* * This is the excessively rare "Third" and the first "Pirated" edition of Bacon's Essays, and a very fine copy having the blank leaves at beginning and end which complete the first and last signatures. The first part of Cornwallis is an issue unknown to Lowndes, the second part is first edition, and the Johnson's Essays is the same edition as claimed in the Huth catalogue (in error) to be the first, it had appeared as early as 1601. The combination in this volume is interesting as it represents the only Essayists of any reputation contemporary with Bacon, and it may be noted that their several publishers considered them of sufficient importance to issue them in the same style and uniform with Bacon's own work. A somewhat similar collection sold last June for £96.

- 26 Bacon (Francis) APOPTHEGMES, NEW AND OLD, collected by the Right Honorable Francis Lo. Vervlam, Viscount St. Alban, a few pages at end a trifle wormed, old calf

London, printed for Hanna Barret and Richard Whittaker, and are to be sold at the King's Head in Paul's Church-yard, 1626

* * This is an exceedingly rare edition published the year following the first issue. It was unknown to Lowndes, and Mr. Hazlitt does not give an exact collation which is as follows: title one leaf, B to X 2 in eights.

- 27 Bacon (Francis) The Historie of Life and Death, with Observations Naturall and Experimentall for the Prolonging of Life, a finely engraved title by Glover containing a portrait of Bacon and other designs prefixed, with the very scarce "imprimatur" leaf opposite, FIRST EDITION, brown morocco extra, neat gold designs stamped on each side, g. e. by Riviere and Son J. Okes for H. Mosley, 1638

* * Very rare, and seldom found with the engraved title.

- 28 Bacon (Francis) Essays or Counsels, Civill and Morall, LARGE COPY, calf extra, rare sm. 4to. 1639

* * This edition is dedicated to the Duke of Buckingham, it has at the end, in addition to the 58 Essays, a table of the Colours of Good and Evil, a fragment on 19 unpagged leaves, which is not noticed by Lowndes. A copy sold recently in these rooms for £20 10s.

- 29 BAILEY'S LITTLE WARBLER, Collection of English, Scotch, Irish and Comic Songs, 6 very diminutive little vol. about an inch square, pretty frontispieces and engraved titles by Cruikshank, original blue morocco neat, g. e. rare 1826-7

- * * * An account of the Shakespearian interest of this rare book is given by Mr. Mallock ("New Facts relating to the Bacon-Shakespeare Question.")
- 32 BEAUMONT (FRANCIS) and FLETCHER (JOHN) POEMS, THE GOLDEN REMAINS OF THOSE SO MUCH ADMIR'D DRAMATICK POETS, containing: The Hermaphrodite two Sexes, The Remedy and Art of Love, Elegies on the most eminent Persons; with other amorous Sonnets, and conceited Fancies; together with the Prologues, Epilogues, and Songs, many of which were never before inserted in his printed Playes. The second Edition enriched with the addition of other Drolleries by severall Wits of these present Times, morocco extra, panel sides, g. e. by Riviere & Son for W. Hope, 1660
- * * * This edition is of extreme rarity, and it is the first in which Fletcher's name appears on the title in conjunction with Beaumont's as the author. According to Mr. Dyce, a great many of the poems were written by neither Beaumont nor Fletcher, some being by Ben Jonson, Donne, Randolph, &c.
- 33 Beckford (Peter) Thoughts on Hunting, illustrated by plates from original paintings, by John Scott, LARGE PAPER, a fine copy, in red morocco extra, g. e. by Riviere & Son Albion Press, 1810
- * * * The first edition with these plates, and very rare on large paper. This, too, is the earliest issue. On the title is the error ascribing the work to William instead of Peter Beckford.

prynted at London by Rouland Hall, for Nycolas England, dwellynge in Pater noster rowe, 1562-1563
- * * This is one of the most extraordinary books of the kind, and deals in an encyclopædic manner with all the details connected with life, science, and industrial art. It is evidently the result of direct observation and practice on the part of the writer, and is still capable of yielding most important suggestions to the chemist, physician, goldsmith, jeweller, perfumer, hairdresser, and nearly every other specialist. To give an adequate notion of the scope of this volume would be a task of no slight difficulty, as it, in fact, embraces every department of human knowledge at the period of the Renaissance. Some of the topics treated are: Pharmacy, Herbs, Perfumes, Colours, Precious Stones, Wines and Liqueurs, Scented Flowers, Matches and Soaps, Tooth Powders, Pommades, Washes and Lotions for the skin, Cookery, Fruit Preserving, Confectionery, Dyeing, Varnishing, Silvering, Gilding, Printers' Inks of different colours, Alchemy, Philters and Potions, Poisons (so frequent a feature in the drama), Sorcery and Enchantments, Angling, Fowling, Casting of Medals, Paste Gems. There are several remarkable entries in which animals, such as the hedgehog, beaver, &c. are recommended for incineration or decoction for medical and other like purposes, and there was no contemporary authority which was so likely to have led Shakespeare, when he makes the witches in "Macbeth" mix their cauldron, as the present, which was a publication long extremely popular. This is the first complete edition, and is in exceptionally fine state, in the original calf binding.

* * * THIS IS THE FIRST EDITION OF CAVENDISH'S LIFE OF WOLSEY, considered one of the most interesting and valuable specimens of biography in the English language. It is highly interesting as illustrating SHAKESPEARE'S PLAY OF HENRY VIII, some of the phrases and incidents being very similar, notably his last advice to "Master Kingston," p. 113. A copy sold in these rooms in 1901 for £10.

P. ib. 1613, leaf L 4 in facsimile, and a small hole in A 2, the reverse blacked, old half calf, marbled paper sides with leather label* in 1 vol.

* * * ONLY ONE OTHER OF THIS REMARKABLY INTERESTING VOLUME IS KNOWN, viz. that described by Mr. Corser in his Collectanea Anglo Poetica, which wanted three leaves, though described in error as wanting only two. THE ABOVE IS THE MOST COMPLETE COPY RECORDED. There were later editions in 1619 and 1628, but these too are excessively rare, and neither occurred in the collections of Steevens, Bindley, Perry, Sykes, Hibbert, Rice, Heber, &c. nor in the Bibliotheca Anglo Poetica; indeed, such is the rarity of the first poem, that Mr. Collier speaks of it in his Poetical Decameron (vol. II, p. 112) as "quite a new discovery in the history of our poetry," and says in another passage, that "it is a production hitherto unseen, and displays very considerable poetical talent" (see note in the Huth Catalogue to the 1628 edition). Mr. Corser strongly believed Alcilia to be the work of John Chalkhill, both from the initials J. C. and from internal evidence; he was also of the opinion that the "Letter written by a gentleman to the author, his friend," which is prefixed, WAS THE PRODUCTION OF ISAAC WALTON, under the assumed name of "Philaretus." These claims have been disputed by Mr. Grosart in his reprint, but we cannot help taking Corser's view, when we turn to the third part of the present volume, The Love of Amos and Laura, and find it is dedicated "TO MY APPROVED AND MUCH RESPECTED FRIEND IZ. WA." This is strong evidence, when we bear in mind the association which has elsewhere been claimed for Walton and Chalkhill, in the publication of Thealma and Clearchus, some years later. At this time (1613) Walton was only twenty years of age. Bibliographers hitherto have said that his known connection with literary matters did not take place till six years later (1619), but this mistaken assumption is easily accounted for by the fact, that Mr. Corser's copy of the above volume, the only one which could be previously consulted, wanted the very important leaf bearing Walton's name; the statement therefore was based on the second edition (1619), which is in the British Museum. THE PRESENT COPY, EXCLUSIVE OF ITS RARITY, IS EXCEEDINGLY VALUABLE; IT SHOWS, WITHOUT DOUBT, HOW WALTON'S DEVOTION TO LITERATURE MUST HAVE BEGUN AT A VERY EARLY AGE. The portion entitled Alcilia, consists of "Passionate Sonnets," and is a very pleasing and elegant production, which displays no little poetical talent, combined with much delicacy of expression, and smooth and harmonious versification. Marston's Pigmalion was written professedly to ridicule certain free and licentious poems then fashionable, such as SHAKESPEARE'S Venus and Adonis, and MARLOWE'S Hero and Leander, but itself falling into similar indecencies was liable to the same condemnation. It contains thirty-nine stanzas in the same measure with Shakespeare's poem, and had previously appeared in 1598, with Certaine Satyrs, therefore this is the second edition of Marston's work. Samuel Page's The Love of Amos and Laura, sometimes ascribed to Samuel Purchas (author of The Pilgrimage) is written in couplets, and though not remarkable for any great or striking merit, IT IS OF THE GREATEST INTEREST AND IMPORTANCE on account of ITS ALLUSIONS TO SHAKESPEARE'S Venus and Adonis and his Rape of Lucrece, besides Marlowe's Hero and Leander.

- 190 Chettle (Henry) ENGLANDES MOURNING GARMENT: WORNE HERE BY PLAINE SHEPHEARDES; in memorie of their sacred Mistresse, Elizabeth, Queene of Vertue while shee liued, and Theame of Sorrow, being dead. printed at London by V. S. for Thomas Millington, and are to be sold at his shop vnder saint Peters Church in Cornhill, n. d. but 1603

* * In this remarkably rare volume Chettle, in an interesting manner, alludes to SHAKESPEARE, Ben Jonson, Chapman, Drayton, &c. under assumed names, and notices some of their works in a quaint manner; Shakespeare is styled the "smooth-tongued Melicent" and "the silver-tongued Melicent." A notice of the work, taken from the second edition, will be found in Collier's Bibl. Cat. I, pp. 129-31, where it says: "Chettle here alludes to SHAKESPEARE under the name of Melicent, and seems to intimate that the great poet had received from the Queen special marks of favour, which he ought to requite by some tribute to her memory," &c. See the Huth Libry. Catalogue. Mr. Frederick Locker's copy, formerly Mr. Halliwell's, is imperfect, wanting no less than five leaves. The present copy, apart from being soiled, is quite perfect in every respect, and as far as we can trace is the only complete one which has come up for sale since 1867 (the Corser sale).

leaves are slightly touched, otherwise a fine sound copy, sewn, unbound (exceedingly rare) for Nathaniell Butler, 1608

- * * This is an amusing production, full of curious allusions to the manners and habits of the period, and the passing notices of the loose and fleeting fashions of the age are very entertaining and attractive, its popularity was extraordinary, for it was printed three times in the same year. John Payne Collier, in his Bibliographical Account of the Rarest Books in the English Language, quotes a passage which he says affords a useful note to Shakespeare's 'King Lear,' which first came out the same year (1608). Isaac Reed also quotes the same passage, but he does not seem to have known any edition of 'The Belman' prior to 1616.

The work is very entertaining and was published as a second part to "The Belman," it has a canting dictionary on signature C2, and prefixed are some poems.

* * Contains an introduction by the Shakespearean actors, Lowin and Taylor. A long account of it will be found in Payne-Collier's "Actors in Shakespeare's Plays" (printed for the Shakespeare Society, 1846). The reference to Shakespeare is curious: "If our care and endeavours to do our Authors right (in an incorrupt and genuine Edition of their Works) and thereby to gratifie and oblige the Reader, be but requited with a suitable entertainment, we shall be encourag'd to bring Ben Jonson's two volumes into one, and publish them in this form; and also to reprint Old Shakespear: both which are designed by."—(Booksellers to reader). Wilson, 1646
- * * Probably written in Shakespeare's time, as Buck died in 1623. Hazlitt, in his handbook, assumes it was written fifty years before it was first printed, but Malone doubts that Buck was the real author, although Ritson insists on it. Contrary to all previous writers, Buck makes King Richard an admirable man, and not at all the same as Shakespeare and other authors describe him. The work is dedicated to the Earl of Pembroke, and this, the FIRST EDITION, is very scarce, the second issue (1647) sold in these rooms (May, 1900) for £5 10s., and the first, last year, for £6 17s. 6d.

"Of the ancient story-books, this is considered one of the most amusing, and the outlines of some of the best tales of Chaucer, Gower, Lydgate, Shakespeare, and their successors, may be traced in it. Boccaccio is also said to have laid it under ample contribution. For a description of its contents and merits, see the dissertation in Douce's Illustrations of Shakespeare and Warton's History of English Poetry." A fine copy with large margins.

295 [COOPER (J. FENIMORE)] Notions of the Americans, picked up by a Travelling Bachelor, FIRST EDITION, 2 vol. half calf Colburn, 1828

* * RUSKIN'S COPY, with very numerous marginal MS. notes throughout, presumably in his hand, and with the following autograph inscription on the fly-leaf: "I have read this book. The moral axioms evolved from abstruse scientific abstracts, as exemplified in the primary condition of a nation, in these pages is, to say the least, 'gratis dictum,' and the author has not even this consolation that—'Finis coronat opus.' John Ruskin, Yewdale, July, 1864." The above is interesting as indicating Ruskin's belief as to the ultimate outcome of the American Civil War. The marginal notes throughout the volume are couched in an extremely critical vein, and the authorship of the book (which was published anonymously, and which purports to be the observations of an English traveller) is attributed, in one of the notes, to Washington Irving.

A MS. note relating to Hasted, by J. O. in vol. II, p. 472, two extra views are inserted. Accompanying the work is a volume containing impressions from seals, which are thus described in a pamphlet entitled, "Visits of the London and Middlesex Archæological Society to Rochester and Strood in 1884": Mr. H. W. Wright, of Grove Villa, Frindsbury, exhibited a folio volume of seals, the property of Hasted, the Kentish historian, which had descended to his own family. Inside the cover is inscribed, "Joseph Oliver, Hollingbourne" (to whom it was given by the son of Hasted), and the seals are preceded by these words: "The following seals were the collection of the famous John Evelyn, Esqre. author of the Sylva, &c. . . . They were given to me by the family.—E. H. 1765." Included also are copies of the will and codicil of Hasted, with directions for his funeral, and will of his son, the Rev. Edward Hasted.

LOT 563.

OLDSMITH (OLIVER) THE HISTORY OF ENGLAND, from the earliest times to the death of George II, 4 vol. FIRST EDITION, numerous vignette portraits, a very fine copy in the old half blue paper boards, edges UNCUT, as published, exceedingly scarce in this fine state
T. Davies, &c. 1771

* * This is believed to be a large paper copy, and is probably unique in such state. Goldsmith also wrote another History of England for school use, a distinct publication from the above work.

- 564 Goldsmith (Oliver) SHE STOOPS TO CONQUER, or THE MISTAKES OF A NIGHT, a Comedy, as it is acted at the Theatre Royal in Covent Garden, FIRST EDITION, green morocco extra, g. e. by Leighton
F. Newberry, 1773

* * This is a copy of the genuine first issue, it varies considerably both in the preliminary matter and in the book itself from the other editions published the same year. The preliminary pages consist of title, 1 leaf; dedication to Johnson, with Prologue by Garrick, 1 leaf; Epilogue, 1 leaf; Epilogue by J. Craddock, with Dramatis Personæ, 1 leaf; in all 4 leaves. This edition was issued without half-title, the original price coming at the foot of the title, in the other issue this occurs on the half-title. The Comedy, B to P 1 in fours, the paginations and signatures are very incorrectly marked, some of the variations are important, we note the following which were corrected in later issues: page 9, sig. C 1, the catchword "Scene" is here printed in small type; sig. K 1, page 65, misprinted 56; sig. L 1 misprinted I, and its pagination misprinted, but a hole is punctured by the printing of them, the headline of this page also misprinted "A Comedy"; sig. L 2, 75-76, misprinted 83-68; sig. L 3, 77-78, misprinted 69-86, the headline of 77 misprinted; sig. L 4, 79-80, misprinted 87-72; sig. M 1, misprinted K, the headlines of this and the former page both misprints, reads The Mistakes of a Night, a Comedy, the paging is also wrong, instead of 81-2 it is marked 73-90; sig. M 2, 83-4, misprinted as 91-76, the headline of the last named is again incorrect; sig. M 3, 85-86, misprinted as 77-94, the headline of the former an error; sig. M 4, 87-88, misprinted as 95-80, the headline of the last named being in error;

sig. N 1, 89-90, misprinted as 97-98, then the pagination runs consecutively to last page which is numbered as 114, but the book really consists of 106 pages. These errors in this first issue seem to have been hitherto overlooked, and Mr. Locker's copy is incorrectly described as consisting of 114 pages. It is no doubt a copy of the rare first issue as this is. The catchword page 100 (reverse of N 2) is a misprint, "Tony" for "Hastings."

- 565 Goldsmith (O.) SHE STOOPS TO CONQUER, OR THE MISTAKES OF A NIGHT, a Comedy, as it is acted at the Theatre Royal in Covent Garden, FIRST EDITION, a large and fine copy with the very rare half title, and the late epilogue leaf at end, sewn F. Newberry, 1773

* * Collation of this copy is half-title with price on it, 1 leaf; title, 1 leaf; Dedication and Prologue, 1 leaf; Epilogue and Dramatis Personæ, 1 leaf; The Comedy, pp. 1 to 106, or signatures, B to P 1 in fours, and 1 leaf, p. 2, Epilogue by J. Craddock, reverse of this leaf is blank.

- 566 Goldsmith (O.) Essays, vignette title, crushed levant morocco extra, g. e. by Riviere 1775

* * Fine LARGE PAPER copy, rare in this form.

- 567 [Goldsmith (O.)] The History of Little Goody Two-Shoes, otherwise called Mrs. Margery Two-Shoes, with the Means by which she acquired her Learning and Wisdom, and in consequence thereof her Estate, &c. frontispiece and numerous woodcuts, in the original pictorial boards 1780

- 569 Gower (John) OVID'S FESTIVALLS, OR ROMANE CALENDAR, FIRST EDITION, a few wormholes in blank margins, otherwise a fine copy in the old calf, many untrimmed edges Cambridge, R. Daniel, 1640

* * A very large copy of this scarce poetical volume. It has the blank leaf before title and the Imprimatur leaf at end, these are generally wanting.

- 570 Gracian (Lorenzo) The Heroe of Lorenzo, or the Way to Eminence and Perfection, a piece of serious Spanish Wit, originally in that language written, calf 1652

* * This excessively rare volume contains the famous Shakespearean story of the Jew and the Pound of Flesh: "A Jew pretended to cut an ounce of the flesh of a Christian upon a penalty of Usury; he urged it to the Prince, with as much obstinacy as perfidiousness towards God. The great Judge commanded a pair of scales to be brought, threatening the Jew with death if he cut either more or less, and this was to give a sharp decision to a malicious process, and to the world a miracle of subtilty." This copy is annotated throughout in a contemporary hand.

- 571 Gray (Thomas) Poems, FIRST EDITION, a fine copy in calf extra, t. e. g. uncut, by F. Bedford J. Dodsley, 1768

* * Very scarce in this fine uncut condition.

- 574 GREENAWAY (K.) ORIGINAL WATER-COLOUR DRAWING (a group of nine female figures picking blossoms), charmingly executed in light tones, in the artist's happiest style, size 5 by 3 in. with broad margin, signed "K. G. Xmas. 1883."
- 575 HALES (Judge) The Communication betwene my Lord Chauncelor and Judge Hales, being among other judges to take his oth in Westminster Hall, anno M.D.LVIII, VI of October, red morocco, g. e.
 s. l. 1553
 * * An extremely rare tract of 4 leaves, bearing no name or place of printing, but attributed in the Grenville catalogue to a Rouen press. It is printed in a foreign-looking roman type. In this small and peculiarly scarce piece we possess an almost unique glimpse of a scene in Westminster Hall, between Bishop Gardiner as Lord Chancellor, and one of the judges, who was evidently not afraid to express his mind. The tract is doubtless correctly ascribed to a foreign press, Rouen has been suggested, and we believe that not more than three or four copies have survived. No English printer would have ventured to commit the matter here found to print. This tract arose out of the reported indictment by Hales of certain priests in Kent for saying mass. . . It is as rare as it is curious and valuable in a historical point of view.
- 576 Hall (John) POEMS, FIRST EDITION, fine portrait by W. Marshall, neatly mended in inner margin, large copy in the original sheep Cambridge, 1646
 * * An exceedingly rare volume to find with the very scarce portrait, which is nearly always wanting.

 Zurich by Olyver Jacobson, 1543
 * * This rare volume from the Zurich press is usually and no doubt correctly ascribed to John Ball Bishop of Ossory.
- 578 Heath (Baron) Account of the Company of Grocers of the City of London, LARGE AND THICK PAPER, frontispiece and cuts of arms, FINE COPY, brown morocco super extra, border of gold on sides, gilt top edges, UNCUT, by Holloway 1869
 * * Only a few copies privately printed. Baron Heath's copy sold for £6 10s.

- 579 Hawkins (Francis) Youth's Behaviour, or Decency in Conversation amongst Men, composed in French by Grave Persons for the Use and Benefit of Youth, translated by the Nephew to Sir Francis Hawkins, eighth impression with the addition of three tables not until 1662 printed, portrait of author, and print of Virtue and Vice by Cross—The second part of Youth's Behaviour, or Decency in Conversation amongst Women, by Robert Codrington, with portrait of Lady Ferrers, containing excellent directions for the Education of Young Ladies, Gentlewomen, &c. whereunto is added a collection of Proverbs and Wise Sentences, some leaves wormed, old calf 1663

* * Under the heading of Comedies: Kind of Fables, Terence, Plautus, Shakspeare, Ben Jonson, Beaumont and Fletcher, excellent comedians; Poetry: Famous in Poetry, many of later times, as Shakspeare, &c. In the second part is a list of books for the entertainment of Young Gentlewomen in their Hours of Recreation. There are about 1,500 Proverbs, some of them very quaint.

- 580 Herbert (George) THE TEMPLE, SACRED POEMS AND PRIVATE EJACULATIONS, by Mrs. George Herbert, Psalm 29, "In his Temple doth every man speak of his honour," FIRST EDITION, a remarkably fine copy, save for a few slight stains and wormholes, in the original calf as issued, clean and sound, inclosed in a new slip morocco case

Cambridge, printed by Tho. Buck and Roger Daniel, printers to the Universitie, 1633

* * This which has long been called the first published edition of Herbert's Temple, is exceedingly rare. It was thought that the issue without date, of which only two copies are known, viz. the Huth example and one in the United States, which sold in New York in 1894 for 1,050 dollars was earlier, but of this there is no positive proof. The imprint of the undated issue bears 'and are to be sold by Francis Green, Stationer in Cambridge' after Buck and Daniel's names, it is therefore reasonable to assume that that was the first edition published for sale, and that the above was really issued before it. Mr. Frederick Locker says in a note to his copy, "it is probable that the present (dated 1633 edition) is a copy of the genuine privately printed edition, and that Mr. Huth's, and the one similar copy extant, belong to a small impression which was accidentally allowed to get into circulation with the announcement that the book was for sale."

- 581 Herbert (G.) THE TEMPLE, Sacred Poems and Private Ejaculations, by Mr. George Herbert, late Oratour of the Universitie of Cambridge, second edition, a fine copy in the original olive morocco extra, gold tooling on sides, g. e.

printed by T. Buck and R. Daniel, printers to the Universitie of Cambridge, 1633

* * This is the genuine second edition; as will be seen the setting out of the title is quite different from the first set out above, and as a matter of fact the book internally is different in many respects and seems to have been re-set.

- 582 Herbert (G.) REMAINS, or Sundry Pieces of that sweet singer of the Temple (containing A Priest to the Temple, Jacula Prudentum, or Outlandish Proverbs and Apophthegmes, &c.) FIRST EDITION, a fine copy in the original calf T. Maxey for T. Garthwait, 1652

583 Henley (W. E.) Lyra Heroica, a Book of Verse for Boys, one of 20 large paper copies on Japanese vellum, uncut Nutt, 1892

584 Hibernian Magazine (The), or Compendium of Entertaining Knowledge, with many hundreds of plates, portraits, caricatures, patterns and music, 36 vol. calf and half calf, several plates being wanting as usual 1775-1809

* * An unusually long run of this scarce magazine. It is valued highly for the Criticisms and Strictures on Dramatic Performances, and for its full and lucid details of the various incidents of the American War of Independence. The engravings in point of excellence are superior to any of its contemporaries.

585 HINDI MYSTICAL, OR MYTHOLOGICAL ROLL in the Hindi character, 32 ft. long by 5 $\frac{3}{4}$ wide, in coloured borders, and commences with a large singular painting SÆC. XVIII

586 HOPTON (ARTHUR) A Concordancy of Yeares, containing a new, easie, and most exact computation of Time, according to the English Account, also the Use of the English and Roman Kalendar, with briefe Notes, Rules and Tables, as well Mathematicall and Legal, as Vulgar, for each private Man's Occasion, black and roman letter, woodcut title, original calf 1616

* * For an account of this rare Shakespearian volume see Allibone. The modern commentators on Shakespeare have strangely neglected this book, though it is mentioned by his older editors. This copy contains the rare leaf (almost always wanting) at end, with its curious illustration.

587 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIE VIRGINIS cum Calendario, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM RICHLY ILLUMINATED (184 ll. 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ by 4 $\frac{1}{4}$ in.) written in bold gothic letters, long lines, 17 to a full page, by a French (Flemish) scribe and illuminator, Calendar in French in blue, red and gold, with signs of the Zodiac and Occupations of the Month, every page having a richly decorated lateral border of conventional floreate ornaments, in various patterns, 17 small miniatures of Evangelists, Saints and Martyrs with their emblems, 13 LARGE FINELY PAINTED AND ILLUMINATED MINIATURES of the usual subjects, within rich borders, and many rich ornamental initials and illuminated details (some margins cut close); old French brown morocco with gilt ornaments SÆC. XV

* * At the end of this richly decorated MS. are "Commendationes Defunctorum," 14 ll. with signs. aa-bb; followed by "Belles Preparations pour le Saint Sacrement," printed in gothic letters, à Paris par Joland Bonhomme, 1557; followed by "Les quinze Oraisons S. Brigidi," &c. 12 ll. printed in lettres bâtarde, with sign. A.

588 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIE VIRGINIS cum Calendario, ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON STOUT VELLUM (162 ll. 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ by 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ in.) written in bold gothic characters, in red and black, Calendar in gold, blue and red, long lines, 13 to a full page, written probably by a Northern French scribe, perhaps at Rouen ("Les Reliques de Baieux" and Translation of S. Thos. à Beckett occur in the Calendar for July), with 9 LARGE FINELY PAINTED

(Derome), in morocco case SÆC. XV

* * This is a fine volume, some of the miniatures and borders being apparently taken from other MSS. Several of the miniatures are, however, of very fine workmanship, notably the four Evangelists in arcades, very richly gilded; the Annunciation, the Raising of Lazarus, and David and Bathsheba, within gold architectural frames richly illuminated, of an earlier period than the others. The later ones of the Nativity, Offerings of the Wise Men, Death of the Virgin, Coronation of the Virgin and Descent of the Holy Ghost are also very fine.

- 590 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIE VIRGINIS cum Calendario, ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (174 ll.) written in gothic letters by a French scribe (Calendar and Prayers at end in French), every page having an outside border, 24 small miniatures of the Signs of the Zodiac and Occupations of the Months in the Calendar, 18 similar ones of the Saints, Evangelists, &c. with borders and 14 BEAUTIFUL LARGE MINIATURES, surrounded with borders, all the borders are of conventional scroll, flower and fruit work, many having natural birds and grotesque animals introduced; many hundred ornamental initials and details (some MS. notes of remarkable occurrences in France in 1584 are written in the Calendar), modern purple morocco with blind stamped ornament, in morocco case SÆC. XV

- 591 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIE VIRGINIS cum Calendario, RICHLY ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (180 ll. 6¾ by 4½ in.) very finely written in gothic letters, long lines, 15 to a page, rubrics in red in Latin and French, Calendar in blue and gold, by a French scribe and illuminator, every page has an outside border of conventional flower scroll decoration, including some heads of Saints, 10 FINELY PAINTED AND ILLUMINATED MINIATURES of the usual subjects in the Lives of Christ and the Virgin, within richly illuminated floreate borders, many large and small illuminated initials, and decorative details, old calf SÆC. XV-XVI

* * An old MS. inscription on paper pasted in front cover reads as follows:—"Ut regi nostri Henrico Christianissimo Filium regni Francorum heredem fructuosū tua Pietate concedere digneris te rogamus." The last eleven leaves are in XVIth century lettres bâtarde, headed "Passio Domini nostri Jhesu Christi."

592 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIE VIRGINIS (sine Calendario), ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (148 ll. $6\frac{3}{8}$ by $4\frac{3}{4}$ in.) written in bold gothic letters, long lines, 17 to a full page, by a French scribe, 27 small miniatures of Evangelists and Saints with their emblems, 8 FULL-PAGE PAINTED AND VERY RICHLY ILLUMINATED MINIATURES of the usual subjects, WITHIN EXTRAORDINARY BORDERS, chiefly of conventional flower scrolls, but containing some VERY INTERESTING AND UNUSUAL HUMAN AND ANIMAL MONSTROSITIES; numerous illuminated ornamental initials and decorative details, old French brown morocco, devices on sides, floreate borders, centre laurel wreaths enclosing Name "MARIE DE VERBERIE," leather and silver clasps, g. e. * * * THIS EARLY EDITION OF HOYLE'S CELEBRATED TREATISE ON WHIST IS BELIEVED TO BE UNIQUE. The copy preserved in the Bodleian Library bearing the imprint "London, printed by John Watts for the author, 1742" is said to be the FIRST EDITION, and is also a unique example.

printed for W. Sheares, 1633

* * This volume was issued with two titles; in the first it was called "Tragedies and Comedies of John Marston," but as the very name of Tragedy and Comedy seemed to have given offence to some the title was altered to the one set out above, "The Workes, &c." To some copies was added a Dedication to the Viscountess Fawkland (4 pp.), this dedication is of considerable importance as it gives an account of the altering of the titles to the book, and it is only found in copies bearing the above title-page.

H. Denham, 1565

* * A most difficult Elizabethan volume to find in thoroughly satisfactory state, like the present, and the first complete issue of the version by Barnaby Googe. The Zodiac of Life was long a favourite book, and there is in Mr. Hazlitt's edition of Warton's English Poetry, 1871, IV, 323-30, an elaborate review of it, with extracts, and a reference to Pope's obligations to the work.

- 661 Parrot (Henry) Laquei Ridiculosi: or Springes for Woodcocks, curious woodcut on title-page, morocco extra, g. e. 1613

* * One of the rarest volumes in the whole range of dramatic literature. This copy (which belonged to his friend Park) was much used by Edmond Malone when compiling his "Historical Account of the English Stage." Mr. Lee reprints the epigram entitled Theatrum Licencia in his Life of Shakespeare. Payne Collier believed that Parrot was an actor at the Fortune Theatre. In his Bridgewater catalogue he remarks:

Parrot's productions themselves are much more remarkable for their indelicacy and coarseness than for their wit or humour; but a few of them, like the following, touch pleasantly upon the manners of the times. It is numbered 55, of the first book:

"Veniunt spectentur ut ipsi.

"When yong Rogers goes to see a play
His pleasure is you place him on the Stage
The better to demonstrate his aray
And how he sits attended by his Page
That onely serves to fill those pipes with smoke
For which he pawned hath his riding cloke."

As the names given to the persons introduced are all fictitious, it is hardly possible to ascertain to whom the Epigrams relate. The subsequent specimen (Epigr. 45, of Book II), has obviously a personal reference—possibly to Nathaniel Field, the celebrated juvenile actor and poet:

"Who braves it now as doth yong Histrion,
Walking in Pauls like to some Potentate.
Richly replenisht from the top to th' toe,
As if he were deriv'd from high estate?
Alas there's not a man but may descry
His begging trade, and bastard faculty."

When in Parke's possession this copy lacked sheet K—this has since been supplied in facsimile. In spite of this imperfection it was priced £10 10s. in the B. A. P.

The present copy is in an old blue morocco binding in excellent preservation, and has belonged to a lady, to whom it was presented by Thomas Heneage, not only a connection of Shakespear's Southampton, but himself a verse writer, as we know from a MS. lately discovered, and from some lines in his autograph with his signature on the fly-leaf of this present volume. On another leaf occurs a transcript by him of verses written by Queen Elizabeth in a book not specified, and not otherwise known. Eton, Winetavern Street (1812)—DECLARATION OF RIGHTS, broadside (1812)*

* * Both these publications of Shelley are of EXCESSIVE RARITY, as most of the copies were seized at Holyhead, and became the subject of some correspondence between the Post Office and the Home Office. The present copies are sewn together in one cover with three important original letters respecting them at the end. The first letter is from W. D. Fellowes to Sir Francis Freeling (Secretary of the Post Office), dated from Holyhead, March 31, 1812, and is marked "most private." It runs :

The Surveyor of the Customs House consulted me yesterday on having discovered in the Custom House a few days since a large deal box, directed to Miss Hichener, Hurstpierpoint, Brighton, Sussex, England, which had been landed from one of the Packets from Ireland. It contained, besides a great quantity of Pamphlets, an open letter of a tendency so dangerous to Government, that I urged him to write, without further loss of time, a confidential letter, either to the Secretary of State, or to Mr. Percival, and enclose the letter, and one each of the Pamphlets and printed Declarations (as they are styled), which he accordingly did, by yesterday's post, to Mr. Percival. As the letter in question, which the Surveyor gave me to read, contained a paragraph injurious to the revenue of the P. Office, I think it my duty to make you acquainted with it—it is as follows : "Percy has sent you a box full of inflammable matter, therefore I think I may send this" . . . "Disperse the Declarations, Percy says the Farmers are fond of having them stuck on their walls," &c.

The second letter announces the dispatch of the Pamphlets and Declaration of Rights. The third letter is from Lord Chichester, Postmaster-General to Sir Francis Freeling, and says :

I return the Pamphlet and Declaration, the writer of the first is son of Mr. Shelley, Member for the Rape of Bramber, and is by all accounts a most extraordinary Man. I hear that he has married a Servant, or some person of very low birth; he has been in Ireland some time, and I heard of his speaking at the Catholic Convention. Miss Hichener, of Hurstpierpoint, keeps a School there, and is well spoken of; her Father keeps a Publick House in the Neighbourhood, he was originally a Smugler and changed his name from Yorke to Hichener before he took the Public House. I shall have a watch upon the daughter and discover whether there is any Connection between her and Shelley."

Miss Hichener was "the Brown Demon" referred to in Shelley's Life.

A Strawberry Edition to be delivered on my death to Thomas Barrett, Esq. of Lee in Kent. H. W." Also with Walpole's seal.

 * * "This rare book has never been brought into connection with Shakespeare, yet it has for a long time appeared to me to be of singular interest as a popular book at about the time when we may suppose that Shakespeare planted the mulberry tree in the garden at New Place. It is dedicated to 'the most renowned Patronesse and Noble Muse of Learning, Marie Countesse of Pembroke.' The author's account of Pyramis and Thisbe apparently bears traces of a reading of the 'Midsummer Night's Dream.'"—Halliwell's "Collection of Shakesperiana," 1866. The B. A. P. copy was priced £15 15s. in 1815.
- 744 MONTE-ROCHERII (Guido de) Manipulus Curatorum, MANUSCRIPT on paper, 302 pp. double columns, rubricated, old calf gilt circa 1400

Aegidius, Hythlodæus, & Jo. Clemens, and several ornamental capitals, original calf*
 [Colophon] Basilæ, apud Jo. Frobenium mense Decembri, 1518
 * * It has not been generally noticed that there are two issues of this, the first complete edition of the Utopia with the Epigrammata of More and Erasmus annexed. One appeared in November-December, 1518, the other in March, 1518-19, the present is the anterior or scarcer one. The engraved title to the Utopia was designed by Holbein, those to the Epigrams by Urs Graf, whose monogram they bear. This is one of the capital books of the world, and complete copies of 1518, with all the three portions together, are most difficult to obtain in such large clean state as the present, which is in the original calf binding. The first impression of Utopia, 1516, does not include the Epigrams.

- 747 Musaeus. Musaei, Moschi & Bionis, quae Extant Omnia: quibus accessere quaedam selectiora Theocriti Eidyllia, impressa majore Charactere, Sculptura adornata, Latinoque Carmine reddita, Graecis e regione appositis, autore DAVIDE WHITFORDE, with two beautiful engravings by William Faithorne, original vellum

- 748 NOBLE (Mark, Historian and Divine) A. L. s. 3½ pp. 4to, Barming Parsonage, Sept. 23, 1808, to Thomas Hill

When in Town I accidentally said to Mr. Du Bois that I had in one of my Portfolios a paper relative to Shakespeare, he said much about having it for the Mirror. Some things are quite new in it, and it is by far the best statement of his (Shakespeare's) family yet given. I am somewhat inclined to let you have this paper, but it must not involve me in any dispute with Mr. Malone or any other. I love literature, but I detest all literary squabbles. Let me have your precise answer. Mr. du Bois gave me a tract by Gilchrist relative to Ben Jonson's envy of Shakespeare. I think it is conclusive as far as to refute Messrs. Malone & Chalmers, but I will not say it as to what relates to Drummond of Hawthornden; yet as to that it was more a rambling conversation, supposing it true which I am inclined to think it was, than a studied desire to depreciate his Friend. We speak sometimes what we would not write, in the course of familiar dialogue. I am convinced that Ben loved Will. He valued his own Greek and Latin, & there he felt his superiority; but as to genius I really believe he gave the palm to Avon's Sweet Swan.....If you should much wish for the Shakespearean Paper you may announce it in the next Mirror, and I will send it up in time for you, it would probably attract the attention of the lovers of that little less than divine Poet, &c. &c.

- 749 Paulus Germanus de Middelburgo. Paulina de recta Paschæ celebratione, et die passionis D.N. Iesu Christi, roman letter, 4 pp. within beautiful arabesque borders, remarkable full-page woodcut on p. 5 and numerous ornamental initials, old half binding

* * Stated by Field to have been secretly printed at a private press. Only three copies appear to be known. The other two are in the British Museum and the Advocates' Library.

- 754 PLAYS. An Ordinance of the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament, for the utter suppression and abolishing of all Stage-Plays and Interludes, with the Penalties to be inflicted upon the Actors and Spectators herein exprest, morocco, uncut imprinted at London for John Wright, at the King's-Head in the old Bayley, 1647

* * An excessively rare tract of seven leaves ; as an UN CUT COPY it is possibly UNIQUE. Inserted is a letter from Payne Collier to George Daniel, dated June 28, 1831, Collier writes : " I thank you for your invitation and will avail myself of it without fail. I promise myself great pleasure in looking over your treasures, qualified, though it may be, by some tincture of envy. However, I will make up my mind to be as little spiteful as possible." In 1846 Collier gave an account of this tract in his "Memoirs of the Principal Actors in the Plays of Shakespeare." No copy is cited in Lowe's Bibliography of Dramatic Works.

SÆC. XVII (circa 1660)

* * This play, the scene of which lies in Oxford, appears to have never been printed, and is unmentioned by Langbaine, Halliwell, Hazlitt, and other bibliographers of the drama.

- 756 PORRY (John) A Geographical Historie of Africa, . . . wherein he hath at large described, not onely the qualities, situations, and true distances of the regions, cities, townes, mountaines, rivers, and other places throughout the north and principall partes of Africa ; but also the descents and families of their kings, &c. Before which, out of the best ancient and moderne writers, is prefixed a generall description of Africa, and also a particular treatise of all the maine lands and isles undescribed by John Leo, . . . translated and collected by John Porry, folding map, original calf Londini, 1600 which was raging in London at the time James I succeeded to the English crown. The first collection of occasional prayers published in the reign of James I, and of EXTREME RARITY.

- 759 PRYNNE (W.) HISTRIO-MASTIX. The Players Scourge or Actors Tragedie, in two parts, FIRST EDITION, a remarkably fine clean and sound copy in the original calf, very rare for Michael Sparke, 1633

* * For the publication of this work Prynne was sentenced by the Star Chamber to pay a fine of £5,000, to be disbarred, and to lose his ears in the pillory. It is very curious for the history of the early English stage and allusions to Shakespeare, amongst which it is stated, "Shakespeare's Plaies are printed in the best Crowne paper far better than most Bibles." The present copy contains the leaf respecting ladies of quality acting on the stage (p. 708), which the Privy Council ordered to be cancelled before publication.

- 760 Quarles (Francis) SIONS SONETS sung by Solomon the King and Periphras'd, fine woodcut title, and ornamental headline on each page, large copy with the blank leaf before title, in brown morocco extra, g. e. by Riviere & Son, very rare W. Stansby, 1625

- 761 Quarles (F.) THE LOYALL CONVERT, FIRST EDITION, a very fine copy in brown morocco extra, edges uncut, by Riviere & Son Oxford, L. Lichfield, 1643

* * Excessively rare, perhaps unique. The earliest edition known to and mentioned by Mr. Sidney Lee in his article on Quarles in the Dictionary of National Biography is dated 1644, and the Huth Library only contains that issue. The work, though referred to by Lowndes, was unknown to him, he taking his reference from Watt and Chalmers, both of whom imperfectly described it. The pronounced loyalist views expressed in this tract brought on the author the animosity of the parliamentarians, who had his library searched and his manuscripts destroyed. This "stuck him so to the heart that he never recovered it."

- 762 Quarles (F.) The Loyall Convert, another edition, some paginations cut, brown calf, g. e. by Riviere & Son ib. 1644

* * This is also a very scarce edition and is the same as in the Huth library, and hitherto by many thought to be the first issue.

Out of Italian by S. R. Gent, black letter, a large copy, but some leaves stained, unbound*

Imprinted at London by Richard Jhones, 1582

* * UNIQUE, AND HITHERTO UNKNOWN TO ALL BIBLIOGRAPHERS (collation A to F in fours). The 1591 edition was sold at the Corser sale in 1870 for £21 15s. and is now in the Huth Library, the following note is attached to it in the library catalogue "From the collections of Sir Francis Freeling and Mr. Corser. Believed to be the only copy known. Herbert describes an edition of this book by the same printer, in 1577. The only perfect copy of that impression seems to be that which was sold at the Roxburghe sale, but a very imperfect one occurred in an auction in 1877. It collates A—H 2 in fours. Lowndes suggests that the initials S. R. of the translator may indicate SAMUEL ROWLANDS; but that is quite out of the question." The work is an entertaining collection of precepts written as a guide for the behaviour of young gentlemen, as can be gathered from the heading of some of the chapters, viz: Chap. I "How a yonge Gentilman may behave himself in all companies and be prepared for ordinary entertainments, and to get a good opinion and credit among his betters"; Chap. IV "What manners be requisite at the Table, and what to bee shunned: for, what is to be considered in the washing before Dinner, and in the sitting downe, is set forth in the beginning of this Direction." There is a spirited poem in three stanzas prefixed, entitled "The Censure of a friende, concerning this worke."

* * An extremely interesting little volume containing no less than six references denouncing stage-plays. These references are of peculiar importance, being contemporaneous with Shakespeare, who at this period (the dedication of the above volume is dated December 24th, 1591) had produced Love's Labour's Lost and Two Gentlemen of Verona. The first treatise, "The Order of Householde Government," contains, on p. 24, the following: "And if any prophane his Sabboth, by vain pastimes, going to plaies," &c. In "A Table of the Principles of Religion," p. 107, we read: ". . . in which sort we speak sometime of women, sometime of holy matrimony, yea, sometime of the joyes of heaven and paines of hell, making foolish and vaine plaies of these thinges." At p. 108 a reference to Proverbs, c. 2, v. 1, where, the author states, "jestes" and "playes" are condemned. Again: "So Esai 58, 13. Hereby is confuted their opinion, that take it a Sabboth kept, if they rest from their labours, so in the meane time they labor in plaies, dansings, vain songs & enterludes, &c." Perhaps the most interesting reference, however, is that on pp. 186-187 in the final treatise, viz. "Of Lawfull and Unlawful Recreations," where the "behavior or speech of evil men, or the feining of them in plaies" is condemned, "because we are expreslie forbidden to take up the outward fashion or shape of the lusts of ignorāce, 1 Pet. 1, 14, where the word [Suschamatizomenoi] which the Holy Ghost useth signifieth the verie maner of faining the outwarde shewes which are used in plaies."

* * PRIVATELY PRINTED. "There are a few copies of Stanley's poems, the general title of which bear the date of 1651, without any book-seller's name in the title, whence it is evident that they were not intended for publication, a circumstance sufficiently apparent when it is observed that the separate portions still remain without a publisher's name."—Bibliotheca Anglo-Poetica. The present was Mitford's copy, and bears his signature upon the fly-leaf. There are several notes referring to Thos. Stanley and his poems written upon the fly-leaves (in Mitford's autograph). - 855 Thornton (A.) Don Juan in London, 2 vol. FIRST EDITION, coloured engravings, calf extra, rough g. e. fine copy 1821-2
- 856 Tom Raw, THE GRIFFIN, a Burlesque Poem, in 12 Cantos, illustrated by twenty-five engravings descriptive of the Adventures of a Cadet, in the East India Company's service, 25 coloured illustrations in the Tom and Jerry style, FIRST EDITION, *very fine copy in calf extra, t. e. g.  * * Mr. Inglis's copy, and the only one which that zealous collector was able perhaps to procure. The title is in facsimile.
- 857* Valoé Conte suivi du Recit de Mr. B ou la Poule Blanche par Henriette de C. calf gilt, m. e. privately printed, 1817
 * * A key to the characters supplied in manuscript.
- 858 VAUGHAN (HENRY, Silurist) SILEX SCINTILLANS, or Sacred Poems and Private Eiacularions, FIRST EDITION, engraved title with leaf in verse facing, VERY FINE COPY, in the original sheep J. W. for H. Blunden, 1650
 * * This is the exceedingly rare first issue, before the alterations were made in the poem of "Isaac's Marriage," see note in the Huth and Rowfant Library Catalogues, a copy sold in these rooms last July for £21.
- 859 Vaughan (H.) SILEX SCINTILLANS, Sacred Poems and Private Ejaculations, the second edition, in two books, printed and engraved title, a very fine copy in the old sheep H. Crips for L. Lloyd and T. W. for H. Blunden, 1655-50
 * * This though marked the second edition is really the first edition of the two parts, and is also the first issue of part one bound up with the first issue of part II, there seems to have been no separate title ever done for part II, the general title probably taking its place. The present copy agrees with the collation given in the Rowfant Library Catalogue, except that that copy appears to want the engraved title in front of part one which the above copy has. In the Huth catalogue it is said that, when the second part was published in 1655 with the first part, the latter was altered both in dedication and in the poem of "Isaac's Marriage," this however is not the case with the present copy, the text, &c. collates exactly with the first issue of part I as set out above.

- 860 Venables (Colonel R.) The Experienced Angler, or Angling Improved, being a general discourse of Angling, frontispiece by Van Hove, and engravings of fish, in the original sheep, RARE

- * * * In his "Lettres Philosophiques," Voltaire expresses admiration for Shakespeare's genius, but attacked his want of taste and art, surreptitiously printed, although bearing the Rouen imprint.

- 862 Wake (Isaac) Rex Platonius: sive de potentissimi principis Jacobi Regis, ad Illustrissimam Academiam Oxoniensem adventu, Aug. 27, Anno 1605, calf Oxonie, 1627

- * * * This edition is referred to in Hunter's New Illustrations of Shakespeare, vol. II, pages 155, 156, 157. Farmer, in his Essay on the Learning of Shakespeare, remarks: "Macbeth was certainly one of Shakespeare's latest productions, and it might possibly have been suggested to him by a little performance on the same subject at Oxford before King James, 1605. I will transcribe my notice of it from Wake's Rex Platonius: 'Fabulæ ansam dedit antiqua de Regiâ prosapiâ historiola apud Scoto-Britannos celebrata, quæ narrat tres olim Sibyllas occurrisse duobus Scotiæ proceribus, Macbetho & Banchoni, & illum prædixisse Regem futurum, sed Regem nullum geniturum; hunc Regem non futurum, sed Reges geniturum multos. Vaticinii veritatem rerum eventus comprobavit. Banchonis enim è stirpe potentissimus Jacobus oriundus.'"

- 866 WALTON (ISAAK) THE COMPLEAT ANGLER, OR THE CONTEMPLATIVE MAN'S RECREATION, BEING A DISCOURSE OF FISH AND FISHING NOT UNWORTHY THE PERUSAL OF MOST ANGLERS, engraved title and engravings in the text, FIRST EDITION, the blank fore-edge of title neatly repaired, and some leaves soiled by handling, a remarkably large copy, measuring 5 $\frac{1}{8}$ by 3 $\frac{3}{4}$ in., in a fine contemporary English binding of black morocco, richly gilt, panel sides, centre and corners of acorn scrolls, black silk ties, g. e. in very sound condition, the book has been evidently carefully kept (perhaps in a cover), as the freshness of the binding testifies, enclosed in a new drop morocco case printed by T. Maxey for R. Marriot, 1653

* * It is most unusual to find an expensive and elaborate binding of the period on such a book. This however is accounted for by this copy being undoubtedly a presentation one to Mr. Francis Foster. It is ruled throughout with red lines, and contains in Iz. Walton's handwriting the name Mr. F. Foster filled in on page 3. The angler's song, on pp. 216-17, has the full margins all round, and page 245 has also a wide blank margin outside the word 'love,' a very uncommon state, as these pages are frequently cut into. SEE COLOURED PLATE REPRODUCTION OF BINDING.

W. Gent. FIRST EDITION, fine portrait of the author by Marshall, ruled with red lines, an excellent copy in the original sheep

folio. printed by Thomas Cotes for Richard Hawkins, and are to be sold at his shop in Chancery Lane neere Sergeant's Inne, 1632
- * * * To form a judgment of the extreme rarity of this imprint, it may be said that Lowndes only knew of the Lenox example. All the ordinary copies bear the name of Robert Allot. The two copies sold last year in these rooms, for £690 and £615 respectively, bearing the imprint of John Smethwick, were described as of "extraordinary" rarity. Referring back, however, to the last eighty copies sold (within a period of fifteen years) there was no copy among them with the Hawkins' title. Including the two above referred to, there were no less than six with the Smethwick titles, two with the Aspley, and one with R. Meighen; the remainder having the usual imprint of R. Allot. IT IS BELIEVED THAT ONLY TWO OTHER COPIES ARE KNOWN WITH THIS HAWKINS' IMPRINT. The three second folios in the British Museum, and the Huth copy, the Daniel and Orford (sold for £540), all contain the Allot title.

- 1072 Waller (Edmund) A Poem on ST. JAMES'S PARK as lately improved by his Majesty (to which is annexed, of our Late War with Spain and the First Victory at Sea near St. Lugar), FIRST EDITION, brown calf neat, gilt leaves, by Riviere & Son for E. Bedell, 1661
 * * This is the first genuine edition of St. James' Park, and at end an interesting note is annexed referring to the surreptitious issue, "The Reader is desired to take notice, that a false copy of these verses on St. James's Park was surreptitiously and very imperfectly printed in one sheet, without the author's knowledge and consent, several lines being there left out."
