CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the Auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds, 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Seller.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and resold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. Sotheby, Wilkinson & Hodge will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of One Week after the conclusion of the sale the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. Sotheby, Wilkinson & Hodge will have the option of reselling the lots uncleared either by public or private sale without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed: but if upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are returned within One Week after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates, or blank leaves or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the reselling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

- 662 HORÆ BEATÆ MARÆ VIRGINIS AD USUM ROMANUM [OFFICIA] (sine Calendario), ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (145 ll. 7 by 4 $\frac{3}{4}$  in.) written in gothic letter, red and black, long lines, 19 to a full page, by a French scribe and illuminator, 12 FINE FULL-PAGE PAINTED AND ILLUMINATED MINIATURES, within rich floreate borders, 12 pp. with similar rich borders, 12 fine small figures of saints, numerous ornamental initials with marginal decorations, and other decorative details, old French olive morocco (18th cent.) gilt floreate back, and ornamental panel sides, with monogram A. A. and arms in centres, g. e. 8vo. SÆC. XV

* * * The first four miniatures in this MS. as well as the text (of the Annunciation) are by a different (and far superior) artist and scribe, from those in the body of the book. These four miniatures comprise (1) a full-page Coat of the Royal Arms of France (Valois) surrounded by the Order of St. Michael, helmeted, mantled and crowned, with two porcupines as supporters; (2) on the reverse of the former a figure of the King crowned in ermine robes kneeling before a prie dieu in a cloister; opposite (3) is a miniature of the Annunciation, and (4) The King again kneeling in an interior beneath a canopy with a gorgeous screen, crowned and ermined. The text of the Annunciation, which occupies 2 pp., is written in lettres bâtarde. These four miniatures do not belong to the principal MS. but probably formed part of a superior Book of Hours executed for Louis XII of France, as indicated by the porcupine supporters of the coat-of-arms. The miniatures in the body of the MS. are of an inferior character, and some are slightly damaged.
