Alexander's Feast : OR, THE POWER OF MUSICK.

---

ACT the FIRST.

RECITATIVE. Mr. BEARD.

WAS at the Royal Feast, for Persia won,
By Philip's warlike Son :
Aloft in awful State,
The God-like Heroe fate
On his Imperial Throne :
His valiant Peers were plac'd around ;
Their Brows with Roses and with Myrtles bound.
So shou'd Desert in Arms be crown'd.
The lovely Thais by his Side
Sate like a blooming Eastern Bride,
In Flow'r of Youth, and Beauty's Pride.

A I R.

*Happy, happy, happy Pair, !
 None but the Brave,
 None but the Brave,
 None but the Brave deserves the Fair,*

C H O R U S.

*Happy, happy, happy Pair !
 None but the Brave,
 None but the Brave,
 None but the Brave deserves the Fair.*

R E C I T A T I V E.

*Timotheus plac'd on high,
 Amid the tuneful Quire,
 With flying Fingers touch'd the Lyre :
 The trembling Notes ascend the Sky :
 And heav'nly Joys inspire.*

R E C I T A T I V E accompany'd.

*The Song began from Jove,
 Who left his blissful Seats above ;
 (Such is the Pow'r of mighty Love)
 A Dragon's fiery Form bely'd the God ;
 Sublime, on radiant Spires he rode,
 When he to fair Olympia press'd,
 And while he sought her snowy Breast :
 Then, round her slender WASTE he curl'd,
 And stamp'd an Image of Himself, a Sov'reign of the World.*

C H O R U S.

CHORUS.

*The list'ning Crowd admire the lofty Sound,
A present Deity! they shout around;
A present Deity! the vaulted Roofs rebound.*

A I R. Sig. FRASI.

*With ravish'd Ears
The Monarch hears;
Assumes the God,
Affects the Nod:
And seems to shake the Spheres.*

RECITATIVE. Mr. BEARD.

The Praise of Bacchus, then, the sweet Musician sung:
Of Bacchus, ever Fair, and ever Young:
The jolly God in Triumph comes;
Sound the Trumpets, beat the Drums:
Flush'd with a purple Grace,
He shews his honest Face;
Now give the Hautboys Breath; He comes! he comes!

A I R. Mr. WASS.

*Bacchus, ever Fair, and Young,
Drinking Joys did first ordain;
Bacchus' Blessings are a Treasure,
Drinking is the Soldier's Pleasure:
Rich the Treasure,
Sweet the Pleasure;
Sweet is Pleasure after Pain.*

CHORUS.

C H O R U S.

*Bacchus' Blessings are a Treasure,
 Drinking is the Soldier's Pleasure :
 Rich the Treasure,
 Sweet the Pleasure ;
 Sweet is Pleasure after Pain.*

RECITATIVE. Mr. BEARD.

Sooth'd with the Sound, the King grew vain ;
 Fought all his Battles o'er again ;
 And thrice he routed all his Foes, and thrice he slew the Slain :
 The Master saw the Madness rise,
 His glowing Cheeks, his ardent Eyes ;
 And while he Heav'n and Earth defy'd,
 Chang'd his Hand, and check'd his Pride.

RECITATIVE accompany'd. Sig. GALLI.

He chose a mournful Muse,
 Soft Pity to infuse.

A I R.

*He sung Darius Great and Good,
 By too severe a Fate,
 Fallen from his high Estate,
 And weltring in his Blood.*

*Deserted at his utmost Need,
 By those his former Bounty fed,
 On the bare Earth expos'd he lies,
 Without a Friend to close his Eyes.*

RECI-

R E C I T A T I V E.

With downcast Looks the joyless Victor fate,
Revolving in his alter'd Soul,
The various Turns of Chance below,
And, now and then a Sigh he stole,
And Tears began to flow.

Without a Friend to close his Eyes.*

R E C I T A T I V E. Sig. GUADAGNA.

The mighty Master smil'd to see
That Love was in the next Degree;
'Twas but a kindred Sound to move,
For Pity melts the Mind to Love.

Softly sweet, in Lydian Measures,
Soon he sooth'd his Soul to Pleasures.

*War, he sung, is Toil and Trouble,
 Honour, but an empty Bubble :
 Never ending, still beginning,
     Fighting still, and still destroying ;
 If the World be worth thy winning,
     Think, O think it worth enjoying :
 Lovely Thais sits beside thee,
 Take the Good the Gods provide thee.*

ACT the SECOND.

---

RECITATIVE accompany'd. Mr. BEARD.

NOW strike the Golden Lyre again ;
 A louder yet—and yet a louder Strain ;
 Break his Bands of Sleep asunder,
 And rouse him, like a rattling Peal of Thunder.

CHORUS.

*Break his Bands of Sleep asunder,
 And rouse him, like a rattling Peal of Thunder.*

RECITATIVE.

Hark, hark ! — the horrid Sound
 Has rais'd up his Head,
 As awak'd from the Dead :
 And amaz'd, he stares around.

A I R. Mr. WASS.

*Revenge, Revenge, Timotheus cries,
 See the Furies arise,
 See the Snakes that they rear,
 How they hiss in their Hair,
 And the Sparkles that flash from their Eyes !*

A I R. Sig. GALLI.

*Behold a ghastly Band,
 Each a Torch in his Hand !
 Those are Grecian Ghosts, that in Battle were slain,
 And unbury'd, remain
 Inglorious on the Plain.*

RECI-

RECITATIVE accompany'd. Mr. BEARD.

Give the Vengeance due
To the valiant Crew:
Behold how they toss their Torches on high,
How they point to the Persian Abodes,
And glitt'ring Temples of their hostile Gods!

A I R.

*The Princes applaud with a furious Joy;
And the King seiz'd a Flambeau, with Zeal to destroy.*

A I R. Sig. F R A S I.

*Thais led the Way,
To light him to his Prey;
And like another Helen, fir'd another Troy.*

RECITATIVE, accompany'd. Mr. BEARD.

Thus long ago,
Ere heaving Bellows learn'd to blow,
While Organs yet were mute,
Timotheus to his breathing Flute,
And sounding Lyre,
Cou'd swell the Soul to Rage, or kindle soft Desire.

G R A N D C H O R U S.

*At last divine Cecilia came,
 Inventress of the Vocal Frame;
 The sweet Enthusiast from her sacred Store,
 Enlarg'd the former narrow Bounds,
 And added Length to solemn Sounds,
 With Nature's Mother-Wit, and Arts unknown before.*

R E C I T A T I V E.

*Let old Timotheus yield the Prize,
 Or both divide the Crown;
 He rais'd a Mortal to the Skies,
 She drew an Angel down.*

*Let old Timotheus yield the Prize,
 Or both divide the Crown;
 He rais'd a Mortal to the Skies,
 She drew an Angel down.*

C H O R U S.

*Your Voices tune, and raise them high,
 Till they echo from the vaulted Sky
 The blest Cecilia's Name:
 Musick to Heav'n and Her we owe,
 The greatest Blessing that's below;
 Sound loudly then her Fame.*

*Let's imitate her Notes above;
 And may this Evening ever prove Sacred to Harmony and Love.*

F I N I S.

An Account of the Rise, Progress
and State of the HOSPITAL, for relieving poor People afflicted with the SMALL-POX, and for INOCULATION.

HIS HOSPITAL was instituted in the Rise.
Year 1746, supported by a Subscription then made by several Noblemen, Ladies, and Gentlemen, who were desirous that a Charity useful in itself, and so beneficial to the Public, might be begun near this Great Metropolis, there not being any HOSPITAL of this Kind in Europe.

THE Relief of the Necessitous under that severe, nauseous, and frequent Distemper, The SMALL-POX, is a Work of Charity so evidently attended with many beneficial Circumstances, as well to the Public as to the unhappy Objects, that it is in reality not a little strange, that the establishing a Fund for such a Charity should be a Design of no longer standing.

It is universally agreed, that amongst all Distempers, to which Providence has made the Human Body liable, there is none so afflicting, so alarming, or which demands such careful, speedy, and continual Assistance, as the SMALL-POX; to which the inferior Sort of People are at least equally liable with those in a higher Sphere of Life, though utterly unable to support themselves under so dreadful a Malady, or to procure the necessary Means for their Recovery.

As this Disease is so frightful, even in its first Appearance,
and at the same time contagious, and almost inevitable,
Families of all Degrees are thrown into the utmost Confusion, when it invades any Person amongst them, let his or her Station be what it will. To keep a Servant in such a Condition, is, generally speaking, exceedingly inconvenient :

nient: To thrust them out of Doors under such Circumstances, always inhuman, commonly fatal. How agreeable, therefore, must the Information prove to all considerate and charitable Persons, that for removing of these Difficulties, for securing private Families, and for the Preservation of the wretched Individuals labouring under this Disease, there is already established,

An HOSPITAL for the SMALL-POX.

WHERE, Persons of both Sexes, and of all Ages, may be carefully provided for, both as to Physic and Diet, and properly attended in that calamitous Condition; and this at a very easy Expence to the Governors, who by their charitable Contributions support the Fund for so glorious, and so compassionate an Undertaking, which, only to mention, is to recommend. A needless Pomp of Words would rather obscure, than illustrate this Design; the Utility and Humanity of which, all, who have the smallest Attention, or Tendernefs, cannot fail to comprehend.

As what has been said sufficiently shews, how well-adapted a Charity this is, in respect to such as are afflicted with this Disease in the Natural Way; so the other Part of the Scheme, which has a Tendency to preserve our Species from the Ravages of this infectious Malady, by rendering it less malignant and less destructive, in the Way of INOCULATION, deserves likewise public Approbation and effectual Encouragement.

THE Objections that have been made against this Practice, are founded rather in an Aversion to Novelty, however useful, than in an Adherence to Reason and Experience. The strange Imputation that a well-established Method of preserving many Lives, is an Attempt upon the Prerogative of the Almighty, will make no Impression upon any, who consider that the same Thing may be urged against exhibiting Medicines at all, either sanative or preventive, and the extraordinary Methods that are often necessary to be made use of, to stop the Progress of any particular Disease.

THE Benefits of INOCULATION appear every Year, by fresh Trials, greater and more certain. This dreadful, this destructive fructive Distemper is thereby rendered mild and manageable, and becomes rather a Purgation of the Body from the latent Seeds of an expected Disease, than creating a Disease it self. It delivers People from those Apprehensions, with which, till they have had the SMALL-POX, they are always haunted. It frees them from the Objections, that are continually made to their being received into any Family, while they remain exposed to that Disease in the Natural Way. It gives them Courage to enter into the Service of their Country, either by Land or Sea; and protects them, while in that Service, from the Risque of being carried off, for Want of those Accommodations, which Camps and Ships rarely supply.

To all these, if we add the general and great Consideration of preserving so many Lives, which may evidently arise from these different Ways of having the Disease, (for upon a general Calculation, 25 or 30 die out of 150 Patients, having the Distemper in the Natural Way, and one only out of this Number, when INOCULATED,) it will appear, that this is a Thing of very high Importance; and that it is not easy to name an Undertaking more laudable in itself, or more beneficial in its Consequences, than the making a Provision, that those, who really stand in the greatest Need of this Preservative, and yet from their low, though useful Stations in Life, are precluded from it, should be rescued from a Condition, equally injurious to them and to Society.

BUT as the World will be often divided in Sentiments, in Matters of such a Nature; so, by the Constitution of this Charity, due Care is taken, that the Intentions of such well-disposed Persons, as shall contribute to any Branch of it, shall be punctually answer'd. For they may direct their Benefactions to be bestowed upon such Persons only, as are infected with the Natural SMALL-POX; or, if they judge the promoting INOCULATION the more beneficial, they may confine their Gifts thereto; or, if given without any Distinction, it will be applied to the general Fund, both for Natural SMALL-POX and for INOCULATION.

To

To these Considerations, it is proper to add one Circumstance, which, duly considered, cannot but have great Weight with all, who have any Feeling for their Fellow-Creatures in Distress; which is, that it is an HOSPITAL, in Aid of all other Hospitals, being calculated, by its very Constitution, to receive those miserable Creatures, whom the Rules of all other Charities expressly and prudentially exclude.

As this useful and necessary Charity loudly calls for further Assistance, may it not be justly hoped, that many pious and compassionate Hands will bountifully contribute to the Support, Continuance, and Enlargement of a Design, which Reason, good Policy, Humanity, and Religion so powerfully recommend?

General Plan.

THIS HOSPITAL consists of two Houses, at a due Distance from each other, in airy Situations.

Situation.

THAT for preparing the Patients for INOCULATION is in Old-Street Road; and that for receiving them, when the Disease appears, and for the Reception of Patients in the Natural Way, is in Cold-Bath Fields.

General Courts.

GENERAL Courts are held quarterly; Notice of which is sent to each Governor, as well as publickly advertised.

Presidents, &c.

Two Presidents, Four Vice-Presidents, and a Treasurer, are annually elected out of the Governors.

Committee.

A Committee of Thirteen Governors is chosen Quarterly, who meet the first Thursday in the Month at Nine in the Forenoon at the HOSPITAL in Cold-Bath Fields, and the other Thursdays at St. Paul's Coffee-House in St. Paul's Church-Yard, at Five in the Afternoon, to transact the Business of the HOSPITAL; at which Meetings all Governors present have a Vote, and their Attendance will be esteemed a Favour.

House-Officers.

A Physician and Surgeon attend without Fee, or Reward. THERE are a Secretary, two Apothecaries, a Messenger, Matrons, proper Nurses, &c.—No Fee, Reward, or Gratitude, to be taken from any Patients, Tradesmen, or other Persons, on Account of the HOSPITAL, on Pain of Expulsion.

Governors Qualification.

Thirty Guineas constitutes a Governor for Life; Five Guineas per Annum, a Governor during such Subscription, or after two such annual Subscriptions any Person by paying not less than 20 Guineas within two Years from 3d of October, 1751, becomes a Governor for Life. Smaller Benefactions are accepted with Gratitude.

EVERY Governor has a Vote at all general Courts and Privilege. Committees, and is entitled to have one Patient in each House at a Time. Ladies have the same Privilege, and may vote, by Proxies, at all Elections.

THE Accounts are regularly kept, and always open for Accounts. Inspection.

Every Person destitute of Friends, or Money, and labour-Objects. ing under this melancholy Disease, or desirous of being inoculated, is a proper Object, being recommended by a Governor, or Subscriber, who is desired first to enquire if there is a Vacancy, to prevent the Danger and Expence of a Disappointment for Want of Room.—Patients in the Natural Way are received every Day, and those for INOCULATION, from the First of February to the last Day of May, and from the First of September to the Twentieth of December; of which publick Notice is given in the Daily Papers; and there is no Charge attending any Admission, except a Deposite of Sixteen Shillings from those in the Natural Way, to answer the Expences of Burial in case of Death, to be returned to the Person who paid the same, when discharg'd the HOSPITAL.

FOR sake of the Patients, and for fear of spreading this dangerous Infection, it is necessary to forbid Strangers to visit the Patients; and therefore hope that the Affection or Curiosity of particular Persons will not be offended at this unavoidable Precaution.

SUCH Persons who are inclined to favour this charitable Design, are desired to send their Subscriptions, or Benefactions, to Sir Joseph and Sir Thomas Hankey, Bankers in Fenchurch-Street; Mess. Ironside, Belchier and How, in Lombard-Street; Mr. George Campbell, Banker in the Strand; Andrew Drummond, Esq; and Comp. at Charing-Cross; Fotherley Baker, Esq; Treasurer to the HOSPITAL, at his House at Haberdashers-Hall; or to the Committee, on every Thursday in the Month; and those, who chuse to be Benefactors by their last Will, have the following Form recommended to them :

*The Form
for Legacies to the Hospital.*

ITEM. I give and bequeath the Sum of
to the Treasurer or
Treasurers for the Time being, of an Hospital called by the Name of the SMALL-POX-HOSPITAL; to be applied
towards carrying on the charitable Designs of the said Hospital.

N. B. GIVING Land, or Money or Stocks with Directions to be laid out in Land, will be void by the Mortmain Act.

AN Account of the Receipts and Disbursements of this HOSPITAL will be published annually, with the general
Account of the HOSPITAL.
