NEW MEDICAL BOOKS

LIST OF BOOKS

S. GOSNELL, Printer, Little Queen Street, Holborn.

NEW MEDICAL BOOKS,

 The Books are in Boards, unless otherwise expressed.

ANATOMY.—PHYSIOLOGY.

BARCLAY, Dr. J. A New Anatomical Nomenclature, relative to the Terms which are expressive of Position and Aspect in the Animal System. 8vo. 5s.

Bell, Charles. The Anatomy of the Human Body, Vol. III. containing the Nervous System, with Plates. Part I. The Anatomy of the Brain, and Description of the Course of the Nerves. 7s. 6d.

Ditto, Vol. III. Part II. The Anatomy of the Eye and Ear, of the Nose, and Organ of Smelling; of the Mouth, and Organ of Taste; of the Skin, and Sense of Touch. 9s.

 Vols. I. and II. may be had, price 12s. each.

Hooper, Dr. R. The Anatomist's Vade-Mecum, containing the Anatomy, Physiology, Morbid Appearances, &c. of the Human Body, the Art of making Anatomical Preparations, &c. The fifth Edition, considerably enlarged. To which are now added, Anatomical, Physiological, Medical, and Surgical Questions for Students.

 This Work presents to the Student a useful Anatomical Conspectus, or Pocket Manual of Anatomy and Physiology: in which he will find—I. A short but accurate Description of the different Parts of the Human Body, and their Functions.—II. An Enumeration of the Diseases to which those Parts are subject, and the various Operations of Surgery that are performed on the Human Body.—III. The Method of preparing the various Parts of the Body, to exhibit their Structure in a healthy and diseased State, as far as our present Knowledge will enable us.—IV. A Glossary, or Explanation of the principal Terms used in that Science.—V. Such Questions as the Student will probably be required to answer at the College of Surgeons, the Medical Board, the Board of Sick and Hurt, &c. in order to obtain his Diploma, or pass as Surgeon or Surgeon's Mate for the Army or Navy, or the Service of the East India Company. Small 8vo. 9s.

NEW ANATOMICAL PLATES.

I. John Gottlieb Walter's Plates of the Thoracic and Abdominal Nerves, reduced from the Original, as published by Order of the Royal Academy of Sciences at Berlin: accompanied by coloured Explanations, and a Description of the Par Vagus, Great Sympathetic and Phrenic Nerves. Elegantly printed in large 4to. 18s.

II. Bell, Charles. A Series of Engravings, explaining the Course of the Nerves, 4to. 11. 1s.

III. A Plate, engraved from a very accurate Drawing by Kirtland, exhibiting, at one View, the Blood-vessels of the Head, with their Names and References. Very finely coloured, 7s.

IV. A Map of the Human Ear, magnified to four times the natural Size, from a Preparation of an eminent Surgeon, coloured, 5s.

V. A Diagram of the Human Eye, with an Explanation by Dr. Hooper, 3s.

 These Plates will be found very useful in the Room of the Student or Lecturer.

VI. Anatomical Plates of the Bones and Muscles, diminished from Albinus; accompanied by Explanatory Maps. For the Use of Students. The second Edition, 7s.

VII. Anatomical Plates of the Thoracic and Abdominal Viscera; accompanied by Explanatory Maps. For the Use of Students, 5s.

 "The Figures in these two little Volumes are very neatly and very accurately executed, and are accompanied by Maps, or separate outlines, differently coloured, which render the explanation and reference very easy. The whole forms a very neat, portable, and useful help to the Student."—See Physical Journal, Vol. VIII. p. 473; and Aikin's Annual Review, Vol. I. p. 349, &c.

Richerand. Elements of Physiology, containing an Explanation of the Functions of the Human Body, in which the modern Improvements in Chemistry and other Sciences are applied, to explain the Actions of the Animal Economy. Translated from the French, by Robert Kerrison, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons in London. One large volume, 8vo. 9s.

SURGERY AND MIDWIFERY.

Foot, Jessé. Cases of the successful Practice of the Vesicæ Lotura, for the Cure of diseased Bladders. Second Edition. Two Parts, 8vo. 4s. 6d.

Fox, J. The Natural History of the Human Teeth, including a particular Elucidation of the Changes which take place during the Second Dentition, and describing the proper Mode of Treatment to prevent Irregularities of the Teeth. To which is added, an Account of the Diseases which affect Children during the First Dentition. Illustrated with Thirteen Copper-plates, 4to. 1l. 1s.

Hamilton, Dr. Alex. Outlines of the Theory and Practice of Midwifery. The fifth Edition, with numerous Corrections and Alterations, 8vo.

Hey, William. Practical Observations on Surgery, with Cases, 8vo. Plates. 10s.

Home, Everard. Practical Observations on the Treatment of Strictures in the Urethra, and in the Œsophagus. Vol. II. 8vo. 7s.

 The second Edition of the First Volume may be had, price 7s. 6d.

The London Practice of Midwifery, or a Manual for Students. Being a complete Course of Practical Midwifery; in which are included, the Treatment of Lying-in Women, and the Diseases of Children. Small 8vo. 6s.

Monro, Dr. Alex. jun. Observations on Crural Hernia. To which is prefixed, a general Account of the other Varieties of Hernia: illustrated by Engravings, 8vo. 7s. 6d.

Munro, Hugh. A compendious System of the Theory and Practice of modern Surgery, arranged in a new nosological and systematic Method, different from any attempted in Surgery, in the Form of a Dialogue. Second Edition, corrected and improved, 8vo. 7s.

Russell, James. A Treatise on the morbid Affections of the Knee Joint, 6s.

Trye, C. B. Illustrations of some of the Injuries to which the lower Limbs are exposed, accompanied by coloured Plates, 4to. 6s. 6d.

Timbrel, W. H. Practical Observations on the Management of Ruptures, in Two Parts.—Part I. New Inventions and Directions for ruptured Persons. Part II. A familiar Account of the Nature of Ruptures in both Sexes. Third Edition, with Additions: illustrated by Three Engravings. 3s.

PRACTICE OF PHYSIC.

An Account of the Discovery and Operation of a new Medicine for Gout. 8vo. 4s.

Bell, George. A Treatise on Cow-pox: containing an Enumeration of the principal Facts in the History of that Disease; the Method of communicating the Infection by Inoculation; and the Means of distinguishing between the genuine and spurious Cow-pox. Illustrated by Plates. 12mo. 3s.

Blackburne, Dr. W. Facts and Observations concerning the Prevention and Cure of Scarlet Fever; with some Remarks on the Origin of Acute Contagions in general. 8vo. 4s.

Blegborough, Dr. R. Facts and Observations relative to the Use of the Air Pump and Vapour Bath in Gout, Rheumatism, Palsy, and other Diseases. 12mo. 3s. 6d.

Bree, Dr. R. A Practical Inquiry into disordered Respiration; distinguishing the Species of Convulsive Asthma, their Causes and Indications of Cure. The third Edition, corrected and enlarged. With an Appendix. 8vo. 7s.

Bryce, Jas. Practical Observations on the Inoculation of Cow-pox; pointing out a Test of constitutional Affection in those Cases in which the local Inflammations are slight, and in which no Fever is perceptible. Illustrated by Cases and Plates. 6s.

Burdin, Dr. A Course of Medical Studies: containing a comparative View of the Anatomical Structure of Man and of Animals; a History of Diseases; and an Account of the Knowledge hitherto acquired with regard to the regular Action of the different Organs. A Work chiefly designed for the Use of Medical Students. Translated from the French. 3 vols. 8vo. 1l. 1s.

Cullen, Dr. William. First Lines of the Practice of Physic. A new Edition, carefully compared with the Author's most correct Edition. With a Preface and some few Notes by Dr. Gregory, of Edinburgh. 2 vols. 8vo. 14s.

Dewar, H. Observations on Diarrhœa and Dysentery, as those Diseases appeared in the British Army, during the Campaign in Egypt, in 1801. To which are prefixed, a Description of the Climate of Egypt, and a Sketch of the Medical History of the Campaign. 8vo. 4s.

Duncan, Dr. A. The Edinburgh New Dispensatory; containing, I. The Elements of Pharmaceutical Chemistry.—II. The Materia Medica.—III. The Pharmaceutical Preparations and Compositions, including Translations of the London Pharmacopœia, 1791; Dublin Pharmacopœia, 1794; and of the New Edition of the Edinburgh Pharmacopœia, 1803. Illustrated and explained in the Language, and according to the Principles of modern Chemistry. With many Tables, and Plates of Chemical Apparatus, &c. In one volume, 8vo. 9s.

Edinburgh Practice of Physic, Surgery, and Midwifery; preceded by an Abstract of the Theory of Medicine, and the Nosology of Dr. Cullen; and including upwards of six hundred authentic Formulæ, from the Books of St. Bartholomew's, St. George's, St. Thomas's, Guy's, and other Hospitals in London, and from the Lectures and Writings of the most eminent Public Teachers. With twenty quarto Plates. A new Edition, in five large Volumes, 8vo. 3l. 15s. boards.

A short Essay on the Nature and Cause of Influenza, in which the important Question is discussed, Whether the Influenza is contagious or not? With Answers to the Questions of Dr. Beddoes, proposed in his circular Letters to the different medical Practitioners: to which are added, Observations on the Cause of the London Plague, in 1665. Together with a Hint for stopping the Ravages of the Yellow Fever in the West Indies. 8vo. 1s.

Falconer, Dr. W. An Account of the Epidemical Catarrhal Fever, commonly called the Influenza, as it appeared at Bath in the Winter and Spring of the Year 1803. 8vo. 1s. 6d.

Wood, Dr. Jas. Plain Remarks on Fever, with the View to explain the Origin and Nature of the Fever which lately appeared in Newcastle. Addressed to the Inhabitants. 12mo. 6d.

CHEMISTRY.

Accum, Frederic, Chemical Operator in the Royal Institution of Great Britain. A System of theoretical and practical Chemistry, 2 vols. 8vo. with Plates, 18s.

* * * This Work may be had, printed upon a paper made from straw, in 2 vols. large 8vo. price 1l. 4s.

—A Practical Essay on the Analysis of Minerals, exemplifying the best Methods of analysing Ores, Earths, Stones, inflammable Fossils, and mineral Substances in general. 12mo. 7s.

Black, Dr. J. Lectures on the Elements of Chemistry, delivered in the University of Edinburgh. Now published from his Manuscripts, by John Robison, L.L.D. Professor of Natural Philosophy in the University of Edinburgh. 2 vols. 4to. 3l. 3s.

Dundonald, Earl of. A Treatise, shewing the intimate Connexion that subsists between Agriculture and Chemistry: addressed to the Cultivators of the Soil, to the Proprietors of Fens and Mosses, in Great Britain and Ireland, and to the Proprietors of West India Estates. Third Edition, 4to. 10s. 6d.

Johnson, Dr. W. B. History of the Progress and present State of Animal Chemistry. 3 vols. 8vo. 1l. 4s.

Johnstone, Dr. J. An Account of the Discovery of the Power of Mineral Acid Vapours, to destroy Contagion, &c. 8vo. 1s.

Parkinson, James. The Chemical Pocket-book, or Memoranda Chemica; arranged in a Compendium of Chemistry, with Tables of Attractions, &c. Second Edition, 12mo. 6s.

Skrimshire, Fenwick. A Series of popular Chemical Essays; containing a Variety of Instances of the Application of Chemistry to Arts and Manufactures; the Explanation of natural Phenomena; and other useful Purposes. The second Edition, 12mo. 4s.

GALVANISM.

Wilkinson, C. H. Elements of Galvanism, in Theory and Practice; with a comprehensive View of its History, from the first Experiments of Galvani to the present Time. Containing also, Practical Directions for constructing the Galvanic Apparatus, and plain systematic Instructions for performing all the various Experiments. 2 vols. 8vo. illustrated with a great Number of Copper-plates, 1l. 1s. boards.

* * This Work is the first and the only complete system of Galvanism which has appeared in the English language. The latest discoveries have been introduced, the relations of this Science to Physiology and to Medicine are illustrated, and the plainest instructions are given for constructing the various apparatus, and for performing all the known experiments. In a word, the Author has laboured, and he hopes with success, to confer upon this most important Science the same degree of popularity and general attention in England which it has so deservedly acquired upon the Continent.

NATURAL HISTORY.—BOTANY.

Bent, Wm. A Meteorological Journal of the Year 1802, kept in London, 8vo. 1s. 6d.

Blair, W. Anthropology, or the Natural History of Man, with a comparative View of the Structure and Functions of animated Beings in general. 8vo. 5s.

Henderson, J. A Dissertation on the Bit Noben, or Foetid Salt of the Hindus, the Sal Indus Antiquorum, commonly known in Hindostan by the Name of Khalla Neemuk; with Remarks on the Cherayta of the Hindus, the Kusseeb Uzzereereh of the Arabians, the Calamus Aromaticus Antiquorum. 8vo. 3s.

Linnæus, Sir Charles. A general System of Nature through the three grand Kingdoms of Animals, Vegetables, and Minerals, systematically divided into their several Classes, Orders, Genera, Species, and Varieties, with their Habitations, Manners, Economy, Structure, and Peculiarities. Translated from Gmelin's last Edition of the celebrated Systema Naturæ: amended and enlarged by the Improvements and Discoveries of later Naturalists and Societies, with appropriate Copper-plates, by William Turton, M. D. Vol. V. 8vo. 12s. 6d.

* * * The Four first Volumes may be had, price 2l. 10s.

Reece, Richard. Observations on the Anti-phthical Properties of the Lichen Islandicus, or Iceland Moss; comprehending explicit Directions for the making and using such Preparations of the Herb, and Auxiliaries, which Experience has proved best adapted to the Cure of the different Species of Pulmonary Consumptions of Great Britain. 1s.

Salisbury, W. A Catalogue of Plants, cultivated in the Brompton Botanic Garden, with Notes, describing the Soil, &c. that is best adapted to each. To which is added, a List of Subscribers, and Terms of Subscribing. 12mo. Part I. 3s. 6d.

Spallanzani, Abbé. Tracts on the Natural History of Animals and Vegetables; translated from the original Italian by John Graham Dalyel, Advocate; with Physiological Illustrations by the Translator. Second Edition, 2 vols. 8vo. 15s.

Thornton, Dr. J. The Empire of Flora. Part I. Plants of Great Britain; illustrated by upwards of 400 accurate Dissections of British Plants, executed for the late Earl of Bute, by the famous Miller, at an immense Expense and Labour. Arranged after the reformed Sexual System. Vol. I. Nos. I. and II. 3s. each.

* * * This Work is published in Numbers monthly, price 2s. 6d. each.

Wilkinson, G. Experiments and Observations on the Cortex Salicis Latifolia, or broad-leaved Willow Bark: illustrated by a coloured Plate. With Remarks on the different Species of the Cinchona, general History of the Salix Latifolia; with various Experiments, tending to elucidate its Properties, and Cases demonstrating its superior Efficacy above the Cinchona, in various Diseases, more particularly in that Branch of the healing Art termed Medical Surgery. 8vo. 4s. 6d.

MISCELLANIES.

Address of the Royal Jennerean Society, for the Extermination of the Small-pox, with the Plan, Regulations, and Instructions for Vaccine Inoculation. To which is added, a List of the Subscribers. Instituted in 1803. With a Plate. 8vo. 1s. 6d.

Blair, W. The Soldier's Friend, containing Familiar Instructions to the Loyal Volunteers, Yeomanry Corps, and Military Men in general, on the Preservation and Recovery of their Health, 12mo. 5s.

Cavallo, Tiberius, F. R. S. The Elements of Natural and Experimental Philosophy: illustrated with Copper-Plates. 4 vols. 8vo. 2l. 2s.

Duncan, Dr. A. Annals of Medicine, for the Year 1802, exhibiting a concise View of the latest and most important Discoveries in Medicine and Medical Philosophy. Vol. II. Lustrum II. 8vo. 8s.

The Farrier's Guide, a large Print, coloured; shewing, at one View, the whole Anatomy of the Horse's Foot, with the Name and Explanation of each Part; for the Use of Veterinary Surgeons, Farriers, &c. 7s.

Feron, J. A New System of Farriery; including the improved Mode of Treatment, and Prescriptions, recommended by the Veterinary College, in every Disease of difficult Management. With Plates, shewing the external Structure of the Horse, representing the exact Proportions of a Blood Horse, and a Description of all the Defects that tend to impede Velocity. Likewise, Directions for ascertaining, with Exactness, the Age of a Horse. To which is added, the Method of curing the principal epidemic Diseases to which Cows, Sheep, &c. are subject. 4to. 1l. 1s.

Fogo, A. Observations on the Opinions of ancient and modern Physicians, including those of the late Dr. Cullen, respecting the Nature and Cause of the Uterine Discharge. Also, Observations on the Opinions of Dr. Cullen on Amennorrhœa, or Green Sickness; of Dr. Saunders, on Diseases of the Liver; of Dr. Thomas, on Cachexia Africana; and of Dr. Beddoes on Scrofula, &c. 8vo. 3s.

Gregory, Dr. J. Memorial to the Managers of the Royal Infirmary, 1800. Second Edition, 8s.

Hicks, Henry. Observations on a late Publication of Dr. Pearson, entitled, An Examination of the Report of the Committee of the House of Commons, on the Claims of Remuneration for the Vaccine Pock Inoculation; with an Appendix, containing some Reflections on an Article in the Critical Review for October last, respecting the same Publication. 2s.

Lambe, Dr. W. Researches into the Properties of Spring Water, with Medical Cautions (illustrated by Cases) against the Use of Lead in the Construction of Pumps, Water Pipes, Cisterns, &c. 8vo. 5s.

Medical and Chirurgical Review, No. 52 to 57, at 2s. each.

* * Complete Sets, in 9 vols. may be had, price 4l. 10s. in boards, and the subsequent Numbers as they are published, every other Month, at 2s. per Number.

Medical and Physical Journal, Vols. IX. and X. 1l. 11s.

* * Complete Sets in 10 vols. may be had, price 6l. 6s. in boards, and the subsequent Numbers as they are published Monthly, at 2s. 6d. per Number.

Nicholson, W. A. Journal of Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, and the Arts; illustrated by Engravings. 8vo. 12 Numbers, at 2s. 6d. each.

* * Complete Sets may be had from its commencement, viz. the first Series in 5 vols. 4to. price 7l. 7s.; the second Series in 4 vols. 8vo. 2l. 2s. and the subsequent Numbers as they are published Monthly, at 2s. 6d. per Number.

Percival, Dr. T. Medical Ethics, or a Code of Institutes and Precepts, adapted to the Professional Conduct of Physicians and Surgeons:—I. In Hospital Practice.—II. In private, or general Practice.—III. In relation to Apothecaries.—IV. In Cases which may require a Knowledge of the Law. To which is added, an Appendix, containing a Discourse on Hospital Duties; also, Notes and Illustrations. 8vo. 5s.

Practical Rules for the Management and Medical Treatment of Negro Slaves in the Sugar Colonies. By a Professional Planter. 8vo. 8s.

Somerville, Lord. Facts and Observations relative to Sheep, Wool, Ploughs, and Oxen; in which the Importance of improving the short-woolled Breed by a Mixture of the Merino Blood, is deduced from actual Practice. Together with some Remarks on the Advantages which have been derived from the Use of Salt. 8vo. 4s.

Winterbottom, Dr. T. An Account of the Native Africans of the Neighbourhood of Sierra Leone. To which is added, an Account of the present State of Medicine among them. 2 vols. 8vo. 15s.

GENTLEMEN residing in the Country or Abroad, MEDICAL SOCIETIES, SURGEONS in the NAVY and ARMY, &c. may be immediately supplied with any Work relating to Medical Science, by Application to J. MURRAY, No. 32, Fleet Street, London.

THE END.
