ANNUAL MEETING,

WEDNESDAY, 16th FEBRUARY, 1927.

The 101st Annual General Meeting of the Royal Bath Hospital and Rawson Convalescent Home was held on Wednesday, 16th February, in the Board Room.

Mr. Matthew Stephenson, J.P. (Vice-President), presided. Among those present were the Chairman of Committee (Mr. C. A. Rhodes), the Hon. Treasurer (Mr. Walter Freeman), Sir Loraine Dunbar, Col. W. F. Collins, D.S.O., Lt.-Col. A. Kirk, Major E. P. Cross, Stanley Barnes, Esq., J. S. Cowell, Esq., J. A. Eddison, Esq., W. Murray-Wilson, Esq., F. Wood, Esq., Dr. L. J. Hobson, Dr. A. W. Hinsley Walker, Dr. G. L. Kerr Pringle, Dr. David Brown, Dr. G. Holmes, Dr. L. C. E. Calthrop.

Apologies for absence were received from Lord Harewood, Viscount Lascelles, Major Dent, Mr. W. Sheepshanks, Sir John Eaglesome, Mr. W. L. Kirby, and Mr. J. H. Ainley.

MR. STEPHENSON, in moving the adoption of the various Reports and Accounts, said that the Report confirmed what was in the minds of many people in this country with regard to rheumatism, that it was not a complaint confined to any one class of the community, but that it was a most serious industrial complaint. Apparently there was now a widespread movement growing up that Harrogate and other Spas should play a greater part than they had hitherto done for the benefit of the industrial classes. It would be noticed that with regard to the Hospital nearly ninety per cent. of the patients were of a rheumatic character. There was a large number of people who were granted relief through the Friendly Societies, in addition to others, who were suffering from these complaints, for which the waters of Harrogate had, in the past, been considered eminently suitable. Other methods of treatment had been found to supplement the waters and, in that respect, their Staff had succeeded in making that Institution a very workable hospital.

WALTER FREEMAN, Esq., J.P., in seconding the resolution, said that the year's work from the financial side had proved very satisfactory. If the figures were compared with those of the previous year, they would be seen to be almost identical. They had been in some doubt as to what would be the effect of their closing in November, through a shortage of fuel, but to their agreeable surprise it had not had any serious effect one way or the other. They were able to carry forward a surplus of £300 11s. 1d., after setting aside £1,000 to the Contingencies' Reserve Account. This money they did not propose to spend at once, because it was absolutely insufficient for what they urgently needed. They had spent about £8,000 on new additions, which were now complete and would shortly be in operation. That would practically absorb all the money they had in hand. They were greatly in need of additional electrical accommodation and required more room for massage. Year by year these forms of treatment were increasing and, under present conditions, they were seriously handicapped. These additional alterations, which were absolutely necessary, would involve the expenditure of approximately £4,000.

The Reports and Accounts were then adopted.

MR. MATTHEW STEPHENSON then moved a vote of thanks to the Chairman and Members of the Committee of Management and that they be re-elected.

MISS M. E. JONES (Harrogate Ladies' College), who seconded the resolution, said she welcomed that opportunity of voicing the confidence of the outside public in the work of the Hospital. She had never heard a single word of adverse criticism directed against it. On the contrary she had been impressed by the esteem and regard in which it was held. The Committee might be truly congratulated upon the way in which they were carrying it on and upon the efficiency of their administration.

MR. C. A. RHODES (Chairman of the Committee), in replying, thanked the Meeting for its reception of the resolution. He did not think any chairman could have a better committee or one whose assiduity of attendance and willingness to undertake various matters could be surpassed. In connection with the Centenary Fund they had raised £7,900, of which the greater part had now been spent. They asked originally for £12,000, and that sum they still required, for it was most essential that they should have increased facilities for electrical treatments as well as more accommodation for their medical staff, who at the present time were working under great difficulties. He commended the efforts of the Matron and Nursing Staff, whose efforts had realised a sum adequate to furnish the new extensions without encroaching upon the Centenary Fund in any way.

MAJOR E. P. CROSS, in moving a vote of thanks to Mr. Freeman for his honorary and efficient services as Treasurer and proposing his election for the ensuing year, said they all felt that in being associated with Mr. Freeman they were associated with one who not only had the best interests of the Hospital at heart, but who put his best efforts into everything he did on its behalf. He thought the time had come when some more tangible proof should be shown of their appreciation.

DR. L. J. HOBSON cordially seconded.

In thanking the Meeting, MR. FREEMAN said that the work of the Hospital was one of his hobbies, and that he would gladly serve it as long as he could.

MR. J. A. EDDISON, in moving a vote of thanks to the Medical Staff, said that their work was a public service of the highest importance and was vital to the well-being of the Hospital. They welcomed the addition to the Staff of Dr. Shirley Kidd and Dr. Nimmo Watson as Honorary Physicians.

SIR L. G. DUNBAR seconded.

DR. GEOFFREY HOLMES, in responding to the vote on behalf of his colleagues, said it might not be untimely to emphasise the point that the Institution was, and must remain, primarily a Bath Hospital. Whilst the value of electrical, bacteriological, and other ancillary treatments should not be under-estimated, it must not be forgotten that it was the skilled use of the natural waters which had established the reputation of the three large mineral water hospitals of Bath, Buxton and Harrogate for the successful treatment of rheumatism and allied diseases. As it had been more than whispered of late that, owing to more recent methods of treatment, Spa doctors no longer attached so much importance to the use of the natural mineral waters as formerly, he and his medical colleagues thought it was high time that it was publicly stated that the water drinking and bathing still formed the basis of the treatment which gave such excellent results. He did not intend to discuss the relative virtues of the waters of the different spas, but those who had studied the subject, knew from experience that results could be obtained, in suitable cases, by the scientific use of fresh, natural, mineral waters, which would bear comparison with the results of any other known methods of treatment. Consequently, it was an obligation on those practising in the Spas—where alone these methods could be applied—to see that the waters were properly used. In this Institution they had the privilege of using the Harrogate waters and, he suggested that a little more attention to this work of national importance might profitably be given by the “City Fathers.” The work of the Royal Bath Hospital was one of the best advertisements of the Spa and was worthy of more generous local recognition than it had of late years received.

MR. THISTLETHWAITE moved, and MR. KENNAIR (Messrs. Armstrong, Whitworth, Newcastle) seconded, the appointment of Messrs. Lowrey, Weston and Whalley as Auditors for the ensuing year.—Carried.

The Meeting closed with a vote of thanks to the Chairman, proposed by MR. RHODES and seconded by MR. FREEMAN, to which MR. STEPHENSON suitably replied.

Report of the Committee of Management.

To The Right Honourable The Earl of Harewood, G.C.V.O., and Subscribers of the Royal Bath Hospital and Rawson Convalescent Home, Harrogate.

In presenting the 101st Annual Report, your Committee beg to state that the number of patients admitted up to Nov. 3rd was 2,361 as against 2,337 up to the same date in 1925, an increase of 24.

On account of the difficulty of obtaining fuel to heat the Hospital adequately, your Committee decided to close on that date until 6th January, 1927. Your Committee have taken advantage of the period during which the Hospital was closed to effect several necessary repairs and renewals, together with certain desirable—if not very important—improvements. Chief among these is the provision of a new cloakroom for men patients.

During the year the heating system has been extended to the upper wards in the Hospital, with the result that the Hospital is now thoroughly and entirely warmed, and we again urge upon patients the advisability of coming for treatment in the earliest stages of disease, regardless of whether it be winter or summer. In the early part of the year patients can be admitted with far less delay than during the summer and autumn, when there is invariably a long waiting list.

CENTENARY FUND.

Of the £7,900 received in response to our appeal for £12,000, a sum of upwards of £3,700 has been expended on the erection and equipment of the Bacteriological Laboratory, and when the new accommodation for the Nursing and Domestic Staffs is completed and paid for, the Centenary Fund will be practically exhausted. This new accommodation consists of a new Dining Hall for the Domestic Staff, a new Dining Room for the Nurses, and eight additional bedrooms for Nurses. It is expected that these additions will be ready for occupation early in the new year.

As will be seen from the Honorary Physicians' Report, which follows, there is much yet which urgently needs to be done, and we earnestly appeal for further donations to bring the Centenary Fund up to the sum of £12,000 for which we originally asked.

SALE OF WORK & GARDEN FETE.

A most successful Sale was organised by the Matron and Nursing Staff for the purpose of raising funds for furnishing the additional rooms for the Nurses. This was opened by Viscountess Mountgarret on Wednesday, 18th August. The proceeds, together with monetary gifts from many kind friends, realised nearly £750.

Your Committee desire to place on record their gratitude to the Matron and Nurses, and all others, for their most welcome and valuable help towards this object.

BACTERIOLOGICAL LABORATORY.

During the year the Laboratory Endowment Fund has received from an anonymous donor its second gift in the form of £1,000 L.N.E. Railway Co. 3% Debenture Stock. It will be seen, however, from the separate account published on page 20 that the total expenditure, in connection with this work, has amounted to £425 8s. 1d., as against an income of only £66 2s. 11d., leaving a deficit of £359 5s. 2d. to be met out of the income of the Hospital. As the expenditure under this head may be expected to increase still further as the work develops, the urgent need for further gifts, to ease the burden on the Hospital finances, is obvious.

FINANCE.

Comparison with the figures for the previous year is, to some extent, invalidated by the earlier closing of the Hospital. This naturally had the effect of slightly decreasing the figures for both income and expenditure. In spite of this, however, the amount received in subscriptions to both Institutions shows a slight increase. Under the other heads there is a slight—and it is to be hoped, merely temporary—decrease.

LEGACY ACCOUNT.

During the past year Legacies have been received as follows: Rev. G. D. Davenport, £25; Miss Bell, £440 11s. 2d.; Mrs. M. B. Smith, £180 12s. 3d.; Surg.-Genl. Lofthouse (final distribution), £19 6s. 5d.; H. Wilson, £250; and Mrs. E. A.

Ormerod, £363 9s. 6d. The sum of £19 6s. 5d. was also received for the Rawson Convalescent Home as a final distribution under the will of the late Surg.-Genl. Lofthouse. In accordance with the usual practice, these sums have been placed to the credit of the Endowment Accounts of the Institutions concerned and the bulk of the money has been invested in Trustee Securities.

The Household Expenses for the Maintenance of Patients in the Hospital and Home amounted to £2,299 4s. 4d.—a decrease on the figure for the previous year of £152 17s. 2d. Some reduction was, however, only to be looked for in view of the fact that the number of patients admitted was only 2,361, compared with 2,630 in 1925.

The General Expenses have been £6,762 9s. 4d., and show an increase under this head of £174 5s. 3d., despite the fewer patients treated. This increase, however, is more than accounted for by the increased cost of the Laboratory, to which reference has already been made.

The Average Cost of each Patient for a stay of two weeks amounted to £3 19s. 10d., as against £3 11s. 6d. in 1925—an increase of 8s. 4d. per fortnight or 4s. 2d. per week. The difference, therefore, between the amount received on behalf of the patient (£3 3s.) and the cost of the patient to the Hospital is no less than 16s. 10d. per fortnight, or 8s. 5d. per week. This discrepancy has to be met by donations, collections, and interest on investments. The total expenditure of the year shows an increase of only £21 8s. 1d., but the per capita rate is increased by reason of the fewer number of patients admitted, owing to the coal strike, since the overhead charges continue to operate independently of this factor.

GIFTS.

Your Committee desires to record its gratitude in particular for the following: Viscountess Mountgarret, eggs; Herbert Frankling, Esq., two large easy chairs; Lady Rea, apples; Mrs. Hayne, sofa and table (for the Laboratory); Mrs. Curtis, two easy chairs; Mrs. Cockerham, gramophone and records; C. Mantle, Esq., wireless set; Dr. Holmes, books; fruit, flowers and vegetables from the Harvest Thanksgiving Services at St. Peter's Church (Harrogate) and Kirk Hammerton.

THE WORK OF THE HOSPITAL.

(HONORARY PHYSICIANS' REPORT.)

In reviewing the work of 1926, the Medical Staff are pleased to observe that the number of unsuitable cases admitted remains at the low level of the preceding year (3%). The number of cases refused as unsuitable on the Medical Certificates alone amounts to about 10% of those applying for admission.

These results are due in part to the increasing care shown in certification by outside practitioners—a most welcome event to the Medical Staff, who select the cases for admission. Hospital work is thereby greatly facilitated and in addition is rendered more efficient.

For this voluntary and unpaid work by Doctors, having no direct relationship to the Institution, your Honorary Physicians feel they cannot be too grateful.

But for the unavoidable closure of the Hospital owing to fuel shortage, the number of admissions during the year would have exceeded that for 1925. As it is, the admissions from January to November show an increase as compared with the corresponding period of last year (2,361, as against 2,337).

Every such increase in admissions marks the greater use of the Hospital accommodation during the early months of the year. Thanks to the open and sunny position of the Hospital and its efficient system of heating, treatment can be carried on as efficiently and successfully as in the warmer parts of the year.

Further, the usefulness of the Hospital is increased and the overhead charges per patient are correspondingly decreased by these early admissions.

The proportion of cases admitted which belonged to the Rheumatic group of Diseases is about the same as for the year 1925 (85-90%).

The Honorary Staff once again urge the earlier certification and application for admission of cases of this class. Many such patients apply too late for the attainment of any result better than that of alleviation. Early investigation and treatment of these sufferers, before irremediable damage has taken place in joints and tissues, is an essential, if complete recovery is to be obtained.

A very welcome feature of our work is the increasing number of letters received from ex-patients detailing their appreciation of the kindness and care exerted on their behalf and the great benefits ensuing from a course of treatment in this Institution.

This result is in part due to the fact that here the patient's individuality is sedulously preserved. Each inmate is known by his or her own name, with its conventional prefix, instead of being known as Mrs. No. so and so of such and such a ward—this last a necessary but unwelcome feature of the large general hospital. This is a practice greatly appreciated by our patients. It has a consequential effect on the care and treatment of the individual and is only rendered possible by the constant efforts of the Matron and Sisters in charge of our cases.

The building addition foreshadowed in the report for 1925 is now happily approaching completion. Accommodation for the increased Nursing Staff will be completed early in 1927, and the eight additional nurses' bedrooms will allow such an augmentation of the work of the Hospital as should permit us to keep our 150 beds in constant occupation throughout the year.

During the regretted illness of our colleague, Dr. Calthrop (now happily restored to health), the Hospital obtained the services of Dr. Shirley Kidd (Hon. Anæsthetist to the Hospital) as Honorary Physician pro tem, and your Medical Staff hope that Dr. Kidd may be permanently added to the list of Honorary Physicians. Such an election will mark the first occasion of the appointment of a seventh Honorary Physician to the Hospital.

Last year the Report discussed the question whether our combined Team Diagnosis and Treatment could be improved.

1.—Diagnosis. We still lack a Radiological Department, but its institution and equipment as an item of ordinary Hospital expenditure is at present impossible.

In this deficiency our Hospital compares unfavourably with all modern institutions, and your Honorary Staff once more stresses the urgent need for the installation of such a department.

2.—Treatment. During the year a Diathermy department has been instituted and the Medical Staff look forward to many very beneficial applications of this Electrical treatment.

The association of pelvic disorders with certain forms of Arthritis is a late development of medical knowledge, and diathermy treatment of such cases by the pelvic route has led to the amelioration and even dramatic cure of cases hitherto regarded as hopeless.

The favourable possibilities of this treatment are immense, its development is inevitable, and if the Hospital is to keep in the forefront, duplication and even triplication of the apparatus will soon become necessary.

Here is a new and almost undreamt of means of successfully combating the crippling effects of Rheumatic diseases—diseases at present responsible for almost one-sixth of the total invalidity among the industrial population.

Some readjustment of the Bathing arrangements will be necessary if we are to cope successfully with the anticipated increase of patients rendered possible by the additional nursing facilities now provided.

A second Aix and Vichy Douche Room will be required. The only place available is the room now used for Paraffin Wax Baths and Berthollet treatments. Other provision for these will be necessary.

The need for "Occupational Therapy" grows rather than decreases, and a new department for systematic remedial orthopaedic treatment is a necessity of the near future.

An ancillary factor of such a department involves the provision of a passenger lift large enough to accommodate stretcher patients and their attendants. Crippled patients could then be housed on all three dormitory floors. This would avoid the segregation of our more helpless patients on the ground floor, which is necessary under present conditions, an arrangement, in the opinion of your Medical Staff, which is neither salutary nor convenient.

The expansion of the Electrical Department is a matter of prime urgency, the congestion of the auxiliary treatments here grows more serious every month, and the strain on apparatus and attendants alike has become well-nigh unbearable.

The Consulting Room accommodation for your Physicians and Specialist members of the Honorary Staff still consists of one small room of 12ft. by 12ft. without an attached waiting room for patients—a condition of affairs much worse than when the Physicians numbered only two instead of as at present seven.

This takes no account of the Specialist Officers appointed since 1921, who, together with the Physicians, form the large total of 22 active professional workers connected with the Institution.

Provision of an adequate series of consulting rooms and waiting rooms is an immediate necessity, if the professional work of the Hospital is to be carried on with efficiency, comfort and despatch—alike to Physicians, Nurses and Patients.

These are the main lines of the development of the Hospital. This Institution must make progress each year and must be in the Front Rank if it is to maintain its position as a main centre for the treatment of the Rheumatic group of Diseases.

Report of the Honorary Pathologists.

The Clinical Laboratory continues to be a useful unit in the Hospital, not only for routine examination of patients, but also for the considered investigation of obscure aspects of the chemistry and bacteriology of a wide range of disorders.

Vaccines prepared in the laboratory from microbes isolated from sufferers from chronic joint disease continue to prove a useful agent in the treatment of these diseases.

Chronic arthritis is truly described as the most crippling of our industrial diseases, and ranks close to cancer in the production of pain and suffering. The large number of cases of this disease which are concentrated in the Hospital offers a valuable field for research.

The funds available for the research fund are still inadequate, but it is hoped in the near future that these will be so increased that a whole time research worker can be employed, when more rapid progress may be possible.

Detailed observations extending over two years on a series of 250 cases of chronic arthritic disease have recently been collected and summarised. The survey deals with the disorders of the secretions of the stomach, and their relationship to the types of micro-organisms inhabiting the bowel. Its publication will record information which previously has not been available to the medical profession, and will form a useful contribution to the complex problem of the causes of chronic arthritis.

The following is a statistical summary of the work done in the Laboratory during the period (nine months) when the Hospital was receiving patients :
