Rotulo 2. of the Præcepta.—The Pleadings upon the Claim ſtate very fully the Title of Sir N. Bacon to all the Franchiſes of that Liberty; and the Judgment entered thereon, is the moſt ſolemn one to be found: inaſmuch, as it ſtates the Court to be aſſiſted by the Queen's Serjeants, the Attorney-General, &c. by virtue of which Claim, the ſaid Sir Nicholas Bacon, and his Deſcendants, regularly claimed, and had ſet over to them in the Exchequer, all Poſt-fines, and other Fines and Forfeitures ariſing within the ſaid Liberty, until the end of King James's Reign; about which Time a Grant was made to one —— Shaw and another Perſon, to recover back all the ſaid Fines, &c. mentioned therein to have been improperly adjudged to Sir N. Bacon and his Heirs, but no Proceedings appear to be had in the Exchequer in conſequence of this Grant.

Hilary Term, 21 Geo. III. Roll—.

Note, The Charters here pleaded are the above of the 13 Jac. I. (which doth not appear to be amongſt the ORIGINALIA of that Reign, and therefore was inrolled 21 Geo. III) and that of 11 Geo. I. Upon this Pleading the whole of the Conſtitution of this Borough appears at full Length, and the Changes of its Mode and Form, the additional Liberties granted, &c. &c.

The Charter of King James, granted upon the Petition of the Inhabitants, creates them a Body corporate and politic, under the Style of "Mayor, and Burgeſſes:" then grants that they ſhould have a Common Seal, and appoints the Election of a Mayor, the 12 Capital Burgeſſes, and 12 Aſſiſtants; the Capital Burgeſſes and Aſſiſtants to be called—"The Common Council:" with Authority to make Laws and Ordinances for the good Government of the ſaid Town and Pariſh; and to inflict Fines and Puniſhment for Non-obſervance. The annual Election of Mayor to be on the Tueſday next after the Feaſt of St. Bartholomew, between the hours of 9 and 12 of the Clock in the fore-noon. The Capital Burgeſſes and Aſſiſtants to be for Life, unleſs removed for bad Government or Miſbehaviour. Vacancies of the Capital Burgeſſes to be filled out of the Aſſiſtants, by the Election of the Mayor, and the exiſting Capital Burgeſſes and Aſſiſtants; and Vacancies amongſt the Aſſiſtants, to be filled from the Inhabitants at large, by like Election of the Mayor and Common Council. The Mayor for the time-being, and for the Year next ſucceeding after his Mayoralty, and the Recorder for the time-being, to be Juſtices of the Peace; two of whom (the Mayor or Recorder to be one) ſhould hold Seſſions of the Peace, but not to proceed to Trial of Treaſon, Felony, or other Offences touching the Loſs of Life or Limbs. That no Juſtice for the County of Devon, ſhall execute any Thing within the ſaid Town and Pariſh, which the Juſtices for the Town and Pariſh might execute. Any two of the Town-Juſtices (the Mayor to be one) might commit Perſons to the County Gaol, to take their Trial at the County Seſſions or Gaol Delivery, on Suſpicion of Felony, &c. Returns of all Writs and Mandates of the King, to be executed within the ſaid Town and Pariſh, granted to the Mayor and Burgeſſes. And that no Sheriff of the County of Devon, or any Bailiff or Miniſter of the King, his Heirs or Succeſſors, ſhould enter the ſaid Town or Pariſh, or the Liberties thereof, to execute any Thing belonging to their Offices, without Licence of the Mayor, &c. unleſs through the Default of the ſaid Mayor. All Fines, Redemptions, and Amerciaments whatſoever, for Treſpaſſes and other Offences whatſoever, or other Cauſes and Matters committed within the ſaid Town, &c. PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS. Several Iſſues of 250*l.* being ſet upon Anthony Rowe, Eſq. Collector, &c. of the Fire Hearth and Stove Revenue, and Proceſs prayed thereon; ordered, unleſs Cauſe ſhewn to the contrary. 5th May, Eaſter Term, 11 W. III.

19th May, ſame Term, Cauſe was ſhewn; and upon reading a Certificate from the Auditor of the Impreſt, ordered, that the former Order be enlarged, and freſh Iſſues drawn down.

N. B. In the Margin follow theſe Words: "By Virtue of a Warrant from the Lords Commiſſion-"ers of the Treaſury, Proceſs be reſpited hereupon till "the firſt Day of Mich. T. next." This Treaſury Influence, in reſpiting the regular Proceſs to compell public Accountants to account, is a Practice perhaps of long ſtanding, but much to be complained of.

In the Hands of the Court, the Accountant and the Public are perfectly ſecure; but Treaſury Acts we know to be Acts of Influence, and proceed from private Application: It were much better for the Lords of the Treaſury, were they not ſubject to thoſe Applications in theſe Caſes; and indeed the Court hath ſeemed to doubt whether their Officers ought to attend to ſuch Warrants.

Upon the Motion of Counſel for the Crown, ſtating, that Iſſues were ſet and eſtreated upon Anthony Rowe, Eſq. for not paſſing his Account of the Fire Hearth and Stove Revenue, and that Proceſs thereon had been reſpited by Warrant from the Treaſury, praying immediate Proceſs to levy the ſaid Iſſues, and that other Iſſues already ſet may be eſtreated, and for a new Diſtringas ad computandum to iſſue againſt the ſaid Accountant; ordered accordingly, unleſs Cauſe ſhewn. 5th June, Trin.
