The Proclamations are written very fairly, and all signed by her Majesty's own hand, and many of them countersigned by her Chancellor and other great Officers of State.

N. B. They are a most rare Collection, and of very great Value; the Earl of Oxford once offered Mr. Martin one Hundred Guineas for them, which he refused.

237 THE PASTYME OF THE PEOPLE; the Cronycles of dyvers Realmys, and most specyally of the Realme of Englund, &c. by John Rastell, with curious whole length Portraits of the Kings of England from the Conquest, cut in Wood, an elegant copy, in the original binding, large Folio, black letter, date London 1529

N. B. For a particular Account of this exceeding scarce and curious Book, see Nicholson, Palmer, Ames, Walpole and Granger. This Book gives a more particular Account of many curious historical Anecdotes than any other extant. There are supposed to be only two or three Copies existing, one of which was purchas'd at Mr. West's Auction at Nineteen Guineas.

N. B. It has the Printer's Mark at the End.
