CATALOGUES (3d.) MAY BE HAD ON APPLICATION.

NOTE

The following 220 lots of Books and Tracts from the Shipdham Church Library, comprise all the more rare and valuable items contained in the catalogue as originally prepared for the sale in April last, which was duly authorized but subsequently postponed. It comprises also a quantity of books of lesser but still of appreciable value.

Besides these a quantity of XVIIth century Theology of quite small commercial value has been put aside, the ultimate destination of which will be decided after the result of the present sale is known.

It may be added that the sum realized will be used, (1) to meet the heavy expense of repairs to the roof and the additional cost of £175 for new heating apparatus—both of which are of great urgency at the present time, (2) to form a library of modern books for the use and edification of the parishioners, and (3) to be used towards the reduction of the dilapidations assessment on the Rectory and premises.

See Sabin no. 30120 and S. T. C. 12736—a clean copy except for the verso of K3, which is dust soiled], sm. 4to, unbound
John Beale for W. Welby 1615
¶¶ The author of this very rare and interesting "Discourse" was Secretary, during its earliest years, of the colony of Virginia—the first of the original Colonies and first settled by the English in 1608. The "Discourse," though giving some account of the "Townes and Forts," as well as the fertility of the country, deals mainly with the relations—often fierce and revengeful—of the early Governors and the Indians, particularly their cruel chief Powhatan, and the Romantic story of his daughter, the Princess Pocahontas.
- 123 Hughes (Lewes) A Letter, Sent into England from the Summer Ilands [title, A3 to B4, wanting blank A1—apparently not known to Sabin—S.T.C. 13919], sm. 4to, unbound I. B. for William Welby 1615
¶¶ This exceedingly rare tract contains a vivid description of the shipwreck on Bermuda in 1610, of the expedition under Sir George Somers, bound for Virginia. The writer was Chaplain to the newly found Colony, and he gives descriptions of the resources of the Island and lists of the food, utensils, clothes, etc., which subsequent emigrants from England should take.

¶¶ A clean copy, with good margins, of this interesting early account of New England—a name given to it by Capt. John Smith, and comprising Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, etc. It is in two Parts, the first treating of the climate, natural history, etc., and the second being an account of the Indians—their manners, customs, arts, games, etc.
