CATALOGUES MAY BE HAD.

DRYDEN PRESS: J. DAVY & SONS, 137 LONG ACRE, LONDON.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the Auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Seller.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's expense immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEY, WILKINSON & HODGE will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses (the same as if re-sold) will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEY, WILKINSON & HODGE will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are returned within ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm-holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates, or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections, and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated or error of description.
- VIII. No IMPERFECT BOOK will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above Conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Gentlemen who cannot attend the Sale may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble servants,

SOTHEY, WILKINSON & HODGE,
13, Wellington Street, Strand, London.

imprinted at London for N. L. C. B. and T. H. 1600

* * This is an important copy of an extremely rare volume, because it contains numerous annotations in a contemporary hand, some being added to the Shakespearean portion. The work contains no less than 79 extracts from Shakespeare's Plays and Poems. According to Dr. Farmer, Robert Allot was the editor of "England's Parnassus"; when, however, the volume was reprinted by Payne Collier he ascribed it to Robert Armin.

- 510 Epictetus. Manuall, Cebes Table, Theophrastus Characters, by Jo. Healey 1626

* * Dedicated to William Herbert, Earl of Pembroke, Shakespeare's patron. An account of this very rare little volume will be found in Mr. Lee's "Life of Shakespeare."

- 511 Essex (Robert, Earl of) The Differences of the Ages of Man's Life, together with the original Causes, Progresse and End thereof, calf 1607

* * This is a peculiarly rare little volume (by Henry Cuffe) (of which only one other copy seems to have occurred for sale), by a Fellow of Merton College, Oxford, whose misfortune it was to be implicated in the conspiracy of the Earl of Essex against Queen Elizabeth in 1601. It may be said to belong to the series of books dealing with the Ages of Man, and was written the year before the event which proved fatal to its author and to Essex himself. Essex is stated to have inculpated Cuffe, who was his secretary, by naming him as a party to the plot, and he was hanged at Tyburn in 1601.

- 512 Eton Coloured Prints. Three plates from Westmacott's English Spy: Eton Montem and the Mount Salt Hill, First Absence, and The Oppidans' Museum, by R. Cruikshank 1824

- 516 FORSTER (John, Biographer of Dickens) A Series of Eight Autograph Letters, signed, to George Cattermole, who illustrated "The Old Curiosity Shop," covering 31 pages, 12mo, and dated during 1848 and 1850 : In reference to the Christening of Cattermole's son, to whom Forster stood Godfather (Leonardo Forster George Cattermole). Another letter in reference to the Christening (he promises to be at church) "States that he will be punctual at the Church, at $\frac{1}{4}$ before 12;" he continues: "Do you expect Thackeray . . . give a 'yes' or 'no' to this question." Oct. 3, 1849 : "I shall be with you to-morrow to my dear little Godson's birthday. Black (the novelist) is going to be with you also . . . his black-eyed boy looks a thorough Italian." Oct. 2, 1850, asks him to postpone his godson's birthday till the following week, because "On Friday I am obliged to go to Liverpool . . . to take down Bulwer Lytton's son to the packet for the United States. He is on his way to join his uncle at Washington. B(ulwer) L(ytton) is quite hopeless in such matters, yet the youth is too young and too peculiarly circumstanced to go alone. Mr. and Mrs. Story take charge of him at the ship." In a later letter he asks for forgiveness, and a note appointing the Goose for the following Wednesday. Further reference to the birthday occurs in a letter of Oct. 2, 1850 : "Give my love to the boy and tell him that we will celebrate his birthday all the more for the delay, and perhaps you'll whisper to him that it's a custom with Grand Folks so to celebrate their birthdays—getting at a little distance from them, the better to see them in all their glory, etc." In a letter of April 24th, 1850, he asks Cattermole to get him a ticket for the private view of the Water-Colour Society : "Pray do this little service for me, if you can, for I want to take old Walter Savage Landor, who comes up to town that day. It is for him." An important reference to Thackeray comprises the postscript of this letter ; it reads : "Thackeray very unwell, unable to act for many weeks. Broken down under work and grief."

- 529 BURNS (Robert) A. L. s. 1 p. signed "Robert Burness," dated Mossgiel, 20 March, 1786, to Robert Muir: I am heartily sorry I had not the pleasure of seeing you as you returned from Machline, but as I was engaged, I could not be in town before the evening. I here enclose you my SCOTCH DRINK and may the — follow with a blessing for your edification. I hope some time before we hear the Gowk, to have the pleasure of seeing you, at I. Eilm^{ck}, when I intend we shall have a gill between us, in a Mulchkin stoup, which will be a great comfort and consolation to"; etc.
 * * Letters signed Burness are excessively rare. In this year Burns published (at Kilmarnock) his first volume of Poems.
- 530 BURNS (Robert). Cromek (R. H. editor of "Reliques of Burns") A Series of Five A. L. s. covering 12 pp. to Wm. Creech, Newman Street, London, 14 March to May 2, 1808, entirely relative to his publication, the Reliques of Burns
 * * A valuable and interesting series.

- 531 BURNS. Paterson (James) A. L. s. 3 pp. Ayr Observer Office, Dec. 5, 1845, to James Maidment; an extremely interesting letter relative to the early spelling of the family name of the poet Burns, and destroying the argument that his name was changed by him from Burness: "I have just concluded going over the register of births, which begin in 1664, and have got a good many facts as to families. I lighted upon the entry of the Poet Burns. The name is spelt precisely as it is now—showing that all the statements about his having changed the spelling from Burness to be downright nonsense. There were a great many other families of the same name who appear to have spelt it indiscriminately Burnes and Burns—the pronunciation in both cases the same."
- 532 BYRON (Lady, Wife of the Poet) Autograph Poem on the Emperor Nicholas, 1 p. comprising three stanzas, commencing:
"He fell like a column, which firm on its base
Was unshaken the moment before," etc.

- 535 BYRON. Leigh (The Hon. Augusta, Byron's half-sister) A. L. s. 3 pp. Sept. (1816), to John Hanson, quoting from a letter of Lord Byron's which she has just received: "'Before I treat of other things, pray desire that Joe's—poor Joe's wages may be re-established and paid, surely there are rents enough from Newstead for that—or the Devil's in it.' My brother (Lord Byron) gives a good account of his health, and says he is very temperate; his letter is dated 20th August."
- 536 CAMDEN (W.) Britannia, sive Regnorum Angliæ, Scotiæ, Hiberniæ, et Insularum Chorographica descriptio, engraved title by Rogers, illustrated with maps and plates, original calf Geo. Bishop, 1600
- * * * Malone, in his edition of Shakespeare, vol. XX, prints Camden's eulogy of Shakespeare's Lord Southampton, which is found at page 400 of the present volume. The present fine copy has both the engraved and printed title-pages.
- 537 CAMPBELL (Thos.) Original Autograph Manuscript, 3 pp. "Lochiel's Warning" (June 16, 1802), commences:
"Wizard
Lochiel, Lochiel, beware of the day
When the Lowlanders meet thee in battle array;
For a field of the dead rushes red in my sight,
And the clans of my Country are scattered in fright," etc.
- * * * This is one of Campbell's most famous poems. It was published in Gertrude of Wyoming, but the published version differs materially from the above manuscript.
- 538 COLERIDGE (Samuel Taylor) A. L. s. 2½ pp. Aug. 9, 1807, to his publisher Joseph Cottle, principally on the subject of his health, etc. mentions De Quincey, a most interesting letter
My anger is constitutionally short-lived; and Nature seems not to have given me even the organs of vindictive feeling. As to any harsh words on my part, I am sorry for them, for hard words can hardly be wise ones. However you must remember enough of my character to know that not only no such a dispute would have taken place, but that the very feelings would never have been baited, not to say, lodged, at my heart, had it been about my own concerns, and had I not conceived myself speaking in behalf of a friend, and one, whom God knows I love and honour as far beyond myself, as both morally and intellectually he is above myself. Be it then as if it had never been. Life has so much of hard Duty, so much of open calamity, and sad and secret anguish (to me at least it has been so) that there seems little room for anger and quarrelling." He promises Cottle the right hand of fellowship upon his (Coleridge's) return. But states that Cottle will find him "rudderless," broken in health, overpowering wretchedness, indescribable restlessness, and worst of all the sense of blighted utility," &c.

James I visited Oxford in 1605, and went to sleep during the exhibition; it was the work of a rather distinguished writer, Matthew Gwinne, called Il Candido from the signification of his name (Gwin, Welsh for white); but the most interesting fact concerning this drama is, that on the same occasion, in compliment to the Scottish Monarch, an interlude on the subject of Macbeth was produced, and since Shakespeare is supposed to have been at Oxford during these theatricals, it is possible that he may have suggested or approved the latter, which supplied him with a hint for his own later play. No text of the Latin interlude to Macbeth is known; but Gwinne, on the last page of Vertumnus, has a short Epilogue, in which he alludes to it.

dotted ground, in the manner of the stamped bindings of the period, by Riviere & Son 4to. SEC. XV

- * * The subjects of the large miniatures are as follows: 1, St. John in the Island of Patmos, with the Eagle perched beside him; 2, The Resurrection of Christ from the tomb; 3, The Annunciation, Virgin Mary praying, with the angel appearing to her; 4, Mary and Elizabeth; 5, The Nativity, Mary and Joseph in manger worshipping the infant Christ; 6, The Angel appearing to the Shepherds; 7, The Adoration of the Magi; 8, The Circumcision; 9, The Massacre of the Innocents; 10, The Flight into Egypt; 11, Christ appearing in the Heavens, with Virgin Mary, Saints, &c.; 12, The raising of Lazarus. AN UNUSUALLY FINE ENGLISH BOOK OF HOURS.

- 565 HORE BEATÆ MARIE VIRGINIS, cum Calendario, FRENCH ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT OF THE XV CENTURY, written on 52 leaves of vellum (7 $\frac{5}{8}$ in. by 5 $\frac{3}{8}$ in.) fine bold roman letter, long lines, 18 to a page, by a French scribe (with some prayers in French), 6 large and finely painted miniatures in gold and colours, within richly illuminated borders, and one smaller one, of remarkable execution, numerous illuminated initials and ornaments in gold and colours, crimson morocco, the sides richly tooled in gilt, lettered in small panels on sides, by Riviere & Son, 4to. SEC. XV

- * * A beautiful example of decorative art. The miniatures are of high artistic merit, and are surrounded with borders of unusual style and dimensions, on a flat gold ground; this gives them a very striking appearance. The picture on the verso of folio 144 unquestionably contains portrait of owner. The faces in all the miniatures are of the most careful workmanship, and the MS. is a very interesting one on this account.

- 580 BYRON (Lord) Autograph Letter signed, 3½ pp. Ravenna, Jan. 31st, 1820, to R. B. Hoppner, English Consul-General at Vienna. He speaks as to the removal of the furniture from the rooms which Byron fitted up for his daughter in Bologna in the summer, to Ravenna :

.....If Scott is returned pray remember me to him, plead laziness, the whole and sole cause of my not replying; dreadful is the exaction of letter-writing. What you say of Mrs. Prescott, and her Slavonian marriage does not surprize me, it is a match of your making.....it is the very essence of human nature to act thus; but I think I see your face upon the occasion, which would interest me a great deal more than anything of the Venetian Carnival. The Carnival here is less boisterous, but we have balls and a theatre, I carried Bankes to both, and he carried away, I believe, a much more favourable impression of the Society here, than of that of Venice, recollect that I speak of the native Society only. I am drilling very hard to learn how to double a shawl, and should succeed to admiration, if I did not always double it the wrong side out[Speaks of an odd ceremony, a lottery, to take place to-night after the Opera. Bankes has gone to Firenze.] Mrs Tainbelli should have sent you my postscript.....I never interfere in anybody's squabbles, she may scratch your face herself. The weather here has been dreadful. Snow several feet, fiume broke down a bridge, and flooded, Heaven knows how many Campi; then rain came, and it is still thawing, so that my saddle horses have a sinecure till the roads become more practicable. Why did Lega give away the goat? a blockhead, I must have him again.....I heard from Moore, who is at Paris, I had previously written to London to him, but he has not yet got my letter apparently. Have you Clawed Edgcombe? If you see him, tell him that if he and I foregather again, I shall have to say that which he will remember for some time, etc.

* * A splendid letter of great length. The reference to his friend Tom Moore, the famous Irish poet, makes this fine letter additionally interesting.

- 607 GILDON (CHARLES) Miscellaneous Letters and Essays on several Subjects, in prose and verse, directed to John Dryden, Congreve, Dennis, and others, FIRST EDITION, old calf 1694

* * Contains "Some Reflections on Mr. Rymer's Short View of Tragedy, and an attempt at a VINDICATION OF SHAKESPEARE, in an Essay directed to John Dryden, Esq." An interesting account of this volume will be found in Mr. Lee's Life of Shakespeare, page 272.

- 608 Gildon (C.) THE LIVES AND CHARACTERS OF THE ENGLISH DRAMATICK POETS. Also an Exact Account of all the Plays that were ever yet Printed in the English Tongue; their Double Titles, the Places where Acted, the Dates when Printed, and the Persons to whom, Dedicated; with Remarks and Observations on most of the said Plays. First begun by Mr. Langbain, improv'd and continued down to this Time, by a Careful Hand, old calf, fine copy printed for Tho. Leigh, 1698-9
  First Edition by Gildon. For an account of Skakespeare and his works, see pp. 126-7-8, &c.
- 609 GORDON (General C. E.) A. L. s. 3½ pp. 1866, Gravesend, very interesting; mentions Sir Harry Parke, &c. and various matters, "the whole interest is now wrapped up in our home matters, viz. Reform, Fenians and the war on the continent; these quite throw into the shade our colonies," &c.
- 610 GORDON. GLADSTONE (W. E.) Postcard, in his autograph signed, to D. C. Boulger on GENERAL GORDON, June 24th, 1896. He has examined with interest the work (Boulger's History of China), sent, "I could not comment on it without entering into contrarities which I wish to avoid, as I have remained persistently silent about General Gordon since 1885 brought us the news of his death. I have in public eulogised him in very warm terms nor do I wish to withdraw anything I have said though I should certainly have to enlarge it. The contemplation of his life may carry monitory suggestions but they are of minor account and should not be allowed to intercept our view of the nobleness which so strongly marked him."
  The importance of this note is obvious.
- 611 GORDON. Kinglake (A. W. Author of "Eothen," &c.) A. L. s. 4 pp. to D. C. Boulger on GENERAL GORDON, dated July 27, 1884. Thanking him for a copy of "Gordon's Letters from the Crimea." "I have been greatly interested by seeing what was thought and felt and expounded in his early days by this really phenomenal man whose romantic elevation above all that is base and common has made him—in even these days!—a sort of warlike and heroic Redeemer." The Government's treatment of Gordon is referred to; the writer at first glance thinks that "considering the imperative seasons, the vast distances, the changeful condition of things, and the consequent changes of mind, the task of doing justice between the Govt. and their heroic envoy would be one of some complexity."

1783-1786

* * * The Catalogue of John Henderson (the actor) has the following MS. note on the first page: "Where Mr. Malone (the Shakespeare Commentator) has added in the margin a capital C. he appears to have wished to purchase the article in question for Lord Charlemont, in which he occasionally succeeded, but more frequently failed. The cross + signifies that he wished it for himself." So that this catalogue was once Malone's. Among the prints is the Droeshout portrait of Shakespeare. The books of Shakespearean interest recorded in these catalogues are: Shakespeare's Sonnets, 1609. A Declaration of Egregious Popish Impostures, 1603, with a note stating that it is referred to in King Lear. Another copy of the Sonnets, 1609. - 620 Hervey (James) Meditations and Contemplations, frontispieces, 2 vol. old English red morocco, sides covered with gold tooling to a "cottage roof" pattern, heightened with black and silver, g. e. 1752
- * * A handsome binding in an excellent state of preservation.
- 621 Horæ Beatæ Mariæ Virginis cum Calendario, illuminated Manuscript, written on 136 leaves of vellum in beautiful gothic letter by a French scribe (calendar and headings to prayers in French), in brown, red and blue ink, with 14 large miniatures, 20 smaller, 24 illuminated borders, and 242 different marginal illuminated panels containing grotesques and scroll work, of an unusual, bold and very artistic character, innumerable illuminated initials and details, old French brown morocco, richly tooled in floreate scrolls (NICOLAS or CLOVIS EVE), with fretwork spaces delicately extracted, shewing red ground beneath, A MOST INTERESTING PIECE OF BINDING SEC. XV
- * * A fine MS. of unusual brilliancy in perfect state of preservation. Every page of the book has either large or small miniatures, borders, or panels containing grotesques of an important character. The conventional scroll work of flowers, fruits, insects, birds, &c. is particularly noticeable on account of its delicate colouring and careful finish. The Calendar has small miniatures of the Occupations of the Month and Signs of the Zodiac. The "Stem of Jesse" is remarkably fine, within a border of jewels work. So fine a specimen of late XVth Century French illuminated work is of rare occurrence. The subjects of the large miniatures are as follows:—(1) St. John on the Island of Patmos. (2) The Tree of Jesse. (3) The Annunciation. (4) Mary behalf my best thanks to the President and members of the Shakespeare Club, for the honour of their invitation of me to their Soiree on the 22nd of April next in commemoration of the Tercentenary of Shakespeare's birth. It would give me great pleasure to accept it, were it in accordance with the habits of many years for me to take part in proceedings of a public character; but, as this is not the case, I lose no time in signifying to you, in compliance with your wish, that it will not be in my power to avail myself of it."

Richard III. This was Horace Walpole's copy and contains his ex-libris.

- 658 Poole (Joshua) The English Parnassus, or a Help to English Poesie, frontispiece (backed and lower corner of margin torn away), several pages slightly defective or cut into, half calf 1677
- 659 Pope (Alexander) MISCELLANEOUS POEMS AND TRANSLATIONS, by Several Hands, FIRST EDITION, frontispiece, a fine clean copy in the original calf, WITH THE HALF-TITLE PAGE, very scarce printed for Bernard Lintott, 1712
- * * * In this volume appears the FIRST EDITION OF POPE'S RAPE OF THE LOCK, besides many other poems by Pope, Prior, Gay, &c. &c. The above was ISAAC REED'S copy, and his autograph is on the flyleaf. At pp. 57 to 65 are "Four songs written in 1683 in order to be sung as Chorus's between the acts of a play of SHAKESPEARE that was altered." The half-title is not given in the collation of the "Locker" copy.
- 660 Prévost (l'Abbé) Le Pour et Contre, ouvrage periodique d'un goût nouveau, 20 vol. original calf Paris, 1733-40
- * * * This periodical contains several references to Shakespeare, some of which are reprinted in Monsieur Jusserand's "Shakespeare en France" and Mr. Lee's "Life of Shakespeare." Complete sets, such as the present, are extremely rare.
- 661 [Prior (Matthew)] POEMS ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS: consisting of Odes, Satyrs, and Epistles; with some Select Translations and Imitations, FIRST EDITION, original calf gilt, with list of books preceding title, and the original fly-leaves, FINE COPY printed for R. Burrough, and J. Baker . . . and E. Curll . . . 1707
- * * * In the first authorised edition, published two years later, Prior disclaims two of the pieces here included, and they were henceforth omitted from his "works." According to Curll and Pope they are both from his pen, but "he thought it prudent" to disown them, "on account of a few Nipping Turns upon two Noblemen lately deceased." Colonel Grant's copy, in similar state to the present, realised £40 in these rooms, May, 1900.
- 662 Prior (M.) POEMS ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS: consisting of Odes, Satyrs and Epistles, with some Select Translations and Imitations, FIRST EDITION, save for a slight water-stain in a few pp. a fine copy, original calf printed for R. Burrough, and J. Baker, at the Sun and Moon in Cornhill, and E. Curll, at the Peacock without Temple-Bar, 1707
- * * * THE EXTREMELY RARE SPURIOUS EDITION PRINTED TWO YEARS BEFORE THE FIRST AUTHORISED VERSION, and containing some poems afterwards disowned by Prior.
- 663 Quentin (Mrs.) Memoirs of the Life of the celebrated Mrs. Quentin, by E. Eglantine, Esq. fine portrait, full polished calf extra, g. t. 1822
- 664 Rosa (Thomas) Idæa, sive de Jacobi Magnæ Britanniae, Galliae et Hyberniae, præstantissimi & augustissimi Regis, virtutibus & ornamentis, dilucida Enarratio, eiusque cum laudatissimis veterum Regibus, Monarchis & Imperatoribus, comparatis exacta & enucleata, vellum Londini, 1608
- * * * Contains the earliest known biography of William Herbert, Earl of Pembroke, Shakespeare's patron. A very rare book, the title of which is inaccurately given by Lowndes.

- 665 Rowlandson. The Beauties of Tom Brown, with Life, by C. N. Wilson, coloured folding front. by Rowlandson, half morocco gilt back, silk sides, uncut edges 1808
- 666 Rowlandson. Chesterfield Burlesque or School for Modern Manners, original boards 1811

 [Orpington, 1880]
- 670 Scott (Sir W.) TALES OF MY LANDLORD, collected and arranged by Jedediah Cleishbotham, schoolmaster and Parish-Clerk of Gandercleugh, FIRST EDITION, 4 vol. original boards, uncut, with the labels, back of vol. III slightly repaired, otherwise a fine set, with PRESENTATION INSCRIPTION in SCOTT'S HANDWRITING on half title of vol. I ib. 1816
 * * THE EXCEEDINGLY RARE FIRST SERIES, consisting of "The Black Dwarf" and "Old Mortality."
- 671 Shakespeare. Hamlet, Prince of Denmark, a Tragedy by William Shakespeare, acting edition, with accurate stage directions, half calf, with name W. H. W. BETTY stamped on sides 1839
 * * William Henry West Betty's ("The Young Roscius") acting copy. The scenes and characters throughout are underlined; there are also MS. additions as to positions of characters (L.C., R.C., &c.), and numerous marks of reference. The volume is extremely interesting because of the great amount of MS. additions; these deal with the stage directions, the various positions of characters on the stage, the way certain portions are to be acted, stage effects, orchestral effects, &c., together with additions and deletions. At the commencement of each act Betty's name appears in ink. On front cover his name is printed in gilt on a leather slip.
- 672 Shakespeare (W.) Dramatic Works, with Glossary, portrait, handsomely printed in red and black, full red morocco, g. e. original covers bound in 1858
 * * The early Lansdowne Edition.
- 673 Shakespeare. A most important Catalogue of Shakespearean interest. It announces to the "Courteous Reader, these Books following are printed for Humphrey Moseley, and are to be sold at his Shop at the Prince's Armes in St. Paule's Churchyard" 1654
 * * This extremely rare and early catalogue of Shakespearean interest comprises only 16 pp. It contains the advertisement announcing Poems written by Mr. William Shakespeare Gent. This entry is most important. There is no account of any edition of Shakespeare's Poems printed for Humphrey Moseley given by any bibliographer. Other entries in this

Catalogue are: Beaumont and Fletcher's Comedies and Tragedies, among which may be noted The Elder Brother and The Two Noble Kinsmen (thought by some to be Shakespeare's), Sir William Davenant's Plays, besides several by George Chapman, J. Shirley, &c. &c.

- 674 SHELLEY (PERCY BYSSHE) QUEEN MAB; a Philosophical Poem, with Notes, the EXTREMELY RARE ORIGINAL EDITION (*with printed title and dedication to Harriet * * * * , 2 ll.), (imprint at end cut off) original boards broken and wants back, UNCUT, some sheets not cut open or sewed to the back, VERY FINE CLEAN COPY printed by P. B. Shelley, 23 Chapel St., Grosvenor Sqre. 1813

* * * AN INTERESTING COPY (probably a proof) the first 28 pp. containing NUMEROUS MS. ALTERATIONS, ADDITIONS, SUBSTITUTIONS, ERASIONS, &c. in the handwriting of the Poet. A copy of a letter from W. M. Rossetti to Mr. J. E. Hodgkin is included, in which he says he "feels scarcely the least doubt that the Corrections are in Shelley's handwriting."

- 675 Shenstone (William) THE JUDGMENT OF HERCULES, a Poem, inscribed to George Lyttelton, Esq. FIRST EDITION, a fine copy with the half title-page, unbound

- 680 SHERIDAN (R. B.) THE DUENNA: a Comic Opera, in Three Acts, as Performed at the Theatre Royal, Covent Garden, with universal Applause, by R. B. SHERIDAN, ESQ. FIRST EDITION, a fine copy, unbound printed for T. N. Longman, 1794

- 681 Smith (Albert) The Pottleton Legacy, illustrations by H. K. Browne, FIRST EDITION, original cloth, uncut 1849
- 682 Southey (Robert) A. L. s. 2 pp. dated, Somewhere, Aug. 29, 1837, To a lady, Relative to Dr. Dove, ". . . . It is one thing to use scriptural language familiarly, and another to jeer at the scriptures. In applying a text lightly no more disrespect is intended by me or implied, than when the same kind of application is made of expressions from Shakespeare, Milton, or any of those authors whom I regard with love and admiration. Such use is on the contrary, proof how deeply my mind is imbued with them; and the frequent recurrence to the Bible on light occasions is so far from being an indication of an irreligious turn of mind, that it arises from the habitual influence of that firm belief in the Christian faith which consists in the full consent of the will with the understanding and of the heart with both, upon my thoughts, words, and feelings." Mentions Dr. Dove, &c., &c.
- * * A most curious letter, being signed with the mark of Southey as employed in the Doctor.
- 683 Spanish Poetry. Cancionero de Obras de Burlas Provocantes a Risa, reprinted from the unique copy of the 1519 Valencia Edition in the British Museum, Spanish morocco extra, g. e. by Leighton Madrid (London), 1841
- 684 Spence (Joseph) Extracts relating to English Poets and Prose Writers and to the English Writers of Plays, taken from the four Manuscript Volumes written by Mr. Spence, in the possession of his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, MANUSCRIPT, neatly written on paper and bound in 2 vol. old calf gilt 1782
- * * These two closely written volumes contain numerous interesting anecdotes of and references to Dryden, Defoe, Gay, Pope, Shakespeare, and the Elizabethan Dramatists, &c. This present manuscript was used by Malone when preparing his Life of Dryden.
- 685 Sporting. Cox (Nicholas) The Gentleman's Recreation, in Four Parts, viz.: Hunting, Hawking, Fowling, Fishing, collected from Ancient and Modern Authors, Forrein and Domestick, and rectified by the experience of the most skilfull artists of these times, illustrated with Sculptures, FIRST EDITION, engraved frontispiece and the rare large folding plate containing musical notes for the horn, and illustrations of Hawking, Fowling, and Fishing, fine copy in original calf (very scarce in this state) printed by G. Flesher, 1674 know "what the world says of Mr. Capel's Shakespeare, and whether it goes off really?" Refers to Sir Wm. Stanley's (6th Earl of Derby) Travels, and gives a small genealogical tree of the Earl. The antiquarian has copied a poem which commences:—

"Sumwhat musyng
And more mornyng
In remembring
Th' unстыdfastness." &c. &c. &c.

* * * Interesting from its reference to Capel's edition of Shakespeare, and from the curious old English poem, which consists of 8 stanzas.

724 Pembroke (Philip Herbert, Earl of) His signature to a State paper (damaged), Westminster, 7 May, 1647. Also signed by the Earl of Northumberland, Lord Salisbury, Cornelius Holland (regicide), and Thos. Hoyle.

* * * Philip Herbert, Earl of Montgomery and fourth Earl of Pembroke, was one of "the incomparable pair of brethren" to whom the First Folio Shakespeare was dedicated in 1623.

725 Percyvall (Richard) Bibliotheca Hispanica, containing a Grammar, with a Dictionarie in Spanish, English, and Latine, gathered out of diuers good Authors, very profitable for the studious of the Spanish Toong, the Dictionarie being enlarged with the Latine, by the aduise and conference of Master Thomas Doyley, Doctor in Physicke, old calf

Imprinted at London by John Jackson for Richard Watkins, 1591

* * * See Capel's Shakespeariana.

726 Piers Plowman. Langland (Robert) Visio Willi de Petro Plouhman, or The Vision of William concerning Piers Plouhman. Printed from a contemporary MS. and edited, with commentary, annotations and Glossary, by T. D. Whitaker, LL.D. F.S.A. beautifully printed in red and black, half morocco, gilt top, uncut 1813

* * * Only 150 copies printed.

727 Piozzi (Hester Lynch). A. L. s. (initials) 1 p. To Sir James Fellowes, 13 June, 1819. "My dear Miss Fellowes when she reads that beautiful Panegyrick on Mrs. Siddons will readily acquiesce . . . that She (Mrs. Siddons) is indeed the Brilliant Diamond of that Interesting Profession, of which O'Neill is the elegant and pleasing Pearl . . . Conway asks me if we are all here seized with the O'Neill Fever!—my Reply was that he need not fear what a Sprig of Jessamine could do towards turning our Brains, while under the Dominion of himself the towering Tulip," &c.

* * * Written by Mrs. Piozzi at 80 years of age.

728 Piozzi (Hester Lynch) A. L. s. 4 pp. Penzance, 12 Aug. 1820. To Sir James Fellowes. Referring to Dr. Johnson, and to Shakespeare's Henry VIII. Commencing:

"How happy is the blameless Vestal's Lot
The World forgetting—by the World forgot! says old H. L. P. at 81 . . . any antiquated Joke is better than too long, and too seriously to lament—as I fear our dear loved Doctor (Johnson) does." Penzance is next described, reference is made to Paris being burned by incendiaries—Spain torn in pieces by Civil War—and to "condemnation—or Acquittal of a conspicuous Princess." The great actress Mrs. Siddons is next mentioned: "Dear Mrs. Siddons when I lived much with her and with the Kembles, used to say my principal Characteristick was Candour giving the Good & bad in every Description of People & of Things. I hope Ill Fortune, Ill Health, or Ill Humour have not yet spoiled me for 'an honest Chronicler' like my Countryman Griffith, who in Shakespear's Henry 8th gives an Account of Cardinal Wolsey's Death and Conduct, balancing the Good and Evil." &c. &c.

. A charming and wonderfully well-written letter, penned by Mrs. Piozzi at the age of 81.

729 Polo (Marco). La Description géographique des provinces et villes plus fameuses de l'Inde Orientale, meurs, loix et coutumes des habitans d'icelles, mesmement de ce qui est soubz la domination du gran Cham, empereur des Tartares, par Marc Paule et nouvellement reduicte en vulgaire françois, morocco extra, g. e. Paris, Sertenas, 1556

. The first French edition. Steevens (in his notes on Shakespeare) suggested that Shakespeare found the germ of the Taming of the Shrew in Marco Polo's voyages. A beautiful copy of an extremely rare book.

730 Pope (W.) THE WISH. Written by Dr. Pope, Fellow of the Royal Society, FIRST EDITION, slightly stained, unbound
Printed in the year 1697

. An excessively scarce poem, we do not know of another copy ever occurring for sale of the first issue, later editions frequently come up.

731 Prayer. THE BOOKE OF COMMON PRAYER, and Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies in the Church of England, WITH THE PSALTER OR PSALMS OF DAVID, with title. Imprinted at London, by the Deputies of Christopher Barker, Printer to the Queenes most excellent Majestie, n. d. circa 1590 (Calendar from 1578 to 1603)—The Whole booke of Psalmes, Collected into English meeter by Thomas Sternhold, John Hopkins, printed by John Windet, for the Assignes of Richard Day, 1595, black letter, in 1 vol. a few side notes cut into, old calf, rebacked

. A remarkably rare issue of Queen Elizabeth's Prayer Book, not mentioned by Lowndes. The Sternhold and Hopkins Psalmes wants signature R₁ and R₈. and last leaf, but they do not belong to the volume, which is really perfect without them.

732 Prior (Matthew) THE HIND AND THE PANTHER TRANSVERS'D TO THE STORY OF THE COUNTRY MOUSE AND THE CITY MOUSE, FIRST EDITION, large copy, unbound W. Davis, 1687

. Written by Prior (in conjunction with Charles Montagu) while a student of St. John's College, Cambridge.

- 733 Prior (Matthew) Down-Hall, a Poem, by the late Mr. Prior, FIRST EDITION, half morocco J. Roberts, in Warwick Lane, 1723
- * * * At the end of the volume is attached a rare print by Van der Gucht, showing "Prior and John Morley in the Chariot, accompanied by Newman, Prior's Swedish servant, on the old horse Relph, on their way to inspect Down Hall." From Col. Grant's collection.
- 734 Quarles (F.) THE LOYALL CONVERT, FIRST EDITION, a very fine copy, unbound Oxford, L. Lichfield, 1643
- * * * Excessively rare. The earliest edition known to and mentioned by Mr. Sidney Lee in his article on Quarles in the Dictionary of National Biography is dated 1644, and the Huth Library only contains that issue. The work, though referred to by Lowndes, was unknown to him, he taking his reference from Watt and Chalmers, both of whom imperfectly described it. The pronounced loyalist views expressed in this tract brought on the author the animosity of the parliamentarians, who had his library searched and his manuscripts destroyed. This "stuck him so to the heart that he never recovered it."
- 735 Robinson (Richard) The Ancient Order, Societie, and Unitie Laudable, of Prince Arthure, and his knightly Armory of the Round Table. With a Threefold Assertion friendly in favour and furtherance of English Archery at this day. translated and collected by R. R. illustrated with numerous woodcuts, VERY FINE COPY, old morocco, with arms on sides imprinted by John Wolfe. Dwelling in Distaffe lane neere the signe of the Castle, 1583
- * * * This is the Sykes and Freeling copy, and the only one known to Lowndes. An interesting account of Hearne and other collectors who were not "fortunate enough to possess" this extraordinarily rare volume is written by Sir Francis Freeling on the flyleaf. The following notice, by Douce, proves the great Shakespearean interest of this Arthurian romance: "We see therefore that Shakespeare having both these shows in his recollection, has made Shallow, a talkative simpleton, refer to them indistinctly, and that probably by design, and with a due attention to the nature of his character. What Shallow afterwards says about the management of the little quiver fellow's piece, or caliver, will not weigh in either scale; because in all these shows there were musketeers. In that at Smithfield the feryers marched, consisting of 'one hundred handsome fellows with calivers on their necks, all trimly decked with white feathers in their hats.' Maister Thomas Smith, who in Mr. Malone's note is said to have personated Prince Arthur, was 'chief customer to her majesty in the port of London;' and to him Richard Robinson, a translator of several books in the reign of Elizabeth, dedicated his Auncient order, societie and unitie laudable of Prince Arthure and his knightly armory of the round table, with a threefold assertion friendly in favour and furtherance of English archery at this day. 1583, 4to. Such part of this work as regards Prince Arthur is chiefly a translation from the French, being a description of the arms of the knights of the round table; the rest is a panegyric in verse by Robinson himself in praise of archery. It appears from the dedication that King Henry VIII confirmed by charter to the citizens of London, the 'famous order of knightes of prince Arthur's round table or society: like as in his life time when he sawe a good archer in deede, he chose him and ordained such a one for a knight of the same order.' Hearne says this book was so scarce in his time that he could never get a copy of it. See preface to Leland's Collectanea, p. liii."—Illustrations of Shakespeare, pages 285 and 286. The British Museum copy of this excessively rare book is imperfect.

- 736 Sallust. The Conspiracie of Lucius Cataline. Trans. into Englishe by Thomas Gaynell, worthy profitable and pleasant to be red, black letter, old calf, fine copy of FIRST EDITION, with the rare leaf at end Londini, 1541

Le Chiese, Fabriche, Edifici, & Palazza publichi, & privati, &c. FIRST EDITION, half bound Venetia, 1581

* * * One of the books consulted by Shakespeare when composing The Merchant of Venice and Othello. This FIRST EDITION is exceedingly rare.

- 738 Sansovino (F.) Della Origine, et de Fatti delle Famiglie Illustri d'Italia, Libro Primo. Nel quale, oltre alla particular cognitione, cosi de principij, come anco delle dipendenze & parentele di esse case nobili, si veggono per lo spatio di piu di mille anni, tutte le guerre & fatti notabili, successi in Italia, & fuori, fino a tempi nostri. Con i nomi de i piu famosi Capitani & Generali che siano stati, cosi antichi, come moderni, calf extra In Venegia, 1582

* * * An account of Shakespeare's references to this very rare volume is given by Halliwell in his edition of The Tempest.

- 739 Sedley (Sir Charles) BELLAMIRA, OR THE MISTRESS, A Comedy: As it is Acted by Their Majesties Servants. Written by the Honourable Sir Charles Sedley, Baronet, FIRST EDITION, a very fine copy in the original sewn condition, edges being UNCUT, very rare in this condition

Printed by D. Mallet, for L. C. and Timothy Goodwin, at the Maiden-Head over against St. Dunstons Church in Fleet-street, 1687

At London, printed by Richard Jhones, dwelling at the signe of the Rose and Crowne neere Holburne Conduit, 1590

* * * Very scarce. This is the book, according to Moule (Bibliotheca Heraldica), Shakespeare refers to in As You Like It. See also Douce's Illustrations, vol. I, p. 363.

- 741 SHAKESPEAREANA. A Treatise on the identity of Herne's Oak, shewing the Maiden Tree to have been the Real One. By W. Perry, Wood Carver to the Queen, frontispiece, "Herne's Oak from a Drawing taken on the spot the day it fell by Miss Ingram," numerous illustrations of the famous Oak, bound in wooden covers 1867

* * * Bound in wooden covers made from the veritable "Herne's Oak" mentioned in The Merry Wives of Windsor. A certificate of authentication is pasted inside the front cover; it reads: "This is to certify that the Covers of this Book are made from a portion of Herne's Oak, given to me by Mr. Ingram of the Royal Gardens, Windsor—William Perry." Perry was wood-carver to Her Majesty Queen Victoria, and has finely carved the front cover with acorns and oak-leaves. In the centre of the front cover is a photograph of the famous "Herne's Oak."

- 742 Smyth (Sir Thomas) The Commonwealth of England, and Maner of Government Thereof. . . . With new additions of the chief Courts in England, the officers thereof, and their severall functions, by the said Author: Never before published, black letter, old calf, a remarkably fine copy printed by Valentine Simmes for George Seton, 1594

* * * This most interesting copy of a well-known Shakespearean volume belonged to W. H. Ireland, the forger of the Shakespeare papers, and was doubtless used by him when preparing his famous forgeries. Ireland's autograph is on the title-page.

- 743 Speed (Samuel) Fragmenta Carceris, or, The King's Bench Scuffle, with the Humors of the Common-Side, The King's Bench Litany and the Legend of Duke Humphrey, curious frontispiece, old half calf 1675

* * * Contains two curious references to Shakespeare. This, the Bibliotheca Anglo-Poetica copy, was formerly Park's (the Shakespearean scholar and antiquarian) and contains several important manuscript notes referring to the author of this work and to Duke Humphrey, in Park's autograph. The volume also has the ex-libris of H.R.H. the Duke of Sussex.

- 744 Tobacco. Two Broad-sides against Tobacco: the first given by King James of Famous Memory; his Counterblast to Tobacco. The second transcribed out of that learned Physician Dr. Everard Mainwaringe, His Treatise of the Scurvy to which is added Serious cautions against Excess in Drinking; Taken out of another Work of the same Author, His preservation of Health and Prolongation of Life. With a short Collection, out of Dr. George Thompson's Treatise of Bloud, Against smoking Tobacco. Also many examples of God's severe Judgments upon notorious Drunkards, who have died suddenly, in a Sermon preached by Mr. Samuel Ward. Concluding with Two Poems against Tobacco and Coffee. Collected and Published as very proper for this Age by J. H. Licensed according to Order, June 6, 1672, calf, g. e.

Printed for John Handcock, and are to be sold at the Three Bibles, in Popes Head Alley, or at other Shops, 1672

* * * This, according to Lowndes (1182), is the FIRST EDITION. A very fine copy, with a brilliant impression of the portrait of

James I, and having the excessively rare folding plate which contains curious illustrations of a Turk smoking and of a Moor drinking coffee. At signature I 2 will be found a humorous reference to Shakespeare's Othello.

Sure he suspects and shuns her as a —

And loves and kills like the Venetian Moor.

- 745 Tasso (Torquato) Il Re Torrismondo, Tragedia; accomodata di nuovo in molti luochi secondo la intentione dell' Autore, &c. PRIMA EDIZIONE, a very fine copy in its original limp vellum
