CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the Auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds, 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right of the seller or his agent to bid, or else to impose a reserve.
- IV. The Purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and resold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which MESSRS. SOTHEBY & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of One Week after the conclusion of the sale the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. MESSRS. SOTHEBY & Co. will have the option of reselling the lots uncleared either by public or private sale without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are received back within Fourteen Days after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates, or blank leaves or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the reselling of such lots as are not cleared, or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Messrs. SOTHEBY & CO are prepared to execute bids, and in addition to advise intending purchasers as far as possible, if requested by them to do so, without making any charge for either service. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

- 60 ALLEY (HUGH) A CAUEATT FOR THE CITY OF LONDON or A forewarninge of offences against penall Lawes, ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT, signed twice, on 22 leaves of paper, original limp vellum, with ties [9½ in. by 6½ in.] 1598

* * * AN EXTREMELY INTERESTING RECORD OF ELIZABETHAN LONDON, APPARENTLY UNPUBLISHED AND UNRECORDED.

The author, in his dedicatory Epistle to Sir Richard Saltonstall (Lord Mayor, 1597-8, and uncle of Sir Richard Saltonstall of the Massachusetts Bay Company) describes himself "Citizen and Plaisterer of London." His avowed object is to "stirre up the mindes of some kinde of people, to carrie better consciences, and not to Rack, and Sacke, all unto their owne greedie, covetous purses and paunches: to the enrichinge of themselves, and impoverishinge of their poore Neighbours." He complains bitterly against the practices of "Forstallinge, Regratinge, and Engrossinge, of all kinde of provisions brought into all the marketts, and enhauncinge, and rayinge uppe, o all prices of all kinde of wares and marchandizes," and also of "a greedie kinde of people, inhabitinge, in and about the citty, & suburbs of the same, called Haglers, Hawkers, Huxters, and Wanderers uppe and downe the streetes, in buyinge into their owne

The work is illustrated by SEVENTEEN ORIGINAL WASH DRAWINGS depicting in a lively manner the Markets of Billingsgate, Newe Fishestreete, Escheape, Grace Church, Leaden Hall, Stocks, Cheapeside, St. Nicholas Shambells, Newegate, Smithfeld, Oulde Fishestrete, Queenhithe, and Southware; and the City Gates, Bisshopes Gate, Ludgate, Algate, and Newe Gate. Before each drawing of the Markets are WATER-COLOUR DRAWINGS OF THE ALDERMAN FOR THE WARD AND HIS DEPUTY (26 in all), PRECEDED BY THE LORD MAYOR AND THE SWORD BEARER

A note at the end in an early hand suggests a probable reason for the preservation of the MS. in the Wilbraham family: "Richd. Wilbraham Esq^r married Elizabeth, Daughter of Sr. Tho. Pollicill Kt. [Pullison, Stow and Jaggard] Ld. Mayor of London Anno Domini: 1585."

- 236 [WILBRAHAM (THOMAS) ?] A MONETHES IORNEY INTO FRANCE, ORIGINAL UNPUBLISHED MANUSCRIPT, very neatly and closely written on 208 pages, contemporary rough calf c. 1621 £25
Ellis

 A most entertaining and witty journal. The author left Dover on 28 June, 1621, crossed to Dieppe, and went through Rouen, Pontoise and St. Denis to Paris; from there to Orleans, back to Paris, and home through Amiens, Abbeville and Boulogne, arriving in England on 3 August, 1621. He finds little to please him and much to censure.

The inhabitants, their horses, manners, food and customs fill him with disgust. The contemplation of their miserable state inspires him to some elegant verse: "An Eulogie to the English Ladyes" forming a fitting conclusion to a chapter on "The French weomen, their persons, prating, conditions and immodesty." The journal closes with a fervent panegyric:

"Haile happie England: haile thou sweetest isle
Within whose boundes noe Pagan rites defile

Haile thou sweete England. May I breathe my last
In thy lov'd armes. And when my daies are past;
And to the silence of the grave I must:
All I desire, is, thou would'st keepe my dust."
