SPECIAL OFFER

HIGGINS (Godfrey) Anacalypsis: An Attempt to draw aside the VEIL of the SAITIC ISIS; or, An Inquiry into the Origin of Languages, Nations and Religions, THE ONLY COMPLETE VERBATIM REPRINT OF THE ORIGINAL EDITION, 2 vols, 4to, cloth, uncut, as new, New York, 1927

Price - - - £9/9/-

The extreme rarity, and consequent high price, of the "Anacalypsis" has hitherto placed it beyond the reach of many scholars and students. This exact reprint is limited to 350 numbered copies, and, owing to the financial collapse of the publishers, cannot be re-issued. We have access to the few remaining copies, which are now offered at a considerable reduction on the original published price.

"The powerful, though rather dogmatic logic, and the profound learning of the author give the work a singular importance; and in a thinking age, when many things formerly considered truths are passing away into the shadows of tradition, the student of comparative mythology and the origin of languages will look upon Higgins 'Anacalypsis' as his guide and luminary through the darkness of dawning science."

The first Mayor of London was Henry Fitz-Alwyn, who held office for 24 years, 1212-15. King John in 1215, in order to win the support of the citizens, conceded to the barons of London by charter, the right of annually choosing their mayor.
According to the evidence of the Rolls, it is to the reign of John that the possession of a mayor in the other great towns, such as Bristol, York, Norwich, Lincoln and Winchester, is due.
The period which this manuscript covers is of great historical interest, more especially the Shakespearian period, in which appear many famous names with whom we are familiar.
