CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right of the seller or his agent to bid, or else to impose a reserve.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased will be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are received back within FOURTEEN DAYS after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm-holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Messrs. SOTHEY & CO. are prepared to execute bids, and in addition to advise intending purchasers as far as possible, if requested by them to do so, without making any charge for either service. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

- 28 HUBBARD (WILLIAM) A NARRATIVE OF THE TROUBLES WITH THE INDIANS IN NEW-ENGLAND,
FROM THE FIRST PLANTING THEREOF IN THE YEAR 1607 TO THIS PRESENT YEAR 1677. But chiefly of the late Troubles in . . .
1675. and 1676. To which is added a Discourse about the Warre with the Pequods in . . . 1637. [The Happiness of a People in the Wisdome of their Rulers . . . by William Hubbard], FIRST EDITION, SECOND ISSUE (12 lines of errata on the last leaf of the "Narrative" and License Leaf dated "Boston, March 29. 1677"), FOLDING WOODCUT MAP OF NEW ENGLAND ("THE WHITE HILLS" ISSUE); a small piece torn from the bottom of sig. E 1 (first series) affecting one word and a catch-word, a minute original flaw in the paper of sig.
D 1 (second series), in contemporary blind tooled calf binding (? bound in America), rebacked, a small panel on sides composed of a narrow two-line fillet with floreate stamps at the inner and outer angles and initials B. A. in centre 4to (7 $\frac{3}{8}$  in. by 5 $\frac{7}{16}$  in.). Boston; Printed by John Foster
1677

** A VERY FINE COPY AND EXTREMELY RARE. The folding woodcut map of New England is in very fine condition and is a very beautiful crisp specimen. It is the first map engraved in America. Of the preliminary contributions in verse the first, signed J. S., is believed to be by John Sherman; the other, signed B. T., by Benjamin Tompson, one of the earliest native American poets.

[See ILLUSTRATION.]

- 29 Hudson's Bay. Report from the Committee appointed to inquire into the State and Condition of the Countries adjoining to Hudson's Bay, and of the Trade carried on there, unbound
fol. 1749

4to. Amsterodami, ex officina Hesselij Gerardi Anno 1612

- ** A VERY FINE COPY AND EXTREMELY RARE. THE FIRST PRINTED ACCOUNT OF HUDSON'S DISCOVERIES IN NORTH AMERICA, AND THE SECOND PUBLISHED ACCOUNT OF THE DISCOVERY OF THE NORTHERN COASTS OF AUSTRALIA BY DE QUIROS.

A full collation and comparison of this edition and that of the following year is given in the Huth Catalogue.

This copy agrees with the Huth Catalogue description of the 1612 edition except that it has four additional leaves at end with signature F beginning "In praefatione postremae editionis" and with a woodcut of a whale on the last. From the Huth Catalogue description these leaves belong to the 1613 edition. It also has a fourth map in addition to the three described in the Huth Catalogue. It shows the North Coast of Norway, Greenland, Spitzbergen and Nova Zembla (plate measurement 163 mm. by 256 mm.).

This copy has not got the separate title to the Relatio Memorialis which begins on B 1. The make-up of the gatherings, which in the present case can be easily distinguished, make it clear that this title was printed on sig. A 1 (the leaf following the general title and was intended to be cut out and placed on a guard in its proper place. In this copy this was never done. The title was duly cut out but never replaced.

- 31 JACOMBE (T.) Enochs Walk and Change, in a Sermon (7 Feb. 1655) at the Funeral of the Reverend Mr. Richard Vines . . . with some Elegies on his death, verses by Roger Drake, R. Wylde, Mat. Poole, Thomas Playre and others, 1656, unbound; with 4 others 4to. (5)

oblong (147 mm. by 197 mm.) No place, printer or date
[? R. Pynson, c. 1520]

* * APPARENTLY UNRECORDED. The ornaments of which the border is formed are reproduced in Plomer's "English Printers' Ornaments," fig. 112 (i) and 112 (iii), where they are both ascribed to Pynson and De Worde. The first of the two also occurs in fig. 8, a built-up border from Pynson's "Year Books of Edward III," 1518. Neither of the types used is to be found among those reproduced in Colonel Isaacs' "Types used by Wynkyn de Worde, 1501-34" (The Library, Mar. 1929), so the Indulgence may reasonably be attributed to Pynson, who did other work of the kind (cp. the Indulgence sold in the Christie Miller sale, Mar.-Apr. 1927, lot 1003).

QUARTO.

- 275 HORAE B.V.M. CUM CALENDARIO, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, 206 ll. written in red and black (calendar in red, blue and gold) in bold gothic characters, 15 miniatures, the initials following these finely illuminated in blue, magenta and white on gold grounds, these fifteen pages within delicately executed borders (some shaved) of conventional foliage, flowers and fruit with a lavish use of gold, other initials in gold on grounds of blue, magenta and white, paragraph-endings in blue and gold, wants the miniature before Tierce with two leaves of text (supplied in a later hand), black shagreen, joints broken and roughly mended French, c. 1500

** Liturgically this Book of Hours is remarkable in having no hymn at Matins or Lauds. The presence of Saint Annemundus in the Litany and Calendar suggests a Lyons origin, and this ascription is supported by the Lessons at Matins (O beata, etc.). The other criteria are: Matins: Antiphon, Sicut myrrha; Lauds: Capitulum, Egrediatur virga, Collect, Deus qui de B. V. M. utero; Prime: Antiphon, Alleluia, Capitulum, Ego quasi vitis; Nones: Antiphon, Alleluia, Capitulum, Quae est ista. The Alleluia antiphons are characteristic of Carthusian Horae, and the book may have been prepared in a Carthusian house at Lyons for the owner, whose portrait appears in the thirteenth miniature, kneeling before the Virgin and Child.

- 365 JACOBITE PAPERS. A FINE SERIES OF LETTERS AND DOCUMENTS RELATING TO THE 1689 RISING, from John Graham of Claverhouse, Viscount Dundee; Lord Dunfermline, Colonel Alexander Cannon, Sir Hugh Mackay and Sir Thomas Livingstone, including a superb letter written by Dundee on the eve of his death at the Battle of Killiecrankie. The papers are composed as follows:

DUNDEE (Viscount) Letters mostly in a secretary's hand, signed, with some autograph postscripts, May 19 to July 26, 1689, inciting Cluny Macpherson to rise for the Jacobite cause and provide men and provisions for his army; gives news of the King's Fleet, the troops from Ireland, and the defeat of Schomberg; promises religious toleration. The fine last letter is apparently entirely in his own handwriting and runs as follows:

Sir—

My Lord Murray is retyred down the contry all the Atholl men have left them saive Stratherol Achintully and Baron Read Straloch and they Dundie.

My service to all the loyall gentrey of Badenoch.

DUNFERMLINE (Lord) Four Letters, April 5th to 3rd May, 1689, commanding Cluny to be in readiness to rise ; asks if he will accept a commission from King James

CANNON (Col. Alexander) Five Letters, July 4th, 1689 to May 27th, 1690, offering commissions ; supplements the information in Dundee's letters

MACKAY (Gen. Sir Hugh) Commander of the Williamite army at Killiecrankie, Four Letters, 6th May, 1689 to October 20th, 1690, first of all asking Macpherson to rise for the Prince of Orange, demanding provisions and threatening a raid if he refuses, and finally saying he will endeavour to obtain compensation for damage for Cluny after the subsidence of the Rising

With A. L. s. of Sir Thomas Livingstone of the same purport (21)

* * * This fine series of historical letters has been the subject of articles in the Daily Telegraph, March 3rd to April 17th, by Mr. Grant R. Francis, and has also been printed privately in "Gleanings from the Cluny Charter Chest at Cluny Castle" and "The Transactions of the Gaelic Society of Inverness."

- 366 PAGANINI (Nicolo) Very fine A. L. s. "Nicolo Paganini," 2 pp. large 4to, London, Io. Guigno, 1831, to a Royal Duchess, with portrait after Ingres (2)

Thanking her for the interest she is taking in himself and his Concerts at the King's Theatre. Without entering into minute explanations as to why the prices of admission at the doors have been doubled, a plan adopted since his appearances at Paris, he seeks to justify himself with the English public without humilating himself. The annexed letter sent to the principal London journals will show her R. Highness how he has explained a fact which has caused much talk, &c., &c.

- 367 MERYON (Charles) A. L. s. 2 $\frac{3}{4}$  pp. 8vo, to his printer Delâtre :

Congratulating him on his improved position, and hopes that in his leisure time he will continue to make his charming little etchings so greatly prized by collectors. He has sad memories of his old maisonette and garden in the Rue St. Jacques which he badly maltreated. He mentions troubles with his landlord who appears to have declined to hand on his address. Unfavourable rumours about himself have circulated for a long time, aggravated by vile follies which he has lately committed.

- 368 MERYON (C) A. L. s. three very closely written pp. 8vo, 17 févr. '63, to Leseq :

He accepts his offer to etch a subject which is almost finished, and proposes another. In spite of the small amount of help which he has received up to now, he does not despair that one day a précis of our voyage may be published. The subject, of New Caledonia, of which Leseq has a proof; he has destroyed the second; of the third state . . . he has delivered 110 proofs for which he has received 250 fcs. He wants 200 fcs. for the new plate and 100 fcs. in advance. He gives the solution of his second Rebus.

- 369 BOILLY (L.) French Painter, 1761-1845, A. L. s. 3 lines 8vo, with address, to his son, sending two tickets which Tardieu has sent for him; he can do what he likes with them, rare

- 370 COCHIN (C. N) Engraver, 1715-1790, A. L. s. 3 full pp. 4to, 8 janvier, 1772, rare :

The Marquis de Marigny [brother of La Pompadour] has brought him to Menars. Some proprietors of houses in the cul-de-sac de Notre Dame des Champs behind the gardens of the Luxembourg have asked Cochin's mediation through Marigny to get permission from the King to open a doorway into the gardens which would improve their properties and would be a public benefit, and communicate the garden with the new boulevard . . . If the scheme can be carried through M. Marigny will make a considerable gift to the R. Academy of Painting, &c.

- 371 TURNER (J. M. W.) A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, Apl. 30th, 1824, to Holsworthy, with addressed fly-leaf :

Turner had given a drawing to Mrs. H. but he had been so long acknowledging it and treated it so much like a commission that "my pride is wounded and my Independence roused . . . money is out of the question in the present case." &c.

- 372 TURNER (J. M. W.) A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, Dec. 7, 1837 :

To Maw, who had invited him to Guildford, but he is an invalid; he has caught a cold at Lord Egremont's Funeral or at the Life Academy . . . "Glad you like the Campbell illustrations."

- 373 HEINE (H.) A. L. s. "Henri Heine," 1 p. 8vo, Vendredi matin [n. y.] with address, to E. Grenier, in French, he wants Buloz to print on the 15th; this concerns Heine's Poem "Alta Troll," the dancing bear, which Grenier was translating into French, the date is circa 1847. See notes on cover

- 374 GOETHE (J. W. von) L. s. "Goethe," 2 pp. 4to, June 22, 1797, to C. G. Körner, with address, an extremely fine letter:

Die vergangene 4 Wochen habe ich Jena zugebracht und daselbst theils mein episches Gedicht geendigt, theils mich mit Schillern zum neuen Almanach gehalten . . . Haben Sie schon etwas von dem Prolog zum Wallenstein gesehen? Er ist sehr glücklich gerathen und giebt einen freien Blick in die grosse und sonderbare Welt, in welcher das Stück spielen wird . . .

* * Schiller was engaged on the Wallenstein Trilogy at this time, and was collaborating with Goethe.

- 375 SCHILLER (J. C. F. von) Fine A. L. s. "Fr. Schiller," 3 pp. 4to, Jena, July 7, 1796, desiring his correspondent to make an engraving for the "Musenalmanach"

He wishes to have Goethe's head, this time, whose portrait he will supply the artist with. If not, he can use the engraving by Lips, which can easily be improved upon, &c.

- 376 GOETHE (J. W. von) L. s. and subscribed "Audenken und Wohlwollen! ergohest J. W. v. Goethe, 2 pp. large 4to, Weimar, 2 April, 1825, to the historian Heiren, in perfect condition:

428 AMERICA. GENERAL SIR WILLIAM HOWE'S ORDER BOOKS AFTER HIS CAPTURE OF NEW YORK AND DURING THE OCCUPATION, from Sept. 27, 1776 to June 2, 1777. These important records were kept by Captain Henry Knight, A.D.C. to Howe, and record day by day military operations during the occupation

Cases of desertion to the rebels, so frequent during the occupation, were not confined to the Hessian Regiments, Knight's Order Books show

A REMARKABLE SERIES OF CONTEMPORARY MANUSCRIPTS,

RELATING TO THE FOUNDATION OF THE PROVINCE OF
MARYLAND AND ITS EARLY HISTORY.

Lot 433.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

These papers, which will be offered as one lot, are all in good preservation. Their historical value is enhanced by the fact that they were the private papers of the Lords Cecilus and Charles Baltimore, the first and second proprietors of the colony.

No. (1).—A signed draft, or duplicate, of a letter, dated 19 August, 1629, addressed to Charles I by George, first Baron Baltimore, from his plantation at Avalon in Newfoundland, praying for a grant of land in the warmer climate of Virginia. This is a document of the greatest historic interest, which led to the foundation of the Colony of Maryland.

Nos. (2) to (6) are warrants by the Lords Committee of Trade and Plantations addressed to the Attorney-General by order of the King, directing him to prepare a Patent to Lord Baltimore for a new colony in America to be called Maryland. They show the difficulties Baltimore experienced in negotiating the terms and boundaries of his grant, owing to the opposition of existing Patentees in Virginia, which caused the Maryland Charter to be several times recalled and reissued with amended boundaries. Even so, these boundaries proved so indefinite, that 50 years later, when Pennsylvania was granted to William Penn, they led to endless disputes between the proprietors of the two colonies.

No. (7) is a contemporary account of a very early voyage made to the head of Chesapeake Bay by Cyprian Thorowgood, in 1634, apparently unrecorded.

No. (8).—Robert Wintour's "Treatise concerning ye new Plantation now erecting under Lord Baltimore in Maryland" written in 1635, is a document of great historic importance. It extends to about 9,000 words and gives all available information as to the benefits to accrue to settlers taking up grants from Lord Baltimore in the new colony. This "Treatise" appears to be entirely unknown.

Nos. (9) to (14) are papers and original letters dealing principally with Lord Baltimore's relations with the Dutch in New Netherlands, including a holograph letter from William Kieft, the Dutch Governor, dated from New Amsterdam as early as September, 1638.

Nos. (15) to (35) relate to the controversy between Lord Baltimore and William Penn respecting the boundary between their two provinces.

Special mention must be made of nos. (16) and (17), two original letters from King Charles II to Charles Lord Baltimore, in 1681 and 1682, each bearing the Royal Sign Manual. The first letter was delivered to Baltimore by Captain William Markham, Deputy Governor of Pennsylvania, and the second by William Penn personally at a conference. These two letters announce the granting of the Province of Pennsylvania to William Penn and give instructions that the agents of both proprietors should meet and settle the boundary by making a true division between Maryland and Pennsylvania and "fixing certain landmarks for the preventing and avoiding all doubts and controversies that may otherwise happen in respect to the same." These two letters are well-known to historians. Nos. (19) to (29) are letters from Lord Baltimore to William Penn, in 1682 and 1683, relating to the disagreements between them as to the boundaries and other matters. In the earlier letters Baltimore writes in dignified and friendly terms, at the same time protesting politely against some of Penn's actions from the time he first arrived in America. Gradually an undercurrent of doubt and distrust of Penn seems to creep into the letters, although they are still couched in courteous terms. Finally in his last letter, dated July, 19, 1683 [vide no. (29)], Baltimore, irritated beyond endurance by an affront offered to him in a letter from Penn, dated July 5, throws off all restraint and tells Penn plainly what he thinks of him, concluding by saying: "your pen is as dirty and rude as many of your late actions."

No. (32).—The Treaty between Baltimore and the Sinico and Pascattaway Indians appears to be unrecorded.

Nos. (33) to (35) record the minutes of the official proceedings before the Committee for Trade and Plantations and before the Queen in Council, respecting the disputed boundaries between Maryland and Pennsylvania, when the petitions of Baltimore and Penn were both dismissed.

No. (36) is a most important MS. sketch map of the country beyond the head of Chesapeake Bay, illustrating by means of dotted lines and lettered references, the various positions claimed for the boundary as determined by sundry surveyors at different times.

Nos. (37) to (39) relate to various grants of land in Maryland in early times; to each grant the great seal of Maryland is attached.

No. (40) is a fine portrait of Cecilius, the second Lord Baltimore and first proprietor of Maryland, engraved in line by Abraham Blooteling in 1657.

(THE INCEPTION OF THE PROVINCE OF MARYLAND.)

- (1) LETTER FROM GEORGE LORD BALTIMORE TO KING CHARLES I, dated from Ferryland in Newfoundland, 19 August, 1629, petitioning for a grant of land in Virginia, 2 pp. folio, with fly-leaf bearing the endorsement

** This remarkable letter, soliciting the grant of a tract of land in Virginia, ultimately resulted in the establishment of the

Colony of Maryland. A brief résumé of the events leading up to the granting of the Charter of Maryland, on June 20th, 1632, will show the importance of this letter and the following contemporary documents [nos. (2) to (6)].

In 1620 Sir George Calvert, then Secretary of State, purchased from Sir William Vaughan the south-west peninsula of Newfoundland, and in the following year he sent out a body of settlers under Captain Edward Wynne, who established a small settlement which was named Ferryland. In 1623 King James I granted to Calvert a Charter for the colony under the name of the Province of Avalon. In February, 1625, on resigning his post of Secretary of State, Calvert was created Baron of Baltimore in Ireland. In 1627 he made a short visit to his settlement at Ferryland, and in the following year he went out again, accompanied by his family, intending to remain there permanently. The severity of the climate, however, soon convinced him that any attempt to establish a prosperous agricultural colony in such a spot was fore-doomed to failure. On August 19th, 1629, he accordingly wrote this letter to King Charles I, complaining of the harshness of the climate and stating his determination to remove himself :

With some 40 persons to your Majestie's dominion of Virginia, where if your Matie. will please to grant me a precinct of land with such priviledges as the K. yr father . . . was pleased to grant me here I shall endeavour to the utmost of my power to deserve it.

Without waiting for a reply he sailed for Virginia and arrived at Jamestown in October of the same year (1629). Meeting with unexpected difficulties in establishing himself there he returned to England and endeavoured to obtain a Patent for a new colony to the south of James River. By February, 1631, negotiations were nearly complete, when strong opposition compelled him to abandon the idea of founding a colony in that district. Subsequently he sought for a grant of a tract of land to the north and east of Potomac River. The Patent for this was almost ready for sealing when he died on April 15th, 1632. Negotiations were then continued by his son, Cecilius, who had succeeded to the title as second Lord Baltimore, to whom the Charter of Maryland was finally sealed on June 20th, 1632. The following documents, nos. (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6), detail the course of the negotiations and the difficulties experienced in defining the boundaries of the proposed new provinces, owing to the conflicting interests of other patentees.

Lord George Baltimore's actual letter of August 19, 1629, was of course sent to the King. It is mentioned by Winsor in Narrative and Critical History, vol. III, p. 519, and is also referred to in the D.N.B. under Calvert (George). The present letter has all the appearance of being the original draft in George Lord Baltimore's own handwriting, for it contains several corrections, and part of it is written along the left side margin. Moreover, the endorsement on the fly-leaf is in the handwriting of his son Cecilius, and was obviously made during his father's lifetime, for it reads "19 Aug. 1629, A Coppy of my Lds. letter to the Kinge." After the death of George Lord Baltimore, in April, 1632, the endorsement was corrected to read "19 Aug. 1629, A Coppy of Geo. Lord Baltemore's letter to the Kinge." This alteration clearly shows that the document is contemporary and makes it probable that it is the original draft filed for reference.

- (2) [FIRST] WARRANT TO MR. WILLIAM NOYE ESQR. HIS MAJESTIES ATTURNEY GENERALL SIGNED BY THE EARLE OF DORSETT, LORD WENTWORTH AND LORD COTTINGTON, dated February, 1631, directing him to prepare a grant to Lord Baltimore of "that tract or precinet of land lying from the Bay of Chesapeake and the River of Pohatan otherwise called James River on the North . . . unto the River of Passamagnus on the South," etc. . . . "with the same conditions of honour and advantage as the other patent was granted which he had from the late King his Maties. Father . . . for a part of Newfoundland . . . with all the clauses therein conteyned; saving that he is not to have any exemption from Customs or other Dutyes," etc.

** 2 pp. folio, with fly-leaf containing the endorsement. This warrant is doubtless a duplicate given to Lord Baltimore, as it contains the signatures of the Earl of Dorset and Lords Wentworth and Cottington. (Cf. the next document where the signatures are merely copies.) The body of the warrant is in a clerical hand, but the address to the Attorney Generall and the latter part of the endorsement appear to be in the handwriting of Cecilius Calvert, Lord Baltimore's eldest son. The first part of the endorsement reads "February 1631 Copie of the (first) warrant to Mr. Attorney for a plantation in Virginia." The word first was not in the endorsement as originally written but was interlined later by Cecilius Calvert when he added the remainder "Signed by the Earle of Dorsett, the Lo. Vicount Wentworth and the Lo. Cottingham."

In this first warrant there is no mention that the new province was to be called Maryland.

- (3) SECOND WARRANT TO MR. WILLIAM NOYE ESQR. HIS MAJESTIES ATTURNEY GENERALL, signed by the EARLS OF ARUNDEL AND CARLISLE and the LORDS WENTWORTH AND COTTINGHAM, dated March, 1632, directing him to prepare a new and amended grant of land in Virginia to Lord Baltimore in place of the former one

** 2 pp. folio, with endorsement on the fly-leaf. The whole of this document appears to be in the handwriting of Cecilius Calvert

and is probably copied for Lord Baltimore. The signatures are not originals, but are in the same writing as the body of the document.

This warrant instructs the Attorney Generall to retain the Patent of 17 March, 1632, for a grant of land in America neere adjoining to the old Colony of Virginia :

As upon further consideration his Matie. since conceiveth that that Plantation intended soe neere unto the other will too much restraine the old planters &c. . . . and understanding withall that the Dutch nation have begun of late years to encroach upon his Maties. territories in those parts to the northward viz. betweene the South Colonie of Virginia and New England and have actually planted thereon calling it New Netherlands and extend their limmits as far as Cape Charles . . . His Matie. for these respects thinks it fitter now for staying further incroachments . . . that another Colonie should be settled to the Northward which the said Ld. Baltimore having undertaken to performe . . . you shall . . . prepare another [Bill] . . . containyng a grant . . . of that whole peninsula . . . lying between the ocean on the east and the great Bay of Chesapeack on the West and betweene Cape Charles on the South and Delaware Bay on the North, &c., &c. . . . and . . . it shall be called Mariland or the province of Mariland in memory and honor of the Queene.

- (4) THE REPORT TO THE KING OF THE LORDS COMMITTEE ON TRADE AND PLANTATIONS IN RESPECT TO THE COMPLAINT OF THE ENGLISH PLANTERS IN VIRGINIA, that they suffered injury by the grant to Lord Baltimore, and proposing an exception be made of all that part of the peninsula adjoining to Cape Charles, which is now comprehended in the Lord Baltimore's grant where the English are inhabited and lying betweene the Promontary of Cape Charles aforesaid and a certaine place or poynt of land commonly called Watkins, dated from Greenwich, June 5, 1632, and signed "R. Weston [Earl of Portland]—Dorsett" [Lord Dorset]

** 1 p. folio, with fly-leaf containing the endorsement "Coppy of the Lords certificate to his Matie. concerning the limitts of my Grant. June 5th, 1632." The fact that the words "my grant" are used in this endorsement is conclusive evidence that it is in the handwriting of Cecilius, the second Lord Baltimore, who had succeeded to the title on the death of his father, April 15, 1632. The body of the document appears to be the original draft, since it contains numerous corrections, alterations and interlineations, given to Lord Baltimore as a reference copy.

- (5) DRAUGHT OF WARRANT TO THE ATTORNEY GENERALL IN PURSUANCE OF THE REPORT OF THE LORDS COMMITTEE OF TRADE AND PLANTATIONS of 5 June, 1632 (vide the previous document) to "prepaire an exception to be inserted in the Lord Baltimore's Bill lately signed by his Matie. and consequentlie in the signett and Privie Seale alreadie passed, if convenientlie it maie be done, or else you are to take the former graunt into your

Custodie and to prepare a new Bill . . . only you are to alter and confine the limits of his part of the Peninsula as is above expressed ”

** 1 p. folio, with fly-leaf. The original draft, containing several corrections and interlineations; given to Lord Baltimore as his reference copy.

It was doubtless found impracticable to make the suggested insertion in the Bill which had already been signed, for the present warrant appears to have been superseded by a fresh one also dated June, 1632 (vide the next document), in which definite instructions are given to prepare an entirely new Bill. The second warrant specifies the exceptions and defines the new boundaries in much greater detail than the present warrant.

- (6) DRAFT OF WARRANT TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL IN PURSUANCE OF THE REPORT OF THE LORDS COMMITTEE OF TRADE AND PLANTATIONS, of 5 June, 1632 [vide document no. (4)], to recall the former grant and prepare a new one making such abatement in the limits as specified in the said report, but with all the rest of the privileges as before

** 1 p. folio, with fly-leaf. A draft given to Lord Baltimore as his reference copy.

This warrant specifies in detail the alterations to be made in the new grant in accordance with the recommendations of the Lords Committee in their report of 5 June, 1632 [vide document no. (4)]. The new grant was to “begin at Watkins Point within the Bay of Chesapeack . . . leaving and quitting unto the now Planters in Virginia the residue of the Peninsula . . . from the sayd point southward to Cape Charles,” etc. This warrant superseded the previous one of the same date (vide the previous document).

- (7) A RELATION OF A VOYAGE MADE BY MR. CYPRIAN THOROWGOOD TO THE HEAD OF THE BAY

** 2 pp. folio, very closely written, with fly-leaf endorsed by Cecilius Lord Baltimore’s hand, “25 Aprill 1634 A relation of a Voyage made by Cyprian Thorowgood to the head of the Bay of Chesepeacke.”

Although not signed this document has every appearance of being the original “Relation”; the subject matter appears to be unknown to historians, and no other copy is recorded. Little is known about Cyprian Thorowgood beyond the fact that he is mentioned in Bozman’s History of Maryland (Baltimore, 1811, p. 327) as taking a somewhat active part in the troubles with Captain Claiborne.

The voyage covers the period April 25th to May 15th, 1634, and was made for the purpose of opening up a trade with the

Susquasahannock Indians. Thorowgood started from Patuxan ("a river about 7 miles from St. Maries the place where our Colony is seated") in a small pinnace with seven men.

He describes Claiborne's Island and several others which they passed and mentions finding "a boat of Claiborne's in trade with the Indians which had gotten 700 skins," and how Claiborne's men incited the Indians to fight them, but on their refusal Claiborne's men went away, and how "what skins the Indians had left they brought to us and went home to fetch what more they had which made in all 230." The Indians are described as being friendly to the English, very valorous and stout and living in palisadoed towns. An account is given of how they treated their prisoners by slowly burning them alive, and in the meantime cutting off pieces of flesh to boil and eat before them from whom they cut it; this relation I had from a negro which lived among them for to learn the language.

- (8) A SHORT TREATISE SETT DOWNE IN A LETTER WRITTEN BY R. W. TO HIS WORTHY FREIND C. J. R. CONCERNING THE NEW PLANTATION NOW ERECTING UNDER THE RIGHT HOBLE. THE LORD BALTEMORE IN MARYLAND.

** 13 ll. sm. 4to (8 in. by 6 in.), comprising title with verso blank + text, 20 pp. very closely written + wrapper of the same paper, the front leaf blank and the back one bearing the following endorsement by Lord Baltimore: "12 Septem. 1636, Coppy of Mr. Robert Wintours Discourse of Mary Land written by way of letter to his freind Cap. John Reade." The identity of Captain John Reade has not been established, but he was evidently a friend of Wintour who thought of emigrating to Maryland; the receipt of the letter Reade evidently forwarded this copy to Lord Baltimore.

Robert Wintour was probably a brother of Edward and Frederick Wintour, sons of Lady Wintour, who went to Maryland in 1633 with the first batch of settlers. Robert's name is mentioned in Griffith's Sketches of the Early History of Maryland, Baltimore, 1821 (p. 7), where it is stated that he was made a councillor early in the year 1638, having then lately arrived.

The Letter contains a long description of the advantages of life in the new Colony of Maryland over the life in the old Country—the inducement to Settlers—the profits to be made by Agriculture, Cattle, Tobacco, Furs, &c., &c.—no fear of danger from the Spaniards or Indians—the prospect for advancement for all classes and the various crops that could be raised and of the manner of their profitable disposal—the special advantages of the Maryland design due to its establishment under Lord Baltimore—form of Government—the King's command that the province be called Maryland—sketch of the character of Lord Baltimore—advice to contemplating Settlers to treat the matter seriously and make immediate decision to go at once as "the best of this business is now at the first." &c.

ITS DISCOVERY IS OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE FOR EARLY MARYLAND HISTORY. A DILLIGENT SEARCH HAS ENTIRELY FAILED TO DISCOVER ANY TRACE OF THE ORIGINAL LETTER, ANY OTHER COPY OF IT, OR ANY MENTION OF IT IN ANY BOOK OR RECORD.

- (9) HOLOGRAPH LETTER FROM WILLIAM KIEFT, GOVERNOR OF THE DUTCH SETTLEMENT OF NEW NETHERLANDS, TO LEONARD CALVERT, LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND, dated from New Amsterdam in New Belgium, 9 September, 1638

** 1 p. folio, with endorsement. Written in Latin :

Acknowledging receipt of Calvert's letter of four months previous and expressing delight at the news of his wishing to enter into correspondence with them. Goes on to say that with regard to ships they will have enough as there are now two lying in harbour, a Spanish and a Dutch one, "which I will have refitted and which you can use if you wish, but I feel in some difficulty about the payment which you propose to make in Tobacco which is abundant here and exported to Holland and New England, but do not hesitate to make use of us and write down what you want. You will always find us ready and willing. Yours very devoted."

Kieft was the third Governor of New Netherlands, having succeeded Van Twiller in 1637. A letter written by him is of the greatest rarity and interest, especially one addressed to the Lieut.-Gov. of Maryland expressing such a friendly spirit towards the new colony. The reference to payment in tobacco is significant in relation to Winsor's statement (Narrative and Critical History, vol. III, p. 543) that the large demand for it by the Dutch traders led the Maryland colonists to devote themselves so exclusively to its cultivation, that on more than one occasion they suffered from a scarcity of food.

The letter is endorsed in Cecil Lord Baltimore's handwriting, "the Dutch Governrs. Lre. to my Bro. Leonard Calvert, 9 Sept. 1638."

- (10) HOLOGRAPH LETTER FROM SIR EDMUND PLOWDEN, PROPRIETOR OF NEW ALBION, TO CECIL LORD BALTIMORE, dated August 30, 1639, addressed from the house of Mr. Graves, surgeon, in Milford Lane, London

** 1½ pp. folio, with endorsement, address and small seal on the fly-leaf.

In reference to a request for land from Mr. Withers, Deputy-Governor of the Bermudas, and Mr. Gardner, a merchant, also Captain Mulhen of Virginia, and C. Clayborne, to settle in the triangular point of New England, Maryland and New Albion, and for a copy of Plowden's patent as they had found some defect in Lord Baltimore's.

States that he has hitherto delayed them, but that he has found out that the Bermuda men had moved his Majesty's through Lord Dorset and that he had made them a grant as a Corporation of themselves, distinct from Virginia, of all the river of Rapahannock with Cinquack and Powtomack land and river on the South of King's side, with all such privileges as the Patent of Florida to Sir Robert Heath, Maryland and his own of New Albion, but with the proviso that if the Maryland and New Albion Patents be recalled and resumed, then theirs also must cease. States that Mathews, Clayborne and his friends and many discontents of Virginia had joined together in this new Grant and that they intended to settle down in Patowmack with at least 1500 men, and that he had urged that Maryland and New Albion were Principalities and County Palatines exempt from all Regalities fit for men of honour, and had urged that the River Powtomack and the shore on the South side belonged to Lord Baltimore, and that they could not touch the land or trade or sail that river, and that by their coming his Lordship would lose the trade of 2000 Indians and that it might animate the Indians to wars; also it might draw other men from Virginia so that both Virginia and Lord Baltimore should oppose the grant and the danger of such neighbours, &c.

This long and very important letter is addressed "To the Right Honble. his much honoured friend Cecil Lord Baltamore," and is endorsed in Cecil Lord Baltimore's own handwriting, "30 August 1639, Sr. Edmund Ployden to me."

Sir Edmund Ploeyden (or Plowden) was granted the patent of New Albion by Lord Strafford in 1634, which grant also covered the Dutch settlement of New Netherlands.

According to Peter Heylin in his Cosmographia in Four Books, published in 1657, the Dutch offered to sell their colony of New Netherlands to Sir Edmund for £2,500. Heylin cites Sir Samuel Argal as his authority, but there is great doubt whether any such offer was ever made.

The authorship of that very rare tract, A description of the Province of New Albion, issued in 1646, written under the pseudonym of Beauchamp Plantagenet, has been ascribed to Sir Edmund Plowden.

The Captain Claiborne mentioned in this letter was the person who, in 1635, caused so much trouble in the Maryland Colony.

- (11) THE ARTICLES OF CAPITULATION, SIGNED BETWEEN SIR JOHN RYTINGH, GOVERNOR OF THE SWEDISH COLONY AT FORT CHRISTINA ON THE DELAWARE, AND SIR PETRUS STUYVEHAND, DIRECTOR-GENERAL OF THE DUTCH COLONY OF NEW NETHERLANDS. ACTUM 25 SEPTEMBER, 1655. [Followed by] A Transfer (for goods received) of a piece of Land called Wig-gvachkoing, situated in the South River of New Netherland (the Delaware), by Sheghire Honden and Rinnowyhy, brother of Meghire (sic) Honden aforementioned to the Commissioner, Andres Hudden for William Kieft, Director of the Dutch West India Co. Sept. 25, 1646

** 7 pp. folio, with endorsement "Copy Capitulations between the Dutch and Sweedes Governors" on the verso of the last leaf.

The Dutch West India Company had never entirely abandoned their claim to jurisdiction over the shores of the South (or Delaware) River, and apprehending danger from Rytingh, they determined to occupy Fort Casimir. Following the capture of that post the Dutch lay siege to Fort Trinity, which surrendered on Sept. 1st, 1655, and on Sept. 2nd they appeared before Christina, which according to Winsor (vol. IV, pp. 482) capitulated, the Articles of Surrender being drawn upon Sept. 15th of that year. The above document shows, however, that they were not signed until the 25th.

This copy was probably made for Lord Baltimore; the whereabouts of the original are unknown.

- (12) LETTER SIGNED BY JOSIAS FENDALL AND PHILIP CALVERT, IN THE NAME OF THE GOVERNOR AND COUNCEL OF THE PROVINCE OF MARYLAND, TO THE HONOURABLE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF THE NEW NETHERLANDS, protesting against the intrusion of the Dutch within the 40° of North Latitude into the territory granted to Lord Baltimore, dated from Patuxent, the 9th of October, 1659

** 3 pp. folio, with address across the fourth page, "For the Honble. the Governor Generall of the New Netherlands on the Manhatans."

This document has every appearance of being the original, for it has been folded in the usual form and bears the cross address together with the original wax seal in their customary places. If, however, this was the actual letter despatched to the Dutch Governor, it is difficult to account for its now being found amongst the Baltimore papers. In all probability, therefore, it is a duplicate original which was never despatched. The endorsement probably included some other papers originally tied up together, for it reads "Some papers relating to Maryland and the Whorekill or Delaware in the time of the Dutch Government. Delivered 1672."

On the other hand, if this is the original sent to the Dutch Governor, it may have been returned to Lord Baltimore with other papers recovered after the English took New Netherlands in 1664, and occupied that province till 1672. The year 1672 mentioned in the endorsement may be the date when the papers were delivered to Lord Baltimore.

A VERY IMPORTANT LETTER.

- (13) COMMISSION OF JAMES, DUKE OF YORK, TO RICHARD NICHOLAS, TO BE HIS DEPUTY GOVERNOR OF ALL THE PART OF THE MAIN LAND OF NEW ENGLAND, GRANTED TO THE DUKE BY CHARLES II, 12 MARCH, 1664, with official certification dated 26th Sept. 1685, signed by Geo. Peirson and Jo. Rooke

** 1½ pp. folio, with fly-leaf containing endorsement "2 Aprill

1664. Copy of the Duke of York Commission to Richard Nichols Esqr. to be Governor of New York."

This copy of Nichols' commission, which recites the grant and gives the boundaries in full, was, judging from the date of the certification, made for Lord Baltimore at the time of the inquiry into the Maryland and Pennsylvania Boundary question by the Lords of the Committee of Trade and Plantations. See nos. (33) and (34).

- (14) INDENTURE BETWEEN EDMOND ANDROS, GOVERNOR OF THE DUKE OF YORK'S TERRITORIES IN AMERICA, AND THE SACHEMS AND INDIANS, DECLARED OWNERS FOR PURCHASE OF ALL THAT TRACT OF LAND ON THE WEST SIDE OF DELAWARE RIVER, AS DEFINED, etc. SEPTEMBER, 23, 1675. (Signed with the marks of four Indians and sealed and delivered in the presence of twelve Englishmen, whose names are given.) [Followed by a List of the Articles to be given to the Indians in payment.]

** In all 4 sheets, large folio, endorsed on the verso of the last "A Copie of the deed of purchase of lands by the Falls in Delaware." The four sheets are stabbed at the top, threaded and tied together with the original woven tape or ribbon.

The whole of the document is in the handwriting of Matthias Nicholls, Secretary to Governor Andros, who was also one of the signatories to the agreement. In addition to his certificate "This is a true copie" at the foot of the third sheet, a similar certificate appears on the fourth sheet beneath the list of goods to be given to the Indians in payment.

A long side-note on the second sheet inserted at a later date refers to the Indian right to dispose of the land, and mentions James Waye's deposition [made in 1684, see no. (31)].

- (15) LETTERS PATENT OF CHARLES II, GRANTING TO WILLIAM PENN A PROVINCE IN AMERICA TO BE CALLED PENNSYLVANIA. Dated the Fourth day of March in the three and thirtieth years of our Reign [1681]. A contemporary copy

** 12 pp. folio, endorsed "A Coppie of Mr. Penn's Grant of Pennsylvania in America, 4th March 1680" [i.e. 1680-1]. Beneath this is a further endorsement in a latter hand: "Ye Charter in ye Box of Cloaths."

This copy was doubtless prepared for the information and use of Charles Lord Baltimore. It contains numerous underlinings and hand pointers in the margin in similar style to those in the copy of Penn's letter to the Lords of the Committee, 14 Aug. 1683 [vide no. (30)].

(16) LETTER FROM KING CHARLES II TO CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE :

Notifying him of the grant to William Penn of the Province of Pennsylvania and of the Boundaries thereof and recommending Penn, his Deputies and Officers to Baltimore's friendly aid and assistance, and requiring his Lordship to extend to Penn all the offices of good neighbourhood and amicable correspondence which might tend to the mutual benefit of the Provinces under both Proprietaries. And more especially requesting the appointment with all convenient speed of some person or persons "who may in conjunction with the Agent or Agents of the said William Penn make a true deviation and separation of the said Provinces of Maryland and Pennsylvania according to the bounds and degree of Northern Latitude expressed in our said Letters Patents by setting and fixing certaine Landmarks where they shall appear to border upon each other for the preventing and avoiding all doubts and controversies that may otherwise happen concerning the same."

GIVEN AT OUR COURT OF WHITEHALL 2ND OF APRIL, 1681.
SIGNED BY LORD CONWAY BY HIS MAJESTY'S COMMAND. The Royal Sign Manual CHARLES R. appears in the usual place at the top of the first page

** 2 pp. folio, with fly-leaf endorsed by Charles Lord Baltimore.

Penn's patent passed the seals in March, 1680, so that this highly important letter from the King, dated April 2, in the same year, marks the commencement of that long struggle over the boundaries between Maryland and Pennsylvania, which was still raging between Lord Baltimore and the sons of William Penn as late as 1742.

This letter seems to have been known to Winsor, for he mentions it in Narrative and Critical History, vol. III, pp. 478 and 549.

(17) LETTER FROM KING CHARLES II TO CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE.

directing that the Northern Boundary between Maryland and Pennsylvania be determined by an admeasurement of the two degrees in Lord Baltimore's patent, beginning from the south bounds of Maryland as already settled by the Commissioners.

"GIVEN AT OUR COURT AT WINDSOR the 19th day of August 1682 in the four & thirtieth years of our Reigne. By his Majties. Command. CONWAY." The Royal Sign-manual CHARLES R. appears in the usual place at the top of the first page

** 2 pp. folio, with fly-leaf, endorsed by Charles Lord Baltimore.

This letter is in very fine condition and has a large portion of the large paper seal or wafer still attached. It appears to have been known to Winsor who refers to it in Narrative and Critical History, vol. III, p. 478, etc.

(18) A CONTEMPORARY COPY OF KING CHARLES II'S LETTER TO CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE, dated 19th August, 1682, as described under the previous number

- (19) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN.
dated 24th January, 1682

** 1 p. folio, with fly-leaf, containing the endorsement "The Ld Baltimore's lre to Mr. Penn dated the 24th of Janury 1682." This is doubtless the contemporary copy filed by Lord Baltimore for his own use. The date "24th Janury 1682" at the top of the letter appears to be in his own handwriting.

The letter begins, "My hond Friend" and advises the sending of the Notes of our last conference taken by John Llewelin sworne Clk of ye Assembly and Councill of Maryland, and apologises for the delay owing to the death of his good uncle "who departed this life about ten days since" which had put his affairs into great disorder. He assures Penn that he may depend on any neighbourly kindness that might conduce to his benefit and the convenience of his Colony and "hoping that as my inclination and intentions are to be kind to Mr. Pen so he will (I assure my selfe) be as well inclined and as ready to afford his kindness to me in those reasonable demands I shall make when wee meete next not at all doubting but one meeting more will accomodate all matters to the satisfaction of both sides."

- (20) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN.
dated from Patuxent River Side, 15th of 9ber, 1682

** 1 l. folio. The letter occupies the upper half of the recto. It is doubtless the contemporary copy filed by Lord Baltimore for his own use, for the endorsement is apparently in his own handwriting, "15th of 9ber 1682 the Ld. Bal: lre to Mr. Penn being an answer to ye sd. Penns of the 2d of ye sd month."

The letter commences "Friend." In it Lord Baltimore acknowledges the receipt of Penn's letter of the 2nd instant, but regrets that he cannot meet him for a conference at Wye River "on the east side of my Bay" as proposed by Penn, and suggests an alternative meeting place at South River on the West side "where my present business will require my being for some time." The letter concludes "I will not faile to meet you the beginning of the next month where you shall be reed. with all kindnesse and respect. In confidence of haveing this happinesse I shall till then be silent as to some late proceedings which seeme as yett more than ordinarily strange to your very true friend. C. Baltimore."

- (21) DRAFT OF LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN, dated from St. Maries, 29th March, 1683

** 2 pp. folio, with fly-leaf containing the endorsement. The original draft with corrections and interlineations. It is probably in Lord Baltimore's own hand, but is more carefully written than the endorsement, which is certainly his, for it reads, "29th of March 1683 my lre to Mr Pen being in answer to his of the 12th March 1682." The discrepancy in the dates 1682 and 1683 is accounted for by the fact that at this period the year commenced on 25th March, hence Penn's letter of

12 of March was 1682 whilst Baltimore's of 29th March was 1683.

Denies Penn's suggestion "that I was with Captn. James Connaway at Captn. Wards there taking an observacon wch I assure you is false for had I bin soe neere Philadelphia I must have bin guilty of great want of kindness respect and civility not to have given you a visit."

In retort Lord Baltimore accuses Penn of having caused secret surveys to be made "in my bay" by one Robert Hopper which "I will not readily believe Mr. Pen will owne or countenance . . . but I shall not be well at ease of mind untill I have had the happiness of discoursing this and some other passages wch will concerne your honour and reputation also your prefessions of friendship . . . for this reason you may expect I will, some time the latter end of next Aprill . . . give myselfe the satisfaction of seeing you at Philadelphia." &c.

- (22) THE PATENT OF CHARLES II GRANTING TO HIS BROTHER JAMES DUKE OF YORK: "ALL THE TOWNE OF NEWCASTLE OTHERWISE CALLED DELAWARE AND FORT THEREIN, or thereunto belonging scituate lyeing and being between Maryland and New Jersey in America and all that River called Delaware &c. &c. Dated the eighth day of April in the five and thirtieth yeare of our Reigne" (1683)

** 5 pp. folio, with fly-leaf, a contemporary copy made for Lord Baltimore and endorsed by him.

The document recites the surrender of the Duke of York's original patent of 22nd March, 1683, and describes at great length the new boundaries of the province together with the terms and conditions under which this amended patent was granted.

- (23) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN, dated 18th Aprl. 1683

** 1 p. 4to, addressed "To Wm Pen Propr of Pensilvania" and endorsed in a later hand, "18th of Aprill (83) The Ld Baltemores lre to Mr. Penn sent pr Mr. H. Coursey."

This is a draft or copy in Lord Baltimore's own hand with his initials C. B. at the end. He refers to his previous letter [of the 29th March, vide no. (21) supra] in which he purposed to visit Penn in Philadelphia at the end of April.

He now says that as Lord Culpeper is expected early in May "I must put off my visit to you till the middle of the next month when I am in hopes of having the happiness of attending my Lord Culpeper to Philadelphia for by his Letter you'll see he intends you the honor of a visit." &c.

- (24) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN, 28th April, 1683

** 2 pp. large folio, with fly-leaf endorsed "His Lopps Lre to Mr Penn of the 28th Aprill 1683 being an answer to one of sd Penns Lres of the 23th of Aprl 83."

Auto. draft by Lord Baltimore, signed with his initials C.B. :

He acknowledges receipt of Penn's letter of April 23rd in reply to his of March 29th (vide no. (21) supra) and says, "I cannot but wonder that you should take it so unkindly my causing an observacon to be taken at Palmer's Island since I thought I had the liberty of so doing in any part of my Province without giveing any just cause of such resentments as you are pleased to express." Refers again to the observations taken on behalf of Penn by Robert Hopper (vide no. (21) supra) and goes on to say "And now my hond friend I must take notice of your forbidding my visit to you which I shall observe . . . It doth somewhat startle me that my company should of a sudden seem so dangerous to you at Philadelphia" &c. States that he will hasten up the Bay after Lord Culpeper's visit and send a Secretary to announce his arrival there.

- (25) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN, dated from Fosters Island, 18th May, 1683

** 3½ pp. large folio, endorsed "My lre of ye 18th of May 1683 to Mr Penn, being an answer to his of ye 7th of ye same month."

Auto. copy by Lord Baltimore, with initials C.B. It is a long rambling letter in reply to Penn's of May 7th, which appears to have been written in somewhat angry terms.

Penn seems to have been annoyed at having to wait for some days for Lord Baltimore owing to the delay in the receipt of his Lordship's last letter and a misinterpretation of its meaning. Baltimore gives a long explanation and states he will still go to the head of the Bay and send a Secretary to notify Penn as previously arranged. Then follows a further discussion of the dispute about the boundary line at 40° N. Lat. as fixed in Lord Baltimore's grant and the King's letter.

All through this letter Lord Baltimore expresses his desire to settle all differences on a friendly and neighbourly basis.

- (26) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN, dated at the end "From Elk River at Capt Wards May the 31th 1683"

** 2 pp. folio, with endorsed fly-leaf.

Fair copy in a secretarial hand, but the words in the address at the end "From Elk River" and the endorsement are in Lord Baltimore's writing.

Acknowledges the receipt of a letter from William Penn of the 30th delivered by Major Sayer.—Relates to Penn's proposal recently made "that if I would dispose of some lands on Susquehannah River and that I would give you from under my hand the price certain, you would then be willing and agree to have the degree of Fourty Northerly Latitude taken by a Sextant of Tenn foot Semi-diameter and not otherwise." Baltimore replies that he had considered this proposal at Newcastle and had already told Penn that by reason of the uncertainty of what quantity of land he would have to dispose of on that River before an Observation of the 40° was taken, and also of his little knowledge of the worth of so great a quantity, and of its not being his custom to sell land in his Province, he made him an offer upon friendly terms, but that a member of his Council had been told by the first Person of Penn's Council that "Lord Baltimore must and shall agree," and when such things are said "I cannot hope for that happy issue I have desired and expected." But for the sake of peace and friendship he makes a further offer of an inlet (not specified) other than that Mr. Penn had desired. "I had rather give an acre of mine than take a foot of land not my own." &c.

(27) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN,
dated from Mattapenny, 24th June, 1683

** 5 pp. folio, auto. draft by Lord Baltimore.

Had he imagined Penn would favour him with further letters, he (Baltimore) would have waited at Col. Ward's although anxious to return to Patuxent. Acknowledges receipt yesterday at Portobacio in Charles County, of Penn's letters of the 6th and 9th instant. Sorry that his own letter of the 31st ult. did not reach Penn until the 6th inst. Complains of rude treatment at Newcastle by failure of Penn's cousin to attend for taking observations in obedience to the King's first letter (Vide no. (16). Complains of a letter written by Penn urging that no more taxes should be paid by inhabitants of Baltimore County by any law of Maryland. Speaks of a private conference when he promised Penn an inlet, and Penn proposed the waiving of the King's second Letter (Vide no. (17), trusting that matters might be settled in a more friendly way than by mere measurements. Claims his rights on the Delaware and expects Penn to give assurance that he will not oppose them. Asks Penn to make an appointment at the head of Chesapeake Bay for taking an observation to determine the true 40° N. Latitude.

(28) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN,
dated from Matapany, the 16th of July, 1683

** 3 pp. folio, auto. draft or duplicate original by Lord Baltimore, signed in full.

In it Baltimore acknowledges the receipt of several letters from Penn delivered by Captain William Markham "to which I will give answer with as little offence as possible." Mentions and defends a Proclamation he had issued inviting people to settle at Whorekills which Penn had termed "an open breach and violence, expressions very surprising and harsh." Refutes vigorously some insinuations made by Penn of Baltimore's disrespect to the King's Letter delivered to him by Penn (Vide no. (17) "at our public conference." Discusses at some length his promise of allowing Penn an inlet to the head of the Bay and promises that after the 40° N. Lat. had been fixed he will meet Penn's wishes. &c.

(29) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN,
dated from Mattapany ye 10th of July, 1683

** 3 pp. folio. This appears to be the original draft as it is very much corrected and altered.

In this long and somewhat angry letter Baltimore throws off the dignified restraint exhibited in his former letters, and now speaks his mind fully on Penn and his actions. He repudiates

the allegations made by Penn in his letter of July 5th, and discusses at some length the question of the disputed boundaries. The tenor of the whole letter can be judged from the opening phrases :

To be wholly silent to the great affront contained in your letter delivered me by Captn. Wm. Markham dated the 5th Month July subscribed by you, tho not writt in your hand, would (I fear) render me guilty of that horrid crime and sin you therein charge me with. It is therefore that I am now to tell you, your Ambition, Pride and Covetousness have too much affected your reason and judgment, otherwise you would not (I suppose) upon soe groundles an occation have flowne into such rude expressions . . . to terme me therein a kind of faithless person . . . Indeed you have endeavored therein to make me beleieve I am as black as Hell, which if I should beleieve I must then conclude 'twere not safe for you to breath in the same air with me, which, yet I must persuade you to doe, for to be very plaine with you, your black foule charge must and shall in propper time and place call closely for reparation and satisfaction . . . your pen in that part was as dirty and rude as many of your late actions. &c.

At the end Baltimore tells Penn that this is the last letter he will trouble him to read or himself to write, "for being rendered by you a person not fitt to be treated with, I ought to be silent untill a fitt occation of meeting you when I will purge my selfe of that black crime you soe unjustly have charged on me."

(30) CONTEMPORARY COPY OF WILLIAM PENN'S LETTER TO THE LORDS OF YE COMMTEE. FOR HIS MATS. PLANTATIONS AT WHITEHALL, dated from Philadelphia, the 14th of ye 6mo Augst. 1683

** 11 pp. folio. It appears from this letter that Lord Baltimore had already lodged some complaints with the Lords Committee as to Penn's actions respecting the settlement of the boundaries between Maryland and Pennsylvania. Penn therefore wrote this letter, stating :

My Agent has informed mee that ye Proprietor of Maryland has been early in his acct of our Conference about fixing of our Bounds, and made a Narrative of my affairs as well before as at yt time, a little to my disadvantage, and the rather because my silence might be interpreted neglect, I am necessitated to make some defence for myself wch as it will not be hard to make so I hope it will be received as just.

Penn then goes on to give his version of the results of his conferences with Lord Baltimore concerning the boundaries of the two provinces.

This copy of Penn's letter was evidently prepared for the use of Lord Baltimore, for it is annotated all through in his lordship's handwriting with such comments as "false," "damn'd lye," etc.

(31) DEPOSITION OF JAMES WAYE A QUAKER CONCERNING YE SETTLEMENTS OF ENGLISH AND DUTCH IN DELAWARE

** 1 p. folio, with certificate on the verso dated New York, April

the 18th, 1684, signed by John Spragg, Secretary of the Province of New York, testifying that the deponent James Waye appeared before him and affirmed that his deposition was the trueth the whole trueth and nothing but the trueth.

This deposition was probably drawn up at the instigation of Lord Charles Baltimore [cf. no. (14) ante] in connection with his disputes with Penn as to boundaries of Maryland. It begins "New York, James Waye aged 66 or thereabouts deposeth as follows :

(Abstract) Hath been informed 43 years since that the first settlement in Delaware River was by one Peter Holmes an Englishman, near 50 years since, brought thither by one Capt. Young, at a place called Arrowamos a little above Schoolekill, and the said Holmes not being acquainted with the Indians, the Indians gathering together (at which time the Dutch had some trade in the said river, not as owners or Proprietors of the said land, but as Merchants or Dealers), the English inquiring of the Dutch what was the great concourse of the Indians, it was replied by the Dutch that it was undoubtedly to cut them off. Then the English for fear of the Indians asked the Dutch to carry them away and the next year the Dutch having the opportunity took their place. Further in 1641, the Deponent with others came to a place called Wattseson a little below Newcastle in Delaware River, and found about 14 English, next year he was present when they purchased all the land at the Schoolekill and settled there and the Dutch came and burned them out and carried the prisoners to New Haven in New England. Further that he was present when the lands were purchased from the Indians for £40, for which writings were drawn on the part of the Indians.

Signed (The mark of James Waye).

- (32) MINUTES OF A COUNCELL HELD APRIL 10TH, 1685, AND OF A CONFERENCE HELD APRIL 16TH. WITH THE SINICO AND PASCATTAWAY INDIANS TOGETHER WITH THE ARTICLES OF PEACE AND FRIENDSHIP THEN AGREED UPON

** 4 pp. large folio, very closely and neatly written. Endorsed at the foot of the fourth page (upside down), "Apr. 1685 INDIAN TREATY." This is doubtless the copy of the minutes prepared for the use of Lord Baltimore, who was not present.

This treaty does not seem to be recorded by Winsor in Narrative and Critical History, nor in any histories of Maryland.

The Council was held at the Ridge at the house of Col. Thomas Taylor, on April 10th, 1685.

Present

Colo. Thomas Taylor.

Colo. Henry Dannall.

Commrs.

Majr. Nicholas Sewell.

Colo. Wm. Burges.

A letter was read from Col. Wells stating that representatives of the Sinico and Pascattaway Indians had waited on him and desired an immediate conference in order to "renew their League with the Christians." Col. Wells urges the Council, for the peace and safety of the province, to summon the Indians to a conference forthwith. The Indians were accordingly invited to attend on April 13th, at the house of Col. Wells. On April 16th the conference was resumed, when the Indians expressed their desire "to renew or establish their league or peace formerly made, and accordingly were ready to discourse of that matter and to confirme what they said by these presents (vitz)." Then follow the 16 articles proposed by the Indians which were duly accepted by the English Commissioners, who made a long and friendly address to the Indians in reply. Numerous presents were exchanged.

- (33) CONTEMPORARY EXTRACTS FROM THE JOURNAL OF THE COMMITTEE OF TRADE AND PLANTATIONS. Sept. 2-October 8 and 17, 1695. Certified true copies by Edward Southwell (Clerk to the Committee)

** 3 pp. folio, with endorsement on the fourth page: "Sepr. 2 : Octor. 8 and 17, 1685. Extracts of the Journals of the Committee for Trade & plantations abt. Ld. Baltimore and Mr. Penn."

This is doubtless the official copy furnished to Lord Baltimore for his information.

- (34) (ORDER IN COUNCIL) AT THE COURTS OF WHITEHALL THE 13TH OF NOV. 1685

** 2 pp. folio, with endorsement on the fly-leaf: "Novr. 13, 1685, Order of Council for dividing the Isthmus of Land between the Bay of Delaware and the Bay of Chesapeacke."

This is doubtless the official copy served on Lord Baltimore giving him notice of the terms of the Order in Council.

- (35) ORDERS IN COUNCIL AT THE COURT OF ST. JAMES'S, 9th January, 1708, 27th January, 1708, 16th April, 1709, 19th May, 1709, and 23rd June, 1709, relating to the boundaries between Maryland and Pennsylvania

** 3 pp. folio, with endorsement on the fourth page. This is presumably the official document served on Lord Baltimore giving him notice of the council's decision.

- (36) A PLOTT (i.e. Sketch Map) OF YE HEAD OF CHESEPEAK BAY AND PARTS ADJACENT

\*\* A most interesting and important MS. sketch map relating to the disputed boundary between Maryland and Pennsylvania. One sheet folio (size  $8\frac{1}{4}$  in. by  $12\frac{3}{4}$  in.). The map occupies the upper half of the sheet whilst below is a short unsigned letter (evidently to Lord Baltimore), beneath which is an explanation of the lettered references on the map. The letter reads :

My Lord. The last hand not being as yet put to ye improved Map intended for yr Lordshipps better information, ye above is humbly presented for yr present satisfaction and alltho it may not be exact to a nicety, yet may it serve to give an Idea of these affaires.

The map contains 18 references lettered A to N and a, d, e, g and h corresponding to the explanations below. The map shows by dotted lines the various positions of the disputed 40th degree of N. Latitude as determined by sundry surveyors at different times. The date is probably about 1725.

- (37) DEPOSITION OF PHILEMON LLOYD, DEPUTY SECRETARY AND KEEPER OF THE LAND RECORDS OF MARYLAND, certifying to the accuracy of the copies annexed of the Instructions, Motions and Orders of Council (made in 1683 and 1684) as to the building and maintenance of a Fort at Christina Bridge in Newcastle County for defence of the frontiers of Maryland

*** Three sheets obl. folio (21 in. by 15 in.), stabbed and sealed together with a silk ribbon, with certificate in the handwriting of Benedict Leonard Calvert, Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland stating that the deponent Philemon Lloyd came before him at Annapolis, March 11th, 1728, and made oath to the truth of his above written deposition. This is signed by Benedict Leonard Calvert. Attached to the silk tape is the great seal of Maryland (3½ in. diam.), in excellent condition.

- (38) DEPOSITION OF PHILEMON LLOYD, DEPUTY SECRETARY AND KEEPER OF THE LAND RECORDS OF MARYLAND, certifying that the five transcripts (annexed) of five severall Letters Patent heretofore Granted by the Lords Proprietors of Maryland to the undernamed persons are true copies from the Records.

*** Six sheets obl. folio (21 in. by 14½ in.), stabbed and sealed together with a silk ribbon. At the bottom of the front sheet is the certificate in the handwriting of Benedict Leonard, Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Maryland, stating that the deponent Philemon Lloyd came before him at Annapolis, April 10th, 1728, and made oath to the truth of the above written deposition. This is signed by Benedict Leonard Calvert, and attached to the silk binding tape is the great seal of Maryland (3½ in. diam.), in excellent condition.

- (39) DEPOSITION OF PHILEMON LLOYD, DEPUTY SECRETARY AND KEEPER OF THE LAND RECORDS OF MARYLAND, certifying to the accuracy of the transcript annexed, being Cecil Lord Baltimore's grant in 1672 of transfer from Henry Smith to Francis Jenkins of 600 acres called Pershore, on the west side of a creek known by the name of Whorekill, part of Smith's warrant of 2190 acres in 1649. With evidence that all the houses erected at Pershore, including that of F. Jenkins were burned by Lord Baltimore's officers shortly before 1678 to prevent the Dutch from settling at the place then called Whorekill, now Lewis Town

** Signed by Philemon Lloyd and countersigned and attested by by Benedict Leonard Calvert, Annapolis, April 6th, 1728. Two large folio sheets with the great seal of Maryland (broken) attached.

- (40) ENGRAVED PORTRAIT OF CECILIUS SECOND LORD BALTIMORE. EFFIGIES ILLUSTRISSIMI DNI COECILII CALVERT, BARONIS BALTEMORE DE BALTEMORE IN REGNO HIBERNIAE: ABSOLUTI DNI ET PROPRIETARII PROVINCIAE TERRAE-MARIAE ET AVALONIAE IN AMERICA, ETC. Abra: Blotling, sculp.

\*\* Size of portrait 9 in. by  $6\frac{3}{4}$  in., with the Baltimore Arms and inscription below, clear margin all round, size over all 11 in. by  $6\frac{7}{8}$  in., fine impression, VERY RARE.

This portrait was engraved in London by Abraham Blooteling in 1657 when Cecilius Calvert, second Lord Baltimore was 51 years of age. The plate bears no imprint, so was without doubt a private one.

Cecilius Calvert was the eldest son of George Calvert, first Baron Baltimore. He was named after Robert Cecil, Earl of Shaftesbury, his father's patron, and became first Proprietary of Maryland upon the issue of the charter in 1632, shortly after the death of George Calvert who was the true founder of the colony.

Please let Mr. Knowles have another copy of the proof of the Lover's Tale.

this probably refers to the issue of 1879; with L. s. Jan. 1874, saying he has bought the remaining stock of his illustrated edition from Routledge (2)

- 449 TENNYSON (Alfred, Lord) A. L. s. "A. T." 1 p. 8vo, Farringford [Dec. 31, 1872], referring to the "EPILOGUE TO THE QUEEN":

Watts writes that he will be proud to paint so good & great a man as Martineau—only wants two days notice—

I will send the Epilogue tomorrow with one or two slight alterations. with envelope

- 450 TENNYSON (Alfred, Lord) Morte D'Arthur, Pencil Sketch made by Tennyson to explain the geography of his Morte D'Arthur, on the top half of a 4to page; below is an Auto. Note s. by Knowles:

Sketch chart made by Mr. Tennyson at the Hollies—Dec. 2nd. 1869—to explain the geography of his Morte D'Arthur. The "Lake" is the scene of the casting away of Excalibur & of the disappearance of Arthur and the sea sand the site of the "last mind battle" . . .

J. Knowles.

- 451 HARDY (Thomas) A. l. s. 1 p. 8vo, Max Gate, March 28, 1904, to Knowles:

Saying he has written a short Poem—140 lines—which, though, romantic in its particulars, is of sufficiently general application to life to suggest that, it might suit the "19th Cent. & after."

- 452 HARDY (Thomas) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Max Gate, 4/4/1904:

I am much obliged to you for reading the lines . . . as I had mentioned them I sent them up. I hope to have something more suitable some day.

- 453 METAPHYSICAL SOCIETY, founded April 21st. 1869, dissolved November 16, 1880. The society owed its existence to Alfred Lord Tennyson, and was founded to discuss theological questions in the manner and with the machinery of a scientific society

THE SOCIETY'S MINUTE BOOK, containing the Auto. signatures of the original members, among which may be found the names of Huxley, Bagehot, Froude, Tennyson, Tyndall, Gladstone, Manning, and others. This interesting record runs to about 100 pp. and the signatures of the chairman include Tennyson, Huxley, Manning, Gladstone. Knowles, Lubbock and others, with printed papers and letters loosely inserted, folio, vellum

- 453A STANLEY (Dean) Auto. MS. "The Eucharist," written in a notebook of 110 ff., mostly written upon, with much cancellation and correction, 4to, unbound

- 454 SWINBURNE (A. C.) THE UNION, Poem of 4 Stanzas, proof sheet from "The Nineteenth Century," May, 1893, with the third line in the second stanza "First and fiercest, last and least," altered to "Dense as round some death-struck beast," with directions to printer in Sir James Knowles's hand

- 455 SWINBURNE (A. C.) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, The Pines, May 27, 1884, to Knowles:

. . . I have just finished a lyrical poem addressed to Victor Hugo, on the completion of his master-work, La Légende des Siècles . . . My poem is in 25 stanzas of 16 lines . . .

This is perhaps a longer spell of metre than would suit the Nineteenth Century . . .

- 456 WHISTLER (J. McNeill) A. L. s.  $1\frac{1}{4}$  pp. 8vo, The White House, n. d. :
 Write us a line and say whether you are charmed with the proof!
 or whether you consider my joy wild and extravagant!
 with A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, 1872, speaking of Mr. Charles A. Howell's ability
- 457 WILDE (Oscar) A. L. s.  $2\frac{1}{2}$  pp. 8vo, 16, Tite St., Chelsea [16 Aug.
 1890]:
 Complaining that he has not yet received proofs of the second part of his Dialogue.

The Property of a Gentleman.

- 458 SCOTT (Sir W.) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, to Charles Kirkpatrick Sharpe, the Antiquary and life-long friend of Sir Walter Scott, 1812
 Charlotte has got another letter from the representative of Micklemouthed Meg. Anxious to see you. I wish you could go as we would make a party together, if it did not tire you to be a day or two at Abbotsford, etc.
- 459 AMERICAN WAR OF INDEPENDENCE. CORNWALLIS (Marquis) A. L.
 s. 1 p. 4to, Camden, Aug. 21st, 1780 :
 Dear Charlotte,
 In a few hours after you receive this you will see an Account, in the Gazette, of my having gained a most complete victory over the Rebel Army, commanded by Gen. Gates. I have taken all his canon and dispersed and totally routed his Army. Etc.
 Your most affecte. Brother,
 Cornwallis.
 This refers to the defeat of Gen. Gates at Camden, 16 Aug. 1780
- 460 COBDEN (Richard) Two A. L. s. in all 12 pp. 4tc and 8vo, Midhurst,
Dec. 1861, to Henry Catt (afterwards Hy. Willett) :
 Fine letters in answer to an invitation to speak at a meeting condemnatory of a war with America; saying he is still too ill to speak but setting out his ideas and reasoning on the subject.
- BRIGHT (John) Two A. L. s. and one pencil note  $5\frac{1}{2}$  pp. 8vo,
Rochdale, Dec. 1870, to Henry Willett, declining an offer to go with him to America :
 It is a grievous thing that there is any cause of ill-feeling between Old England, and the England of the Western World.
 with three others (8)

* * Letters of very great interest in reference to America.

- 461 SOTHEBY'S. SAMUEL BAKER, the founder of Sotheby & Co. in 1744. A long and most interesting a/c for Books supplied to Sir John Evelyn, Bt., the builder of the library of Wotton:
Affords an interesting comparison of prices, Mons Voltaire's "La Henriade" 2/-. The Art of Knowing Women is 1/6. Collins on Ridicule is 1/-. Seymour on Marriage is 1/-. while "Religious advice to a daughter" costs 2/-.
- PAYNE (Thomas) "Honest Tom Payne," another long a/c for books sold to Sir John Evelyn, in 1752:
Payne's bookshop near St. Martin's Church was the favourite place of resort for the literati of the day, & became known as the Literary Coffeehouse. (D.N.B.).
And an Order from "Your Humble Servants, Baker & Leigh." (3)
- 462 LITERARY, ARTISTIC, ETC. A L. s. by Agnes Strickland, Charlotte M. Younge, Harriet Martineau, Tom Hood (amusing letter), Barham, Lewis, John Ruskin, Leighton, Landseer, and many others; and a large number of franks and signatures (in 4to leather bound album, with lock and key, and lettered autographs) 1 vol.
- 463 AUTOGRAPH LETTERS. A Collection, in leather covered 4to album, including a L. s. from Sydney Smith, William Wilberforce, a collection of Bishops and Archbishops, and various early Documents, the Earl of Rochester, 1679; and other interesting items 1 vol.
- 464 A SCRAP BOOK. Containing a very large number of A. L. from Robert Lowe (Viscount Sherbrooke) of great political interest 1 vol.
- 465 A PARCEL OF EARLY DOCUMENTS. Signed by the Earl of Rochester, 1640 and the Earl of Essex; Sir Benjamin Rudyard's Speech in the House of Commons, 1640; "The Commission about Capt. Burkyes Execution," 1647; Secret Service papers; etc. a parcel
- 466 EAST INDIA COMPANY. A large folio vol. containing in great detail the account for various districts, showing the receipts and payments for the year 1789. The total receipts seem to be divided into 50% Inhabitants Share, and 50% Government Share, and the allowances deducted include Washermen 150 rupees, Shaving Barber 100 rupees, Shoe Maker 100 rupees, while for Arrack 600 rupees, and Ghee 300 rupees 1 vol.
- 467 PONSONBY (Col. H. F.) and QUEEN VICTORIA, 1870, A L. s. 4 pp. 4to, referring to the removal of Knightsbridge Barracks, etc.; an indignant letter to the Chancellor of the Exchequer complaining of Her Majesty not being given proper time for consideration, and two Telegrams giving consent (3)

The Property of James D. A. L. Thomson, Esq.,
of Dumfries.

- 468 BURNS (Robert) AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT SONG, 2 pp. large folio
"Fareweel, fareweel, my bony lass!"
10 stanzas of four lines each; at the beginning and end are a few lines of comment:

This song may possibly be a contemptible performance in the scientific eyes of the Literati, but to me it has great merit as the honest effusion of a poetic though rustic heart . . . The foregoing song is, as far as I can recollect, the composition of an illiterate Millwright, about thirty or forty years ago, somewhere in Ayrshire.

framed and glazed so as to display both sides, slightly repaired at the folds

* * * A FINE BURNS MANUSCRIPT.

- 469 BURNS (R.) A fine A. L. s. 2¼ pp. 4to, with autograph address, Monday evening, n. d. to John Syme, Esqre. of the Stamp Office:

You know that among your other dignities you are my supreme court of judicature, from which there is no appeal. I enclose you a song which I composed since I saw you; and am going to give you the history of it.

Goes on to talk in glowing terms of the Oswald family and particularly of Mrs. Oswald "that incomparable woman." He had thought of sending the poem to Mrs. Oswald "but on reflection perhaps from the wellknown character of Poverty and Poetry, what I would offer as the honest incense of genuine esteem and grateful respect might be construed into some modification of that servility which my soul abhors."

seal hole repaired, framed and glazed so as to display both sides

- 470 BURNS (R.) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, Isle, 22 January, 1788, to Mr. Morrison Wright of Mochline with regards to the new house in which he is to move into at Ellisland:

Necessity oblidges me to go into my new house, even before it be plastered. I will inhabit the one end until the other is finished . . . If ever you hope to find rest in future states of untried being; get these matters of mine ready. My servant will be out in the beginning of next week for the Clock.

framed and glazed so as to display both sides

* * * From the Phillipps Collection.

- 471 SCOTT (Sir Walter) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, with autograph address, Edinburgh, 28th May, to Robert Bell :

My dear young friend, I cannot but be much flattered by the approbation which you so kindly confer upon me . . . Youth is generally the season when poetry, if at all adapted, to strike the imagination, makes the most deep impression. I have only to fear that a few years' more experience may deprive me of my admirer, or at least make him ashamed of his preference and predilection for the Gothic Muse.

seal hole repaired ; a small slip of the blank page is missing, framed and glazed so as to display both sides

- The Governor of Reading . . . was a 'mulberry-faced Dictator' . . . he did not, could not have had a yellow face of Doom . . . By 'Caiaphas' I do not mean the present chaplain of Reading—he is a goodnatured fool . . . I will change one word so as to avoid being misunderstood. I will put "while some coarse-mouthed Doctor," etc. that fitly describes the Type of prison-doctor in England. As a class they are brutes . . . I suppose America is a foolish dream as far as buying my poem goes . . . For four days I have had no cigarettes—no money to buy them—or note-paper.

Correspondence, a large collection in three 4to albums from many of the literati of the period, including; Bernard Barton (2), Jeremy Bentham (2), Wm. Blackwood (a long series), Jonathan Boucher, held ecclesiastical appointments in America, intimate with Washington, A. L. s. 1803, Dr. Richard Bright of Bristol (3), Henry Lord Brougham (a long series), Lord Buchan (a series), John Rennie, Amelia Opie (11), R. Pitcairn (3), Sir Henry Raeburn (3), with letters of his son concerning the prices of his father's pictures, J. Ritson (5), W. Roscoe (2), Duke of Roxburghe (18), and many others (3)
- 674 CRUIKSHANK (George) Two A. L. s.; General Gordon, A. L. s. 1873; F. Denison Maurice, 3 A. L. s.; Tom Hughes, 3 A. L. s.; and other interesting modern celebrities, in a 4to album
- 675 DICKENS (Charles) An early A. L. s. 1½ pp. 8vo, Furnivals Inn, Thursday Morning, n. y. to Thomas Fraser, Morning Chronicle Office, saying he is going to stay at Petersham for five or six weeks :
 . . . Remember however that in any case of pressing emergency, I shall be happy to pay a special messenger. I have a horse of my own, so I can be in Town in no time. I should think in the Vacation you might give an occasional Extract from Pickwick—The other papers have done so, even in the Session.
- 676 DICKENS (C.) A. L. s. 2½ pp. folio, Rosemont, Lausanne, Switzerland, Sept. 14, 1846, to John Henry Barrow, a very long letter concerning a dispute between Barrow and The Daily News as to his remuneration for a trip made to India, p. 3 is frayed and some words missing
- 677 DICKENS (C.) A. L. s. 3 pp. 8vo, Devonshire Terrace, Seventh July, 1850, to the Revd. R. Baring Claiborne, giving a very frank opinion on a poem that had been submitted to him; with A. L. s. of Father Machonchie of St. Albans, Holborn (2)
- 678 DICKENS (C.) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, Tavistock House, Twentieth May, 1853, to Lady Essex
 . . . I never had the slightest doubt that Mr. Macready was wrong, but the strength of his conviction on the subject was perfectly astonishing . . .
- 679 SCOTT (Sir Walter) A. L. s. ½ p folio, Abbotsford, Saturday, n. y. to James Ballantyne :
 . . . Though perhaps it may be superfluous yet I could not help dissecting Gourgand's letter merely to see what were the fellows ope statements . . .

- 680 DICKENS (C.) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Tavistock House, 22nd May, 1860, to Thomas Hyde Hills, Esq. a charmingly-worded letter enclosing a donation for charity
- 681 DICKENS (C.) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Office of All the Year Round, 26 July, 1861, to Mr. Whiting :
 Since I saw you this morning I have received the enclosed from Mr. Fredk. Chapman.
 faithfully your always,
 Charles Dickens.
- Auto. MS. 12 lines on  $\frac{1}{2}$  p. 8vo, commencing :
 Nor youth's military ways of having his boots with only the dirt brushed off . . .
 and 2 others (4)
- 682 DICKENS (C.) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Gad's Hill Place, Higham by Rochester, Kent, 28 Octr. 1863, to Miss Charlotte, thanking her for her book "The Schoolmaster of Alton," framed and glazed :
 . . . I should do wrong if I forbore to add that inexperience and precipitation are manifest in it, and that I hope you will some day write a very much better story.
- 683 HARDY (Thomas) Fine A. Pe. s. (initials), Max Gate, 15.11.'05 :
 "Little Hintock" was, I think, supposed to lie amid the woodlands under High Stoy & Dogbury Hill—between Glanville's Woolton & Melbury Babb. I could not exactly say where . . . Melbury Osmund was, I believe, called "King's Hintock" village. But the books were written many years ago.
- 684 HARDY (T.) A. Pe. Max Gate, Aug. 16, 1907 :
 "The melancholy Hussar" is largely founded on fact. The Bincombe Register of Burials (kept at Broadway Rectory) contains the entries quoted in the story. The deserters were buried at the back of the churchyard, but there is no stone . . .
- 685 HARDY (T.) A. L. s.  $\frac{3}{4}$  p. 8vo, Max Gate, April 15, 1909, concerning the Church, he has been away in London, with addressed envelope (2)
- 686 IRISH REBELLION. An interesting collection of Newspapers published in Ireland during the rebellion, 1914, many of what were suppressed by the British, including : Irish Freedom (2 nos.), Irish Volunteer (2 nos.), Eire (4 nos.) Sinn Fein (3 nos.), Irish Worker (16 nos.), Irish Work, Scissors and Paste (6 nos.), The Spark (5 nos.), Irish Work (1 no.), rare; with various Pamphlets a parcel
- 687 KIPLING (Rudyard) A. L. s. 1 p. 8vo, Bateman's, Burwash, July 19, '06, to Mr. Lusted, thanking him for verses and suggesting that his county, Sussex, has long lacked a poet, with addressed envelope (2)

- 688 KIPLING (R.) A. L. s. (one in full, once initials, and once on envelope), 3½ pp. 8vo, The Woolsack, Cape Town, Mar. 24, 1908, to Mr. Lusted, a letter of condolences, talks of his return home, with addressed envelope (2)
- 689 STEVENSON (Robert Louis) A. L. s. 2 pp. small 8vo, British Museum paper headed "Skerryvore, Bournemouth" (June, 1885), to Mrs. Erskine Wemyss, with auto. addressed envelope :
Truth of Intercourse along with many of my earlier papers was republished under the Title "Virginibus Puerisque" and may still be had of Messrs. Chatto & Windus. Other papers there are many, scattered too in many different places; some day these also, or the best of them, will be collected; but in the meanwhile I should find it hard to make a list . . . I am pleased to hear that you have found pleasure in my work . . . It would be an unworthy affectation to pretend that I was not pleased. (2)
- 690 SHAW (Bernard) Auto. Comments on the plan for a combination strike and boycott suggested by the Labour Party, signed in full, Ayot St. Lawrence, 25/12/18, pithy comments at the end of each paragraph of suggestions, amounting to some dozen lines of writing, on 2 pp. 4to typescript, with auto. addressed envelope (2)

- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are received back within FOURTEEN DAYS after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm-holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Messrs. SOTHEY & CO. are prepared to execute bids, and in addition to advise intending purchasers as far as possible, if requested by them to do so, without making any charge for either service. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

** Bound with other tracts in 1 vol.

- 28 HUBBARD (WILLIAM) A NARRATIVE OF THE TROUBLES WITH THE INDIANS IN NEW-ENGLAND, FROM THE FIRST PLANTING THEREOF IN THE YEAR 1607 TO THIS PRESENT YEAR 1677. But chiefly of the late Troubles in . . . 1675. and 1676. To which is added a Discourse about the Warre with the Pequods in . . . 1637. [The Happiness of a People in the Wisdome of their Rulers . . . by William Hubbard], FIRST EDITION, SECOND ISSUE (12 lines of errata on the last leaf of the "Narrative" and License Leaf dated "Boston, March 29. 1677"), FOLDING WOODCUT MAP OF NEW ENGLAND ("THE WHITE HILLS" ISSUE); a small piece torn from the bottom of sig. E 1 (first series) affecting one word and a catch-word, a minute original flaw in the paper of sig. D 1 (second series), in contemporary blind tooled calf binding (? bound in America), rebacked, a small panel on sides composed of a narrow two-line fillet with floreate stamps at the inner and outer angles and initials B. A. in centre
4to (7 $\frac{3}{8}$  in. by 5 $\frac{7}{16}$  in.). Boston; Printed by John Foster

** A VERY FINE COPY AND EXTREMELY RARE. The folding woodcut map of New England is in very fine condition and is a very beautiful crisp specimen. It is the first map engraved in America. Of the preliminary contributions in verse the first, signed J. S., is believed to be by John Sherman; the other, signed B. T., by Benjamin Tompson, one of the earliest native American poets.

[See ILLUSTRATION.]

4to. Amsterodami, ex officina Hesselij Gerardi Anno 1612

** A VERY FINE COPY AND EXTREMELY RARE. THE FIRST PRINTED ACCOUNT OF HUDSON'S DISCOVERIES IN NORTH AMERICA, AND THE SECOND PUBLISHED ACCOUNT OF THE DISCOVERY OF THE NORTHERN COASTS OF AUSTRALIA BY DE QUIROS.

A full collation and comparison of this edition and that of the following year is given in the Huth Catalogue.

This copy agrees with the Huth Catalogue description of the 1612 edition except that it has four additional leaves at end with signature F beginning "In praefatione postremae editionis" and with a woodcut of a whale on the last. From the Huth Catalogue description these leaves belong to the 1613 edition. It also has a fourth map in addition to the three described in the Huth Catalogue. It shows the North Coast of Norway, Greenland, Spitzbergen and Nova Zembla (plate measurement 163 mm. by 256 mm.).

This copy has not got the separate title to the Relatio Memorialis which begins on B 1. The make-up of the gatherings, which in the present case can be easily distinguished, make it clear that this title was printed on sig. A 1 (the leaf following the general title and was intended to be cut out and placed on a guard in its proper place. In this copy this was never done. The title was duly cut out but never replaced.

oblong (147 mm. by 197 mm.) No place, printer or date
[? R. Pynson, c. 1520]

- * * APPARENTLY UNRECORDED. The ornaments of which the border is formed are reproduced in Plomer's "English Printers' Ornaments," fig. 112 (i) and 112 (iii), where they are both ascribed to Pynson and De Worde. The first of the two also occurs in fig. 8, a built-up border from Pynson's "Year Books of Edward III," 1518. Neither of the types used is to be found among those reproduced in Colonel Isaacs' "Types used by Wynkyn de Worde, 1501-34" (The Library, Mar. 1929), so the Indulgence may reasonably be attributed to Pynson, who did other work of the kind (cp. the Indulgence sold in the Christie Miller sale, Mar.-Apr. 1927, lot 1003).

QUARTO.

- 275 HORAE B.V.M. CUM CALENDARIO, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, 206 ll. written in red and black (calendar in red, blue and gold) in bold gothic characters, 15 miniatures, the initials following these finely illuminated in blue, magenta and white on gold grounds, these fifteen pages within delicately executed borders (some shaved) of conventional foliage, flowers and fruit with a lavish use of gold, other initials in gold on grounds of blue, magenta and white, paragraph-endings in blue and gold, wants the miniature before Tierce with two leaves of text (supplied in a later hand), black shagreen, joints broken and roughly mended French, c. 1500

** Liturgically this Book of Hours is remarkable in having no hymn at Matins or Lauds. The presence of Saint Annemundus in the Litany and Calendar suggests a Lyons origin, and this ascription is supported by the Lessons at Matins (O beata, etc.). The other criteria are: Matins: Antiphon, Sicut myrrha; Lauds: Capitulum, Egrediatur virga, Collect, Deus qui de B. V. M. utero; Prime: Antiphon, Alleluia, Capitulum, Ego quasi vitis; Nones: Antiphon, Alleluia, Capitulum, Quae est ista. The Alleluia antiphons are characteristic of Carthusian Horae, and the book may have been prepared in a Carthusian house at Lyons for the owner, whose portrait appears in the thirteenth miniature, kneeling before the Virgin and Child.

Dear Emily,

I send you this nice little Book of "Les Pseames de David," as it will enable you to polish up your French. I shall never be satisfied until you are able to read Racine, Corneille, and Moliere, sufficiently well to thoroughly appreciate all their thousand beauties.

I shall return, D.V. by the 20th.

Ever thy true sister,
Charlotte Brontë.

- 365 JACOBITE PAPERS. A FINE SERIES OF LETTERS AND DOCUMENTS RELATING TO THE 1689 RISING, from John Graham of Claverhouse, Viscount Dundee; Lord Dunfermline, Colonel Alexander Cannon, Sir Hugh Mackay and Sir Thomas Livingstone, including a superb letter written by Dundee on the eve of his death at the Battle of Killiecrankie. The papers are composed as follows:
- DUNDEE (Viscount) Letters mostly in a secretary's hand, signed, with some autograph postscripts, May 19 to July 26, 1689, inciting Cluny Macpherson to rise for the Jacobite cause and provide men and provisions for his army; gives news of the King's Fleet, the troops from Ireland, and the defeat of Schomberg; promises religious toleration. The fine last letter is apparently entirely in his own handwriting and runs as follows:
- Sir—
My Lord Murray is retyred down the contry all the Atholl men have left them saive Stratherol Achintully and Baron Read Straloch and they

My service to all the loyall gentry of Badenoch.

DUNFERMLINE (Lord) Four Letters, April 5th to 3rd May, 1689, commanding Cluny to be in readiness to rise ; asks if he will accept a commission from King James

CANNON (Col. Alexander) Five Letters, July 4th, 1689 to May 27th, 1690, offering commissions ; supplements the information in Dundee's letters

MACKAY (Gen. Sir Hugh) Commander of the Williamite army at Killiecrankie, Four Letters, 6th May, 1689 to October 20th, 1690, first of all asking Macpherson to rise for the Prince of Orange, demanding provisions and threatening a raid if he refuses, and finally saying he will endeavour to obtain compensation for damage for Cluny after the subsidence of the Rising

With A. L. s. of Sir Thomas Livingstone of the same purport (21)

* * * This fine series of historical letters has been the subject of articles in the Daily Telegraph, March 3rd to April 17th, by Mr. Grant R. Francis, and has also been printed privately in "Gleanings from the Cluny Charter Chest at Cluny Castle" and "The Transactions of the Gaelic Society of Inverness."

- 366 PAGANINI (Nicolo) Very fine A. L. s. "Nicolo Paganini," 2 pp. large 4to, London; Io. Guigno, 1831, to a Royal Duchess, with portrait after Ingres (2)

Thanking her for the interest she is taking in himself and his Concerts at the King's Theatre. Without entering into minute explanations as to why the prices of admission at the doors have been doubled, a plan adopted since his appearances at Paris, he seeks to justify himself with the English public without humiliating himself. The annexed letter sent to the principal London journals will show her R. Highness how he has explained a fact which has caused much talk, &c., &c.

- 367 MERYON (Charles) A. L. s. 2 $\frac{3}{4}$  pp. 8vo, to his printer Delâtre :

Congratulating him on his improved position, and hopes that in his leisure time he will continue to make his charming little etchings so greatly prized by collectors. He has sad memories of his old maisonette and garden in the Rue St. Jacques which he badly maltreated. He mentions troubles with his landlord who appears to have declined to hand on his address. Unfavourable rumours about himself have circulated for a long time, aggravated by vile follies which he has lately committed.

- 368 MERYON (C.) A. L. s. three very closely written pp. 8vo, 17 févr. '63, to Lesecq :

He accepts his offer to etch a subject which is almost finished, and proposes another. In spite of the small amount of help which he has received up to now, he does not despair that one day a précis of our voyage may be published. The subject, of New Caledonia, of which Lesecq has a proof; he has destroyed the second; of the third state . . . he has delivered 110 proofs for which he has received 250 fcs. He wants 200 fcs. for the new plate and 100 fcs. in advance. He gives the solution of his second Rebus.

- 369 BOILLY (L.) French Painter, 1761-1845, A. L. s. 3 lines 8vo, with address, to his son, sending two tickets which Tardieu has sent for him; he can do what he likes with them, rare

- 370 COCHIN (C. N.) Engraver, 1715-1790, A. L. s. 3 full pp. 4to, 8 janvier, 1772, rare :

The Marquis de Marigny [brother of La Pompadour] has brought him to Menars. Some proprietors of houses in the cul-de-sac de Notre Dame des Champs behind the gardens of the Luxembourg have asked Cochin's mediation through Marigny to get permission from the King to open a doorway into the gardens which would improve their properties and would be a public benefit, and communicate the garden with the new boulevard . . . If the scheme can be carried through M. Marigny will make a considerable gift to the R. Academy of Painting, &c.

- 371 TURNER (J. M. W.) A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, Apl. 30th, 1824, to Hols-worthy, with addressed fly-leaf :

Turner had given a drawing to Mrs. H. but he had been so long acknowledging it and treated it so much like a commission that "my pride is wounded and my Independence roused . . . money is out of the question in the present case." &c.

- 372 TURNER (J. M. W.) A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, Dec. 7, 1837 :

To Maw, who had invited him to Guildford, but he is an invalid; he has caught a cold at Lord Egremont's Funeral or at the Life Academy . . . "Glad you like the Campbell illustrations."

- 373 HEINE (H.) A. L. s. "Henri Heine," 1 p. 8vo, Vendredi matin [n. y.] with address, to E. Grenier, in French, he wants Buloz to print on the 15th; this concerns Heine's Poem "Alta Troll," the dancing bear, which Grenier was translating into French, the date is circa 1847. See notes on cover

- 374 GOETHE (J. W. von) L. s. "Goethe," 2 pp. 4to, June 22, 1797, to C. G. Körner, with address, an extremely fine letter:

Die vergangeneu 4 Wochen habe ich Jena zugebracht und daselbst theils mein episches Gedicht geendigt, theils mich mit Schillern zum neuen Almanach gehalten . . . Haben Sie schon etwas von dem Prolog zum Wallenstein gesehen? Er ist sehr glücklich gerathen und giebt einen freien Blick in die grosse und sonderbare Welt, in welcher das Stück spielen wird . . .

* * Schiller was engaged on the Wallenstein Trilogy at this time, and was collaborating with Goethe.

- 375 SCHILLER (J. C. F. von) Fine A. L. s. "Fr. Schiller," 3 pp. 4to, Jena, July 7, 1796, desiring his correspondent to make an engraving for the "Musenalmanach"

He wishes to have Goethe's head, this time, whose portrait he will supply the artist with. If not, he can use the engraving by Lips, which can easily be improved upon, &c.

- 376 GOETHE (J. W. von) L. s. and subscribed "Audenken und Wohlwollen! ergohest J. W. v. Goethe, 2 pp. large 4to, Weimar, 2 April, 1825, to the historian Heiren, in perfect condition:

The Property of a Collector.

A REMARKABLE SERIES OF CONTEMPORARY MANUSCRIPTS,

RELATING TO THE FOUNDATION OF THE PROVINCE OF
MARYLAND AND ITS EARLY HISTORY.

Lot 433.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

These papers, which will be offered as one lot, are all in good preservation. Their historical value is enhanced by the fact that they were the private papers of the Lords Cecilus and Charles Baltimore, the first and second proprietors of the colony.

No. (1).—A signed draft, or duplicate, of a letter, dated 19 August, 1629, addressed to Charles I by George, first Baron Baltimore, from his plantation at Avalon in Newfoundland, praying for a grant of land in the warmer climate of Virginia. This is a document of the greatest historic interest, which led to the foundation of the Colony of Maryland.

Nos. (2) to (6) are warrants by the Lords Committee of Trade and Plantations addressed to the Attorney-General by order of the King, directing him to prepare a Patent to Lord Baltimore for a new colony in America to be called Maryland. They show the difficulties Baltimore experienced in negotiating the terms and boundaries of his grant, owing to the opposition of existing Patentees in Virginia, which caused the Maryland Charter to be several times recalled and reissued with amended boundaries. Even so, these boundaries proved so indefinite, that 50 years later, when Pennsylvania was granted to William Penn, they led to endless disputes between the proprietors of the two colonies.

No. (7) is a contemporary account of a very early voyage made to the head of Chesapeake Bay by Cyprian Thorowgood, in 1634, apparently unrecorded.

No. (8).—Robert Wintour's "Treatise concerning ye new Plantation now erecting under Lord Baltimore in Maryland" written in 1635, is a document of great historic importance. It extends to about 9,000 words and gives all available information as to the benefits to accrue to settlers taking up grants from Lord Baltimore in the new colony. This "Treatise" appears to be entirely unknown.

Nos. (9) to (14) are papers and original letters dealing principally with Lord Baltimore's relations with the Dutch in New Netherlands, including a holograph letter from William Kieft, the Dutch Governor, dated from New Amsterdam as early as September, 1638.

Nos. (15) to (35) relate to the controversy between Lord Baltimore and William Penn respecting the boundary between their two provinces.

Special mention must be made of nos. (16) and (17), two original letters from King Charles II to Charles Lord Baltimore, in 1681 and 1682, each bearing the Royal Sign Manual. The first letter was delivered to Baltimore by Captain William Markham, Deputy Governor of Pennsylvania, and the second by William Penn personally at a conference. These two letters announce the granting of the Province of Pennsylvania to William Penn and give instructions that the agents of both proprietors should meet and settle the boundary by making a true division between Maryland and Pennsylvania and "fixing certain landmarks for the preventing and avoiding all doubts and controversies that may otherwise happen in respect to the same." These two letters are well-known to historians. Nos. (19) to (29) are letters from Lord Baltimore to William Penn, in 1682 and 1683, relating to the disagreements between them as to the boundaries and other matters. In the earlier letters Baltimore writes in dignified and friendly terms, at the same time protesting politely against some of Penn's actions from the time he first arrived in America. Gradually an undercurrent of doubt and distrust of Penn seems to creep into the letters, although they are still couched in courteous terms. Finally in his last letter, dated July, 19, 1683 [vide no. (29)], Baltimore, irritated beyond endurance by an affront offered to him in a letter from Penn, dated July 5, throws off all restraint and tells Penn plainly what he thinks of him, concluding by saying: "your pen is as dirty and rude as many of your late actions."

No. (32).—The Treaty between Baltimore and the Sinico and Pascattaway Indians appears to be unrecorded.

Nos. (33) to (35) record the minutes of the official proceedings before the Committee for Trade and Plantations and before the Queen in Council, respecting the disputed boundaries between Maryland and Pennsylvania, when the petitions of Baltimore and Penn were both dismissed.

No. (36) is a most important MS. sketch map of the country beyond the head of Chesapeake Bay, illustrating by means of dotted lines and lettered references, the various positions claimed for the boundary as determined by sundry surveyors at different times.

Nos. (37) to (39) relate to various grants of land in Maryland in early times; to each grant the great seal of Maryland is attached.

No. (40) is a fine portrait of Cecilius, the second Lord Baltimore and first proprietor of Maryland, engraved in line by Abraham Blooteling in 1657.

(THE INCEPTION OF THE PROVINCE OF MARYLAND.)

- (1) LETTER FROM GEORGE LORD BALTIMORE TO KING CHARLES I, dated from Ferryland in Newfoundland, 19 August, 1629, petitioning for a grant of land in Virginia, 2 pp. folio, with fly-leaf bearing the endorsement

** This remarkable letter, soliciting the grant of a tract of land in Virginia, ultimately resulted in the establishment of the

Colony of Maryland. A brief résumé of the events leading up to the granting of the Charter of Maryland, on June 20th, 1632, will show the importance of this letter and the following contemporary documents [nos. (2) to (6)].

In 1620 Sir George Calvert, then Secretary of State, purchased from Sir William Vaughan the south-west peninsula of Newfoundland, and in the following year he sent out a body of settlers under Captain Edward Wynne, who established a small settlement which was named Ferryland. In 1623 King James I granted to Calvert a Charter for the colony under the name of the Province of Avalon. In February, 1625, on resigning his post of Secretary of State, Calvert was created Baron of Baltimore in Ireland. In 1627 he made a short visit to his settlement at Ferryland, and in the following year he went out again, accompanied by his family, intending to remain there permanently. The severity of the climate, however, soon convinced him that any attempt to establish a prosperous agricultural colony in such a spot was fore-doomed to failure. On August 19th, 1629, he accordingly wrote this letter to King Charles I, complaining of the harshness of the climate and stating his determination to remove himself :

With some 40 persons to your Majestic's dominion of Virginia, where if your Matie. will please to grant me a precinct of land with such priviledges as the K. yr father . . . was pleased to grant me here I shall endeavour to the utmost of my power to deserve it.

Without waiting for a reply he sailed for Virginia and arrived at Jamestown in October of the same year (1629). Meeting with unexpected difficulties in establishing himself there he returned to England and endeavoured to obtain a Patent for a new colony to the south of James River. By February, 1631, negotiations were nearly complete, when strong opposition compelled him to abandon the idea of founding a colony in that district. Subsequently he sought for a grant of a tract of land to the north and east of Potomac River. The Patent for this was almost ready for sealing when he died on April 15th, 1632. Negotiations were then continued by his son, Cecilius, who had succeeded to the title as second Lord Baltimore, to whom the Charter of Maryland was finally sealed on June 20th, 1632. The following documents, nos. (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6), detail the course of the negotiations and the difficulties experienced in defining the boundaries of the proposed new provinces, owing to the conflicting interests of other patentees.

Lord George Baltimore's actual letter of August 19, 1629, was of course sent to the King. It is mentioned by Winsor in Narrative and Critical History, vol. III, p. 519, and is also referred to in the D.N.B. under Calvert (George). The present letter has all the appearance of being the original draft in George Lord Baltimore's own handwriting, for it contains several corrections, and part of it is written along the left side margin. Moreover, the endorsement on the fly-leaf is in the handwriting of his son Cecilius, and was obviously made during his father's lifetime, for it reads "19 Aug. 1629, A Coppy of my Lds. letter to the Kinge." After the death of George Lord Baltimore, in April, 1632, the endorsement was corrected to read "19 Aug. 1629, A Coppy of Geo. Lord Baltemore's letter to the Kinge." This alteration clearly shows that the document is contemporary and makes it probable that it is the original draft filed for reference.

- (2) [FIRST] WARRANT TO MR. WILLIAM NOYE ESQR. HIS MAJESTIES ATTURNEY GENERALL SIGNED BY THE EARLE OF DORSETT, LORD WENTWORTH AND LORD COTTINGTON, dated February, 1631, directing him to prepare a grant to Lord Baltimore of "that tract or precinet of land lying from the Bay of Chesapeake and the River of Pohatan otherwise called James River on the North . . . unto the River of Passamagnus on the South," etc. . . . "with the same conditions of honour and advantage as the other patent was granted which he had from the late King his Maties. Father . . . for a part of Newfoundland . . . with all the clauses therein conteyned; saving that he is not to have any exemption from Customs or other Dutyes," etc.

*** 2 pp. folio, with fly-leaf containing the endorsement. This warrant is doubtless a duplicate given to Lord Baltimore, as it contains the signatures of the Earl of Dorset and Lords Wentworth and Cottington. (Cf. the next document where the signatures are merely copies.) The body of the warrant is in a clerical hand, but the address to the Attorney Generall and the latter part of the endorsement appear to be in the handwriting of Cecilius Calvert, Lord Baltimore's eldest son. The first part of the endorsement reads "February 1631 Copie of the (first) warrant to Mr. Atturney for a plantation in Virginia." The word first was not in the endorsement as originally written but was interlined later by Cecilius Calvert when he added the remainder "Signed by the Earle of Dorsett, the Lo. Vicount Wentworth and the Lo. Cottingham."

In this first warrant there is no mention that the new province was to be called Maryland.

- (3) SECOND WARRANT TO MR. WILLIAM NOYE ESQR. HIS MAJESTIES ATTURNEY GENERALL, signed by the EARLS OF ARUNDEL AND CARLISLE and the LORDS WENTWORTH AND COTTINGHAM, dated March, 1632, directing him to prepare a new and amended grant of land in Virginia to Lord Baltimore in place of the former one

*** 2 pp. folio, with endorsement on the fly-leaf. The whole of this document appears to be in the handwriting of Cecilius Calvert

and is probably copied for Lord Baltimore. The signatures are not originals, but are in the same writing as the body of the document.

This warrant instructs the Attorney Generall to retain the Patent of 17 March, 1632, for a grant of land in America neere adjoining to the old Colony of Virginia :

As upon further consideration his Matie. since conceiveth that that Plantation intended soe neere unto the other will too much restraints the old planters &c. . . . and understanding withall that the Dutch nation have begun of late years to encroach upon his Maties. territories in those parts to the northward viz. betweene the South Colonie of Virginia and New England and have actually planted thereon calling it New Netherlands and extend their limmits as far as Cape Charles . . . His Matie. for these respects thinks it fitter now for staying further incroachments . . . that another Colonie should be settled to the Northward which the said Ld. Baltimore having undertaken to performe . . . you shall . . . prepare another [Bill] . . . containyng a grant . . . of that whole peninsula . . . lying between the ocean on the east and the great Bay of Chesapeack on the West and betweene Cape Charles on the South and Delaware Bay on the North, &c., &c. . . . and . . . it shall be called Mariland or the province of Mariland in memory and honor of the Queene.

- (4) THE REPORT TO THE KING OF THE LORDS COMMITTEE ON TRADE AND PLANTATIONS IN RESPECT TO THE COMPLAINT OF THE ENGLISH PLANTERS IN VIRGINIA, that they suffered injury by the grant to Lord Baltimore, and proposing an exception be made of all that part of the peninsula adjoining to Cape Charles, which is now comprehended in the Lord Baltimore's grant where the English are inhabited and lying between the Promontary of Cape Charles aforesaid and a certaine place or poynt of land commonly called Watkins, dated from Greenwich, June 5, 1632, and signed "R. Weston [Earl of Portland]—Dorsett" [Lord Dorset]

** 1 p. folio, with fly-leaf containing the endorsement "Copy of the Lords certificate to his Matie. concerning the limitts of my Grant. June 5th, 1632." The fact that the words "my grant" are used in this endorsement is conclusive evidence that it is in the handwriting of Cecilius, the second Lord Baltimore, who had succeeded to the title on the death of his father, April 15, 1632. The body of the document appears to be the original draft, since it contains numerous corrections, alterations and interlineations, given to Lord Baltimore as a reference copy.

- (5) DRAUGHT OF WARRANT TO THE ATTORNEY GENERALL IN PURSUANCE OF THE REPORT OF THE LORDS COMMITTEE OF TRADE AND PLANTATIONS of 5 June, 1632 (vide the previous document) to "prepaire an exception to be inserted in the Lord Baltimore's Bill lately signed by his Matie. and consequentlie in the signett and Privie Seale alreadie passed, if convenientlie it maie be done, or else you are to take the former graunt into your

Custodie and to prepare a new Bill . . . only you are to alter and confine the limits of his part of the Peninsula as is above expressed ”

** 1 p. folio, with fly-leaf. The original draft, containing several corrections and interlineations; given to Lord Baltimore as his reference copy.

It was doubtless found impracticable to make the suggested insertion in the Bill which had already been signed, for the present warrant appears to have been superseded by a fresh one also dated June, 1632 (vide the next document), in which definite instructions are given to prepare an entirely new Bill. The second warrant specifies the exceptions and defines the new boundaries in much greater detail than the present warrant.

- (6) DRAFT OF WARRANT TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL IN PURSUANCE OF THE REPORT OF THE LORDS COMMITTEE OF TRADE AND PLANTATIONS, of 5 June, 1632 [vide document no. (4)], to recall the former grant and prepare a new one making such abatement in the limits as specified in the said report, but with all the rest of the privileges as before

** 1 p. folio, with fly-leaf. A draft given to Lord Baltimore as his reference copy.

This warrant specifies in detail the alterations to be made in the new grant in accordance with the recommendations of the Lords Committee in their report of 5 June, 1632 [vide document no. (4)]. The new grant was to “begin at Watkins Point within the Bay of Chesapeack . . . leaving and quitting unto the now Planters in Virginia the residue of the Peninsula . . . from the sayd point southward to Cape Charles,” etc. This warrant superseded the previous one of the same date (vide the previous document).

- (7) A RELATION OF A VOYAGE MADE BY MR. CYPRIAN THOROWGOOD TO THE HEAD OF THE BAY

** 2 pp. folio, very closely written, with fly-leaf endorsed by Cecilius Lord Baltimore’s hand, “25 Aprill 1634 A relation of a Voyage made by Cyprian Thorowgood to the head of the Bay of Chesepeacke.”

Although not signed this document has every appearance of being the original “Relation”; the subject matter appears to be unknown to historians, and no other copy is recorded. Little is known about Cyprian Thorowgood beyond the fact that he is mentioned in Bozman’s History of Maryland (Baltimore, 1811, p. 327) as taking a somewhat active part in the troubles with Captain Claiborne.

The voyage covers the period April 25th to May 15th, 1634, and was made for the purpose of opening up a trade with the

Susquasahannock Indians. Thorowgood started from Patuxan ("a river about 7 miles from St. Maries the place where our Colony is seated") in a small pinnace with seven men.

He describes Claiborne's Island and several others which they passed and mentions finding "a boat of Claiborne's in trade with the Indians which had gotten 700 skins," and how Claiborne's men incited the Indians to fight them, but on their refusal Claiborne's men went away, and how "what skins the Indians had left they brought to us and went home to fetch what more they had which made in all 230." The Indians are described as being friendly to the English, very valorous and stout and living in palisadoed towns. An account is given of how they treated their prisoners by slowly burning them alive, and in the meantime cutting off pieces of flesh to boil and eat before them from whom they cut it; this relation I had from a negro which lived among them for to learn the language.

- (8) A SHORT TREATISE SETT DOWNE IN A LETTER WRITTEN BY R. W. TO HIS WORTHY FREIND C. J. R. CONCERNING THE NEW PLANTATION NOW ERECTING UNDER THE RIGHT HOBLE. THE LORD BALTEMORE IN MARYLAND.

** 13 ll. sm. 4to (8 in. by 6 in.), comprising title with verso blank + text, 20 pp. very closely written + wrapper of the same paper, the front leaf blank and the back one bearing the following endorsement by Lord Baltimore: "12 Septem. 1636, Coppy of Mr. Robert Wintours Discourse of Mary Land written by way of letter to his freind Cap. John Reade." The identity of Captain John Reade has not been established, but he was evidently a friend of Wintour who thought of emigrating to Maryland; the receipt of the letter Reade evidently forwarded this copy to Lord Baltimore.

Robert Wintour was probably a brother of Edward and Frederick Wintour, sons of Lady Wintour, who went to Maryland in 1633 with the first batch of settlers. Robert's name is mentioned in Griffith's Sketches of the Early History of Maryland, Baltimore, 1821 (p. 7), where it is stated that he was made a councillor early in the year 1638, having then lately arrived.

The Letter contains a long description of the advantages of life in the new Colony of Maryland over the life in the old Country—the inducement to Settlers—the profits to be made by Agriculture, Cattle, Tobacco, Furs, &c., &c.—no fear of danger from the Spaniards or Indians—the prospect for advancement for all classes and the various crops that could be raised and of the manner of their profitable disposal—the special advantages of the Maryland design due to its establishment under Lord Baltimore—form of Government—the King's command that the province be called Maryland—sketch of the character of Lord Baltimore—advice to contemplating Settlers to treat the matter seriously and make immediate decision to go at once as "the best of this business is now at the first." &c.

ITS DISCOVERY IS OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE FOR EARLY MARYLAND HISTORY. A DILLIGENT SEARCH HAS ENTIRELY FAILED TO DISCOVER ANY TRACE OF THE ORIGINAL LETTER, ANY OTHER COPY OF IT, OR ANY MENTION OF IT IN ANY BOOK OR RECORD.

- (9) HOLOGRAPH LETTER FROM WILLIAM KIEFT, GOVERNOR OF THE DUTCH SETTLEMENT OF NEW NETHERLANDS, TO LEONARD CALVERT, LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND, dated from New Amsterdam in New Belgium, 9 September, 1638

** 1 p. folio, with endorsement. Written in Latin :

Acknowledging receipt of Calvert's letter of four months previous and expressing delight at the news of his wishing to enter into correspondence with them. Goes on to say that with regard to ships they will have enough as there are now two lying in harbour, a Spanish and a Dutch one, "which I will have refitted and which you can use if you wish, but I feel in some difficulty about the payment which you propose to make in Tobacco which is abundant here and exported to Holland and New England, but do not hesitate to make use of us and write down what you want. You will always find us ready and willing. Yours very devoted."

Kieft was the third Governor of New Netherlands, having succeeded Van Twiller in 1637. A letter written by him is of the greatest rarity and interest, especially one addressed to the Lieut.-Gov. of Maryland expressing such a friendly spirit towards the new colony. The reference to payment in tobacco is significant in relation to Winsor's statement (Narrative and Critical History, vol. III, p. 543) that the large demand for it by the Dutch traders led the Maryland colonists to devote themselves so exclusively to its cultivation, that on more than one occasion they suffered from a scarcity of food.

The letter is endorsed in Cecil Lord Baltimore's handwriting, "the Dutch Governrs. Lre. to my Bro. Leonard Calvert, 9 Sept. 1638."

- (10) HOLOGRAPH LETTER FROM SIR EDMUND PLOWDEN, PROPRIETOR OF NEW ALBION, TO CECIL LORD BALTIMORE, dated August 30, 1639, addressed from the house of Mr. Graves, surgeon, in Milford Lane, London

** 1½ pp. folio, with endorsement, address and small seal on the fly-leaf.

In reference to a request for land from Mr. Withers, Deputy-Governor of the Bermudas, and Mr. Gardner, a merchant, also Captain Mulhen of Virginia, and C. Clayborne, to settle in the triangular point of New England, Maryland and New Albion, and for a copy of Plowden's patent as they had found some defect in Lord Baltimore's.

States that he has hitherto delayed them, but that he has found out that the Bermuda men had moved his Majesty's through Lord Dorset and that he had made them a grant as a Corporation of themselves, distinct from Virginia, of all the river of Rapahannock with Cinquack and Powtomack land and river on the South of King's side, with all such privileges as the Patent of Florida to Sir Robert Heath, Maryland and his own of New Albion, but with the proviso that if the Maryland and New Albion Patents be recalled and resumed, then theirs also must cease. States that Mathews, Clayborne and his friends and many discontents of Virginia had joined together in this new Grant and that they intended to settle down in Patowmack with at least 1500 men, and that he had urged that Maryland and New Albion were Principalities and County Palatines exempt from all Regalities fit for men of honour, and had urged that the River Powtomack and the shore on the South side belonged to Lord Baltimore, and that they could not touch the land or trade or sail that river, and that by their coming his Lordship would lose the trade of 2000 Indians and that it might animate the Indians to wars; also it might draw other men from Virginia so that both Virginia and Lord Baltimore should oppose the grant and the danger of such neighbours, &c.

This long and very important letter is addressed "To the Right Honble. his much honoured friend Cecil Lord Baltamore," and is endorsed in Cecil Lord Baltimore's own handwriting, "30 August 1639, Sr. Edmund Ployden to me."

Sir Edmund Ploeyden (or Plowden) was granted the patent of New Albion by Lord Strafford in 1634, which grant also covered the Dutch settlement of New Netherlands.

According to Peter Heylin in his Cosmographia in Four Books, published in 1657, the Dutch offered to sell their colony of New Netherlands to Sir Edmund for £2,500. Heylin cites Sir Samuel Argal as his authority, but there is great doubt whether any such offer was ever made.

The authorship of that very rare tract, A description of the Province of New Albion, issued in 1646, written under the pseudonym of Beauchamp Plantagenet, has been ascribed to Sir Edmund Plowden.

The Captain Claiborne mentioned in this letter was the person who, in 1635, caused so much trouble in the Maryland Colony.

- (11) THE ARTICLES OF CAPITULATION, SIGNED BETWEEN SIR JOHN RYTINGH, GOVERNOR OF THE SWEDISH COLONY AT FORT CHRISTINA ON THE DELAWARE, AND SIR PETRUS STUYVEHAND, DIRECTOR-GENERAL OF THE DUTCH COLONY OF NEW NETHERLANDS. ACTUM 25 SEPTEMBER, 1655. [Followed by] A Transfer (for goods received) of a piece of Land called Wiggvachkoing, situated in the South River of New Netherland (the Delaware), by Sheghire Honden and Rinnowyhy, brother of Meghire (sic) Honden aforementioned to the Commissioner, Andres Hudden for William Kieft, Director of the Dutch West India Co. Sept. 25, 1646

*** 7 pp. folio, with endorsement "Copy Capitulations between the Dutch and Sweedes Governors" on the verso of the last leaf.

The Dutch West India Company had never entirely abandoned their claim to jurisdiction over the shores of the South (or Delaware) River, and apprehending danger from Rytingh, they determined to occupy Fort Casimir. Following the capture of that post the Dutch lay siege to Fort Trinity, which surrendered on Sept. 1st, 1655, and on Sept. 2nd they appeared before Christina, which according to Winsor (vol. IV, pp. 482) capitulated, the Articles of Surrender being drawn upon Sept. 15th of that year. The above document shows, however, that they were not signed until the 25th.

This copy was probably made for Lord Baltimore; the whereabouts of the original are unknown.

- (12) LETTER SIGNED BY JOSIAS FENDALL AND PHILIP CALVERT, IN THE NAME OF THE GOVERNOR AND COUNCEL OF THE PROVINCE OF MARYLAND, TO THE HONOURABLE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF THE NEW NETHERLANDS, protesting against the intrusion of the Dutch within the 40° of North Latitude into the territory granted to Lord Baltimore, dated from Patuxent, the 9th of October, 1659

*** 3 pp. folio, with address across the fourth page, "For the Honble. the Governor Generall of the New Netherlands on the Manhatans."

This document has every appearance of being the original, for it has been folded in the usual form and bears the cross address together with the original wax seal in their customary places. If, however, this was the actual letter despatched to the Dutch Governor, it is difficult to account for its now being found amongst the Baltimore papers. In all probability, therefore, it is a duplicate original which was never despatched. The endorsement probably included some other papers originally tied up together, for it reads "Some papers relating to Maryland and the Whorekill or Delaware in the time of the Dutch Government. Delivered 1672."

On the other hand, if this is the original sent to the Dutch Governor, it may have been returned to Lord Baltimore with other papers recovered after the English took New Netherlands in 1664, and occupied that province till 1672. The year 1672 mentioned in the endorsement may be the date when the papers were delivered to Lord Baltimore.

A VERY IMPORTANT LETTER.

- (13) COMMISSION OF JAMES, DUKE OF YORK, TO RICHARD NICHOLAS, TO BE HIS DEPUTY GOVERNOR OF ALL THE PART OF THE MAIN LAND OF NEW ENGLAND, GRANTED TO THE DUKE BY CHARLES II, 12 MARCH, 1664, with official certification dated 26th Sept. 1685, signed by Geo. Peirson and Jo. Rooke

*** 1½ pp. folio, with fly-leaf containing endorsement "2 Aprill

1664. Copy of the Duke of York Commission to Richard Nichols Esqr. to be Governor of New York."

This copy of Nichols' commission, which recites the grant and gives the boundaries in full, was, judging from the date of the certification, made for Lord Baltimore at the time of the inquiry into the Maryland and Pennsylvania Boundary question by the Lords of the Committee of Trade and Plantations. See nos. (33) and (34).

- (14) INDENTURE BETWEEN EDMOND ANDROS, GOVERNOR OF THE DUKE OF YORK'S TERRITORIES IN AMERICA, AND THE SACHEMS AND INDIANS, DECLARED OWNERS FOR PURCHASE OF ALL THAT TRACT OF LAND ON THE WEST SIDE OF DELAWARE RIVER, AS DEFINED, etc. SEPTEMBER, 23, 1675. (Signed with the marks of four Indians and sealed and delivered in the presence of twelve Englishmen, whose names are given.) [Followed by a List of the Articles to be given to the Indians in payment.]

** In all 4 sheets, large folio, endorsed on the verso of the last "A Copie of the deed of purchase of lands by the Falls in Delaware." The four sheets are stabbed at the top, threaded and tied together with the original woven tape or ribbon.

The whole of the document is in the handwriting of Matthias Nicholls, Secretary to Governor Andros, who was also one of the signatories to the agreement. In addition to his certificate "This is a true copie" at the foot of the third sheet, a similar certificate appears on the fourth sheet beneath the list of goods to be given to the Indians in payment.

A long side-note on the second sheet inserted at a later date refers to the Indian right to dispose of the land, and mentions James Waye's deposition [made in 1684, see no. (31)].

- (15) LETTERS PATENT OF CHARLES II, GRANTING TO WILLIAM PENN A PROVINCE IN AMERICA TO BE CALLED PENNSYLVANIA. Dated the Fourth day of March in the three and thirtieth years of our Reign [1681]. A contemporary copy

** 12 pp. folio, endorsed "A Coppie of Mr. Penn's Grant of Pennsylvania in America, 4th March 1680" [i.e. 1680-1]. Beneath this is a further endorsement in a latter hand: "Ye Charter in ye Box of Cloaths."

This copy was doubtless prepared for the information and use of Charles Lord Baltimore. It contains numerous underlinings and hand pointers in the margin in similar style to those in the copy of Penn's letter to the Lords of the Committee, 14 Aug. 1683 [vide no. (30)].

(16) LETTER FROM KING CHARLES II TO CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE :

Notifying him of the grant to William Penn of the Province of Pennsylvania and of the Boundaries thereof and recommending Penn, his Deputies and Officers to Baltimore's friendly aid and assistance, and requiring his Lordship to extend to Penn all the offices of good neighbourhood and amicable correspondence which might tend to the mutual benefit of the Provinces under both Proprietaries. And more especially requesting the appointment with all convenient speed of some person or persons "who may in conjunction with the Agent or Agents of the said William Penn make a true deviation and separation of the said Provinces of Maryland and Pennsylvania according to the bounds and degree of Northern Latitude expressed in our said Letters Patents by setting and fixing certaine Landmarks where they shall appear to border upon each other for the preventing and avoiding all doubts and controversies that may otherwise happen concerning the same."

GIVEN AT OUR COURT OF WHITEHALL 2ND OF APRIL, 1681.
SIGNED BY LORD CONWAY BY HIS MAJESTY'S COMMAND. The Royal Sign Manual CHARLES R. appears in the usual place at the top of the first page

** 2 pp. folio, with fly-leaf endorsed by Charles Lord Baltimore.

Penn's patent passed the seals in March, 1680, so that this highly important letter from the King, dated April 2, in the same year, marks the commencement of that long struggle over the boundaries between Maryland and Pennsylvania, which was still raging between Lord Baltimore and the sons of William Penn as late as 1742.

This letter seems to have been known to Winsor, for he mentions it in Narrative and Critical History, vol. III, pp. 478 and 549.

(17) LETTER FROM KING CHARLES II TO CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE, directing that the Northern Boundary between Maryland and Pennsylvania be determined by an admeasurement of the two degrees in Lord Baltimore's patent, beginning from the south bounds of Maryland as already settled by the Commissioners. "GIVEN AT OUR COURT AT WINDSOR the 19th day of August 1682 in the four & thirtieth years of our Reigne. By his Majties. Command. CONWAY." The Royal Sign-manual CHARLES R. appears in the usual place at the top of the first page

** 2 pp. folio, with fly-leaf, endorsed by Charles Lord Baltimore. This letter is in very fine condition and has a large portion of the large paper seal or wafer still attached. It appears to have been known to Winsor who refers to it in Narrative and Critical History, vol. III, p. 478, etc.

(18) A CONTEMPORARY COPY OF KING CHARLES II's LETTER TO CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE, dated 19th August, 1682, as described under the previous number

** 2 pp. folio, with fly-leaf, endorsed by Charles Lord Baltimore.

- (19) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN,
dated 24th January, 1682

** 1 p. folio, with fly-leaf, containing the endorsement "The Ld Baltemore's lre to Mr. Penn dated the 24th of Janury 1682." This is doubtless the contemporary copy filed by Lord Baltimore for his own use. The date "24th Janury 1682" at the top of the letter appears to be in his own handwriting.

The letter begins, "My hond Friend" and advises the sending of the Notes of our last conference taken by John Llewellyn sworne Clk of ye Assembly and Councill of Maryland, and apologises for the delay owing to the death of his good uncle "who departed this life about ten days since" which had put his affairs into great disorder. He assures Penn that he may depend on any neighbourly kindness that might conduce to his benefit and the convenience of his Colony and "hopeing that as my inclination and intentions are to be kind to Mr. Pen so he will (I assure my selfe) be as well inclined and as ready to afford his kindness to me in those reasonable demands I shall make when wee meete next not at all doubting but one meeting more will accomodate all matters to the satisfaction of both sides."

- (20) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN,
dated from Patuxent River Side, 15th of 9ber, 1682

** 1 l. folio. The letter occupies the upper half of the recto. It is doubtless the contemporary copy filed by Lord Baltimore for his own use, for the endorsement is apparently in his own handwriting, "15th of 9ber 1682 the Ld. Bal: lre to Mr. Penn being an answer to ye sd. Penns of the 2d of ye sd month."

The letter commences "Friend." In it Lord Baltimore acknowledges the receipt of Penn's letter of the 2nd instant, but regrets that he cannot meet him for a conference at Wye River "on the east side of my Bay" as proposed by Penn, and suggests an alternative meeting place at South River on the West side "where my present business will require my being for some time." The letter concludes "I will not faile to meet you the beginning of the next month where you shall be reed. with all kindnesse and respect. In confidence of haveing this happinesse I shall till then be silent as to some late proceedings which seeme as yett more than ordinarily strange to your very true friend. C. Baltemore."

- (21) DRAFT OF LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN, dated from St. Maries, 29th March, 1683

** 2 pp. folio, with fly-leaf containing the endorsement. The original draft with corrections and interlineations. It is probably in Lord Baltimore's own hand, but is more carefully written than the endorsement, which is certainly his, for it reads, "29th of March 1683 my lre to Mr Pen being in answer to his of the 12th March 1682." The discrepancy in the dates 1682 and 1683 is accounted for by the fact that at this period the year commenced on 25th March, hence Penn's letter of

LOT 433—continued.

12 of March was 1682 whilst Baltimore's of 29th March was 1683.

Denies Penn's suggestion "that I was with Captn. James Connaway at Captn. Wards there taking an observacon wch I assure you is false for had I bin soe neere Philadelphia I must have bin guilty of great want of kindness respect and civility not to have given you a visit."

In retort Lord Baltimore accuses Penn of having caused secret surveys to be made "in my bay" by one Robert Hopper which "I will not readily believe Mr. Pen will owne or countenance . . . but I shall not be well at ease of mind untill I have had the happiness of discoursing this and some other passages wch will concerne your honour and reputation also your preffessions of friendship . . . for this reason you may expect I will, some time the latter end of next Aprill . . . give myselfe the satisfaction of seeing you at Philadelphia." &c.

- (22) THE PATENT OF CHARLES II GRANTING TO HIS BROTHER JAMES DUKE OF YORK: "ALL THE TOWNE OF NEWCASTLE OTHERWISE CALLED DELAWARE AND FORT THEREIN, or thereunto belonging scituate lyeing and being between Maryland and New Jersey in America and all that River called Delaware &c. &c. Dated the eighth day of April in the five and thirtieth yeare of our Reigne" (1683)

** 5 pp. folio, with fly-leaf, a contemporary copy made for Lord Baltimore and endorsed by him.

The document recites the surrender of the Duke of York's original patent of 22nd March, 1683, and describes at great length the new boundaries of the province together with the terms and conditions under which this amended patent was granted.

- (23) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN, dated 18th Aprrl. 1683

** 1 p. 4to, addressed "To Wm Pen Propr of Pensilvania" and endorsed in a later hand, "18th of Aprill (83) The Ld Baltimores lre to Mr. Penn sent pr Mr. H. Coursey."

This is a draft or copy in Lord Baltimore's own hand with his initials C. B. at the end. He refers to his previous letter [of the 29th March, vide no. (21) supra] in which he purposed to visit Penn in Philadelphia at the end of April.

He now says that as Lord Culpeper is expected early in May "I must put off my visit to you till the middle of the next month when I am in hopes of having the happiness of attending my Lord Culpeper to Philadelphia for by his Letter you'll see he intends you the honor of a visit." &c.

- (24) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN, 28th April, 1683

** 2 pp. large folio, with fly-leaf endorsed "His Lopps Lre to Mr Penn of the 28th Aprill 1683 being an answer to one of sd Penns Lres of the 23th of Aprrl 83."

Auto. draft by Lord Baltimore, signed with his initials C.B. :

He acknowledges receipt of Penn's letter of April 23rd in reply to his of March 29th (vide no. (21) supra) and says, "I cannot but wonder that you should take it so unkindly my causing an observacon to be taken at Palmer's Island since I thought I had the liberty of so doing in any part of my Province without giveing any just cause of such resentments as you are pleased to express." Refers again to the observations taken on behalf of Penn by Robert Hopper (vide no. (21) supra) and goes on to say "And now my hond friend I must take notice of your forbidding my visit to you which I shall observe . . . It doth somewhat startle me that my company should of a sudden seem so dangerous to you at Philadelphia" &c. States that he will hasten up the Bay after Lord Culpeper's visit and send a Secretary to announce his arrival there.

(25) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN,
dated from Fosters Island, 18th May, 1683

** 3½ pp. large folio, endorsed "My lre of ye 18th of May 1683 to Mr Penn, being an answer to his of ye 7th of ye same month."

Auto. copy by Lord Baltimore, with initials C.B. It is a long rambling letter in reply to Penn's of May 7th, which appears to have been written in somewhat angry terms.

Penn seems to have been annoyed at having to wait for some days for Lord Baltimore owing to the delay in the receipt of his Lordship's last letter and a misinterpretation of its meaning. Baltimore gives a long explanation and states he will still go to the head of the Bay and send a Secretary to notify Penn as previously arranged. Then follows a further discussion of the dispute about the boundary line at 40° N. Lat. as fixed in Lord Baltimore's grant and the King's letter.

All through this letter Lord Baltimore expresses his desire to settle all differences on a friendly and neighbourly basis.

(26) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN, dated at the end "From Elk River at Capt Wards May the 31th 1683"

** 2 pp. folio, with endorsed fly-leaf.

Fair copy in a secretarial hand, but the words in the address at the end "From Elk River" and the endorsement are in Lord Baltimore's writing.

Acknowledges the receipt of a letter from William Penn of the 30th delivered by Major Sayer.—Relates to Penn's proposal recently made "that if I would dispose of some lands on Susquehannah River and that I would give you from under my hand the price certain, you would then be willing and agree to have the degree of Fourty Northerly Latitude taken by a Sextant of Tenn foot Semi-diameter and not otherwise." Baltimore replies that he had considered this proposal at Newcastle and had already told Penn that by reason of the uncertainty of what quantity of land he would have to dispose of on that River before an Observation of the 40° was taken, and also of his little knowledge of the worth of so great a quantity, and of its not being his custom to sell land in his Province, he made him an offer upon friendly terms, but that a member of his Council had been told by the first Person of Penn's Council that "Lord Baltimore must and shall agree," and when such things are said "I cannot hope for that happy issue I have desired and expected." But for the sake of peace and friendship he makes a further offer of an inlet (not specified) other than that Mr. Penn had desired. "I had rather give an acre of mine than take a foot of land not my own." &c.

(27) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN, dated from Mattapenny, 24th June, 1683

** 5 pp. folio, auto. draft by Lord Baltimore.

Had he imagined Penn would favour him with further letters, he (Baltimore) would have waited at Col. Ward's although anxious to return to Patuxent. Acknowledges receipt yesterday at Portobacio in Charles County, of Penn's letters of the 6th and 9th instant. Sorry that his own letter of the 31st ult. did not reach Penn until the 6th inst. Complains of rude treatment at Newcastle by failure of Penn's cousin to attend for taking observations in obedience to the King's first letter (Vide no. (16). Complains of a letter written by Penn urging that no more taxes should be paid by inhabitants of Baltimore County by any law of Maryland. Speaks of a private conference when he promised Penn an inlet, and Penn proposed the waiving of the King's second Letter (Vide no. (17), trusting that matters might be settled in a more friendly way than by mere measurements. Claims his rights on the Delaware and expects Penn to give assurance that he will not oppose them. Asks Penn to make an appointment at the head of Chesapeake Bay for taking an observation to determine the true 40° N. Latitude.

(28) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN, dated from Matapany, the 16th of July, 1683

** 3 pp. folio, auto. draft or duplicate original by Lord Baltimore, signed in full.

In it Baltimore acknowledges the receipt of several letters from Penn delivered by Captain William Markham "to which I will give answer with as little offence as possible." Mentions and defends a Proclamation he had issued inviting people to settle at Whorekills which Penn had termed "an open breach and violence, expressions very surprising and harsh." Refutes vigorously some insinuations made by Penn of Baltimore's disrespect to the King's Letter delivered to him by Penn (Vide no. (17) "at our public conference." Discusses at some length his promise of allowing Penn an inlet to the head of the Bay and promises that after the 40° N. Lat. had been fixed he will meet Penn's wishes. &c.

(29) LETTER FROM CHARLES LORD BALTIMORE TO WILLIAM PENN, dated from Mattapany ye 10th of July, 1683

** 3 pp. folio. This appears to be the original draft as it is very much corrected and altered.

In this long and somewhat angry letter Baltimore throws off the dignified restraint exhibited in his former letters, and now speaks his mind fully on Penn and his actions. He repudiates

the allegations made by Penn in his letter of July 5th, and discusses at some length the question of the disputed boundaries. The tenor of the whole letter can be judged from the opening phrases :

To be wholly silent to the great affront contained in your letter delivered me by Captn. Wm. Markham dated the 5th Month July subscribed by you, tho not writt in your hand, would (I fear) render me guilty of that horrid crime and sin you therein charge me with. It is therefore that I am now to tell you, your Ambition, Pride and Covetousness have too much affected your reason and judgment, otherwise you would not (I suppose) upon soe groundles an occation have flowne into such rude expressions . . . to terme me therein a kind of faithless person . . . Indeed you have endeavored therein to make me beleieve I am as black as Hell, which if I should beleieve I must then conclude 'twere not safe for you to breath in the same air with me, which, yet I must persuade you to doe, for to be very plaine with you, your black foule charge must and shall in propper time and place call closely for reparation and satisfaction . . . your pen in that part was as dirty and rude as many of your late actions. &c.

At the end Baltimore tells Penn that this is the last letter he will trouble him to read or himself to write, "for being rendered by you a person not fitt to be treated with, I ought to be silent untill a fitt occation of meeting you when I will purge my selfe of that black crime you soe unjustly have charged on me."

(30) CONTEMPORARY COPY OF WILLIAM PENN'S LETTER TO THE LORDS OF YE COMMTEE. FOR HIS MATS. PLANTATIONS AT WHITEHALL, dated from Philadelphia, the 14th of ye 6mo Augst. 1683

** 11 pp. folio. It appears from this letter that Lord Baltimore had already lodged some complaints with the Lords Committee as to Penn's actions respecting the settlement of the boundaries between Maryland and Pennsylvania. Penn therefore wrote this letter, stating :

My Agent has informed mee that ye Proprietor of Maryland has been early in his acct of our Conference about fixing of our Bounds, and made a Narrative of my affairs as well before as at yt time, a little to my disadvantage, and the rather because my silence might be interpreted neglect, I am necessitated to make some defence for myself wch as it will not be hard to make so I hope it will be received as just.

Penn then goes on to give his version of the results of his conferences with Lord Baltimore concerning the boundaries of the two provinces.

This copy of Penn's letter was evidently prepared for the use of Lord Baltimore, for it is annotated all through in his lordship's handwriting with such comments as "false," "damn'd lye," etc.

(31) DEPOSITION OF JAMES WAYE A QUAKER CONCERNING YE SETTLEMENTS OF ENGLISH AND DUTCH IN DELAWARE

** 1 p. folio, with certificate on the verso dated New York, April

the 18th, 1684, signed by John Spragg, Secretary of the Province of New York, testifying that the deponent James Waye appeared before him and affirmed that his deposition was the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth.

This deposition was probably drawn up at the instigation of Lord Charles Baltimore [cf. no. (14) ante] in connection with his disputes with Penn as to boundaries of Maryland. It begins "New York, James Waye aged 66 or thereabouts deposeth as follows :

(Abstract) Hath been informed 43 years since that the first settlement in Delaware River was by one Peter Holmes an Englishman, near 50 years since, brought thither by one Capt. Young, at a place called Arrowamos a little above Schoolekill, and the said Holmes not being acquainted with the Indians, the Indians gathering together (at which time the Dutch had some trade in the said river, not as owners or Proprietors of the said land, but as Merchants or Dealers), the English inquiring of the Dutch what was the great concourse of the Indians, it was replied by the Dutch that it was undoubtedly to cut them off. Then the English for fear of the Indians asked the Dutch to carry them away and the next year the Dutch having the opportunity took their place. Further in 1641, the Deponent with others came to a place called Wattseson a little below Newcastle in Delaware River, and found about 14 English, next year he was present when they purchased all the land at the Schoolekill and settled there and the Dutch came and burned them out and carried the prisoners to New Haven in New England. Further that he was present when the lands were purchased from the Indians for £40, for which writings were drawn on the part of the Indians.

Signed (The mark of James Waye).

(32) MINUTES OF A COUNCELL HELD APRIL 10TH, 1685, AND OF A CONFERENCE HELD APRIL 16TH. WITH THE SINICO AND PASCATTAWAY INDIANS TOGETHER WITH THE ARTICLES OF PEACE AND FRIENDSHIP THEN AGREED UPON

** 4 pp. large folio, very closely and neatly written. Endorsed at the foot of the fourth page (upside down), "Apr. 1685 INDIAN TREATY." This is doubtless the copy of the minutes prepared for the use of Lord Baltimore, who was not present.

This treaty does not seem to be recorded by Winsor in Narrative and Critical History, nor in any histories of Maryland.

The Councill was held at the Ridge at the house of Col. Thomas Taylor, on April 10th, 1685.

A letter was read from Col. Wells stating that representatives of the Sinico and Pascattaway Indians had waited on him and desired an immediate conference in order to "renew their League with the Christians." Col. Wells urges the Councill, for the peace and safety of the province, to summon the Indians to a conference forthwith. The Indians were accordingly invited to attend on April 13th, at the house of Col. Wells. On April 16th the conference was resumed, when the Indians expressed their desire "to renew or establish their league or peace formerly made, and accordingly were ready to discourse of that matter and to confirme what they said by these presents (vitz)." Then follow the 16 articles proposed by the Indians which were duly accepted by the English Commissioners, who made a long and friendly address to the Indians in reply. Numerous presents were exchanged.

- (33) CONTEMPORARY EXTRACTS FROM THE JOURNAL OF THE COMMITTEE OF TRADE AND PLANTATIONS. Sept. 2-October 8 and 17, 1695. Certified true copies by Edward Southwell (Clerk to the Committee)

** 3 pp. folio, with endorsement on the fourth page: "Sepr. 2 : Octor. 8 and 17, 1685. Extracts of the Journals of the Committee for Trade & plantations abt. Ld. Baltimore and Mr. Penn."

This is doubtless the official copy furnished to Lord Baltimore for his information.

- (34) (ORDER IN COUNCIL) AT THE COURTS OF WHITEHALL THE 13TH OF NOV. 1685

** 2 pp. folio, with endorsement on the fly-leaf: "Novr. 13, 1685, Order of Council for dividing the Isthmus of Land between the Bay of Delaware and the Bay of Chesapeacke."

This is doubtless the official copy served on Lord Baltimore giving him notice of the terms of the Order in Council.

- (35) ORDERS IN COUNCIL AT THE COURT OF ST. JAMES'S, 9th January, 1708, 27th January, 1708, 16th April, 1709, 19th May, 1709, and 23rd June, 1709, relating to the boundaries between Maryland and Pennsylvania

** 3 pp. folio, with endorsement on the fourth page. This is presumably the official document served on Lord Baltimore giving him notice of the council's decision.

- (36) A PLOTT (i.e. Sketch Map) OF YE HEAD OF CHESEPEAK BAY AND PARTS ADJACENT

\*\* A most interesting and important MS. sketch map relating to the disputed boundary between Maryland and Pennsylvania. One sheet folio (size  $8\frac{1}{4}$  in. by  $12\frac{3}{4}$  in.). The map occupies the upper half of the sheet whilst below is a short unsigned letter (evidently to Lord Baltimore), beneath which is an explanation of the lettered references on the map. The letter reads :

My Lord. The last hand not being as yet put to ye improved Map intended for yr Lordships better information, ye above is humbly presented for yr present satisfaction and alltho it may not be exact to a nicety, yet may it serve to give an Idea of these affaires.

The map contains 18 references lettered A to N and a, d, e, g and h corresponding to the explanations below. The map shows by dotted lines the various positions of the disputed 40th degree of N. Latitude as determined by sundry surveyors at different times. The date is probably about 1725.

* Three sheets obl. folio (21 in. by 15 in.), stabbed and sealed together with a silk ribbon, with certificate in the handwriting of Benedict Leonard Calvert, Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland stating that the deponent Philemon Lloyd came before him at Annapolis, March 11th, 1728, and made oath to the truth of his above written deposition. This is signed by Benedict Leonard Calvert. Attached to the silk tape is the great seal of Maryland (3½ in. diam.), in excellent condition.

- (38) DEPOSITION OF PHILEMON LLOYD, DEPUTY SECRETARY AND KEEPER OF THE LAND RECORDS OF MARYLAND, certifying that the five transcripts (annexed) of five severall Letters Patent heretofore Granted by the Lords Proprietors of Maryland to the undernamed persons are true copies from the Records.

* Six sheets obl. folio (21 in. by 14½ in.), stabbed and sealed together with a silk ribbon. At the bottom of the front sheet is the certificate in the handwriting of Benedict Leonard, Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Maryland, stating that the deponent Philemon Lloyd came before him at Annapolis, April 10th, 1728, and made oath to the truth of the above written deposition. This is signed by Benedict Leonard Calvert, and attached to the silk binding tape is the great seal of Maryland (3½ in. diam.), in excellent condition.

LOT 433—continued.

- (39) DEPOSITION OF PHILEMON LLOYD, DEPUTY SECRETARY AND KEEPER OF THE LAND RECORDS OF MARYLAND, certifying to the accuracy of the transcript annexed, being Cecil Lord Baltimore's grant in 1672 of transfer from Henry Smith to Francis Jenkins of 600 acres called Pershore, on the west side of a creek known by the name of Whorekill, part of Smith's warrant of 2190 acres in 1649. With evidence that all the houses erected at Pershore, including that of F. Jenkins were burned by Lord Baltimore's officers shortly before 1678 to prevent the Dutch from settling at the place then called Whorekill, now Lewis Town

** Signed by Philemon Lloyd and countersigned and attested by by Benedict Leonard Calvert, Annapolis, April 6th, 1728. Two large folio sheets with the great seal of Maryland (broken) attached.

- (40) ENGRAVED PORTRAIT OF CECILIUS SECOND LORD BALTIMORE. EFFIGIES ILLUSTRISSIMI DNI COECILII CALVERT, BARONIS BALTEMORE DE BALTEMORE IN REGNO HIBERNIAE: ABSOLUTI DNI ET PROPRIETarii PROVINCIARUM TERRAE-MARIAE ET AVALONIAE IN AMERICA, ETC. Abra: Blotling, sculp.

\*\* Size of portrait 9 in. by 6 $\frac{3}{4}$  in., with the Baltimore Arms and inscription below, clear margin all round, size over all 11 in. by 6 $\frac{3}{4}$  in., fine impression, VERY RARE.

This portrait was engraved in London by Abraham Blooteling in 1657 when Cecilius Calvert, second Lord Baltimore was 51 years of age. The plate bears no imprint, so was without doubt a private one.

Cecilius Calvert was the eldest son of George Calvert, first Baron Baltimore. He was named after Robert Cecil, Earl of Shaftesbury, his father's patron, and became first Proprietary of Maryland upon the issue of the charter in 1632, shortly after the death of George Calvert who was the true founder of the colony.

 This refers to the defeat of Gen. Gates at Camden, 16 Aug. 1780
- 460 COBDEN (Richard) Two A. L. s. in all 12 pp. 4to and 8vo, Midhurst,
Dec. 1861, to Henry Catt (afterwards Hy. Willett) :
 Fine letters in answer to an invitation to speak at a meeting condemnatory of a war with America; saying he is still too ill to speak but setting out his ideas and reasoning on the subject.
- BRIGHT (John) Two A. L. s. and one pencil note  $5\frac{1}{2}$  pp. 8vo,
Rochdale, Dec. 1870, to Henry Willett, declining an offer to go
 with him to America :
 It is a grievous thing that there is any cause of ill-feeling between Old England, and the England of the Western World.
 with three others (8)

* * Letters of very great interest in reference to America.

- 461 SOTHEBY'S. SAMUEL BAKER, the founder of Sotheby & Co. in 1744. A long and most interesting a/c for Books supplied to Sir John Evelyn, Bt., the builder of the library of Wotton :
Affords an interesting comparison of prices, Mons Voltaire's "La Henriade" 2/-. The Art of Knowing Women is 1/6. Collins on Ridicule is 1/-, Seymour on Marriage is 1/-, while "Religious advice to a daughter" costs 2/-.
- PAYNE (Thomas) "Honest Tom Payne," another long a/c for books sold to Sir John Evelyn, in 1752 :
Payne's bookshop near St. Martin's Church was the favourite place of resort for the literati of the day, & became known as the Literary Coffeehouse. (D.N.B.).
And an Order from "Your Humble Servants, Baker & Leigh." (3)
- 462 LITERARY, ARTISTIC, ETC. A L. s. by Agnes Strickland, Charlotte M. Younge, Harriet Martineau, Tom Hood (amusing letter), Barham, Lewis, John Ruskin, Leighton, Landseer, and many others ; and a large number of franks and signatures (in 4to leather bound album, with lock and key, and lettered autographs) 1 vol.
- 463 AUTOGRAPH LETTERS. A Collection, in leather covered 4to album, including a L. s. from Sydney Smith, William Wilberforce, a collection of Bishops and Archbishops, and various early Documents, the Earl of Rochester, 1679 ; and other interesting items 1 vol.
- 464 A SCRAP BOOK. Containing a very large number of A. L. from Robert Lowe (Viscount Sherbrooke) of great political interest 1 vol.
- 465 A PARCEL OF EARLY DOCUMENTS. Signed by the Earl of Rochester, 1640 and the Earl of Essex ; Sir Benjamin Rudyard's Speech in the House of Commons, 1640 ; "The Commission about Capt. Burkyes Execution," 1647 ; Secret Service papers ; etc. a parcel
- 466 EAST INDIA COMPANY. A large folio vol. containing in great detail the account for various districts, showing the receipts and payments for the year 1789. The total receipts seem to be divided into 50% Inhabitants Share, and 50% Government Share, and the allowances deducted include Washermen 150 rupees, Shaving Barber 100 rupees, Shoe Maker 100 rupees, while for Arrack 600 rupees, and Ghee 300 rupees 1 vol.
- 467 PONSONBY (Col. H. F.) and QUEEN VICTORIA, 1870, A L. s. 4 pp. 4to, referring to the removal of Knightsbridge Barracks, etc. ; an indignant letter to the Chancellor of the Exchequer complaining of Her Majesty not being given proper time for consideration, and two Telegrams giving consent (3)

The Property of James D. A. L. Thomson, Esq.,
of Dumfries.

- 468 BURNS (Robert) AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT SONG, 2 pp. large folio
"Fareweel, fareweel, my bony lass!"
10 stanzas of four lines each; at the beginning and end are a few lines of comment:

This song may possibly be a contemptible performance in the scientific eyes of the Literati, but to me it has great merit as the honest effusion of a poetic though rustic heart . . . The foregoing song is, as far as I can recollect, the composition of an illiterate Millwright, about thirty or forty years ago, somewhere in Ayrshire.

framed and glazed so as to display both sides, slightly repaired at the folds

* * * A FINE BURNS MANUSCRIPT.

- 469 BURNS (R.) A fine A. L. s. 2½ pp. 4to, with autograph address, Monday evening, n. d. to John Syme, Esqre. of the Stamp Office:

You know that among your other dignities you are my supreme court of judicature, from which there is no appeal. I enclose you a song which I composed since I saw you; and am going to give you the history of it.

Goes on to talk in glowing terms of the Oswald family and particularly of Mrs. Oswald "that incomparable woman." He had thought of sending the poem to Mrs. Oswald "but on reflection perhaps from the wellknown character of Poverty and Poetry, what I would offer as the honest incense of genuine esteem and grateful respect might be construed into some modification of that servility which my soul abhors."

seal hole repaired, framed and glazed so as to display both sides

- 470 BURNS (R.) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, Isle, 22 January, 1788, to Mr. Morrison Wright of Mochline with regards to the new house in which he is to move into at Ellisland:

Necessity obliges me to go into my new house, even before it be plastered. I will inhabit the one end until the other is finished . . . If ever you hope to find rest in future states of untried being; get these matters of mine ready. My servant will be out in the beginning of next week for the Clock.

framed and glazed so as to display both sides

* * * From the Phillipps Collection.

- 471 SCOTT (Sir Walter) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, with autograph address, Edinburgh, 28th May, to Robert Bell :

My dear young friend, I cannot but be much flattered by the approbation which you so kindly confer upon me . . . Youth is generally the season when poetry, if at all adapted, to strike the imagination, makes the most deep impression. I have only to fear that a few years' more experience may deprive me of my admirer, or at least make him ashamed of his preference and predilection for the Gothic Muse.

seal hole repaired ; a small slip of the blank page is missing, framed and glazed so as to display both sides

- The Governor of Reading . . . was a 'mulberry-faced Dictator' . . . he did not, could not have had a yellow face of Doom . . . By 'Caiaphas' I do not mean the present chaplain of Reading—he is a goodnatured fool . . . I will change one word so as to avoid being misunderstood. I will put "while some coarse-mouthed Doctor," etc. that fitly describes the Type of prison-doctor in England. As a class they are brutes . . . I suppose America is a foolish dream as far as buying my poem goes . . . For four days I have had no cigarettes—no money to buy them—or note-paper.

 . . . I should do wrong if I forbore to add that inexperience and precipitation are manifest in it, and that I hope you will some day write a very much better story.
- 683 HARDY (Thomas) Fine A. Pc. s. (initials), Max Gate, 15.11.'05 :
 "Little Hintock" was, I think, supposed to lie amid the woodlands under High Stoy & Dogbury Hill—between Glanville's Woolton & Melbury Babb. I could not exactly say where . . . Melbury Osmund was, I believe, called "King's Hintock" village. But the books were written many years ago.
- 684 HARDY (T.) A. Pc. Max Gate, Aug. 16, 1907 :
 "The melancholy Hussar" is largely founded on fact. The Bincombe Register of Burials (kept at Broadway Rectory) contains the entries quoted in the story. The deserters were buried at the back of the churchyard, but there is no stone . . .
- 685 HARDY (T.) A. L. s.  $\frac{3}{4}$  p. 8vo, Max Gate, April 15, 1909, concerning the Church, he has been away in London, with addressed envelope (2)

Truth of Intercourse along with many of my earlier papers was republished under the Title "Virginibus Puerisque" and may still be had of Messrs. Chatto & Windus. Other papers there are many, scattered too in many different places; some day these also, or the best of them, will be collected; but in the meanwhile I should find it hard to make a list . . . I am pleased to hear that you have found pleasure in my work . . . It would be an unworthy affectation to pretend that I was not pleased. (2)
- 690 Shaw (Bernard) Auto. Comments on the plan for a combination strike and boycott suggested by the Labour Party, signed in full, Ayot St. Lawrence, 25/12/18, pithy comments at the end of each paragraph of suggestions, amounting to some dozen lines of writing, on 2 pp. 4to typescript, with auto. addressed envelope (2)
