The Governors of the Charity have determined to extend its relief to as many helpless and deserving objects, as its present funds, or any future increase, may enable them: and they trust that, with economy on their part, and with the benevolent assistance of the public, they will soon be enabled greatly to extend the benefits of this Charity. The age of reception is within twelve months from the birth. In order to the reception of the child, the previous good character and the present necessity of the mother, and the desertion of the father, must be enquired into; and also whether the reception of the child, together with the secrecy observed as to the misfortune of the mother, will be attended with the consequence of her being replaced in a course of virtue, and in the way of obtaining an honest livelihood. Where these circumstances can be ascertained on the testimony of credible persons, the unfortunate mother is requested to apply herself, with her own petition; and be assured that both recommendation and patronage will be unnecessary and useless. The general committee fits for examination of petitions for admission of children, every Wednesday morning precisely, at ten o'Clock.

N. B. Benefactions by Will, in England, can only be of Personal Estate; such as Money, Stocks, Annuities, or other Public Funds, and may be given in the following Manner:

I Do hereby give and bequeath to the GOVERNORS and GUARDIANS of the HOSPITAL, for the Maintenance and Education of Exposed and Deserted Young Children, the Sum of _____ to be paid out of my Ready Money, Chattels, or Personal Estate, and not out of any Mortgage Charge upon Lands.
