- 694 Engravings. The Separate Plates. A Catalogue Raisonné Compiled by Geoffrey Keynes, 45 reproductions, 4to, Dublin, 1956 (Published at £15 15s) Offered at £7 7s
- This catalogue raisonnée deals with the so-called separate plates, excluding all the Illuminated Books, all the series of engravings such as The Gates of Paradise, Illustrations of the Book of Job, Dante's Inferno, and all book illustrations, whether original or copied.
- Many of these separate plates have much significance as individual works of art, though little has been known about them, largely because of their rarity—indeed a surprising number of them exist only in single examples.
- An important feature of the book lies in the 45 collotype reproductions nearly all being of the actual size of the originals and 4 being true facsimiles in colour. Several of these prints are described here for the first time.
- The edition is limited to 500 copies.

- 1249 Statutes of the Realm (The) FOR THE PERIOD 1225-1713. 11 vols. in 12, folio, with chronological and alphabetical indexes, cloth bound, 1963 £350
 The Statutes of the Realm from Original Records and authentic manuscripts, printed by command of His Majesty King George III in pursuance of an address by the House of Commons of Great Britain. From the earliest times to the end of the reign of Queen Anne. With alphabetical and chronological Indexes. London, 1810-1828, 11 volumes in 12 (volume 4 being in 2 parts) and including the 2 volumes of indexes.
 This work, published under the authority of the Record Commission, is of the highest importance to the lawyer and historian, each statute having been copied from the original record, and every public act inserted, many of which are omitted in the common collections. See a notice of this Corpus Juridicum, in the Gentleman's Magazine for 1834; (vol. 2, p. 23).
 This is the most complete and accurate edition of the statutes for the period from 1225-1713. The introduction contains valuable historical and bibliographical information concerning the statutes of England, Ireland and Scotland. The volumes were first published between 1810 and 1822, with an alphabetical index in 1828. Included are verbatim copies of statutes as enacted, even though later repealed; and private acts up to 31 Henry VIII (1539). Titles of later private acts are printed, but not the text. The "Charters of Liberties" are printed in volume one. Each volume has an index. There are also two cumulative index volumes. Many of the statutes have editorial notes.
