 ERECTED IN 1622.

University of Aberdeen.

THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY,
ABERDEEN, SCOTLAND,
January, 1910.

DEAR SIR,

I have pleasure in sending for the Library under your charge a copy of a bibliographical booklet dealing with the writings of Dr. DUNCAN LIDDEL, a native of Aberdeen, and Professor in the University of Helmstedt. I trust you will pardon a professional brother for troubling you with a query regarding its subject.

The works of Dr. LIDDEL (especially Nos. 5, 6, 7, 9, 10, 11 in my List) prove that while he was at Helmstedt he acted as Praeses in connexion with at least 82 Theses. Of these, in their original form, I have been able to examine only 44, copies of which are either in this Library or in that of the British Museum.

I shall esteem it a great favour if you will kindly inform me on the appended leaf whether your Library possesses copies of any of the works of Liddel (Nos. 1 to 20); or of Theses under his presidency (Nos. 21 to 102; or others unknown to me); or of Nos. 103 and 107, which also I have been unable to examine.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Librarian to the University of Aberdeen.
