Conditions of Sale.

1.—The highest approved bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the lot in dispute to be put up again and resold or the dispute settled at the discretion of the Auctioneer, whose decision shall be final. The vendor or vendors reserve to themselves the right to bid either personally or by their agent.

2.—No person to advance less than 1s., at each bidding under two pounds; above two pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion, or as named by the Auctioneer, who reserves the right to refuse the bidding of any person.

3.—Each buyer to pay five shillings in the pound, or such sum as the Auctioneer shall name, in part payment for each lot, such deposit to be applicable to any lot purchased, and to give in their name and address if the clerk requires it; in default of which all lots (previously purchased) will be immediately put up again and re-sold.

4.—The Vendors do not, nor do Messrs. Steans, guarantee or hold themselves responsible for the correct description or condition of any lot or lots offered for sale, but they are to be paid for and taken away with all faults and errors of every kind at the purchaser's expense. before 1 o'clock on Saturday following. The deposit-money in no case will be allowed to any purchaser until the whole of the lots bought by him or her are paid for.

5.—The Auctioneers will not hold themselves responsible for any action that may arise, acting solely as agents between buyer and seller, and for both equitably.

6.—The Auctioneers' selling book as corrected and initialled prior to Sale to be held as correct catalogue of Sale. Corrections (if any) will be notified at the time of Sale.

7.—All lots not cleared away by 1 o'clock on SATURDAY following will remain at the sole risk of the purchaser, and any damage or deficiencies that there may be then the purchaser must abide by.

8.—Upon failure of complying with the above conditions the deposit-money shall be forfeited, the Auctioneer to be entitled to re-sell such lot or lots by public or private sale, without notice to the purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) occasioned by such sale, together with all charges attending the same, to be made good by the defaulter or defaulters at the sale. This condition is without prejudice to the right of the vendor or vendors, or the Auctioneers as Agents, to enforce the contract made at this Sale, if they think fit, and the entry of the clerk in the sale books verified by the Auctioneers shall be deemed full and sufficient evidence of such contract, and be binding alike upon vendor and purchaser.

9.—All damage done either to the premises or to other purchasers' lots must be made good by the purchaser by whom the damage is done, and his lot or lots will be retained until such damage is made good, without prejudice to any action for damages the vendors may elect to take against such purchaser.

10.—All lots not taken away on the Saturday following, whether paid for or not, will be chargeable with Porterage and Wareroom, at 6d. per lot per day on small lots, rising to 5s. per day, which will be strictly enforced in all cases.
