instance (sig. I) the top compartment here has figures of 13 persons, but in the later issue portions of the block were removed so that only 10 figures remain; similar alterations were also made in the lower compartment. Apparently Schreiber knew of this block only in its 2nd state.

It should be noted that the present copy is not among those enumerated by either Sotheby or Schreiber. Of 19 copies recorded by the latter, half the number are imperfect and only two are first issue (as regards sig. D), one of these being damaged by acid. Of the present copy, some lower edges of the leaves have been strengthened by plain paper on the blank backs, but the book is otherwise untouched, having never been tampered with nor removed from its almost contemporaneous binding. It no doubt owes its wonderful preservation to having been bound between other XVth cent. books (see below), thus escaping the fate of the majority of books of this class. [SEE ILLUSTRATION.]

* * Other pieces are bound in the same vol. in the order following :
(1) Aquino (S. Thomas de), Postilla in Iob.

Esslingen, C. Fyner, 1474

H. *1397. Pell. 1001. Proct. 2461. Poll. II. p. 513.

(2) Tractatus de Occultatione Viciarum sub Spem(?) Virtutum
MS. on paper, dated 1478. (26 leaves).

(3) Apocalypse block-book as above.

(4) Aurbach (Joh. de), Summa de Sacramentis.

Augsb., G. Zainer, 1469

H. *2124. Pell. 1599. Proct. 1522. Poll. II. p. 315.

IB. 5410. 49 leaves. Two ll. mended, &c. Second or third book printed at Augsburg.

(5) Gerson (J.) Conclusiones de diuersis materiis moralibus.
[s. n., Esslingen, C. Fyner, c. 1473-4] H. *7641. Pell. 5149. Proct. 2469. Poll. II. p. 513. IB. 8947. 18 leaves with last blank.

* * The following inscription inside the front cover considerably adds to the interest of the volume, demonstrating that the binding itself was executed before 16 May, 1495—in all probability soon after 1478, the date of the MS. in the volume : see above. “Jodocus Bractschedl plebanus in ergolting singularis fautor nr. nobis librū hunc legauit ad dei honorē ac marie virginis diue hantnō conuentus utilitatem. Qui quid’ vita functus est 16 die Mens’ maij Anno salutis M°. iiij° lxxxxv. Prefatus iudocus pluriū annorum principis georgij pedagogus.”

Bractschedl’s pupil referred to was undoubtedly George Duke of Bavaria-Landshut, called Dives or the Rich : born 1455. Founded Ingolstadt University 1472 : died Dec. 1, 1503 (30 Nov. 1505 according to Chevalier).

Ergolting or Ergolding, where Bractschedl was parish priest, is a village a few miles from Landshut. The Convent to which this volume was bequeathed is apparently that of Seldenthal (Seligentall, Selingthal, or Salntal ; Cistercian order) in the suburbs of Landshut. The Duke George is there buried. The University of Ingolstadt founded by him was transferred to Landshut in 1800 and thence to Munich in 1826.

The importance of this volume can hardly be exaggerated, there probably not being in existence another copy of the same Block-book in its original binding and intact.

- * * All these Pieces are bound together in the same volume, of nearly contemporary German binding of oak boards and leather, with stamped panels of oak leaves and acorns, and borders with figures of stags, flourishing lilies, leafy branches, and other foliage, with legend "MARIA," metal shell corners, chased with the names "JHESUS, MARIA," and centre bosses, and is in pristine condition. * * * A VERY FINE AND INTERESTING ENGLISH MANU-SCRIPT, SAID TO HAVE BEEN EXECUTED IN KING
HENRY VII.'S TIME FOR THE YOUNG PRINCE HENRY, AFTERWARDS HENRY VIII. Two, if not three, distinct artists are represented in the miniatures, one, the artist of the large miniatures, probably a Flamand at the Court of Henry VI.-VII. All the miniatures are worthy of a detailed description, which is given below: (1) THE TRINITY, the Father and Son together on a gothic throne, the former with triple crown, the latter with a royal one, enclosed within a Roman arch with figures in niches in background, adoring figures of David and Bathsheba, miniature initial of David praying. (42) JOB and HIS FRIENDS, flower border with child riding a grotesque animal, opposite border of flowers, a religious in a black habit praying, birds, etc., and an initial miniature of a scholar praying (in black habit). (43) ALL SOULS, border of flowers, with a man praying, opposite border of flowers, birds, death's-head, and two figures holding a blank shield. All the miniatures are arched.

THE ELEVEN MINIATURES OF SAINTS which follow are on a smaller scale, measuring  $3 \times 1\frac{3}{4}$  in., and are within slight floral borders with diapered backgrounds. They represent SS. John, Luke, Matthew, the Veronica Handkerchief, with Passion Instruments, SS. Mark, Armagile, Ninian, Thomas of Canterbury, Denis, and lastly a Figure of KING HENRY VI. in royal robes, crowned and holding a sceptre and globe; Latin verses in his honour, with which the MS. finishes.

Besides the 86 interesting borders described above, there are two others, and a small miniature of the Virgin and Child near the middle. Besides the initials which usually accompany the borders, there are 205 others throughout, all in solid gold upon foliated ornament in brilliant colours, lined and heightened with white, and each branching out in three directions with leaf scrolls and other ornament in the characteristic English style of c. 1480. Each of these letters begins a line of very large gothic letters in blue, so that a very imposing effect is obtained. Besides these are many smaller letters in gold and blue and red.

The floral borders contain many native flowers, as the primrose, columbine, pink, asters, roses, lilies, peas, as well as blackberries and strawberries. The children disporting themselves are amusing: some have not the slightest regard for the devotional character of the book they are decorating. The number of figures of devotees (representing contemporaries), monks, nuns and lay persons in the borders is unusual. In some cases (e.g., the large miniature No. 8) the person for whom the MS. was executed is evidently intended; in fact, it has been conjectured in regard to the present MS. that these persons (in the large miniature at least) represent HENRY VII. (1457–1509), ELIZABETH OF YORK, his queen (died 1503), their daughters Margaret and Mary, and their sons Arthur Prince of Wales, and PRINCE HENRY (afterwards HENRY VIII.). Taken in connection with the full-length figure of Henry VI. (at the end) this is not improbable. It will be noted that the latter king is represented in full regal array, and with a nimbus. As is well-known, he was regarded as a martyr after his death in 1471, by the North countrymen at least, and that his successor Henry VII. proposed to obtain his canonisation. The hymn which follows the miniature illustrates this.

Whan thou takest holy water seye thus 'Aqua benedicta'" &c. Fol. 6 recto: "Whan thou begynnyst to praye thus begynne knelyng 'Discedite a me maligni'" (&c.) Fol. 21 verso: "When thou wolst say our lady matens say before thes prayers yt folowe." Fol. 22 recto: "Adoro te domine ihu xpe." Fol. 226 recto: "Whooso deuotely say this prayor followyng in the worship of allmyghti god and saynt Armyle thay shalbe relesyd of all maner of sicknesse and soris.

'Sancte dei preciose

Confessor Armigile,'" (&c.)

Fol. 109 recto, at the end of a Latin Prayer: "God haue mercy on alle crysten sowles. Amen. God save the kyng and bryng us to the blysse that neuer shal haue endyng. Amen."

Perhaps the most unusual Saint mentioned above is S. Armigile, Armyle, Ermel, Arme, or Erme, of Cornwall and Brittany, died about 562. Patron of Plou-ermel in Lyonnese. Founded the church of S. Erme in the deanery of Powder: see Baring-Gould, Lives of the Saints, XVI. p. 264. He is here represented as in full armour over which is a blue cloak: he is bearded and has the tonsure: in his right he holds a red book, in his left a crosier: under his feet the dragon of the river Seich which he slew.

The next is S. Ninian, bishop of Whithern (Rosnat or Candida Casa), Galloway, who lived in the 5th century. He is represented in bishop's attire holding a crosier and heavy chain (? fetters). S. Thomas with wounded head holds a cross, and the sword with which he was martyred.

The Litany is full of names venerated in England, and the Calendar is very full, and contains also many English Saints.

They are all arched and measure only  $2\frac{1}{2} \times 1\frac{1}{2}$  in. The figures, grouping, costumes and perspective are all good, and most of them have landscape and architectural backgrounds. full page; each page of Calendar surrounded by a border of natural flowers and insects on a gold ground; small miniatures of the OCCUPATIONS OF THE MONTHS AND ZODIAC SIGNS in lower margins, 15 pages OF THE TEXT ENTIRELY SURROUNDED BY RICH BORDERS OF ARCHITECTURAL AND FLOREATE DESIGNS interspersed with small miniatures, birds, insects, strawberries, etc., 14 other pages to the Suffragia Sanctorum with three-quarter borders of similar character, each with a FINE INITIAL MINIATURE OF A SAINT WITH EMBLEM, chiefly on grounds of burnished gold, and many hundred decorative initials and details, old velvet binding (worn)

sqr. 8vo. SAEC. XV.

* * A VERY RICHLY DECORATED MS. BY A FLEMISH ARTIST OF THE BEST TYPE [SCHOOL OF BRUGES]. THE BORDERS are very beautiful, and far superior to the ordinary Flemish MS. Books of Hours of the period. It appears evident that this MS. never had any large miniatures, the border to each Office being emblematic of the text.

386 HORAE B.V.M. AD USUM ROMANUM CUM CALENDARIO, RICHLY ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM [FRANCO-FLEMISH LATE XVTH CENTURY] (140 leaves,  $8 \times 5\frac{1}{2}$  in.), written in bold lettres bâties, long lines, 20 to a full page; Calendar in red and black, red rubrics; many hundred brilliantly illuminated initials and textual ornaments; with 9 large beautifully PAINTED AND ILLUMINATED ARCHED MINIATURES, within broad and rich borders of floral scrolls, flowers and fruit, interspersed with figures of angels, mummers, grotesque beasts and humans: with opposite borders of similar design enclosing very large and fine illuminated scroll initials; 6 extra borders, and 14 very fine initial miniatures of saints, also with top and bottom borders, modern calf extra, g. e.

sm. 4to. LATE SAEC. XV.

\* \* The large miniatures in this fine MS. are all very good Flemish work of the latter half of the xvth century, and are larger than usual, measuring generally  $3\frac{3}{4} \times 3$  in. without text on the backs. The small miniatures of the saints &c. are also very highly finished and the borders with their humorous figures and rich decoration are remarkable. The subjects of the large miniatures are the following: (I) SALVATOR MUNDI, a fine half-length figure, with long flowing dark hair, and dark short beard, dark complexion, right hand blessing, crystal orb in left, name embroidered in gold on collar band; a LIFE-LIKE picture, beautifully executed; below is the coat of arms of the original owner for whom the MS. was produced; per pale (1) or, a chevron gules with 5 fleurs-de-lis argent, between 3 cockatoos vert, (2) azure, a turreted mansion or; (II) Pentecost, an interior with a landscape in perspective; (III) Virgin and Child enthroned, angels thick 12mo. SAEC. XV.

* * The three original borders in this choice MS. are very fine work. A former owner has added the 13 miniatures with which the MS. is illustrated. These, though by a much later hand, are very brilliantly executed, and are probably copied from an older MS.

- 388 HORAE B.V.M. [Begins] "Incipit Officiū beate Vgīs Marie ad romā morē." MANUSCRIPT ON PAPER [ITALIAN XVTH CENTURY] (346 leaves,  $5\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{3}{4}$  in.), *written in clear gothic letters, long lines, 15 to a full page [on fol. 268 begins the "Ars Moriendi" followed by prayers to S. The sixth represents the Virgin and Child, before whom kneels a figure which is no doubt intended for the person for whom the MS. was executed. A coat of arms below the figure which might have identified the original owner has been defaced. The seventh painting is the conventional representation of the Ten Thousand Martyrs, five nude figures transfixed on pointed stakes. The figures are drawn extremely tall, on blue, gold, and diapered grounds, and have no text on the backs. Before the Canon are two smaller miniatures, one of the Crucifixion, the other a Dead Christ supported by the Deity. The borders of the two upper pages of the Canon are richly decorated in gold and colours [from the libraries of the Rev. Mr. Forshall and Henry Huth]
