plates, Second Edition, with numerous marginal notes in the handwriting of William Clift, 4to, calf (re-backed, and foxed) 1788 £40

¶¶ This volume, the Property of Professor Charles Singer, is of considerable importance, in that the notes by William Clift—the first Hunterian curator and pre-edition. The Third Edition, however, was published by Everard Home and did not incorporate these notes, which incidentally give references to Hunter's own preparations and carry on the tradition of Hunter.
