"This work is a bitter satire, in blank verse, enumerating many of the crimes which England has committed, and castigating her hypocrisy."
It is certainly one of the cleverest of all Burton's books, although it is practically unknown. Its scarcity is increased by the fact that Lady Burton bought up and destroyed a large number of (the 200) copies which were issued, to save her husband from possible trouble with the authorities (see her "Life," Vol. 1, pp. 392-95).
Burton's own copy, with his corrections (in the Kensington Library), has no errata, and it would appear that the Publisher's, seeing the expense involved in making corrections, merely made an "errata" of the main corrections.
The above copy has obviously been issued without errata, probably one of the earliest issued. The "errata" sheet usually faces page (1) and is not counted in the numbering.

- 355 DAVIS (GEORGE W.) The POSTHUMOUS PAPERS of the PICKWICK CLUB: some NEW BIBLIOGRAPHICAL DISCOVERIES, 20 pages, 8vo., wrappers, 1928 5/-
This small contribution to the bibliography of "Pickwick" is the work of one who has been both a lover and a collector of the writings of Dickens for over 40 years, and who has had the opportunity of examining and comparing an exceptionally large number of first editions.
That this bibliography has become the authority on the points of a genuine first issue Pickwick is amply demonstrated by the constant phrase to be found in both Auctioneer's and Bookseller's Catalogues—"According to Davis."
See facsimile opposite
- 356 DICKENS (CHARLES) POSTHUMOUS PAPERS of the PICKWICK CLUB, GENUINE FIRST ISSUE of the FIRST EDITION, with 43 illustrations by Seymour, Buss and "Phiz," all the plates in the earliest state, 8vo., new levant morocco extra, t.e.g., 1837 £50
It is definitely established that only a small number of the genuine first issue of Pickwick Papers were printed, of which very few copies exist.
Whilst collectors have usually paid attention to the issue of the plates, Mr. George W. Davis (the well-known Dickens authority) has recently discovered several important points in the text, which only occur in the first issue and which have been hitherto unnoticed by Bibliographer or Collector.
The above copy has all the points, both as regards text and plates, and has been verified by Mr. Davis.
