these effects it may without exaggeration be asserted, that any remedy more superior or celebrated for efficacy than DR. SOLOMON'S CORDIAL BALM OF GILEAD never has been discovered. Numerous cases have from time to time been published in every newspaper in the kingdom, for the encouragement of the afflicted to use and persevere in a medicine which so eminently affords a complete cure in all cases of debility.

An opinion prevails that nervous diseases are at present more common in Europe than at any former period, and is chiefly attributed to excess of indulgences practised in these times of refinement and luxury. It is certainly true, that the farther we depart from simplicity and temperance in diet, and the more we sacrifice wholesome exercises to the inactivity attending domestic amusements, the greater will be the influence of every physical error, in diminishing the vigour of the constitution. Diseases of the nerves are incident to both sexes, with only this difference, that, in the female, from the natural delicacy of constitution and the softer manner of life, they are in general more frequent and violent than in the other. Weakness of the nervous system are often, alas! too often, occasioned by irregularities in one sex, and sensual excesses in the other. The most common symptom of this disease is a constant dread of death, which pervades with its baleful influence the whole nervous system, writhing the heart with inexpressible anguish, and exciting the most dreadful suggestions of horror and despair! to this demon have thousands fallen a sacrifice in the transports of its rage, and which renders those unhappy persons who labour under it peevish, fickle, and impatient; apt to run from one Doctor to another; and this is the reason why they so seldom reap any benefit from medicine, as they have not sufficient resolution to persist in any one course till it has time to produce its proper effect.

This incomparable Cordial Balm of Gilead is at once the most elegant and efficacious medicine ever yet discovered; in weak and shattered constitutions, weakness of sight or memory, hypochondria, tremblings, horrors of the mind, sexual debility, and all other diseases arising from a relaxed state of the nervous system, and often the consequence of intemperance, debauchery, inattention to the necessary cares of health, luxury, in sedentary, inactive, or studious life, this Cordial Balm has universally established its restorative efficacy, and may be justly enumerated amongst the foremost of those happy discoveries which medical research have procured as the blessings of the human race, and greatest counteractive to human misery. Thousands at this moment, in the three kingdoms, live to bless the day they first applied to this admirable remedy, and enjoy the blessings of health, who might otherwise have dropped into an untimely grave, the victims of early imprudence.

Accounts from Ireland, the East and West Indies, Germany, Hamburgh, Berlin, Holland, Jamaica, America, Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, all concur in stating that no medicine ever introduced in those countries met with such rapid and extraordinary sale. The custom-house books at London and Liverpool will evidently show that more of this medicine is exported than all others put together.

Dr. Solomon, conscious of the rectitude of his conduct, and the unrivalled, unprecedented efficacy of his medicines, cannot withhold so great blessings from society as his CORDIAL BALM OF GILEAD and ANTI-IMPETIGINES, which are two distinct and separate preparations, the former for all cases of debility, and the latter in cases of impurity of blood, or depraved habit of body; and is determined, at the annual expense of Five Thousand Pounds, to establish these great discoveries for the benefit of mankind; and will continue regularly to advertise true, genuine, and voluntary attestations of their superior efficacy. No person, therefore, labouring under weakness of body or debility of mind, should despair, but make a trial of these medicines, which will not disappoint their hopes, however sanguine they may be. Those who have long resided in hot climates, and are languid and relaxed in their whole system, may take these medicines with the happiest effects; and persons going to the East or West-Indies cannot store more important articles of health and life. They have been the only means of restoring thousands afflicted with the Yellow Fever in America.

The Cordial Balm of Gilead is now considered as the greatest discovery that has been made in the memory of man; it is potent, safe, and pleasant. The rapid and increasing fame bestowed on its author and inventor (Dr. Solomon, of Liverpool) is the true and only criterion to judge of the merits of a medicine, which has been administered from the highest to the lowest class of people with such happy and uniform success.—The venders of this medicine, which are far more numerous than ever before known, frequently cannot be supplied so quick as the demand is for it; and it is a fact worthy of remark, that they are sold nearly as soon as they arrive to hand, most of the bottles being bespoke before they are ordered.

Some remarkable cures which have been performed by this truly invaluable medicine are inserted, that all the world may be able to judge of the superior efficacy of the Cordial Balm of Gilead; and to show that no person, however dangerous their situation may be, should be bereft of hopes of relief.

CASES.

The great repute of this Restorative, in Ireland, as well as in all other parts, may be seen by the following Extract of a Letter from William Greenshields, Esq.

TO DR. SOLOMON, LIVERPOOL.

MRS. GREENSHIELDS has tried your Cordial Balm of Gilead, and though she has had the advice of many of the most eminent of the faculty in Ireland to prescribe for a bilious complaint that has attacked her these ten years, she found the most wonderful benefit from your medicine alone.

Dublin, No. 7, Montague-street, Oct. 9, 1800.

WILLIAM GREENSHIELDS.

Extract of a Letter from John Jackson, Esq.

Of Castle-Carbery, (county of Kildare), Ireland, dated August 1st, 1801.

TO DOCTOR SOLOMON.

Dear Sir,—I inform you with great pleasure that Mrs. Jackson (my wife) was two years and a half completely bed-ridden, and not able, from her great weakness, to eat, drink, or digest any thing, till she was advised by a friend to try your truly celebrated Cordial Balm of Gilead, nine bottles of which has had so extraordinary and happy an effect that she is now (though at the age of SIXTY-THREE YEARS) able to walk out and exercise herself, being most perfectly recovered, to the surprize and astonishment of all her neighbours; in consideration of which, and in justice to your medicine, you have my permission to publish the same, should you think proper.

I am, dearest Sir, your much obliged

JOHN JACKSON.

No. 9, Montague-street Dublin, Nov. 4, 1800.

TO DR. SOLOMON, LIVERPOOL.

Sir—Having been for some months much affected by an oppression in my chest and lungs, and being advised by a friend to try your Cordial Balm of Gilead, on taking a few bottles I have found the greatest relief from them, and, I make no doubt, that a few bottles more will restore me to my former good health.

I am, Sir, your obedient humble servant,

JANE CARLOS.

Witness---Wm. Greenfields, one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Dublin.

Robert Raike, Esq. (founder of the Sunday Schools) of Gloucester, unites his testimony to the great success and wonderful efficacy of the Cordial Balm of Gilead.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Hodgson, Editor of the Carlisle Journal, dated 30th June, 1801.

Mr. J. Harper, an inhabitant of this neighbourhood, for several years laboured under a most lamentable depression of spirits, which rendered him almost incapable of either bodily or mental exertion; and although he had the advice of several gentlemen of the faculty, of unquestionable abilities, yet I perceived with much concern that he grew worse, and he ultimately exhibited every symptom of a person in the last stage of a consumption; his countenance was pale and meagre, and his voice had lost its usual sonorous tone. Through continued importunity, I prevailed upon him at length to make trial of your Cordial Balm of Gilead; and after using two bottles of it, his spirits were much recruited, his face began to resume its wonted bloom and plumpness, and he is now, I am happy to state, completely restored to his pristine health and vigour.

FROM BIRMINGHAM.

Mr. Edward Fox, of Livery-street, Birmingham, laboured under the painful effects of indigestion, and could obtain no relief from regular medical advice. The weakness, however, gained on his constitution, as scarcely any sustenance remained on his stomach. He determined to give the Cordial Balm of Gilead a fair trial, and immediately sent for some to Mr. Swinney's, printer, in this town, and the consequences fully justified the report he had of the medicine; his spirits were soon recruited, and his appetite and digestion, after eighteen months' wasting and excruciating illness, are now happily restored.

Livery-street, Harper's-bill, Birmingham.

This case is witnessed by the following Gentlemen, residents of Birmingham:

James Millar, Esq.	John Robotham.	Henry Hawkins.
John Ellis.	John Taylor, Esq.	James Ferral.
Walter Archer.

That consumptions, so universally considered as incurable, however hereditary, inveterate, or of long standing, may now be with certainty removed, and that the constitution may be restored, though emaciated to so great a degree that existence is considered as nearly at an end, is highly, fully, and beyond a doubt exemplified, in a recent letter from JNO. CARTER MULLINER, Esq. of Shotley, near Ipswich, dated 29th August, 1801.

Sir,---Gratitude impels me not only to thank you, but also to request you to make my case public for the benefit of others:---My family have always been consumptive, having lost two sisters and a brother; and I should certainly have fallen a victim if your Balm of Gilead had not saved me. I have been under almost all the faculty of eminence near me; particularly Dr. Hawes, of Cavendish, so eminently famous for consumptive cases. You have my hearty concurrence to make my case known. Finding relief from a small bottle, when nothing else afforded me the least benefit, I persevered till a 5l. case completely cured me. I assure you I will recommend the Balm of Gilead to all I know labouring under similar complaints.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

To Dr. Solomon, Liverpool.

JNO. CARTER MULLINER.

N.B. Persons desirous of further information, may be satisfied in every particular by Mr. Woolfrey Middleditch, Chemist, Ipswich.

The following Cases were communicated to Mr. M'Donald, of Glasgow:

A gentleman who had resided in the West-Indies for many years, came home for the recovery of his health; he consulted the faculty in Edinburgh; their prescriptions gave him no relief. Seeing a case similar to his own in your Guide to Health, cured by your Cordial Balm of Gilead, he was induced to make trial of it, and experienced a great alteration for the better, till happily he recovered his health completely. He is now as well, as stout and hearty as ever. This gentleman's case was a continual head-ach, dullness of hearing, loss of appetite, general debility, &c. &c.

ANOTHER CASE.—A young gentleman informed Mr. M'Donald that he could not withhold his testimony of the benefit which he derived from four bottles of the Cordial Balm of Gilead, which completely restored him to health. His complaint was, he thought, the first stage of a consumption, want of appetite, great head-ach, general debility, &c.

ONE CASE MORE AT PRESENT.—A young lady who had lost her health for some time, by the use of three or four bottles of the Cordial Balm of Gilead was restored to good health. She is now quite well; she had been, previous to her taking the Balm of Gilead, thin, pale, meagre and dejected; now she is as well as ever.

Mrs. Price,* widow of the Rev. Mr. Price, late Vicar of St. John's, Chester, begs to acquaint Dr. Solomon, that having been for a considerable time grievously afflicted with a nervous and bilious complaint, want of appetite, indigestion, &c. for which she had the best advice of the most able physicians of Liverpool, but all without the smallest benefit, until, by urgent sollicitation of friends, she made use of a bottle of the Cordial Balm of Gilead, and which Mrs. P. assures Dr. Solomon has completely restored her health.

* Mrs. P. is the daughter of that much-lamented Member of the Corporation, Alderman BOLLAND, of Chester.

*Account of a wonderful Recovery, communicated by Mr. Mathews,
No. 18, Strand, London.*

A lady was afflicted with nervous affections, and a very high inflammation of the lungs, attended with excessive coughing, which reduced her to death's door. She had the best medical advice she could procure, and Dr. Pitcairne among others; but to no good purpose. She continued twelve months in this disordered state; went to Bristol and found no relief: for four months together she could not lie down in her bed without the hazard of excessive pain or suffocation, and during that period could only rest by being propped up with pillows. Being almost worn out with suffering, a friend advised her to buy a bottle of your Cordial Balm of Gilead: she purchased two half-guinea bottles, and found much relief by them, and then bought a 5l. box, which perfectly restored her from the debilitated state of her lungs and nervous disorder. She also added, that many of her friends, through her recommendation, had found great benefit by taking the Balm of Gilead.

Extract of an Affidavit of J. Broom, Esq. Downend, near Bristol.

I swear, that I was long troubled with a nervous complaint, accompanied with great trembling, weakness, debility, lowness of spirits, bad cough, and head-ach; I was rendered incapable of doing any thing. I entered upon a course of the Cordial Balm of Gilead, and found immediate relief; three bottles perfectly restored me to my usual state of health.

J. BROOM.

Sworn before me, one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace } for the county of Gloucester. } J. C. HARTFORD.

The Rev. Rowland Philips, B. A. Long-Ashton, near Bristol,

Feels it a duty incumbent on him as a clergyman, to state for the good of the afflicted, that he was restored from great weakness, with a long train of horrid symptoms attendant on a nervous complaint of many years standing, by the use of the Cordial Balm of Gilead, though many remedies prescribed by the faculty, as well as those advertised, were tried in vain. His spouse also derived great benefit therefrom; and several of the first families in the vicinity of Bristol have declared they owe the recovery of their health solely to the great efficacy of that valuable restorative. He therefore thinks it cannot be too generally known.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Joseph Morris, of Chepstow, To DR. SOLOMON, LIVERPOOL. Dated May 11th, 1801.

"It is with great pleasure I acquaint you that a gentleman in this neighbourhood has found wonderful relief by taking your noble Cordial Balm of Gilead. He was troubled with a violent cough, which deprived him of his rest at night, continually spitting up a blackish substance, from which your medicine has completely recovered him. Several other persons have received great benefit who do not chuse to have their names mentioned, but to whom any respectable enquirer will be referred, by Your humble servant, JOSEPH MORRIS."

The limits of this Pamphlet will not admit a copious insertion of more Cases, but abundance are inserted in the "GUIDE TO HEALTH", and more still are in the Doctor's possession, which for good reasons are not proper to appear in a public address, that may fall into the hands of young people, whose want of knowledge of the miseries "human flesh is heir to", may still preserve them chaste and innocent.

* * Persons in the country requiring the Doctor's opinion relative to inveterate cases, are to enclose his usual fee of a GUINEA, in a letter, with the state of their case. Such letter should (for safety) be thus directed—"Money-letter; Dr. Solomon, Solomon's Place, Brownlow Street, Liverpool; paid double postage".

Letters may be ordered to be addressed for X.Z. or A.B. at the Post-Office, till called for.

A Saving of One Pound Six Shillings :

N.B. The CORDIAL BALM OF GILEAD is sold in bottles, price Half-a-Guinea each; there are also boxes, price 5l. containing equal to twelve bottles at 10s. 6d. by which the patient saves 1l. 6s. which can be had by remitting a Five Pound Bank Note.

ADDRESS TO THE PUBLIC IN GENERAL, On Scorbatic Complaints.

SCORBATIC and other ERUPTIVE DISORDERS have very considerably increased in this country of late years; notwithstanding many remedies have been repeatedly offered to the public, under the most specious pretences, and it is a matter of regret, that after the strenuous efforts of so many persons, attentive to the cure of these complaints, and the whole materia medica having been ransacked for the means to eradicate them, they should still gain ground, and become in a manner constitutional to numbers of the inhabitants of this climate.

Serious reflection upon this important subject, has at length determined Doctor SOLOMON to endeavour to point out to the public the causes of these maladies—the various forms and appearances by which they are manifested—and to offer some observations on the best mode to obtain a certain and lasting cure; and he trusts, that the destructive disorders above alluded to, will be totally eradicated in many, and their dreadful symptoms greatly relieved in all, who apply to the remedies recommended to them; in the selection of which, the greatest care has been taken to discard every thing that can possibly tend to hurt the weakest constitutions, and to unite with judicious acumen those medicines which are the most pointedly directed to remove obstructions and correct impurities in the vital stream.

Any Disorder originating in Obstructed Perspiration, or Impurity of the Blood.

DR. SOLOMON having been long in possession of a recipe for the certain and effectual cure of those disorders which arise from an impure and vitiated state of the blood and lymph, has observed with the deepest regret, the numberless instances where patients have pined away a miserable existence without receiving the smallest benefit from any thing they could procure, he has at length yielded to the pressing necessities of his fellow-creatures, and determined to publish to the world a medicine truly calculated to cleanse the blood from all foulness, counteract every morbid affection, and restore constitutions that have been ruined by the injudicious use of mercury, &c.

The ANTI-IMPETIGINES is by no means a new medicine; it is founded on a chemical and philosophical basis, under the sanction of the great and learned Doctor Cullen, of Edinburgh, who describes "Impetigines" in his ever-to-be-admired Practice of Physic, No. 1737, as "disorders originating from a depraved habit, or affections of the skin".

Innumerable letters of recommendation and certificates from the clergy, churchwardens, and overseers, in various parts of these kingdoms, are in the proprietor's possession; particularly from

The Rev. J. Atkinson, of Cuirdale;	The Rev. Thomas Knowles, of Standish;
The Rev. Richard Carr, of Billinge;	The Rev. Thomas Lowe, of Atherton;
The Rev. John Fawl, of Wigan;	The Rev. John Relphe, of Oswald Turth;

The Rev. Philip Kitchen, of Liverpool;	The Rev. R. Westall, New Acrington, near Blackburn;
The Rev. A. Clarke, Methodist Preacher, Manchester;	The Rev. W. Pearson, of Bolton, &c. &c.
The Rev. Joseph Taylor, of Coppull;

The ANTI-IMPETIGINES is an alterative and purifier of the blood, its operation is gradual, gentle, and almost imperceptible; it is the best substitute that has ever been discovered for that dangerous mineral Mercury; in every complaint wherein it has hitherto been administered it sweetens the blood and stimulates it to expel all noxious and impure juices, giving strength and tone to the nerves, enlivening and invigorating both body and mind. For Scorbutic, Cutaneous Eruptions, Dry or Wet Leprosy, the Anti-Impetigines certainly claims a pre-eminence over all other medicines, being decidedly adapted for the speedy removal of these complaints, and will not only clear the skin, but heal all old sores and ulcers of ever so long standing.

In all disorders where salivation has repeatedly failed, when no other remedy could restore the unhappy sufferer to that health he unfortunately lost, the Anti-Impetigines has been found the great and only restorer of health and vigour. This medicine having been constantly used in private practice with invariable success, it is therefore of established efficacy, having stood the test of half a century, and its preparation known only to Dr. Solomon and family.

The Anti-Impetigines is inclosed in plain directions, with a number of surprising cures authenticated by persons of great respectability, price 10s. 6d. each bottle.—THIRTEEN SHILLINGS IS SAVED in each family bottle at 50s. which contains six half-guinea bottles.

This book is recommended to young men and boys; to guard them against a fatal rock on which thousands have split, and to be the means of preserving them from disease, and all their faculties from destruction.

This truly interesting work has been the labour of many years' experience and observation on the calamitous consequences of a secret and destructive vice, to obtain a remedy against which, the Doctor has devoted the principal part of his life. No proprietors of boarding-schools or academies should be without it.

This pamphlet points out the direct methods of cure, from a Bleorrhœgia, or Gonorrhœa, to a confirmed Syphilis. To which is added, an essay on Secret Venery, and a discourse on Impotency in the Male, and Sterility and Barrenness incident to Females, &c.; an appendix on the subject of a solitary and destructive Vice, and an address to Parents, Guardians, Tutors, and those who have the care and education of youth. Likewise advice to Bathers, particularly the afflicted with Nervous Complaints. The whole illustrated and interspersed with a variety of authentic facts never before published. In which is explained the symptoms, mode of treatment, and remedies in the different stages of the Scurvy, Leprosy, King's Evil, Gout, Rheumatism, and Venereal Disease: Cautions to young persons of the danger of improper connexions or improper treatment, &c. with the difference between the venereal symptoms and those frequently mistaken for them.

Every person is interested in some part of this book, particularly young people of either sex, who have unfortunately given way to a delusive, secret, and destructive vice, injured their health, and destroyed their whole animal functions thereby:—such will meet with a "Balm of Consolation" in perusing the mode of cure laid down in "The Guide to Health".
