CONDITIONS OF SALE.

First.—The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if an objection arise between two or more bidders, the lot in dispute to be again and resold at the discretion of the auctioneer, the auctioneer's decision to be final. The auctioneer reserves the right to make any alteration in the catalogue.

Second.—No person to advance less than one shilling, £2, two shillings and sixpence; and so on in proportion. The auctioneer shall decide. The auctioneer may, in his discretion, refuse to accept the bidding of any person.

Third.—In the case of any lot on which there is a reserve price, the auctioneers shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Vendor.

Fourth.—Each purchaser is at the time of purchase to state his name and address, and pay a deposit of five shillings (or one pound in part payment or the whole of the purchase-money, as required), in default of which the lot purchased may be again and resold at the discretion of the auctioneer.

Fifth.—The auctioneer is not responsible for the description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or for any default or defect in, any lot, and gives no warranty, expressed or implied, and no compensation is payable in respect to any such matters.

Sixth.—Each Lot shall be at the purchaser's risk from the fall of the hammer, and shall be taken away in full, and taken away with all faults and errors of description, and neither the Vendor nor Stevens' Rooms Ltd., shall be liable for any damage to the lot or loss from whatever cause arising. The Purchaser shall pay a storage charge of 1/- per Lot per day for any lot not taken away within two days after the Sale.

Lastly.—Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited shall be forfeited; any lot remaining unsold may be resold by public or private sale, and the proceeds (if any) attending such re-sale, together with all expenses and charges, shall be paid by the defaulter.

NO LOTS WILL BE TRANSFERRED.

The Clerk of the Sale has authority to refuse to accept any bid.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

First.—The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any arise between two or more bidders the lot in dispute to be again and resold at the discretion of the auctioneer; the auctioneer's decision to be final. The auctioneer reserves the right to make any alteration in the catalogue.

Second.—No person to advance less than one shilling or £2, two shillings and sixpence; and so on in proportion. The auctioneer shall decide. The auctioneer may, in his discretion, refuse to accept the bidding of any person.

Third.—In the case of any lot on which there is a reserve price, the auctioneers shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Vendor.

Fourth.—Each purchaser is at the time of purchase to state his name and address, and pay a deposit of five shillings or one pound in part payment or the whole of the purchase price (as required), in default of which the lot purchased may be again and resold at the discretion of the auctioneer.

Fifth.—The auctioneer is not responsible for the description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or for any default or defect in, any lot, and gives no warranty, written or expressed or implied, and no compensation payable in respect to any such matters.

Sixth.—Each Lot shall be at the purchaser's risk from the fall of the hammer, and shall be taken away in full, and taken away with all faults and errors of description, and neither the Vendor nor Stevens's Rooms Ltd., shall be liable for any damage to the lot or loss from whatever cause arising. The Purchaser shall pay a storage charge of 1/- per Lot per day for any lot not taken away within two days after the Sale.

Lastly.—Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited shall be forfeited; any lot remaining unsold may be resold by public or private sale, and the proceeds (if any) attending such re-sale, together with all expenses and charges, shall be paid by the defaulter.

NO LOTS WILL BE TRANSFERRED.

The Clerk of the Sale has authority to refuse to accept any lot.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

First.—The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders the lot in dispute to be put up again and resold at the discretion of the auctioneer. The auctioneer's decision to be final. The auctioneer reserves the right to make any alteration in the catalogue.

Second.—No person to advance less than one shilling ; above £2, two shillings and sixpence ; and so on in proportion as the auctioneer shall decide. The auctioneer may, in his discretion, refuse to accept the bidding of any person.

Third.—In the case of any lot on which there is a reserve the auctioneers shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Vendor.

Fourth.—Each purchaser is at the time of purchase to give in his name and address, and pay a deposit of five shillings in the pound in part payment or the whole of the purchase-money (if required), in default of which the lot purchased may be put up again and resold at the discretion of the auctioneer.

Fifth.—The auctioneer is not responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or for any default or defect in, any lot, and gives no warranty whatever, expressed or implied, and no compensation shall be payable in respect to any such matters.

Sixth.—Each Lot shall be at the purchaser's risk in all respects from the fall of the hammer, and shall be paid for in full, and taken away with all faults and errors of every description, and neither the Vendor nor Stevens's Auction Rooms Ltd., shall be liable for any damage to the same, or loss from whatever cause arising. The Purchaser shall pay a storage charge of 1/- per Lot per day for any lot not taken away within two days after the Sale.

Lastly.—Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited shall be forfeited ; any lot remaining uncleared may be resold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale, together with all incidental expenses and charges, shall be paid by the defaulter.
