The earliest printed Bible, and, almost, if not, the earliest piece of European type-printing; it is generally, though not conclusively, ascribed to Gutenberg. Many English bibliographers regard it as more probably the work of Gutenberg's former partner, Johann Fust, and Fust's son-in-law, Peter Schoeffer.

The Bible is known variously as the Gutenberg Bible, from its supposed printer; the 42-line Bible, to distinguish it from the later 36-line Bible, also ascribed to Gutenberg; and, the Mazarin Bible, from the first recognised copy having been discovered in the library of Cardinal Mazarin.

There are no means of definitely fixing a date for the printing of this Bible; the copy in the Bibliothèque Nationale of Paris, has, however, a manuscript note in which Henricus Cremer, Vicar of St. Stephen's at Mainz, states that he finished rubricating and binding it on 24th August, 1456. Copies must naturally have been on sale for some time before this date. The still earlier date of 1453 is written on leaf 324b of a copy in the Buchgewerbe museum at Leipzig; it is however doubtful whether this refers to the date of printing.

Haebler, probably the most expert authority on the subject of Incunabula, gives a clear bibliographical outline of the works from which his Original Leaves were taken, and adds interesting and all-important details on the influence of the various printers one on the other; mentioning similar "cuts of types" used in different presses.

In Part I, 110 Original German Incunabula Leaves were chosen from some of the most beautiful and epoch-making books issued by the famous presses of Augsburg, Bamberg, Basle, Blaubeuren, Cologne, Esslingen, Freiburg, Hagenau, Heidelberg, Mainz, Meissen, Memmingen, Nuremberg, Passau, Reutlingen, Speier, Strassburg, Tuebingen, Ulm and Wuerzburg.

In Part II, the 110 Original Leaves are specimens from some of the world-known Italian Incunabula issued by the famous presses in Bologna, Brescia, Cremona, Ferrara, Florence, Milan, Mantova, Naples, Padova, Parma, Pavia, Reggio d'Emilio, Rome, Treviso, Venice, Verona and Vicenza.

In Part III, the shortest but not the least interesting of the series, because of the extreme rarity of some of its specimens, includes 60 Original Incunabula Leaves (one being a beautiful genuine Caxton), taken from some of the rarest and most famous books printed in Netherlands: (Antwerp, Delft, Deventer, Louvain, Utrecht and Zwolle); France: (Lyons, Paris, Rouen, Poitiers, Toulouse and Vienne); Spain and Portugal: (Burgos, Lisbon, Seville, Toledo and Valencia); London and Westminster.

Each original Leaf is nicely mounted, with an explanatory label. Only 100 copies were issued of the English Edition, and but one or two sets remain.

It is most interesting to note that Haebler's Collection of Incunabula Leaves, though of an important chronological and historical interest, is even more an attempt at illustrating the Progress, Art and Perfection, attained and surpassed, of the first Printers, than to form what might be called a specimen-album of famous books issued during the fifteenth century.

FIRST EDITION OF THE FIRST BIBLIOGRAPHY OF AMERICA AND THE EAST.

[334] LEON PINELO (Antonio de). EPITOME DE LA BIBLIOTECA ORIENTAL Y OCCIDENTAL, nautica y geografica. *With finely engraved title.*FIRST EDITION. 4to. Morocco. Madrid, 1629. £85Medina, Vol. VI., No. 7707, devotes seven pages to this work. Sabin, No. 40050. See Wagner, The Spanish South-West, p. 285.

Very fine copy of the first edition, which is now excessively rare, of the first American Bibliography which was ever printed. Most copies want the engraved frontispiece, which is in this copy.

This work is extremely important for American bibliographers, and is generally cited under the name of Pinelo, which was a surname adopted by Antonio de Leon named "The Chronicler of the Indies."

The author was born in Peru, and educated at Lima. He wrote many important works which for the most part only exist in manuscript.

"The circumstances of the early life of Antonio de Leon Pinelo are still obscure. Available sources offer very little definite information; but it is inferred from statements in his 'Life of Santo Toribio' that his childhood and youth were passed in Lima, and that with his younger brothers, Juan and Diego, he studied at the University of San Marcos. Having completed his studies at the University, he went to Spain; there his talents in learning were recognised, and he was appointed relator to the Council of the Indies."—(Dr. Moses, "Spanish Colonial Literature in South America").

2,000 pp., 3 vols., large 4to. Cloth, gilt Arms on sides. London, Maggs Bros., 1929—32.

A limited edition only of 650 copies of which Vol. I (1489-1539) and Vol. II. (1540-1569) are now ready. Vol. III is in preparation.

The work gives for the first time a complete survey of Portuguese book decoration, woodcuts, and typography, in the sixteenth century, and as such will prove to be an indispensable bibliography for every Public Library, while, at the same time, owing to the richness of the illustrative material reproduced, it will necessarily find a place in every Museum of Fine Arts, and in every Print Department.

All the principal printers of Portugal of the sixteenth century are well represented besides some characteristic examples of fifteenth-century work. The period in which the books fall is 1489-1600 inclusive. The collection is rich in unique items which are fully described for the first time. The descriptions are ample and full of information both historical and literary; the collations are full, and indices (of printers, towns, authors, and titles) will be added.

known as the Bible of the House of Alba, is now published for the first time. The work of translation was undertaken in 1422 at the request of Don Luis Guzman, Lord of Agaba and Grand Master of the Military Order of Calatrava, by the learned Rabbi Moses Arragel of Guadalfajara. For many years the Manuscript was in the keeping of the Inquisition, who in 1620 presented it to that powerful Minister of Philip IV, the Conde Duque de Olivares, as a token of gratitude for the favours they had received from his father, the Spanish Ambassador in Rome. Finally, it came into the possession of the Family of Alba in 1688.

The remarkable manuscript described in this volume is an Egyptian hieratic papyrus dating from the Twentieth Egyptian Dynasty (circa 1160 B.C.) which contains a story of the Contendings of Horus and Seth, a mythological narrative of a nature hitherto quite unknown, as well as the most perfectly preserved and intelligible Egyptian love-songs yet discovered, an Encomium of the Pharaoh Ramesses V, and some miscellaneous business jottings. This volume consists of 31 collotype plates on the scale of the original and 30 line plates of transcription into hieroglyphic executed by Emery Walker, Ltd., with translations and descriptive letterpress.

4to. Leather. London, 1929. £9 9s

The significance of the Islamic book in its many aspects, calligraphy, miniatures, illumination, ornamentation, binding and so forth has long ago been established. It must be recognised nevertheless that publications dealing with this subject have been either general works on Islamic art, or else when they have dealt with the Islamic book the authors have been compelled to omit the early period before the thirteenth century on account of the small amount of material at their disposal. This difficulty was marked particularly in the case of Islamic illumination because the earliest known miniatures can rarely be dated earlier than the thirteenth century.

Examples of illumination of an earlier period have been brought to light only comparatively recently by discoveries of papyri in Egypt. It has been the special endeavour of Professor A. Grohmann in the University of Prague, as it were, to rediscover them here and to bring them together in a definite synthesis.

[1366] RICCI (Seymour de). A BIBLIOGRAPHY OF SHELLEY'S LETTERS published and unpublished.

296 pp., royal 8vo. Cloth. Privately Printed, 1927. £3 3s

The recent edition of Shelley's letters by Mr. Roger Ingpen, in the Julian Shelley, gives no information as to the history of each letter, the collectors past and present in whose hands it has been, the prices it has brought in sales, the places where it has been published.

Mr. Seymour de Ricci's book, uniform in size with the Julian Shelley, is an attempt to fill that lacuna.

With the assistance of many fellow-workers, such as Mr. Ingpen himself and Mr. T. J. Wise, he has traced over six hundred letters, including a number of unpublished pieces, the text of which appears for the first time either here or in the Julian Shelley.

Mr. de Ricci's invaluable contribution to the study of one of England's favourite authors is a handbook no student, collector or librarian can afford to do without.

"AN OUTSTANDING MASTERPIECE OF AMERICAN PRINTING."

Royal 8vo. Half bound. New York (privately printed for the Grolier Club), 1927. £50

It is doubtful whether any other publication of the Grolier Club has been more carefully planned or more beautifully produced than this.

The translation and preparation of the text have been done by George B. Ives, the well-known editor and translator of Montaigne's Essays and of Bernard's Life of Tory. The book has been designed, and seen through the press of William Edwin Rudge, by Bruce Rogers.

The volume is a tall quarto (8½ by 12¼ inches) of 230 pages, printed from the Centaur type designed by Mr. Rogers. The edition consists of three hundred and ninety copies on American woven rag paper. It is bound in half parchment, lettered in gold, the sides covered with a paper in a diaper pattern of alternating fleurs-de-lys and thistles, designed for the book by Mr. Rogers. The general arrangement of the type pages follows that of the original edition of 1529, but no attempt has been made to reproduce Tory's typography exactly. Tory's marginal notations have been replaced in this edition by short explanatory notes by Mr. Ives, who has also contributed sixteen pages of commentary, which are printed at the end of the volume. Tory's own "Tables" at the beginning of the book serve as an Index, the entries having been translated and numbered to accord with the pagination of the present edition.

J. M. W. TURNER.

[1460] LIBER STUDIORUM. The Complete Set of 71 engravings of Architectural, Pastoral, Marine, Mountainous, and Historical Subjects. Designed and etched by J. M. W. Turner, and engraved in mezzotint under his personal supervision by Lewis, Charles Turner, Wm. Say, Lupton, and S. W. Reynolds. All fine impressions.

Oblong folio. Full morocco gilt, g. e. 1807-19.

The Liber Studiorum was designed and carried out by Turner in the early-middle period of his career, its publication ranging from 1807, when he was thirty-two, in 1819, when he was forty-four—these twelve years coinciding pretty nearly with what is generally known as his "second manner" in Art.

In the year of its inception, Turner's position as the first English landscape-painter of his day was assured, and this series of plates Turner regarded as his magnum opus.

The Liber Studiorum of Turner was designed from the first as a series, not of sketches, but of fully-finished pictures, which were to illustrate his whole range of powers, and to embrace every kind of subject of which he considered himself master. Projected therefore with this aim, the groundwork of every plate was the work of his own hand, and each after-stage entrusted to the best engravers of his day over whom he kept strictest supervision. It is not surprising that the Liber Veritatis was utterly distanced, and that the Liber Studiorum, produced during twelve years of Turner's life in which many of his strongest, although not his most imaginative, pictures appeared, came forth a truly monumental work, taking rank with the highest expressions of his genius.

IN AN ELABORATE JEWELLED BINDING.

Royal 8vo. London, 1837.

Central panels of an ornamental shape, sunk slightly below the surface, afford recesses for the introduction of jewels. In the decoration of this binding are used 39 stones and 420 coloured leather inlays. The stones comprise:—

sixteenth centuries, collected by the late A. Claudin, the well known historian of French printing, with introduction and bibliographical letterpress, by Seymour de Ricci.

It will prove a most useful companion to Claudin's great book on the Paris and Lyons presses. The provincial French printers, so little known to bibliographers, are very fully represented, such as Limoges, Poitiers, Toulouse, etc.

A great many of the reproductions are from unique books in small French libraries, and would be unobtainable in any other form.

It is also a valuable contribution to the history of engraving.

No library, no museum, no collector of incunabula, can afford to be without it.

"This Specimen Book was originally designed for ourselves as a guide to the type faces and typographical ornaments in current use in our own printing-office. As the work proceeded, however, it became so interesting to the compiler, who saw in it something of a conspectus of modern printing tendencies, that we decided to print a few extra copies for friends of the Press. Later, when the pages of vignettes and ornaments were added, forming a unique collection of work by contemporary artists specially drawn for the Curwen Press, and probably unrivalled in any other English printing-office, we were persuaded to go a step farther and to issue a limited edition to the public."
