To me the said Thomas Guy, during my natural Life, and from and after my Decease, to such Person and Persons, Uses, Intents, and Purposes, as I, by my last Will and Testament in Writing, or any other Writings under my Hand and Seal, subscribed in the Presence of three or more credible Witnesses, should declare, limit, and appoint, as in and by the said Obligation and Condition, relation being thereunto had, may more fully and at large appear :

Now I give and devise unto John Cheatly, and John Blood Yeomen; Joseph Blood, and Arthur Alcock Clothiers; Thomas Orton Yeoman; John Radford, Robert Blood, and the said John Osborn, Citizen and Stationer of London, all that my Alms-House or Building, containing sixteen Rooms, fourteen of which said Rooms are now used and employ'd for the Habitation of fourteen poor Men and Women, and the other two Rooms being laid together, are used for a Library, with the House-of-Office, Gardens, and Appurtenances thereto belonging, situate, lying, and being partly in Gumgate-street, and partly in School-house-lane in Tamworth, in the County of Warwick, to hold to them the said John Cheatly, John Blood, Joseph Blood, Arthur Alcock, Thomas Orton, John Radford, Robert Blood, and John Osborn, their Heirs and Assigns for ever, in Trust, nevertheless, and to and for the Uses, Intents, and Purposes herein after mentioned; that is to say, That my said Trustees, and the Survivors of them, and such others

point, that the said yearly Sum of One Hundred Twenty five Pounds, be paid by the Masters, and Keepers, or Wardens, and Commonalty of Stationers above mentioned, and their Successors, by half-yearly Payments, at the Feast-day of Saint John the Baptist, and the Birth of our Lord God, in every year for ever, to my said Executors, until such intended Corporation, as aforesaid, shall be obtained and take effect; and then to such intended Corporation, and their Successors: to the Intent that my said Executors, or the said intended Corporation, and their Successors, do, and may thereout pay the Sum of One Hundred and Fifteen Pounds per Annum, part thereof, by like half-yearly Payments, unto the said John Cheatly, John Blood, Joseph Blood, Arthur Alcock, Thomas Orton, John Radford, Robert Blood, and John Osborn, and the Survivors of them, and such as shall succeed them, as aforesaid for ever, in Trust, and to and for the Uses, Intents, and Purposes, herein after mentioned; that is to say, in respect of Eighty Pounds per Annum, part of the said yearly

yearly Sum of One Hundred and Fifteen Pounds, upon Trust, and to the Intent that they do, and shall pay thereout, unto each of the said Fourteen poor People, and such others as shall from time to time be chosen in their stead, the Sum of Two Shillings per Week, for their Maintenance: And what shall be remaining of the said Eighty Pounds per Annum, over and above such weekly Payments, shall be expended and applied by my said Trustees, for Reparation of the said Alms-houses and Premises; and for such other Uses relating thereto as my said Trustees, or the major part of them, shall from time to time think fit and appoint.

And for and in respect of the Sum of Thirty five Pounds, Remainder of the said yearly Sum of one Hundred and Fifteen Pounds, upon Trust, and to the Intent that my said last mentioned Trustees, and such as shall succeed them, as aforesaid, for ever, shall and do apply the same to the putting out Children Apprentice, Nursing, or such like charitable Deed, of Four, Six, or Eight such poor Persons

Persons of the Family of the Vough- tons, or Woods, or proceeding therefrom, as they shall think fit. And if none, or not sufficient of such can be found, then of such other Person or Persons, as they shall find to be proper Objects of Charity.

And for and in respect of Ten Pounds per Annum, the Remainder of the said Sum of One Hundred and

 E Trust,

Trust that they apply the same to the putting out of Children Apprentice, Nursing, or such like charitable Deeds, of two or more such poor Persons, of the Family of the *Guy*s, or proceeding therefrom, as they shall think fit: and if no such can be found, then of such other Person or Persons as they shall find to be proper Objects of Charity.

Item, I give and bequeath unto Charles Foye, John Lade, John Kenrick, Esquires; Mr. John Darby, Mr. Thomas Dance, Mr. John Sprint, and Mr. John Osborn, the Sum of one Thousand Pounds Sterling; Two Hundred Pounds, part of which, shall be paid unto them, or to such Person or Persons, as they, or the major part of them shall appoint, by Writing under their Hands, at the End of three Months next after my Decease, and so from time to time, at the End of every three Months, until the said Sum of One Thousand Pounds be fully paid, in Trust, that they, the Survivors, or Survivor of them, shall, and do, from time to time, distribute the same for the Relief
