The magnificent response to our two previous "War Time" Catalogues at Reduced Prices, encourages us to hope that the Third of this Series will meet with the same success.

We take this opportunity of thanking the many customers who expressed their good wishes and appreciation of the difficulties which we have to meet at the present time.

Cable orders using the code word "OCCULT" will be read as "please send from Catalogue 47."

Unless otherwise stated all books are published in London, and are accurately described as to condition, etc.

Prices are Net and do not include postage. Parcels up to 11 lbs. in weight can now be mailed to America for 5/9, and up to 22 lbs. for 9/9. Smaller parcels can be sent to any part of the World by Book Post at 4d. per lb.

Insurance against War Risks.—A Charge of $2\frac{1}{2}\%$ of the value will be added to cover insurance against loss in transit of parcels sent abroad.

Clients ordering through an Agent should advise us direct, thus assuring immediate attention to their order, and future catalogues.

A Remittance or satisfactory reference should accompany first order.

For the guidance of our Clients Abroad, the simplest method of payment is by International Money Order (obtainable at any Post Office), or Banker's draft on London.

The Christie Miller copy of this rare tract was sold for £26.

John Darrell began to figure as an exorcist in 1586, when he pretended to cast out an evil spirit from Catherine Wright, of Ridgway Lane, Derbyshire.

In November, 1597, he was invited to Nottingham to dispossess William Somers, an apprentice, and shortly after his arrival was appointed preacher of St. Mary's in that town, and his fame drew crowded congregations to listen to his tales of devils and possession. He was prohibited from preaching in 1598. Subsequently was brought before Bancroft, bishop of London, and S. Harsnett, his Chaplain, when Somers, Catherine Wright, and Mary Cooper confessed that they had been instructed in their simulations by Darrell. Having been brought before the commissioners and examined at Lambeth on 26th May, 1599, was pronounced an imposter, and along with George More, one of his confederates, degraded from the Ministry and committed to the Gatehouse.
