This charming book—probably the finest ever published on London—with such brilliant impressions of the delightful plates, is becoming increasingly difficult to obtain, owing to so many copies having been broken up and framed. As a picture of London at the beginning of the Nineteenth Century it is unsurpassed; many of the buildings now no longer exist, while those that fortunately are still with us bring joy and admiration to all who visit our Capital.

This book has practically doubled in price during the last year, and there is every possible likelihood of it becoming still more valuable in the near future.

Important new Dickens Discovery.

DICKENS (Charles) POSTHUMOUS PAPERS OF THE PICKWICK CLUB, FIRST EDITION,
with 43 illustrations by Seymour, Buss, and "Phiz," 8vo, new levant morocco extra, t.e.g., 1837 £35

First Issue, with all the plates in the earliest state.

Collectors have usually paid attention to the issue of the plates; but Mr. George W. Davis (the well-known Dickens authority) has recently discovered several revisions in the text, and as only a small number were issued, very few copies with the original readings now exist.

The above copy has all the points, both as regards text and plates, and has been verified by Mr. Davis.
