ANnos abhinc aliquot Graecis & Romanis antiquitatibus deditus, quaedam, è numophylacio meo selecta numismata, in lucem protuli; ignarus licet, num unicuique eorum elegantiarum amatori, aequae gratus iste meus labor fuerit: nihilominus, quoniam varia, ex illo tempore, AEgyptiaca, Graeca, & Romana signa antiqua nactus sum, ea etiam orbi impertire, & singula, quantum mihi, in pervolvendis veterum poëtarum voluminibus occurrebat, epigrammate congruo illustrare conatus sum: eo magis ad id allectus, quod filia mea, iisdem manu suâ aeri inscribendis, propensum animum ostenderet. Si antiquatum peritis non ingratum hoc esse animad-

DExtera, quae nitido describis marmora caelo,
Et digitis animas aera vetusta tuis,
Docta rudi tabulae varias inducere formas,
Nec minus in Lyricos ire parata modos,
Dextera, quam Cytheraea suae componere vellet,
Judice me, poterat praeposuisse suae,
Quid non vestra domus, quid non Tibi patria debet,
Nobilior meritis utraque facta Tuis?
Dextera, dilectum coelo latura Parentem,
Cujus ab artifici Virgine crescit honos.
Tu rigido Divum simulacra effingis in aere,
Omnibus ut pateant quae patuere Tibi.
Tu Venerem pingis, qualem si cernat Apelles,
Non minor est ars haec, diceret, arte mea.
Hac facie mea Diva suis emersit ab undis,
Et strinxit fusas per sua colla comas.
Munere virgineo, cyanos, viridesque smaragdos,
Adstrictos digitis, Roma superba, tuis,
Et vestris olim suspensa monilia collis,
Gens Asiae, & rubro proxima turba mari,

In-

Insertumque Diis varium spectamus Abraxan,
Prisca puellari signa renata manu.
Dextera, quae veluti Pelopis manus altera quondam,
In nitidum verti tota mereris ebur.
Hei mihi quid voveo ? nec enim formosior esset,
Quae Libycum superat laude nitoris ebur.
Articulis candore Tuis purissima cedunt
Marmora, vel Pariis eruta saxa jugis.
Illa quidem, laeto venas suffusa rubore,
A digitis vinci non doluere Tuis.
Hi digitii ( tacita sic marmora voce loquuntur )
Hi facient vita nos meliore frui.
Pondus iners tellure diu latitavimus ima,
Quae nos visceribus condidit ante suis.
Nec poterant prodesse atris demersa tenebris,
Queis nullum licuit, saxa, videre diem.
At nunc artifici formosa resurgere dextrâ
Nos facit, & nostras WILDIA pandit opes.
Virginei flos, illa, chori, quem confspicit Ya,
Confspicit affusis Amstela fessus aquis.
Credibile est, ea dum tangis, Pulcherrima virgo,
Marmora contactu mollia facta Tuo.
Felicem, talis quem dextera complectetur!
Candida, perpetuâ dextra colenda fide.
Evolat, & coelo Tibi fama acclamat aperto:
Marmoribus vitam Tu dabis, illa Tibi.

Haec caelo artifici, manuque docta,
Doctas artificum manus priorum
In lucem e mediis trahit tenebris.

Haec Patris statuas, Patrisque gemmas,
