Of the University and College of Physicians, and Author of "The Guide to Health,"

AT SOLOMON'S-PLACE, LIVERPOOL;

And sold at his WAREHOUSE, No. 7, Exchange Court, DUBLIN; and, by his appointment, by J. MATHEWS, No. 18, Strand, and DICEY & Co. Bow Church Yard, LONDON;

And by all medicine venders in every market town in Great Britain, Ireland, and America.

PRICE HALF-A-GUINEA A BOTTLE.

"Is there no Balm in Gilead? Is there no Physician there? Why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?"—Jer. viii. 22.

"The Lord hath caused Medicines to grow out of the earth, and he that is wise will not abhor them; for with such doth he heal Men, and take away their Pains."—Ecc. lxxxviii. 4, 7.

NERVOUS SYSTEM.

THE train of melancholy disorders which afflict the human frame, under the denomination of Nervous Diseases, are the principal sources of human misery in the privation of health. Those disorders proceed from such an infinite variety and complication of causes, as to render it impossible, if even it were always necessary, to trace them to their true source. The effects, however, are but too well known and too severely felt amongst too great a portion of mankind; and to these effects it may without exaggeration be asserted, that any remedy superior or more celebrated for efficacy than Dr. Solomon's Cordial Balm of Gilead, never has been discovered. In all delicate, weakly, and relaxed constitutions, lowness of spirits, hypochondria, horrors, tremblings, weakness of sight, loss of memory, impaired vigour, tabes dorsalis, nervous consumptions, and the numberless symptoms of impaired and tottering constitutions, whether arising from a life of inactivity, intemperance, or inattention to health, its efficacy has attained throughout the three kingdoms universal and unparalleled celebrity. By strict perseverance in its use it cheers, braces, and invigorates, the whole nervous system, and gives new tone to all the vital functions, of which numberless instances can be vouched.

[c. 1800]

The CORDIAL BALM OF GILEAD is almost noble medicine, composed of some of the choicest balsams and strengtheners in the whole Materia Medica — The process is long and laborious, and requires the most nice and minute attention. The discovery of it has cost the proprietor amazing sums, great loss of time, repeated experiments, and close application to practical chemistry; and it affords him no small gratification to avow, that in offering it to the public he invades no man's property, nor imitates any medicine at present known in public or private practice.

Youth and age of either sex, are equally the objects of this restorative, and they will uniformly participate in its salubrious qualities and effects. To the young it will afford lasting health, strength and spirits, in place of lassitude and debility; and to the aged and infirm, it will assuredly furnish great relief and comfort, by gently and safely invigorating the system. It will not give immortality, but if it be in the power of medicine to gild the autumn of declining years, and calmly and serenely protract the close of life beyond its narrow span, this restorative is capable of effecting that grand desideratum.

Constitutions relaxed, weak or decayed, in men or women, are under the immediate influence of this restorative; and old coughs, asthmas, and consumptive habits, are soon relieved, and speedily cured.

Poverty of blood, and emaciated limbs, will, ere long, meet the happiest change, the chill watery fluid will become rich and balsamic, and the limbs be covered with flesh, firm and healthy.

To those who have revelled in the midnight cup, or madly drained nature of its richest stores by unrestrained or licentious love, or by the horrid selfish passion of Diogenes, this restorative will render all possible assistance; and if the vital powers be not entirely destroyed, it will gradually repair the melancholy evil.

Ladies at any time of life may, by this medicine, be freed from one of the most afflicting disorders incident to the sex; and, at a certain period, it is most highly useful.

For weakness, deficiency of natural strength and relaxation of the vessels, by too frequent indulgence of the passions, this medicine is a safe, certain, and invaluable remedy, infinitely superior to any of those extolled preparations of gums and balsams, which often produce feverish heat, and are always found to be momentary stimulants, rather than permanent healthful strengtheners of nature. In debility after long fevers, in all nervous disorders, and in weakness peculiar to the female sex, this celebrated Cordial is really invaluable.

Those who have long resided in hot climates, and are languid and relaxed in their whole system, may take this medicine with the happiest effects; and persons going to the East or West Indies cannot store a more important article of life and health. It has been the only means of restoring thousands afflicted with the YELLOW FEVER in America.

Youth of either sex, who have practised a secret and destructive vice, and thereby relaxed, weakened, and debilitated the whole nervous system, will find the Cordial Balm of Gilead the most powerful, certain, and effectual restorative.

☞ A variety of extraordinary and well-attested cures are to be seen in the pamphlet, sealed up with each bottle, which are omitted for want of room.

AS DR. SOLOMON'S PRACTICE

Is now become so great and extensive, and his constant engagements require a considerable portion of his time and attendance, he expects when consulted, his usual compliment of a guinea; but all written cases, or letters of advice, to be answered at his leisure, are required only to enclose half-a-guinea.—Such letters should, for safety, be thus directed—“Money-letter. Dr. Solomon, Solomon's-place, Brownlow-street, Liverpool.—Paid double postage.”

A SAVING OF ONE POUND SIX-SHILLINGS.

The CORDIAL BALM OF GILEAD, is sold in bottles, price Half-a-guinea each.—There are also boxes, price 5l. containing equal to twelve bottles at 10s. 6d. by which the patient saves 1l. 6s.

N. B.—It is necessary to observe, that the postage of all letters whatever, must be paid, and the carriage of all parcels, or a sufficient sum enclosed for that purpose, over and above what is to be returned in medicine. And in order to encourage patients to send to the proprietor for them (by which means they will be sure to have them genuine) for a remittance of a Five Pound Bank Bill, he will return Medicines to the amount of six Guineas.

Disorders which have been many years in proceeding to such a degree of malignancy as cannot be eradicated in a few weeks; therefore it is in order to encourage steady perseverance in the use of proper means, that Dr. Solomon has adopted the plan of his boxes, with two large bottles, containing the quantity of twelve small ones, packed up safe for any part of the country.

†† To ensure the most inviolable secrecy, letters may be ordered to be addressed for X. Z. or A. B. at the post-office, till called for.

N. B. The post-masters at all post-offices also give drafts for small sums of money, payable at the post-office, Liverpool; which is a secure method of conveyance.

*† In order to prevent unavoidable delays and consequent disappointments, agents are required to send their orders before their stock is quite exhausted.

†§ Captains, Merchants, &c. are supplied on the first and third Mondays in every month, of which they will take notice.

The CORDIAL BALM OF GILEAD is in square bottles, with these words blown in the glass—“The Cordial Balm of Gilead, prepared by Dr. Solomon, Solomon's-place, Brownlow-street, Liverpool.” And further to prevent counterfeits, examine the hand-writing on the certificate sealed round the bottle, which must correspond with the fac simile on the outside wrapper which is also sealed with a seal bearing my arms—a rose between two pierced hearts; crest, a demy wolf bearing a rose proper, and round it this inscription—“CORDIAL BALM OF GILEAD.”

Every bottle has this certificate :

No. _____ Solomon's-place, Brownlow-street, Liverpool.

“I certify that this Cordial Balm of Gilead is genuine, and was truly prepared by me,

S. SOLOMON, M. D.

Entered, _____ (Clerk's name.)

 Fifty Guineas reward on conviction of a forgery of this certificate.

Observe the following affidavit :

Liverpool to wit.—SAMUEL SOLOMON, of Liverpool, Doctor of Medicine, came before me and made oath, that he is the sole inventor and preparer of a medicine called the COR-DIAL BALM OF GILEAD, and that he never discovered any part of the ingredients from which it is composed, to any person whatever.

S. SOLOMON.

Sworn at Liverpool, before me, one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said Borough.

THE ANTI-IMPETIGINES,

A Medicine founded on a chymical and philosophical Basis,

Warranted by the Experience of a Series of Years,

SANCTIONED BY

“ CULLEN'S

Practice of Physic and Nosology,”

AND PREPARED BY

S. SOLOMON, M. D. OF LIVERPOOL,

WHO pledges himself to the public, that this medicine is perfectly innocent in its nature—safe in its application—and powerfully efficacious in every species of “IMPETIGINES, or depraved habit, with affections of the skin.”*—It is of the utmost importance to those afflicted with any of these direful diseases, to their friends and relatives, as well as to the rising generation, that such hereditary complaints may be speedily removed, and the blood purified from every degree of miasma.

* Vide Cullen's Practice of Physic, No. 1737.

It has been held by all physicians, that chronic distempers abound chiefly among the inhabitants of the northern parts of the globe; and we have unhappily experienced the truth of this assertion in this country, where the frequent sudden CHANGES OF THE WEATHER, at certain seasons of the year, spread the most excruciating and alarming disorders among us, by chilling the blood, and materially affecting the state of the perspiration, and thus occasioning colds, coughs, rheums, &c. the portentous harbingers of almost every disease which proves fatal to the inhabitants of Great Britain; perhaps there is no place on earth so subject to these sudden changes as this island, where the extremes of heat and cold are often experienced in one day. Hence it becomes a matter of the utmost importance to seek out for some general and decided remedy for those disorders, which take their rise from OBSTRUCTED PERSPIRATION. One of the immediate effects of this obstruction is to contaminate the vital fluid, which is the source of various obstinate disorders, throwing out eruptions upon the skin, to the great annoyance of the unhappy subject; and, by the malignity of its virus, undermining the constitution, and endangering the lives of thousands: according to the various habits or constitutional propensities of its subjects, and according to the degree of malignity with which the blood is impregnated, it embitters the patient's life with different disorders, and if recourse be not had in time to proper remedies, they become rooted in the habit, so that few medicines can reach the malady, and many that are made use of for that purpose only serve to exasperate and drive the humours into new channels, and thereby fix them deeper in the constitution.

Dr. Solomon therefore having been long in possession of a recipe for the certain and effectual cure of those disorders which take their rise from an impure and vitiated state of the blood and lymph, and having observed with deep regret the numberless instances where patients have pined away a miserable existence without receiving the smallest benefit from any thing they could procure, notwithstanding the many pretended remedies which have been offered to the public as universal specifics for those complaints, Dr. Solomon has at length yielded to the pressing necessities of his fellow creatures so deeply afflicted, and determined to publish it to the world as a medicine of the GREATEST NATIONAL IMPORTANCE, and truly calculated to cleanse the blood from all foulness, counteract every morbid affection, and restore weak and emaciated constitutions.

THE KING'S EVIL, STRUMA or SCROFULA, are hard, schirrous, and often indolent tumours that affect the glands of the neck, under the chin, arm-pits, groin, hams, arms, and wrists, and most commonly is seated in the neck and beneath the ears.—To remove these obstinate symptoms, the whole Materia Medica has been tried, with very little success; and the unhappy sufferer left to drag out a miserable existence! Many are crawling along on crutches at this moment, whom the ANTI-IMPETIGINES would restore to health and vigour, if recourse was had to it.—The directions given with each bottle are plain, and its application is attended with little or no trouble.

THE ANTI-IMPETIGINES is an alterative and purifier of the blood, its operation is gradual, gentle, and almost imperceptible; it is the best substitute that has ever been discovered for that dangerous mineral Mercury; it sweetens the blood and stimulates it to expel all noxious and impure juices, giving strength and tone to the nerves, enlivening and invigorating both body and mind.—FOR SCORBUTIC, CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS, DRY OR WET LEPROSY, the Anti-Impetigines certainly claims a pre-eminence over all other medicines, being decidedly adapted for the speedy removal of these complaints, and will not only clear the skin, but heal all old sores and ulcers of ever so long standing.

In disorders where salivation has repeatedly failed, when no other remedy could restore the unhappy sufferer to that health he unfortunately lost, the Anti-Impetigines will be found the great and only restorer of health and vigour.

Proper directions for every case, to enable persons to cure themselves, is sealed up with each bottle, price Half-a-Guinea.—There are also family bottles, containing the quantity of six at 10s. 6d. for 2l. 10s. by which there is 13s. saved.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE GUIDE TO HEALTH having passed through a number of editions, and has experienced a sale unprecedentedly great—it is therefore now re-printed with many improvements, and it may be with confidence asserted, that so valuable a publication to the afflicted in general has never been printed in this or any other language :—The weak and delicate female—the youth who has just finished his education at any of the public seminaries—the aged who are drooping under disorders originating from an impurity of blood—people of fashion—studious persons of a confined and sedentary life.—as also those afflicted with nervous affections in general will find “ SOLOMON'S GUIDE TO HEALTH” a faithful companion and an amusing instructor :—In short no person who values the enjoyment of a good state of health will be a moment without being possessed of this small, cheap, valuable, and important publication.

The hidden sources of weakness and debility with which thousands are afflicted, are herein laid open, and the means of restoration to the blessings of health and strength, fully and amply communicated.

The disorders peculiarly incident to the female sex in every situation, also expatiated upon, together with advice to both sexes, for those secret infirmities of nature, which delicacy often forbids to disclose, even to the nearest relative: comprising a treatise on FEMALE DISEASES, Nervous, Hypochondriac, Consumptive Complaints, &c. &c.

And as nervous and hypochondriac complaints are much more prevalent in Europe than is generally imagined, attended with many dreadful and alarming symptoms, which certainly claim assistance, and not as is too generally the case, derision or contempt, the author has been very attentive to their method of cure; and he flatters himself from the observations he has made, that the present is as good a treatise on these diseases as any extant.

The TENDER FEMALE, who, though by nature is destined to be the preserver of the human race, yet is, alas! liable to many natural indispositions, which render her condition truly wretched and unequal when compared to the male. For whatever situation of life she is placed in, she seldom enjoys a perfect state of health. If she enters into the wedded state, even from that source of pleasure something bitter arises; and PREGNANCY brings with it a train of loathing, sickness, &c.—If she remains single, she will scarcely be able to avoid labouring under some infirmity, because she is a “stranger to a mother’s pangs.”

What can be of more importance to a female, than to be properly acquainted with every symptom to which she is peculiarly liable? And how to conduct herself in such circumstances, without wounding her delicacy by a disclosure of her fears or her apprehensions, to the rude scrutiny of PRETENDED FRIENDS?

YOUTH who have unguardedly plunged themselves into licentious love, and feel the dreadful effects of impure embrace (or what is still more dreadful, injudicious treatment of a complaint which has too many illiterate pretenders to cure) will find a faithful “GUIDE TO HEALTH,” and HAPPINESS too, in the perusal of the present publication.

Those who have resided in hot climates, and are emaciated, or labour under a continual drain of nature, whereby their bodily strength is not only exhausted, but also their vigour and vivacity impaired, will meet with a friendly monitor in this small, though important publication.—Young people of either sex, who have unfortunately given way to a delusive, secret and destructive vice, injured their health, and destroyed their whole animal functions, will meet with a “Balm of Consolation” in perusing the mode of cure laid down in “The Guide to Health.”

The Author is proud to confess, that he has been assisted by eminent literary medical men, to whose labours and assistance he is much indebted:—they have tried the remedies prescribed as well as himself, and have not been AFRAID or ASHAMED to acknowledge their salutary and powerful efficacy.

Orders given to any bookseller in town or country, for “SOLOMON’S GUIDE TO HEALTH,” will be duly executed, at only three shillings each copy, free of carriage.

. For the very excellent character of this book, see the different Reviews.

TO THE PUBLIC.—Nothing can be a stronger proof of the utility of this work than the unprecedented sale it has met with—no less than FIFTY THOUSAND COPIES having been disposed of in a very short time.

Extract of the character given of this work in the Sun, Star, Courier, Albion, Times, Daily Advertiser, Morning Chronicle, and most of the literary journals in Europe.

“We have the satisfaction of announcing the publication of another edition of Dr. Solomon’s incomparable “GUIDE TO HEALTH,” a book which has certainly met with the most extensive sale of any medical production we ever heard of. Upon an attentive perusal of it, the afflicted will meet with much useful advice and instruction; the best and most approved remedies are certainly pointed out for the various disorders on which it particularly treats, as well as directions for general health, highly interesting to persons of every denomination.
