THE TURKEY SHOOTIN'.

"OUR BLOOD IS LIFE, FOR SAR'TIN"

AN INDIAN'S SECRET.

Indian history tells us that the power to heal gave "the Medicine Man" a position second to none in his tribe. To divulge the secret of his remedies would be to strip him of his power, hence he guarded it sacredly.

About 1829 Mr. Hugh L. Dennard, of Houston Co., Ga., obtained from a half-breed of the Creek Indians the formula of the most sovereign remedy used by the Indians. During his life he never found a case of Scrofula, blood taint, or contagious blood poison, that he could not cure.

The wonderful cures effected by this medicine attracted the attention of a well known and reliable wholesale drug firm, who, in 1879, purchased a controlling interest and formed THE SWIFT SPECIFIC Co. This medicine (The S. S. S.) is now sold in every city, town and hamlet in America, in England and every portion of the civilized world. It would seem that this simple fact would have more weight than a book full of argument.

THE TURKEY SHOOTIN'.

"A turkey-shootin' at the Branch?"
Said bluff old Jasper Otis —
As by the tavern shed he paused
To read a flaring notice —
"A turkey-shootin' eh? Well now,
My business hain't so pressin'
But what I mought jog over thar
And give the boys a lesson."

The impulse was obeyed and soon
Unto a motley party
Of backwood "cracks" old Jasper came
And won a welcome hearty,
Tho' knowing smiles were interchanged
And such like shrewd computin',
As—"p'raps a century ago
He mought have done some shootin'."

BEWARE OF MERCURY.

The results of mercury, even in the hands of a skillful physician, are to be dreaded. In the hands of the populace it becomes exceedingly dangerous; and when compounded into nostrums by ignorant hands it becomes fatal.

J. C. JONES, City Marshal of Fulton, Ark., writes:

"I tried mercurial and potash remedies, with no result except an attack of mercurial rheumatism, that made my life one of untold misery. S. S. S. cured me."

JOHN B. WILLIS, of Atlanta, Ga., says:

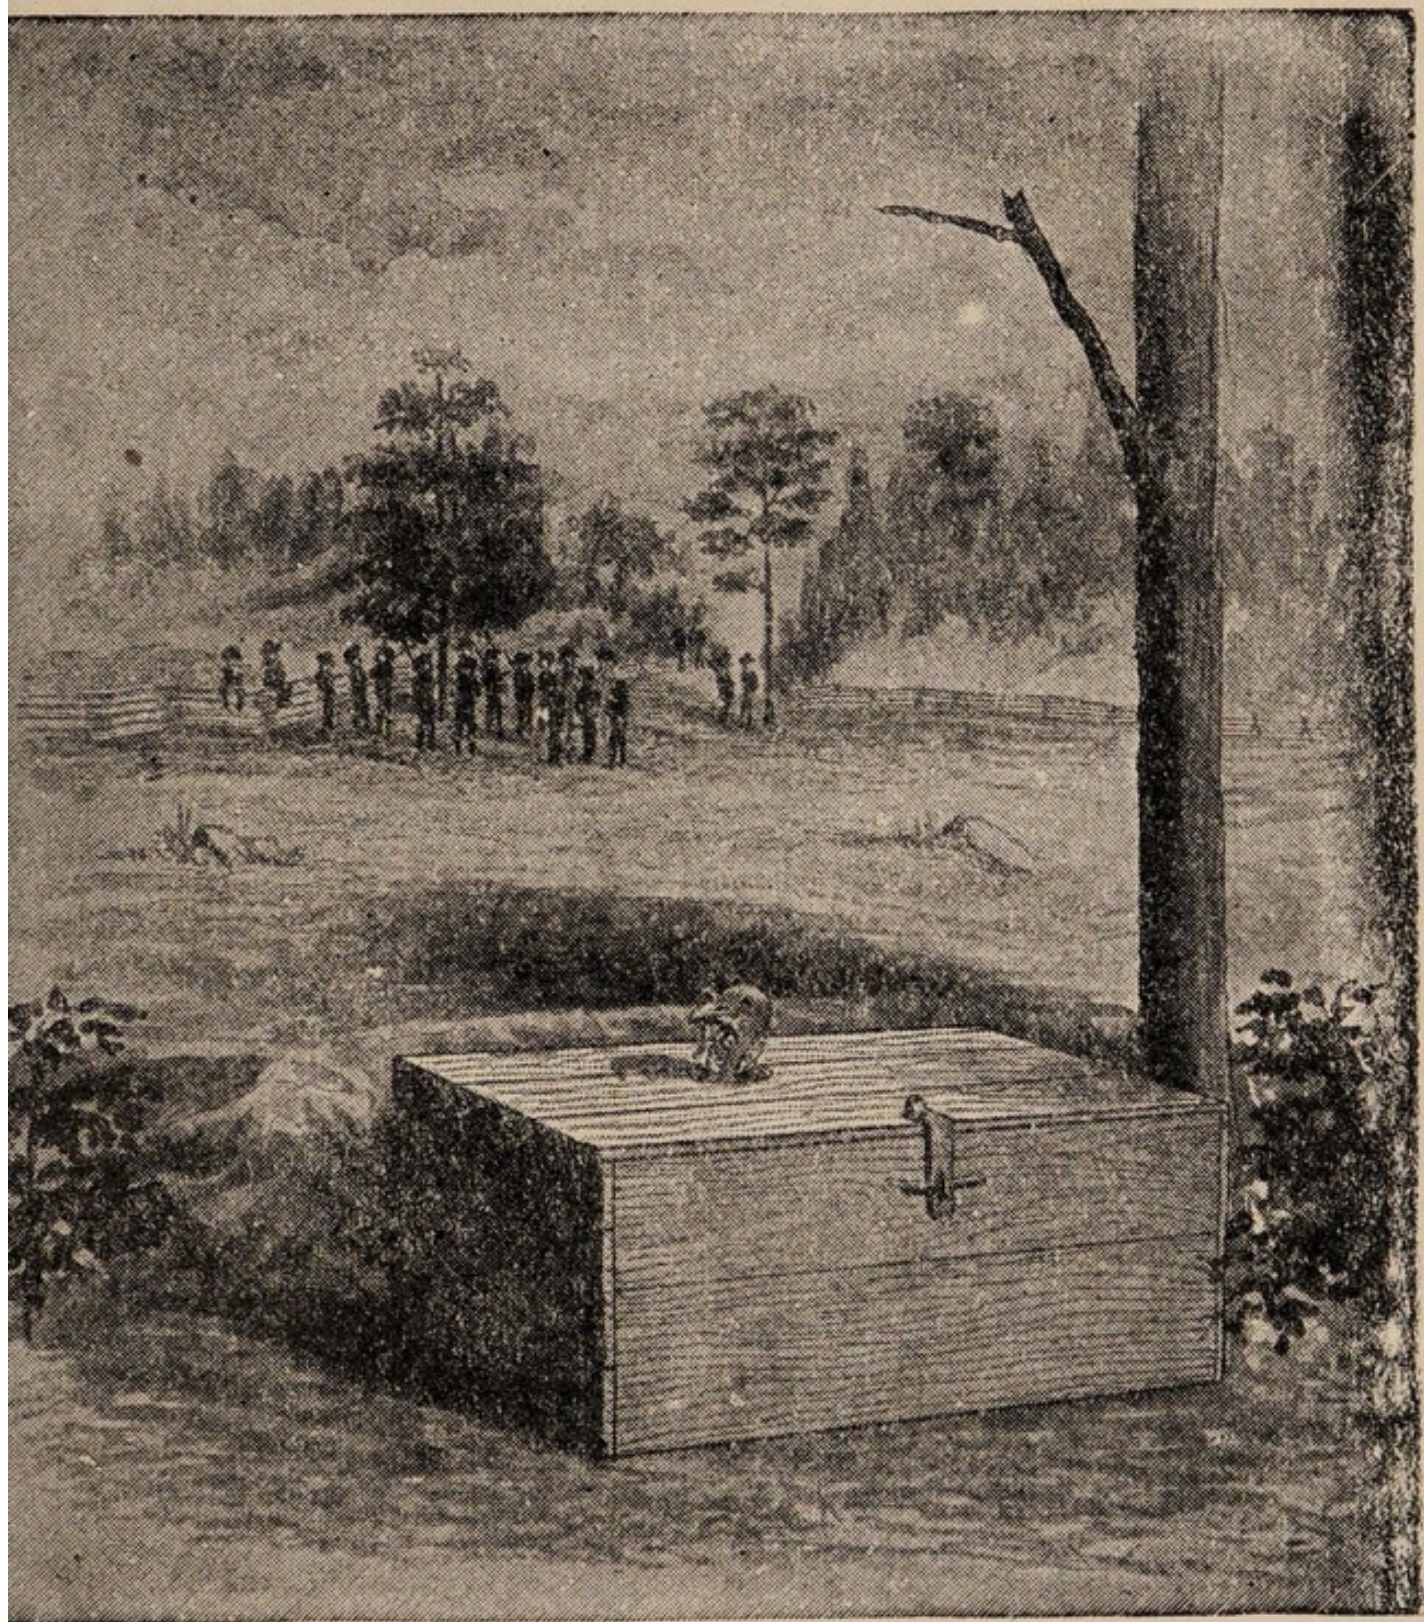

"The regular medical remedies of mercury and potash only added fuel to the flame, and S. S. S. cured me."

ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS Will be paid to any competent chemist who will find, on analysis, a particle of Mercury, Potash, or other poisons, in Swift's Specific (S. S. S.)

An interval of bantering,
Of settler's yarns and stories,
A study of old shooting
And prating of their glories,
And then a turkey-cock was brought
And placed with much precision
In such a way that but its head
Would meet the shooter's vision.

A SPRING TONIC.

Gathered from field and forest are the component parts of Swift's Specific. There is nothing in it which comes from the chemist's shop, hence it is the great remedy to assist nature. The spring is the time to brace up the health. Take S. S. S. when you feel dull and heavy—take it when your blood is too thick and slow, and your feelings will tell you when.

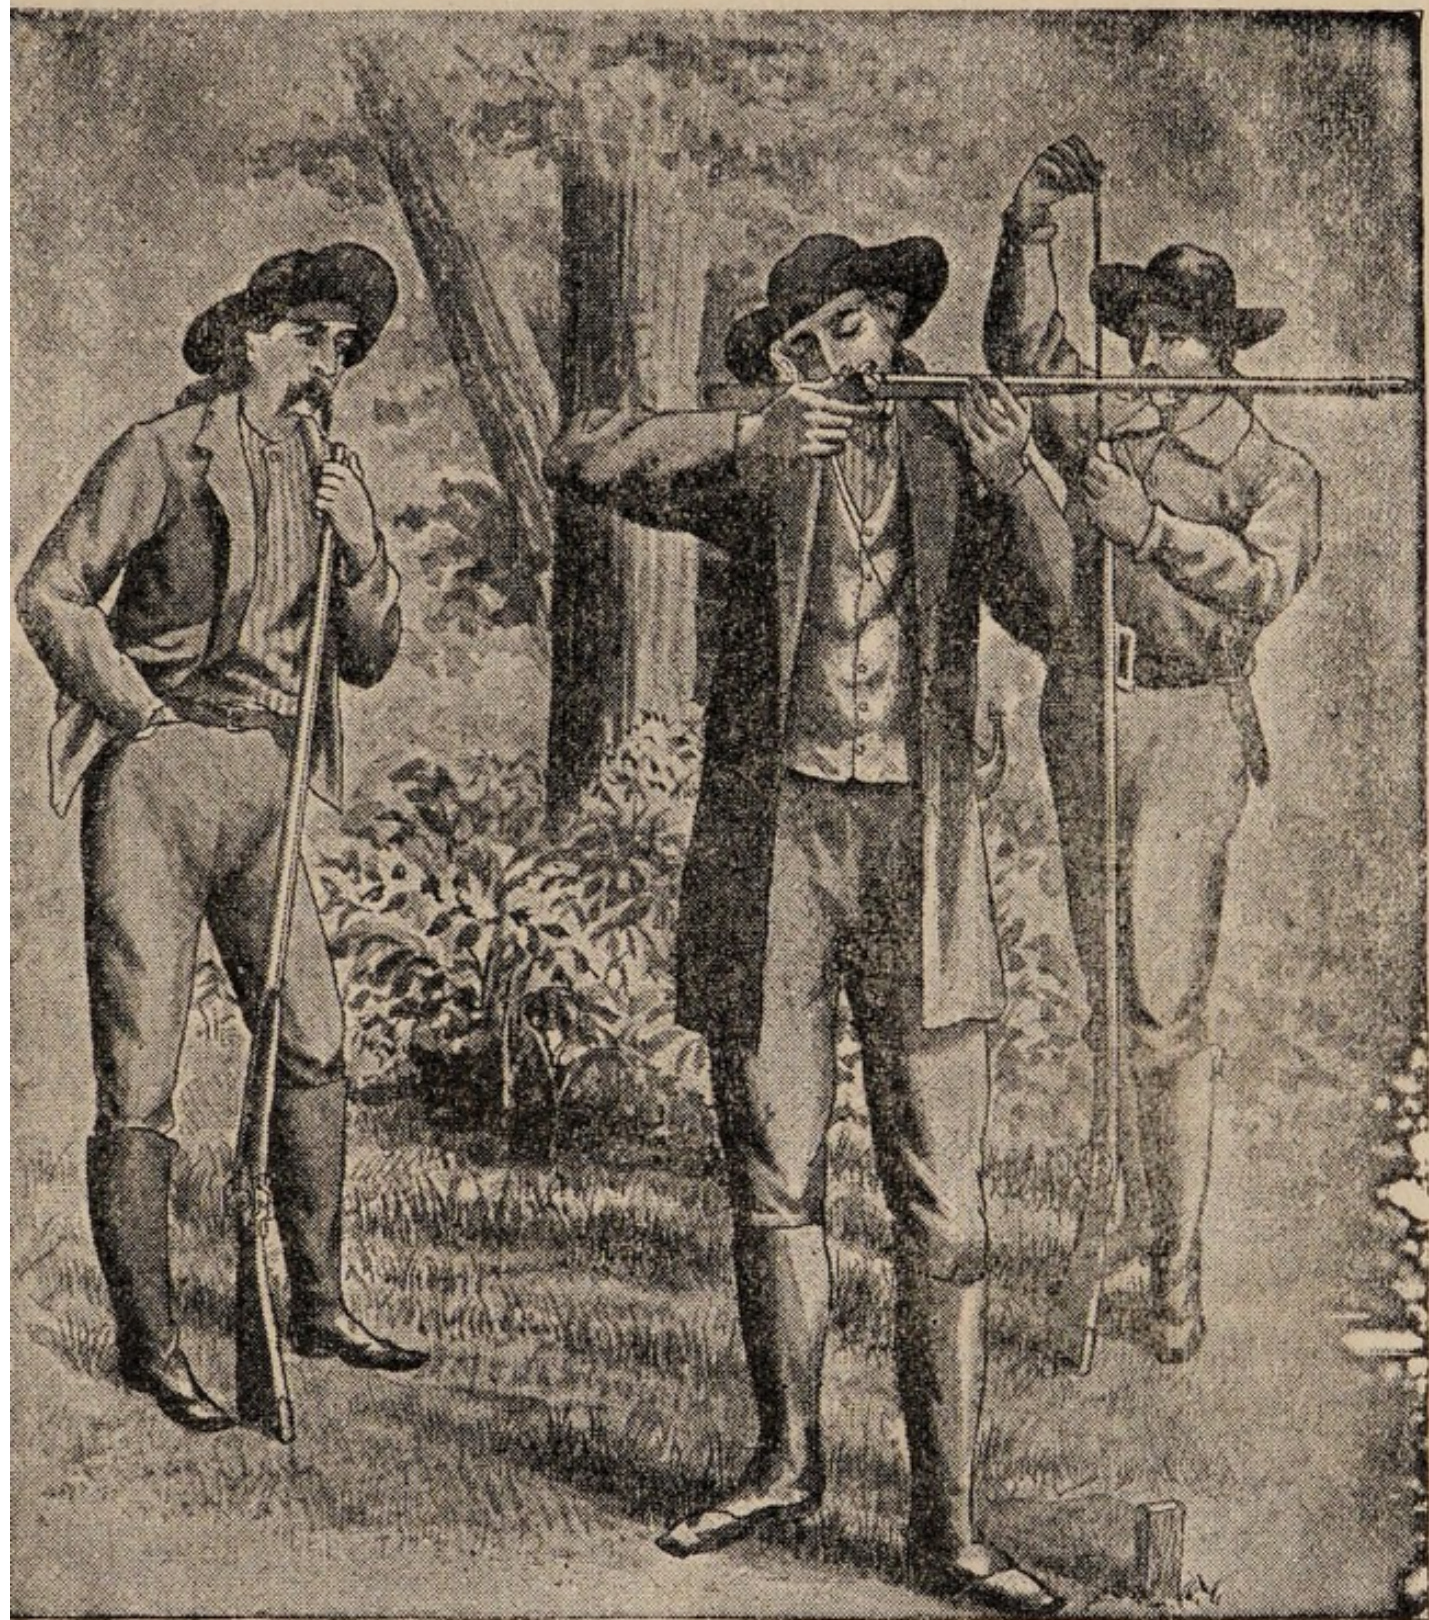

C. E. MITCHELL, West 23d Street Ferry, New York, says he has gained 36 pounds from taking a few bottles of S. S. S. as a tonic, and would not be without it for several times its weight in gold.

MRS. R. W. WILSON, Hopkinsville, Ky., says she regards S. S. S. as the most valuable tonic for ladies in weak, delicate health.

"Jed Super first." Jed fired and missed,
The wood rang out with laughter,.
Si Corbin tried. and then Joe Hanks—
Still clucked the cock thereafter.
"Now then, old man." and midst the taunts
'Twas thought would him dishearten,
Old Jasper fired, and came the shout—
"He's pinged the bird, for sartin."

A CLEAR COMPLEXION.

Pimples, Blotches and Eruptions of the Skin indicate that the blood is not in good condition. These symptoms show the effort of nature to throw off the impurities, in which she should be assisted by Swift's Specific.

MR. D. A. REYNOLDS, editor of The Herald, Lyons, Mich., says that his little son has been entirely cured of irritable sores, which were breaking out all over his body, with one bottle of S. S. S.

Another and another dropped
To Jasper's magic rifle,
He cut persimmons from their stems
Nor fleshed the fruit a trifle,
A wild goose overhead escaped
A dozen erring bullets
Till Jasper's message brought him down
As dead as Noah's pullets.

SCROFULA,

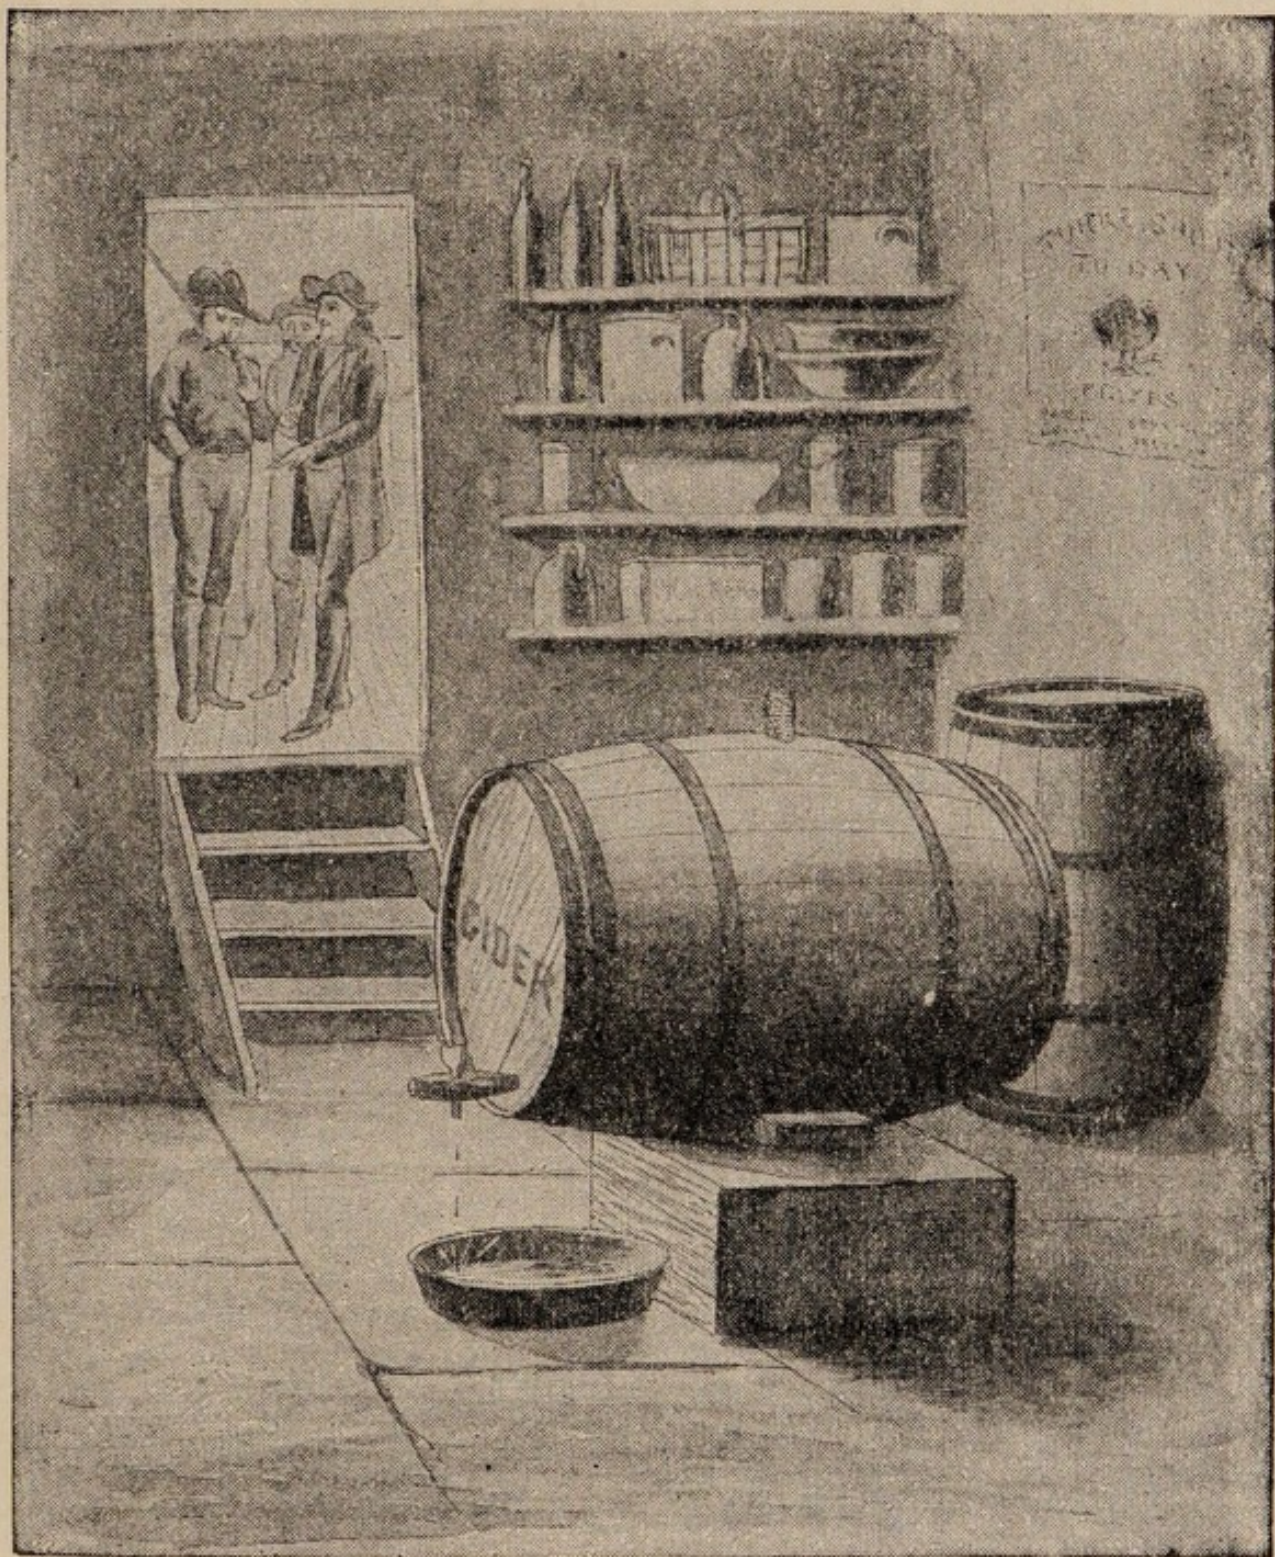

Or Kings' Evil, is medically considered a blood taint, but is really a blood poison inherited from parentage by hereditary transmission. It manifests itself in the form of swelling of the glands of the neck and throat, catarrh of the head, weak eyes, white-swelling, offensive sores, and abscesses, etc. In some cases Scrofula attacks the lungs, which is nothing more or less than consumption. Scrofula, like all blood poisons, to be cured, must have the poisonous virus eliminated from the blood. S. S. S. has never failed to do this and make a cure, when taken before some of the vital organs had become so impaired as to render a cure impossible.

MRS. RUTH BERKLEY, of Salina, Kan., says that her little grandchild has been entirely cured of an aggravated case of Scrofula by the use of a few bottles of S. S. S.

In wonderment the men looked on
At skill so oft repeated,
Till 'round the cider-barrel they
Were shortly after seated,
And Jasper's ever-ready tongue
Revealed to those around him
How sight and nerve of youth he's held
Though three-score years had crowned him.

• INDOLENT ULCERS •

And old sores are generally dependent on some form of blood poison, or from a debilitated and broken state of health, hence the remedy to cure them must be such as will cleanse the blood and invigorate and build up the general health. All of this Swift's Specific will accomplish by cleansing your blood of all morbid and unhealthy humors.

G. W. WELCH, of Mobile, Ala., states that for 27 years he had suffered from a wound in his leg, that refused to heal and gave him constant pain and trouble. He used a few bottles of S. S. S. which nealed up the sores and cured him permanently.

JNO. CONWAY, of London, Ohio, was wounded at the battle of Stone River in 1862. The wound never healed up until 23 years after, when he took Swift's Specific, which drove the poison out of the wound and cured him.

“Hit’s this way, boys,” he sagely said,
“Our blood is life, for sartin,
Ef that’s kep’ free from pizen you
An’ health ain’t soon departin’,

In prufs all-fired perlific—
That you can surely count on this

RHEUMATISM.

Swift's Specific we regard a remedy for Rheumatism as much as for any other blood poison. No matter as to what form of blood disease, whether simple blood humor or real blood poison, the Swift's Specific seems to cure just the same.

Mercurial Rheumatism is most frequently the result of mercurial treatment persisted in for the cure of the blood. The system becomes saturated and poisoned with minerals and develops itself in this form of Rheumatism. Swift's Specific is the only remedy which has ever cured Mercurial Rheumatism.

B. S. WHITE, of Barnesville, Md., says after suffering for 16 years with Rheumatism, he was permanently cured by S. S. S.

LAFAYETTE SYKES, 5th Avenue Hotel, New York, says he was permanently cured of Mercurial Rheumatism by S. S. S.

• SKIN CANCER •

Is a form of blood poison which is not understood by the medical profession as to its real nature and character, but it is evidently hereditary in its nature. It may accidentally develop itself without any predisposition or evidence of such existing poison. The knife or caustic salves have heretofore been the so-called remedies for it, but all honest practitioners will tell you that this treatment fails to cure, and only hastens fatal results. Thousands of cases of Epithelioma (skin) Cancers, and a great many cases of Scirrhus Cancers, have been entirely cured by the use of Swift's Specific. It forces the poison out through the Cancer itself and the pores of the skin.

ASH GROVE, TIPPECANOE CO., IND.

"I suffered intense pain from a Cancer on my cheek. I tried numbers of physicians without permanent benefit. Finally I procured S. S. S., and with the second bottle my Cancer began healing up. My Cancer has healed. I advise all with Cancer to give S. S. S. a fair trial."

CONTAGIOUS

• BLOOD • POISON •

Is the worst of all blood contagion, as the horrible poison is transmitted from one generation to the next, and even to the third and fourth. This form of blood poison is really the source or fountain head of all other blood poison, and in fact 75 per cent. of all the diseases that the flesh is heir to is traceable to it.

SWIFT'S SPECIFIC is the special antidote and remedy of this horrible disease, and has never been known to fail to make a permanent cure in any stage of the disease from the primary to the tertiary.

ALBERT ELLIOTT, of Providence, R. I., says for 20 years he has been afflicted with the worst form of Blood Poison. His face and body were covered with ulcers—S. S. S. cured him. He recommends S. S. S. as the only permanent cure for Blood Poison.
