Whereas several Places in Foreign Parts, having for some time past been, and still continuing to be visited with the Plague, it may be judged necessary by His Majesty, for securing His Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, from so dreadful a Calamity, to prohibit or restrain the Commerce between His Majesties Subjects and those of any other Country or Place, which is or shall be infected with the Plague : And whereas it will be requisite to enforce such Prohibition or Restraint by severe Penalties; Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Kings Majesty (in whose great Wisdom and Care for the Preservation of his People, they do, under the Divine Protection, confide) by One or more Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued at any time or times before the Twelfth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to prohibit or forbid all and every Person and Persons to visit, go to, or frequent any Kingdom, Country, or Place, which is or shall be infected with the Plague; and also to prohibit or forbid all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate whatsoever, to ship, export, carry, or send, or cause or procure to be shipped, exported, carried, or sent, directly or indirectly, from or out of the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, and any the Dominions thereunto belonging, unto any Kingdom, Country, or Place, which is or shall be infected with the Plague, to be specified in such Proclamation or Proclamations, any Goods, Wares, Commodities, or Merchandizes whatsoever, for and during such time and times, before or until the fifth and twentieth Day of March, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty three, as shall be specified in such Proclamation or Proclamations, under the Penalties herein after mentioned, and in such Manner and Form, and under such Regulations, as in and by such Proclamation and Proclamations respectively, shall be prescribed.

And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Kings Majesty, by the same, or any other Proclamation or Proclamations, to be issued at any time or times before the said Twelfth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and twenty two, under the said Great Seal, to prohibit or forbid all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, to come or pass from any Kingdom, Country, or Place, which is or shall be infected with the Plague, to be specified in such Proclamation or Proclamations, into the Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, or the Dominions thereunto belonging, or any of them; and also to prohibit or forbid all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate whatsoever, to import or bring, or cause or procure to be imported or brought, directly or indirectly, into Great Britain, Ireland, or any the Dominions thereunto belonging, any Goods, Wares, Commodities, or Merchandizes places whatsoever, from any Kingdom, Country, or Place, that is or shall be infected with the Plague, to be specified in such Proclamation or Proclamations, for and during such time and times, before or until the said Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred twenty three, as shall be specified in such Proclamation or Proclamations, under the Penalties herein after mentioned, and in such Manner and Form, and under such Regulations, as in and by such Proclamation or Proclamations respectively, shall be prescribed.

And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any time or times, after the issuing and publishing such Proclamation or Proclamations respectively, as aforesaid, any Person or Persons shall visit, go to, or frequent any Kingdom, Country, or Place, which is or shall be infected with the Plague, contrary to the Tenor and true Meaning of such Proclamation or Proclamations, and of this Act; then and in every such case the Person or Persons so offending, shall incur and suffer such Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as were ordained and provided by the Statute of Provision and Præmunire, made in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of King Richard the Second; And that if at any time or times aforesaid, any Ship or Vessel, Person or Persons, coming from any Kingdom, Country, or Place, which is or shall be infected with the Plague, shall attempt to enter any Port or Place within the Kingdom of Great Britain
