CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. All Lots are put up for sale subject (a) to any reserve price imposed by the Seller and (b) to the right of the Seller either to bid personally or else by any one person who may be the Auctioneer.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and, if required, to pay down 10s. in the pound in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If at the expiration of one week after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are received back within Fourteen Days after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm holes, stained, or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. are prepared to advise intending purchasers, as far as possible, and will execute bids on their behalf, free of charge. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

To John Balderston this
 Copy of a play that I have not seen for forty years and have no curiosity to look in with the view of discovering how bad
 it is. The number of pages
 tell me that I was not deficient in resolution for
 I did see the thing through
 George Moore

But now I write and read proof sheets of my biography. Won't you please give me an exact Danish translation of the enclosed two letters from Dickens, I intend to publish a Danish rendering in the biography . . . God knows whether Dickens received my last letter with the two stories. If your brother should happen to see the latest number of Household Words, ask him if there isn't a sort of greeting to me in the new year, it has happened before. I met a little girl yesterday who asked me quite seriously, "Are you Hans Andersen's Fairy Tales," etc.

could come within hearing. And they were more quiet than could well have been expected. The Sermon will be published on Monday and sent down to Bristol. Mr. Keen and Hardy, his Executors have, I apprehend, the whole and sole disposal of the Tabernacle, Tottenham Court Chappel, and all other Houses which were occupied by Mr. Whitefield. And Mr. Neale administers the Sacrament there. God can do whatsoever he pleases, and by whatever Instruments. But in all probability, there will not be much more good done at those places.

I find no such Sin as Legality in ye Bible; ye very use of ye term speaks an Antinomian. I defy all Liberty, but Liberty to Love and serve God, I fear no Bondage, but Bondage to him. Sift that text to ye bottom, and it will do ye business of poor Howel and all his disciples, "God sent his own Son in ye flesh, that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us." Justitia legis, Justitia legis! Here is Legality.

- 411 WESLEY (J.) A. L. s. 1½ p. 4to, London, Jan. 8th, 1774. To the same. PARTLEY UNPUBLISHED :

"Many are in danger of reading too little: You are in danger of reading too much, take up your cross, and visit all the Society from house to house. Do this according to Mr. Baxter's plan, laid down in the Minutes of the Conference. The result will abundantly reward you. Glad you press all Believers' to aspire after the full liberty of the Children of God. They must not give their Faith in order to do this . . . Let them go on from faith to faith; from weak faith to that strong faith which not only conquer's but casts out Sin. Many call themselves Believers who do not ever conquer Sins, who are strangers to the whole inward Kingdom of God, and void of the whole fruit of the Spirit . . . On Tuesday was under the Surgeon's hands . . ."

- 412 WESLEY (J.) A. L. s. 1 p. 4to, Manchester, May 19th, 1783, to the same :

Does not and never consented that Preachers should baptize as long as we profess ourselves to be members of the Church of England. Much more may be said for Burying the Dead. To this I have not objection . . . when you was Assistant at Manchester, you quite disappointed me. Etc.

On the fly-leaf is Benson's autograph draft of his reply to Wesley. 2 pp. 4to.

- 413 LYDIUS (Johannes) Historian. A. L. s. 4to, 2 Aug. 1613, to BONAVENTURE ELZEVIR, the famous printer, for P. Scriverius, sending his Preface and requesting Scriverius' criticisms

- ? 12. 414 GORDON (General C. E.) A. L. s. 3 pp. 8vo, Saubat, 20 Oct. 1876, to Mac Killop :

Thanking him for the trouble he took about the Barrel-organ. Asks for the "whole of the papers Tomson possesses connected with my affairs and also certain vouchers sent down in March 1876 for his signature, also £17 which is due to me." Hopes to come soon to Cairo and wants to have nothing to do with Mr. Tomson—"Who has caused me very much annoyance, so much so that I have been able to draw only £800 and £600 of what is due to me and consequently I have been forced to borrow in England. I am only coming on leave and D.V. shall return to Nile Province." With telegram in Arabic, 31 May, 1875, and addressed envelope.

- ? 75. 100. 415 NIGHTINGALE (Florence). 26 A. L. s. Jan. 11, 1864, to Aug. 10, 1868, to Dr. James Pattison Walker, Surgeon in the Indian Army and Secretary of the Bengal Sanitary Commission. (See Cook's Life of F. Nightingale. vol. 2, page 50.) A HIGHLY

IMPORTANT SERIES OF LETTERS consisting of about 160 pages in all, dealing very fully with Indian Sanitary matters and mentioning Sidney Herbert, her life in the Crimea, etc. etc. and referring often to incidents not generally known :

In one letter dated Jan. 3, 1865, in which she declines with deep regret an invitation to India, she says, "I must tell you in confidence that, in 1865, that dreadful year for India, I offered to go out to India in the same way as to the Crimea. But Sidney Herbert with whom I worked for five years . . . in the War Office . . . put a stop to it. He said . . . that I must stay and help him (meaning the Sanitary Army Reforms)."

Together with the letters are a Memorandum of the Good Services of Dr. Walker; a 17 pages folio account by Dr. Walker of a suggested Improved Indian Prison System; a 23 page Memorandum; various diplomas and statements of services; and his Diary and Letter Book containing a copy of Dr. Walker's first letter to Florence Nightingale, etc. etc. a parcel

 . . . Chelsea, even to us who lie on the lee side of it is nearly uninhabitable in these days. The utmost that fallen Humanity can do to desecrate one of the most sacred things that can happen in the world, is now being done!
- 423 DICKENS (Charles) A. L. s. 1½ pp. 8vo, Tavistock House, 24 Nov. 1852, to Dean Milman, referring to the public funeral given to the Duke of Wellington
- 424 DICKENS (Charles) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, Tavistock House, Jan. 1857, to the Dean Milman :
 . . . We acted last night to exactly the number who are coming on Monday; and the difficulty of seating them (intensified by Crinoline) was so great, that I am afraid to add one more.
- 425 DICKENS (Charles) A. L. s. 2 pp. 8vo, Tavistock House, 27 May, 1856, to Dean Milman referring to the illuminations to celebrate peace :
 . . . An odd idea has come into my head that a very striking idea of blazing London on Monday night, might be got from the top of St. Paul's, and might suggest a remarkable description.

- 426 LITERARY, ETC. Lord Houghton, A. H. Layard, Max Muller, J. W. Croker, A. P. Stanley, A. Sidgwick, Foscolo, etc. (92)

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. All Lots are put up for sale subject (a) to any reserve price imposed by the Seller and (b) to the right of the Seller either to bid personally or else by any one person who may be the Auctioneer.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and, if required, to pay down 10s. in the pound in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If at the expiration of one week after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are received back within Fourteen Days after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm holes, stained, or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. are prepared to advise intending purchasers, as far as possible, and will execute bids on their behalf, free of charge. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

To John Balderston this
 Copy of a play that I have not seen for forty years and have
 no curiosity to look in with
 the view of discovering how bad
 it is. The number of pages
 tell me that I was not deficient in resolution for
 I did see the thing through
 George Moore

- 385 ANDERSEN (H. C.) A. L. s. 3¼ pp. 8vo, Copenhagen, 20 Mar. 1855. In Danish with translation. FINE LETTER about his biography, the Death of Czar Nicolas, CHARLES DICKENS and the FAIRY TALES

But now I write and read proof sheets of my biography. Won't you please give me an exact Danish translation of the enclosed two letters from Dickens, I intend to publish a Danish rendering in the biography . . . God knows whether Dickens received my last letter with the two stories. If your brother should happen to see the latest number of Household Words, ask him if there isn't a sort of greeting to me in the new year, it has happened before. I met a little girl yesterday who asked me quite seriously, "Are you Hans Andersen's Fairy Tales," etc.

could come within hearing. And they were more quiet than ed well have been expected. The Sermon will be published on Monday and sent down to Bristol. Mr. Keen and Hardy, his Executors have, I apprehend, the whole and sole disposal of the Tabernacle, Tottenham Court Chappel, and all other Houses wch were occupied by Mr. Whitefield. And Mr. Neale adminsters the Sacrament there God can do whatsoever he pleases, and by whatever Instruments. But in all probability, there will not be much more good done at those places.

I find no such Sin as Legality in ye Bible; ye very use of ye term speaks an Antinomian. I defy all Liberty, but Liberty to Love and serve God, I fear no Bondage, but Bondage to him. Sift that text to ye bottom, and it will do ye business of poor Howel and all his disciples, "God sent his own Son in ye flesh, that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us." Justitia legis, Justitia legis! Here is Legality.

- 411 WESLEY (J.) A. L. s. 1½ p. 4to, London, Jan. 8th, 1774. To the same. PARTLEY UNPUBLISHED :

"Many are in danger of reading too little; You are in danger of reading too much, take up your cross, and visit all the Society from house to house. Do this according to Mr. Baxter's plan, laid down in the Minutes of the Conference. The result will abundantly reward you. Glad you press all Believers' to aspire after the full liberty of the Children of God. They must not give their Faith in order to do this . . . Let them go on from faith to faith; from weak faith to that strong faith wch. not only conquer's but casts out Sin. Many call themselves Believers who do not ever conquer Sins, who are strangers to the whole inward Kingdom of God, and void of the whole fruit of the Spirit . . . On Tuesday was under the Surgeon's hands . . ."

IMPORTANT SERIES OF LETTERS consisting of about 160 pages in all, dealing very fully with Indian Sanitary matters and mentioning Sidney Herbert, her life in the Crimea, etc. etc. and referring often to incidents not generally known :

In one letter dated Jan. 3, 1865, in which she declines with deep regret an invitation to India, she says, "I must tell you in confidence that, in 1865, that dreadful year for India, I offered to go out to India in the same way as to the Crimea. But Sidney Herbert with whom I worked for five years . . . in the War Office . . . put a stop to it. He said . . . that I must stay and help him (meaning the Sanitary Army Reforms)."

Together with the letters are a Memorandum of the Good Services of Dr. Walker; a 17 pages folio account by Dr. Walker of a suggested Improved Indian Prison System; a 23 page Memorandum; various diplomas and statements of services; and his Diary and Letter Book containing a copy of Dr. Walker's first letter to Florence Nightingale, etc. etc. a parcel
