ONE HUNDREDTH REPORT OF THE COUNCIL OF MANAGEMENT

For the Year ended 31st December, 1943

This report from the Council of Management to the Governors of the Central London Ophthalmic Hospital is the hundredth to be issued. It does not describe any startling or outstanding events; 1943 was a year of steady and regular progress.

The Centenary of the Hospital's foundation could not, unfortunately, be celebrated by any social functions, nor did the Council think the time opportune to launch an appeal on a large scale. It was, however, decided to open a Centenary Fund and to invite friends of the Hospital to recognize this milestone in its history by sending contributions. The Council is happy to report that many gifts were received and with promises and cash, the Fund to-day stands at nearly £500, a good start for a Building Fund when the time seems ripe to make a general appeal to the public.

This will depend, not only on the progress of the war, but also on the Government's plans for the post-war Health Services. The Hospital is anxious to play an even greater part in the future in helping to relieve diseases and afflictions of the eye, and if this is to happen expansion of the Hospital's buildings is necessary and imperative. In fact it is not possible, even at the present time, to open all the beds in the Hospital, due to insufficiency of accommodation for Nursing and Domestic Staffs, the 48-hour week having been put into operation and thus increased the number of Nurses and Domestics required.

CO-OPERATION WITH OTHER HOSPITALS

The Council has consistently pursued its policy of co-operating to the best of its ability with other Hospitals, and its representatives on the Joint Committee of Ophthalmic Hospitals, recently re-named the Association of Ophthalmic Hospitals of London, have always endeavoured to give effect to this policy whenever opportunity has offered. At the moment the Association under its new Chairman, Mr. Sydney Parkes, is actively engaged in considering plans for regionalizing the Eye services of the Metropolis.

In another sphere the Council's policy has had more tangible results, and during the year an agreement with the Royal Free Hospital was concluded between the two Hospitals. The scheme of co-operation provides for, inter alia, the examination of eye patients of the Royal Free at the Central London, mutual representation on the Managing Committees, and the training of students of the London (Royal Free Hospital) School of Medicine for Women at the Central London. Miss J. M. Dollar, M.S., M.B., B.S., F.R.C.S., who is on the wartime staff of the Royal Free Hospital, has been appointed to the Hon. Staff of the Central London Ophthalmic Hospital. In addition the Central London Ophthalmic Hospital is to be affiliated to the Royal Free Hospital for the training of its Nurses, who will benefit by attendance at the Royal Free's Preliminary Training School and by regular medical examinations and recreational facilities. It is expected that Nurses from the Royal Free Hospital will receive training in Ophthalmology at the Central London.

NURSING STAFF

From the preceding paragraphs it will be observed that the conditions of training of Nurses at the Central London have been made more attractive. The Report of the Rushcliffe Committee was warmly welcomed by the Council and the scales of the Nursing Staff salaries and hours of working of the Nursing Staff are in accordance with the recommendations of that Committee. The Council had, however, instituted the 48-hour week for the Nursing staff some time before the publication of the Committee's Report.

In addition a useful memorandum prepared and circulated by the King Edward's Hospital Fund on Nurses' Health was carefully studied and considered, and wherever applicable to the circumstances of a Special Hospital the suggestions made have been adopted, if in fact they were not already in force, as indeed the majority were.

THE COUNCIL OF MANAGEMENT

The Council, at its meeting in January, unanimously elected Mr. Noel Behrens to fill the vacant office of Chairman, and this election was re-affirmed when the Council met at its first meeting following the Annual General Meeting in April. At the Annual General Meeting, Mr. Behrens relinquished the post of Hon. Treasurer and was succeeded by Mr. H. E. Field, who has combined that office with the Chairmanship of the House and Finance Committee. For the time being the functions of the House and Finance Committees are merged in this one Committee.

The Council suffered a grievous loss early in the year by the untimely death of Mrs. Knapp, whose wisdom and counsel had so often proved of great value to the Council. Her loss has left a gap which it is by no means easy to fill.

Mrs. Kinnell, the Chairman of the Weekly Board of the Royal Free Hospital, was elected by that Hospital to serve on the Council of Management, and she was given a very warm welcome upon the occasion of her first attendance at a Council Meeting. Mr. Behrens was elected to represent the Hospital on the Committee of Management of the Royal Free Hospital.

THE HOSPITAL'S WORK

In September last two large wards were re-opened for In-Patients, and of a total complement of 51 beds, 31 are now open. In addition the Hospital still has beds available at Stanmore and at Leatherhead, where patients are cared for by members of the Hospital's Medical and Nursing Staffs.

The Out-Patient Department was very busy throughout the year and the attendances are now up to pre-war figures.

THE FINANCIAL POSITION

Considering the increased expenses which the Hospital is now called upon to meet—Salaries and Wages is a most heavy item these days—the financial position at the end of the year was not unsatisfactory. This position was helped by the Centenary Fund appeal which will not recur in 1944, and in this coming year a preliminary survey has shown that the Council will have to strain all its resources to meet the outgoings consequent upon the increasing work. It must be borne in mind that the adoption of the 48-hour week means that the Hospital requires as many Nurses and Domestic staffs now, with a reduced number of working beds, as in pre-war times, with salaries in some cases twice as high. This will involve an expansion of nursing staff of about 25 per cent. when the Hospital re-opens all its beds. Hospital supplies have risen enormously since the war, and many of the necessary items cost twice or three times as much as in (say) 1938.

SUBSCRIPTIONS AND DONATIONS

The Council wishes to take the opportunity of thanking those many friends of the Hospital who renewed their gifts during 1943. Many were kind enough to increase their subscription or donation in recognition of the Hospital's 100th birthday, and they are particularly thanked.

The shortage of paper compels the Council again to omit the list of subscribers and donors, but the following munificent gifts are worthy of mention :

King Edward's Hospital Fund for London	200	0	0
Alexandra Day Committee	125	0	0
Sir Albert Levy Benevolent Fund	100	0	0
Bernhard Baron Charitable Trust	75	0	0
Prudential Assurance Company	45	0	0
Metropolitan Hospital—Sunday Fund	40	0	0

LADIES' GUILD

The Council wishes to pay a special tribute to the Ladies' Guild, a report of whose activities appears elsewhere in this report. The successful results of the two Hospital Flag Days and Alexandra Rose Day were largely due to the officers of this very active association.

THE HONORARY STAFF

The Council wishes also to pay a special tribute to the members of the Honorary Medical Staff, whose skill and co-operation play so essential a part in the work of the Hospital.

THE STAFF

This report would be incomplete without special reference to the devoted and loyal service rendered by the Nursing, Domestic and Lay Staffs during the past year. In difficult times each and every one has worked cheerfully and zealously in the service of the Hospital.

BUYING COMMITTEE :

Mrs. Barton.	Mrs. Vickerman Rutherford.
The Hon. Mrs. Williamson-Noble.	The Matron of the Hospital.

During the year under review two large wards were opened for patients. The stocks of linen, etc., in hand which had not been in use since the beginning of the war proved sufficient to equip these re-opened wards. Now that this equipment is in use the question of replenishment will arise very soon, more especially so if the remaining wards are opened. It is therefore necessary for the Ladies' Guild to continue to receive the generous support of its members to an even greater extent than formerly. Inevitably the cost of new linen will be considerably greater after the war than before, apart from the very high prices which may have to be paid for supplies during the war.

The Ladies' Guild, with the co-operation of the hospital staff, organized the three flag days, two hospitals days and Queen Alexandra's Rose Day. The collections were all in advance of the previous year. The Council of the Hospital in recognition of the work of the Ladies' Guild made them a special donation of £25 from the grant of the Queen Alexandra Fund.

The officers and members pay regular visits to the hospital to enquire into the needs, to keep the stocks under review and to see to the comfort and well-being of the patients, nursing and domestic staffs.

An appeal is therefore made for new members and for increased support from existing members. Anyone wishing to visit the hospital can be assured of a warm and sincere welcome.

Donations and subscriptions will be gratefully received by the Treasurer of the Guild: Mrs. A. J. B. Goldsmith, 18 Hilltop Road, King's Langley, Herts.
