Auctioneers of Literary Property & Works illustrative of the Fine Arts.

AT THEIR LARGE GALLERIES, 34 & 35, NEW BOND STREET, W. (1)

On MONDAY, the 26th day of JUNE, 1933, and Four following Days,
AT ONE O'CLOCK PRECISELY.

On View Four Days prior. Catalogues may be had.
Illustrated Catalogues (7 Plates in Colour and 16 in Monochrome), Price 7s. 6d.

Printed by J. Davy & Sons, Ltd., 8-9, Frith Street, W.1, England.

CONDITIONS OF FIRST DAY'S SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right of the seller or his agent to bid, or else to impose a reserve.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and, if required, to pay down 10s. in the pound in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If at the expiration of one week after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are received back within Fourteen Days after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm holes, stained, or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. are prepared to advise intending purchasers, as far as possible, and will execute bids on their behalf, free of charge. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

FOREWORD.

"THERE is no excuse," the late Lord Rosebery once remarked in a public speech, "for any man who has not his own private collection of books. I appeal," he went on, "to every person in this assembly to say whether his own little shelf of books, even if it be merely a shelf, is not infinitely dearer to him than the whole collection of the British Museum."

In spite of the word "collection" in this admirable sentiment, it is, perhaps hardly fair to describe the speaker as, in the modern sense, a collector at all. To his mind the accumulation of books was, for any educated person, quite natural and inevitable: valuable books if, as in his own case, means allowed; but in any case books. It is possibly because his library was, to him, such a personal and everyday matter that its formation, which might have been claimed for many men as a major achievement, is passed over almost in silence by the chroniclers of his more spectacular activities. Yet the choice of books has in it much of interest to the biographer in the light which it throws upon the owner's enquiring and distinguished mind. That the incidence of death duties and heavy taxation render the dispersal of the collection inevitable is a matter of lasting regret to the present possessor.

It is possible, in some degree, to trace through the Library the principal aspects of Lord Rosebery's career. The owner of three Derby winners and great lover of thoroughbred horses is represented by the considerable collection of works on horses, horsemanship and sport, occupying the whole of the first day's sale, and including, with many earlier rarities, a beautiful set of Herring's Winners of the St. Leger from 1815, now excessively rare. Manuscripts of the elder and younger Pitt, of the great Duke of Wellington, and of Benjamin Disraeli bespeak the Prime Minister; Disraeli, with the holograph manuscript of Vivian Grey, appears perhaps to better advantage than the Duke with the voluminous originals of his correspondence with the remarkable Miss Jenkins. Presentation copies of works by Edward Gibbon reflect the historian; a small Gray collection, including his rare Ode on a Distant Prospect of Eton College, the devoted Etonian; a series of fine French bindings, the owner of the treasures of Mentmore. A warm historical sense is further apparent in the great number of association copies. Uninscribed books of interesting provenance are countless (the Beckford, Gosford and other great sales of the eighties were particularly drawn upon); and actual inscriptions include those of John Keats (to Leigh Hunt, in a fine Endymion); of James Boswell (to Dr. Burney, in a copy of the Life); of Charles Burney himself (presenting Sandford and Merton to Fanny); of Byron, Pope, Samuel Richardson, Swift, Wycherley, Wren.

But these and other series are no more than incidents; the essential feature of the main library is its real freedom from specialization. Lord Rosebery was a survivor in spirit of those collectors in the grand manner who took all literature for their sphere and chose or rejected without system as fancy might move them. His fastidious taste would not, indeed, normally admit a bad or imperfect copy: but he had no interest in rarity by itself, in the completion of series, or in the provision of material for bibliography: and additions to his library were controlled only by keen literary instinct, without preconceived limitations of date, subject or language. Thus we find a magnificent copy of the rare Editio Princeps of the Imitatio, in the original stamped binding, side by side with A Window in Thrums inscribed to Lord Rosebery by the author. A musical manuscript written by Rousseau faces Mr. Gladstone's pocket Dante; Milton's Poems and Paradise Lost follow the holograph original of Jane Austen's Lady Susan (the only one of her literary manuscripts, apart from one or two rough drafts, known to survive). The Classics are represented by a very fine copy of the first printed Homer; the Bible by the Huth copy of the Authorized Version, probably the finest in existence of a noble book almost always damaged by wear; Shakespeare, finally, by a set of the four Folios worthy to rank with any hitherto recorded. It is exactly eleven years since an entirely complete and perfect First Folio last came under the hammer; and during that period a large proportion of the surviving copies have passed, by bequest, permanently beyond the possibility of sale. Now, more than ever, a copy such as that here offered stands without rival as the supreme prize of all English-speaking collectors.

The present catalogue contains, as Part I, the collection of books on horses, horsemanship and sport, which will be sold on Monday, June 26th; and as Part II, the general library, which will occupy the four following days. Part III, the Napoleonic library, including holograph material of unusual interest, will appear in a separate catalogue for sale later in the Summer.

- 107 HERRING (J. F.) PORTRAITS OF THE WINNING HORSES OF THE GREAT ST. LEGER STAKES, AT DONCASTER, FROM THE YEAR 1815 TO THE PRESENT YEAR INCLUSIVE, title (with vignette), 16 pp. of text and FIFTEEN COLOURED AQUATINTS BY T. SUTHERLAND (11) AND R. G. REEVE (4) AFTER J. F. HERRING, original half roan with label (15½ in. by 10½ in.) on upper cover, reproducing the title vignette folio (23¾ in. by 17 in.) S. & J. Fuller [1829]

 The first ten of these plates were issued by Sheardown and Son, Doncaster, in 1824. Three years later they were transferred to Messrs. Fuller, who issued them in book form, retaining the dates 1815-24 on the title, though the three additional plates to 1827 were included. Afterwards a title as above was substituted and an extra plate added to each year's issue, until in 1843 a new edition appeared with the portraits divided into two series. The present issue therefore contains the thirteen plates of the First Series, with the first two of the Second.

Fourteen of the plates carry the Minerva Head stamp placed by Messrs. Fuller on subscribers' copies. The exception is the portrait of Tarrare (by Reeve after Herring) here substituted for the plate by Sutherland after Dalby which appeared in the 1827 issue.

FINE IMPRESSIONS OF THIS MAGNIFICENT SERIES OF PORTRAITS, which very rarely occurs for sale in book form. A set of the ten Sheardown plates was sold in Jan. 1905 and another in May, 1928, and a copy of the 1827 Fuller edition with thirteen portraits in July, 1918, but the only recorded copies with more than thirteen seem to be one with sixteen (but wanting title) in 1916 and one of the two series complete (46 plates) in Feb. 1903.

- 271 CONWAY (Henry Seymour), 1721-95, Field-Marshal and Commander-in-Chief, opposed American War. About 58 A. L. s. upwards of 100 pp. 4to, to his brother Lord Conway, 1744-84, containing much social, military and political news of the period, some long and interesting, 1 vol. 4to, rubbed

The following twelve lots (Nos. 272-283), contained in a red leather case, will first be offered as one lot, but if the reserve price be not realized, each lot will be sold separately as catalogued.

272 DISRAELI (B.), 1804-1881. A. L. s. 3½ pp. 4to, dated Cairo, July 20, 1831 and headed "Read this Alone," to Miss Meredith, announcing the death of her brother, W. G. Meredith

 William Meredith was probably Disraeli's closest friend, and was engaged to his sister Sarah. The two men had been travelling for more than a year when Meredith died suddenly in Cairo, the day before this letter was written. It was on this journey that Disraeli acquired that knowledge of the Near East which he afterwards used in "Tancred." The letter gives a detailed account of his friend's last illness, and concludes "I write by this post to a family [the Disraelis] to whom he was scarce less dear.—Oh! there is one member of it, my dearest Georgiana, of whom I think with unutterable anguish—but let me not speak of others—I have tried to write to your excellent father but cannot . . . Farewell, farewell! What, what is life if it lead only to such agony. Farewell! I wish that I could mingle the tears I am fast shedding with your own."

273 DISRAELI (B.) A. L. s. 3½ pp. 4to and address, dated Bradenham House, Nov. 3, '31, to the same, written just after his return to England and telling her that he has brought back her brother's papers, some of which he thinks might be published

274 DISRAELI (B.) A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, and address, dated Bradenham House, Nov. 5, 1831, to the same

275 DISRAELI (B.) A. L. s. 3¼ pp. and address, dated Bradenham House, Dec. 19, 1831, to the same, asking for a book from her brother's library as a memorial of him

276 DISRAELI (B.) A. L. s. 3 pp. 4to, and address, from Bradenham House, Saturday morn, saying that he had not given the memorial to his sister, as she had been too violently affected by Miss Meredith's letter to receive it

277 DISRAELI (B.) A. L. s. 2½ pp. 8vo, to the same, with auto. copy of the inscription on the tombstone of her brother William Meredith, who died at Cairo, July 19, 1831, "in the twenty-ninth year of a life distinguished by his talents and ennobled by his virtues"; the Passport issued to Disraeli and Meredith, Gibraltar, July 5, 1830, and another (3)

278 DISRAELI (B.) A. L. s. 4 pp. 8vo, from Bradenham House, Feb. 10, 1832, to Mrs. Meredith and thanking her for the memorial of her son which she has sent him, and promising her a Rosary "which I brought for you from Jerusalem. It is a rude but perhaps not uninteresting memento of a sacred and celebrated place!"

279 DISRAELI (B.) Report in Italian, signed by Dr. F. Gaetani on the last illness and death of William Meredith, with a note, about 1 p. folio, in Disraeli's writing, and an English translation (2)

280 DISRAELI (B.) Auto. Verses, 30 lines on 2 pp. 4to, signed, "To a beautiful mute, the eldest child of Mrs. Fairlie"

- 281 DISRAELI (B.) A. L. s. dated Dec. 1868, to the Rev. Edward Higgins, on the death of a near relative of the writer; and a Note, dated Oct. 27, 1868, referring to him (2)

 Higgins was the husband of Georgiana Meredith, to whom so many of these letters are addressed.

- 282 DISRAELI (Sarah), sister of Benjamin Disraeli. Five long A. L. s. (written in 1831) to Miss Meredith, about the travels of their two brothers, and William Meredith's death (5)

- 283 DISRAELI (Isaac), father of Benjamin Disraeli, and author of "Curiosities of Literature." Two A. L. s. 3 pp. 4to, to Miss Meredith, October, 1831, about her brother's death (2)

- 284 DISRAELI (B.) VIVIAN GREY, Auto MS. about 1000 pp. 4to, of the greater portion of this celebrated novel, the author's first work of fiction, written in 1826 when he was in his twenty-second year, bound in two volumes, full brown morocco, fully gilt backs, line sides with corner ornaments (2)

 The MS. has been wrongly bound up, the first part of the MS, numbered pp. 462-657 covering Bk III, ch. 2 to the end of Bk IV—the concluding portion of the first half of the novel—is bound at the beginning of the volume lettered vol. II. The last four books of the novel, V-VIII, numbered pp. 1-784, occupy the second half of vol. II and the whole of vol. I. There are some duplicate pages, and a very few which are not autograph; the MS. contains matter not included in any edition after the first, much having been excised when the author consented to republish. A FINE AND IMPORTANT LITERARY MANUSCRIPT.

[See ILLUSTRATION.]

- 285 THE DODINGTON PAPERS. DODINGTON (George Bubb), Baron Melcombe (1691-1762) Wit, Patron of Literature, Writer of Occasional Verses and Political Phamphleteer, PAPERS, including the notorious Diary, 1749-61, first published in 1784 and used by all writers in English political history of the period; auto. MS. in eight small paper-covered volumes, in scarlet morocco case; and Miscellaneous Papers, including Drafts of his Speeches, Papers relating to his intrigues with Frederick Prince of Wales, Letters addressed to him, Drafts of his Letters to Lord Bute and others: many of these papers relate to Ireland, a few to America; one at least has been published as an Appendix to the Diary, but the vast majority are almost certainly unpublished, in dark red morocco box

- 286 JOHNSON (Dr. Samuel) Irene, a Tragedy, a new edition, 1781; bound up with 86 pp. of MS. Notes relating to the play in the handwriting of Johnson's great friend Bennet Langton, panelled calf Svo

 These notes are a transcript by Langton of Johnson's first draft of the play, which was given by the author to Langton and by the latter to the King's Library, whence it passed to the British Museum (King's

MS. No. 306); they include the first versions of many passages in the play, a list of characters, all very disordered and haphazard—a striking example of Johnson's method, or rather lack of it.

- 287 JOHNSON (Dr. S.) His Last Prayer, Auto. MS. 2¼ pp. 8vo, Dec. 5, 1785 (he died Dec. 13), etruscan calf, padded with blanks, with two engraved portraits of Johnson, y. e.

 Bought by George Daniel from W. Upcott and described by him as a most precious and affecting memorial; subsequently in the collection of Major Ross.

[See ILLUSTRATION.]

- 288 LORRAINE. Invasion of Lorraine, 1670, Official Letters, some in cipher, addressed to the Maréchal de Créqui, who was in command of the French expeditionary force, August 1670-November 1671, by Louis XIV, Louvois, Secretary for War, Colbert, Lyonne, and other French Ministers; an important collection of original material on this episode in French history, hinged in a folio 18th Century volume, sheep

- 289 NELSON (Lord) A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, Albemarle St. Aug. 29, 1805, to the Hon George Rose, asking him to get a commissionership for his brother-in-law Thomas Bolton "although I certainly want nothing for my individual self"

- 290 NELSON (Lord) A. L. s. 2 pp. 4to, "Victory," off Plymouth, Sep. 17, 1805, to the same, ". . . the first northerly wind will carry me to Cape St. Vincent; nothing shall be wanting on my part to realize the expectation of my friends. I will try to have a motto at least it shall be my watchword Touch and Take, etc."

- 291 PITT (William), the Elder, Earl of Chatham. Seventeen A. L. s. and two A. L. about 35 pp. 4to, 1747-? 1766, to his cousin John Pitt of Encombe in Dorset, who was known as the "Great Commoner of the West," hinged, in a brown morocco 4to volume, by Rivière

 Friendly personal letters, several of which invite John Pitt to join the writer at Bath; most of them have been published in "Memorials . . . of Admiral Lord Gambier, G.C.B." 1861; an unpublished letter of Aug. 4, 1752 begs the recipient to "come and hunt prospects with me [at Stowe], and prevent me from hanging myself."

- 292 PITT (William), the Younger. Twenty-seven A. L. s. 1787-1803, about 66 pp. 4to and 4 pp. 8vo, to the Rt. Hon. George Rose, Statesman and Financier, Pitt's intimate friend and faithful follower; several of the letters are written from Walmer Castle where Pitt stayed when out of office in 1803, organizing a volunteer corps to resist the threatened French invasion, an interesting series of political and financial letters

- 292A PITT (William), the Younger. Nine A. L. s. to Lord Mornington, afterwards Marquis Wellesley, Governor-General of India, and an unsigned Memorandum, in all 58 pp. 4to and 1 p. 8vo, 1796-1804, hinged, in a brown morocco folio volume was in India, speaking of the progress of the war with France, and the French preparations for invading England; the Irish rebellion of 1798, which is ascribed to the Jacobins; Pitt's duel with Tierney, etc. They were used by Lord Rosebery in his life of Pitt—he calls them “in some respects the most interesting we have of Pitt's.”

- 293 REBELLION OF 1715. All Gentlemen who are come to ys place to serve his majy are desir'd to set their names on ys paper, & such as have been in ye army to mention ye post in wch they serv'd, Preston 9r 9th, 1 p. folio, with twenty-five signatures, including Robert Cotton and John Cotton, with endorsement on a second sheet, in a half red morocco binding

- 294 ROBINSON (John), 1727-1802, Politician. Letters and Documents addressed to him, mostly during the war of American Independence, including George III, 8 A. L. or A. L. s. one referring to Wilkes; Lord Sandwich, 4 A. L. s. one referring to naval matters; C. J. Fox, A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, n. d.; Lord North, 2 A. L. s. 5 pp. 4to; others of Lords Thurlow and Guilford, and Mr. Brummell, secret intelligence sent by Lord North to Lord Howe, 1777, etc. an interesting collection, hinged, in a folio volume, orange leather

 Robinson was North's agent in buying votes, and was very unpopular with the whig party. “Those whom he seduced from the opposition were known as ‘Robinson's rats,’ and Sheridan, when attacking bribery and its authors, retorted, in reference to shouts of ‘name, name,’ by looking fixedly at Robinson on the Treasury bench, and exclaiming ‘Yes, I could name him as soon as I could say Jack Robinson.’” (D.N.B.).

- 295 ROUSSEAU (J. J.) CHOIX DES PLUS JOLIES ARIETTES, TIRE DES OPERAS, ET OPERAS COMIQUES, MS. ON PAPER OF SONGS WITH MUSIC COPIED BY JEAN JACQUES ROUSSEAU, 228 pp. old red morocco gilt, g. e. in a green morocco slip case [Gibson Craig sale, 1887, lot 2258] 8vo (7 $\frac{3}{8}$ in. by 4 $\frac{3}{4}$ in.) n. d.

- 296 WELLINGTON (Arthur, 1st Duke of) 124 A. L. s. or A. L. (third person), Oct. 24, 1834-Feb. 22, 1851, many with envelopes, to Miss M. A. Jenkins, loosely inserted in three volumes, 4to; and the Auto. Diary of Miss Jenkins, russia, 8vo. (4)

 These letters and diary are a memorial of one of the most extraordinary of friendships, between the most celebrated man in Europe, who was 65 years of age when the correspondence started, and a beautiful young religious enthusiast, 45 years his junior.

At their first interview in November, 1851, after remaining silent for some time while she quoted Scripture to him, he seized her hand and said ardently “Oh, how I love you!” After that they met but seldom, though for years she bombarded him with interminable letters, packed with reproaches and religiosity, to which he replied occasionally in courteous notes, such as those now offered for sale. A full account of the friendship, with extracts from any of the letters, will be found in The letters of the Duke of Wellington to Miss J. 1834-51, by C. T. Herrick, 1890.

folio (16½ in. by 10¾ in.) R. BARKER, 1611

 A MAGNIFICENT COPY. It has the engraved title by C. Boel and the printed (1611) title, both of which are extremely rare, and title to the N.T. It is said that copies with the engraved title have not the printed title and vice versa. In the present copy the printed title was inserted when it was rebound by Bedford. It was taken from a smaller copy and has been remargined.

Speed's Genealogies and a folding map are bound at beginning (the lower margin of map renewed). Two or three small repairs including one of a slight defect in the N.T. title. THE GENERAL CONDITION IS EXCEPTIONALLY CLEAN AND GOOD WITH WIDE MARGINS. IT WOULD BE DIFFICULT, IF NOT IMPOSSIBLE, TO FIND A FINER COPY.

- 799 KEMPIS (THOMAS A) DE IMITATIONE CHRISTI, gothic letter, long lines, 35 lines to a page, 76 ll. initials supplied in red. In a fine contemporary blind-tooled South German (probably Bavarian) binding, the upper cover having a centre rectangle divided into four triangles by a broad St. Andrew's cross decorated with small rosettes; along the arms of the cross and the inner sides of the rectangle are impressions of one of the tools called by Goldschmidt "headed outline tools," by Weale "cusped edge stamps," and by German authorities "Kopfstempel" (cf. Goldschmidt, vol. I, p. 18; also Husung, Bucheinbände . . . zu Berlin, p. 9); the wide border, divided into eight rectangular compartments, is decorated with large and small rosettes, and tools bearing the word "Maria"; the lower cover has a frame about one inch from the edges of the boards, the central field being divided into four triangles by a St. Andrew's cross, another variety of the headed outline tool being used in the triangles to give the appearance of oak leaves; remains of two clasps, lower cover slightly wormed and back injured but on the whole in good condition with clean impressions of the tools; in a green morocco case folio (11½ in. by 8⅓ in.; 293 mm. by 205 mm.) AUGSBURG, GÜNTHER ZAINER [BEFORE 5 JUNE, 1473]

 FIRST EDITION OF THIS FAMOUS BOOK AND EXTREMELY RARE. A few slight marginal stains and the fore-margin of one leaf renewed; OTHERWISE A VERY GOOD COPY WITH WIDE MARGINS.

The DE IMITATIONE CHRISTI is very rare even in the separate state in which it is usually found; it is still more seldom preserved as in this copy with the opuscula detailed below printed in the same type. That they were issued with the Imitatio as a composite volume is shown by a slip (printed in the same type as the book) bearing a collective title; in this case this slip has been pasted on the outside of the upper cover and is consequently slightly defective. The complete contents of the volume are as follows:

- Folios* 1-37. HIERONYMUS. De viris illustribus.
Folios 38-43A. HIERONYMUS. De essencia divinitatis.
Folios 43B-53. AQUINAS. De articulis fidei.
Folios 54-82. AUGUSTINE. De anime quantitate.
Folios 83-105. AUGUSTINE. Soliloquium.
Folios 106-110. Speculum peccatoris.
Folios 111-186. A KEMPIS. DE IMITATIONE CHRISTI.
Folios 187-190. Errores Judeorum.
Folios 191-198. Probaciones Novi Testamenti.
Folios 199-207. Processus Judiciarius.
Folios 208-228. Ars moriendi.
Folios 229-236. Donatus moralisatus.

All the above are without signatures, catchwords or foliation. Initials have been supplied in red. The lower margin of a few leaves in the first tract is slightly wormed, and the last two or three leaves of the last tract are also very slightly wormed. OTHERWISE THE GENERAL CONDITION IS EXCELLENT. At the head of the first page of text is the inscription "Monrij S. Zenonis," presumably the monastery of St. Zeno, near Reichenrall in Upper Bavaria.

- 1113 SHAKESPEARE (W.) MR. WILLIAM SHAKESPEARES
 COMEDIES, HISTORIES, & TRAGEDIES. PUBLISHED ACCORDING TO THE TRUE ORIGINAL COPIES, FIRST FOLIO EDITION, A FINE
 IMPRESSION OF THE PORTRAIT OF SHAKESPEARE BY MARTIN DROESHOUT
 ON TITLE, preliminary leaf of verses by Ben Jonson, bound in russia
(c. 1800), g. e. in a red morocco case
folio (13 $\frac{1}{8}$ in. by 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ in.) LONDON, PRINTED BY ISAAC IAGGARD,
 AND ED. BLOUNT. 1623

 A PERFECT COPY IN VERY CLEAN AND GOOD CONDITION
 THROUGHOUT AND ONE OF THE FINEST EVER OFFERED FOR SALE BY AUCTION.

The following insignificant defects only have to be recorded: a rust-hole in one preliminary leaf "To the great Variety of Readers" and a small rust-hole in four other leaves (sig. C 6, X 2, a 6 and gg 5); a minute flaw in four leaves (sig. E 2, I 2, S 4 and dd 5), in three cases due to slight original flaws in the paper; the corner of sig. pp 4 repaired slightly affecting the rule; slight tears repaired in sig. D 5 and qq 1; slight stains on sig. qq 2 verso.

This is the Manley copy and has the armorial bookplate of John Manley inside cover and signature "J. Manley" on title. It is No. CXLVII in Sir Sidney Lee's Census where it is placed among the copies unclassified owing to lack of full description. It is erroneously described there as having "leaves cut by binder."

On the last leaf of "Troilus and Cressida" is the name "Sir Richard Spencer" in a contemporary hand.

[See ILLUSTRATION.]

- 1114 SHAKESPEARE (W.) MR. WILLIAM SHAKESPEARES
 COMEDIES, HISTORIES AND TRAGEDIES. Published according to the true Originall Copies. The second Impression, SECOND FOLIO EDITION, portrait of Shakespeare by Droeshout on title preceded by leaf of verses by Ben Jonson; straight-grained blue morocco, panelled sides with arms in centre of FREDERICK PERKINS of Chipstead, Kent; Perkins' bookplate, g. e. in a red morocco case folio (13 in. by 8½ in.) London, Printed by Tho. Cotes, for Robert Allot, and are to be sold at his shop at the signe of the blacke
Beare in Pauls Church yard, 1632

 A SOUND AND GOOD COPY. Dr. R. M. Smith in his monograph on the variant issues of the Second Folio calls this "Allot Title-page Number 3," and adds that it is the second rarest of the Allot titles. Out of 124 copies examined only three had this variant. The "Effigies" leaf is Dr. Smith's variant B.

The following slight defects must be noted. A small wormhole through the first half of the book at foot of the left-hand column (nearly always below the text); a small hole in sig. d 4; an insignificant flaw in sig. H 4; a small slit in the lower margin of several leaves in gatherings m and n. The last leaf somewhat discoloured.

Frederick Perkins (fl. 1825-60), son of Henry Perkins whose famous library was sold in 1873, laid about 1825 the foundations of a very fine Shakespearean library which was sold at Sotheby's, 10 July, 1889.

- 1115 SHAKESPEARE (W.) MR. WILLIAM SHAKESPEAR'S COMEDIES, HISTORIES, AND TRAGEDIES. PUBLISHED ACCORDING TO THE TRUE ORIGINAL COPIES. THE THIRD IMPRESSION. And unto this Impression is added seven Playes, never before Printed in Folio, THIRD FOLIO EDITION, A FINE IMPRESSION OF SHAKESPEARE'S PORTRAIT BY DROESHOUT WITH BEN JONSON'S VERSES BENEATH, red morocco by Riviere, in red morocco case
folio (12 $\frac{7}{16}$ in. by 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ in.) LONDON, PRINTED FOR P.C. 1664

 A FINE COPY. THE FIRST ISSUE TITLE WITH IMPRINT "LONDON, PRINTED FOR PHILIP CHETWINDE, 1663," AND WITH BLANK SPACE FOR THE PORTRAIT, AND ALSO THE LEAF OF VERSES BY BEN JONSON HAVE BEEN INSERTED.

This is the Van Antwerp copy sold at Sotheby's, 23 March, 1907.

On the title is the signature of Jane Waldo. It was formerly in G. L. Way's library.

PERFECT AND IN GOOD CONDITION THROUGHOUT. The following insignificant defects only need be recorded. A small hole in two leaves (sig. Lll 4 and Xxx 2); a small rust-hole in four leaves (sig. C 2; Q 5; Ccc 4; and Qqq 4); three leaves from a slightly smaller copy (sig. Iiii 2-4). The last page slightly soiled.

- 1116 SHAKESPEARE (W.) MR. WILLIAM SHAKESPEAR'S COMEDIES, HISTORIES, AND TRAGEDIES. Published according to the true Original Copies. Unto which is added Seven Plays, Never before Printed in Folio . . . THE FOURTH EDITION, leaf preceding title with portrait by Droeshout and Ben Jonson's verses; red morocco, panelled sides, g. e. by F. Bedford, in a red morocco case folio (14 in. by 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ in.) Printed for H. Herringman, E. Brewster and R. Bentley, 1685
-  Bookplate with monogram D.C.M. and motto "Advance with Courage"; crest, a lion's gamb holding a lance (? Sir Dudley Coutts Marjoribanks Baron Tweedmouth).
Four leaves re-margined (sig. A 4, Aaaa 3-4, Cccc 2); corner of sig. T 1 repaired; slit repaired in one or two leaves; a few tiny holes; small holes in sig. Nn 5, Ss 6 and Sss 6 and a few other leaves.

(3)
- 1127 Sidney (Sir P.) The Countess of Pembroke's Arcadia, the thirteenth edition, portrait inlaid, old red morocco gilt, g. e. folio. 1674
- 1127A SKELTON (SIR BEVILL) A CATALOGUE OF THE NOBILITY OF ENGLAND, WITH THEIR ARMES, WIVES AND ISSUE, by Coll. Bevill Skelton, Comptrolr. of the Household to King James the Second And sometime Lieutenant of his Maties. Tower of London, &c. Ao. 1694, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM containing a list of contemporary peers in order of creation, with genealogical and biographical particulars, illustrated with 173 VERY FINELY PAINTED ACHIEVEMENTS OF ARMS and five full-page paintings of a Duke, a Marquess, an Earl, a Viscount and a Baron in their respective robes; preceded by the descriptions, titles and arms of the principal sovereigns of Europe; contemporary red morocco gilt with the arms of the Skelton impaling Cary stamped on both covers, g. e. large folio. ca. 1685-95

 See note to next lot.

The significance of the Cary arms, which not only appear in the impalement stampel on the covers but are also painted in a lozenge on the title-page, is not clear. Sir Bevil's second wife, Margaret O'Brien, survived him, and his first was Frances Sewster. He may have had a son who married one of the loyalist Cary's and for whom this binding was designed.

- 1127B SKELTON (SIR B.) The Variation of the Arms and Badges of the Several Kings of England from King Brute until Charles II, with a Short Account of their Lives: as also THE ARMES, WIVES AND ISSUE OF ALL THE KNIGHTS OF THE ORDER OF THE GARTER from its first institution unto this present year 1684 (1692), MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, 229 pp. neatly written, title within a finely painted border of flags, etc. achievement of King Charles II within a border of royal arms of different nations; full-length portrait of King Charles in the Robes of the Garter, drawings of the details of the Garter insignia, showing jewels, miniatures, etc. and 516 LARGE AND RICHLY EMBLAZONED COATS-OF-ARMS, old English red morocco, richly tooled borders, arms of the compiler (impaling those of his second wife Mary O'Brien, daughter of Daniel 3rd Viscount O'Brien of Clare), stamped on both covers, g. e. large folio. ca. 1684-92

 Sir Bevil Skelton (fl. 1661-1692) was a fervent loyalist who after a somewhat unlucky diplomatic career (during which he vainly warned James II against the designs of the Prince of Orange) accompanied his Sovereign into exile, where he died.

These magnificent compilations were begun before the death of Charles II and continued some time after the deposition of James II. They are interesting as including the Jacobite Peers and Garters and for the free comments in many biographies on the political behaviour of the subject from the legitimist standpoint.

The list of the Knights of the Garter is a very complete one (though differing somewhat, principally in dates of election, from modern authorities), and is valuable for the full biographical particulars appended.
